However, 2020 provided unforeseen challenges to SLED and SLED’s resources. The statewide emergency brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic greatly affected SLED along with the rest of the State and nation. These issues were only compounded by the protests and riots that followed the death of George Floyd on May 25, 2020. These challenges have demonstrated the need for SLED’s continued growth and assistance throughout the State as many local jurisdictions simply do not have the necessary resources.

In addition, SLED coordinated and supported the massive effort of TEAM SC to recover the remains of Naveah Adams, a five year old child who was murdered and dumped in the trash. This recovery effort included the coordination of over 400 individuals from more than 40 agencies around the State, all searching over four million pounds of landfill debris in an effort to locate Naveah’s body to help her family get justice. The TEAM SC coordinated effort was unlike any seen in the history of the State and exemplifies the benefits of cooperation and coordination between law enforcement and all sectors of government.

With regard to SLED’s individual units:

Investigative Services Unit

SLED is committed to continuing to provide quality investigators to handle the ever-increasing amount of criminal investigations SLED conducts throughout the State. While SLED handles some of the most complex and time-consuming cases, SLED strives to conduct thorough and professional criminal investigations as timely as circumstances and resources allow. SLED’s Investigative Services division has four regional offices around the State (located in Columbia, Florence, Greenville, and Walterboro); the Behavioral Sciences Unit; the Polygraph Unit; the Special Victim’s Unit (comprised of Vulnerable Adult Investigations Unit, Child Fatality Investigations Unit, and Forensic Art); the State Grand Jury Investigations Unit; SLED’s Training Unit; and the Vehicle Crimes Unit.

SLED’s regional investigators handle major crimes investigations throughout the state, including officer involved shootings and in-custody death investigations, official misconduct and public corruption cases, criminal sexual conduct cases, financial fraud and theft investigations, and murder investigations. In 2019, SLED investigated 38 officer-involved shooting cases, including 2 that resulted in the death of police officers. SLED’s regional investigators also conduct the majority of the major crimes investigations for many small jurisdictions around the state that simply do not have the resources necessary for such. SLED’s regional agents and supervisors continue to collaborate and coordinate with South Carolina’s various police chiefs, sheriffs, federal law enforcement agencies, and prosecutors in an effort to maintain strong working relationships throughout South Carolina’s criminal justice community.

The Behavioral Sciences Unit conducts threat assessments and analysis of individuals who convey threatening or inappropriate communications by determining the level of dangerousness of individuals and providing interventions to lower the risk of harm. This unit also provides investigative analysis to identify responsible parties or unknown perpetrators based on crime analysis, forensic psychology, and behavioral science.

The Vehicle Crimes Unit investigates drivers’ license fraud, identification fraud, and title violation cases from SCDMV. This unit also provides assistance to local law enforcement on stolen vehicle investigations, chop shop investigations, and vehicle or vehicle part inspections at junkyards, scrap metal processing facilities, salvage yards, repair shops, public garages, and car lots.

Counter-Terrorism Operations Unit

SLED is tasked with the operation of highly specialized, tactical response law enforcement units for counter-terrorism support and assistance for local, state, and federal law enforcement partners and the citizens of the State of South Carolina. In that regard, SLED’s Counter-Terrorism Operations Unit is comprised of SLED’s Arson Investigations Unit, Aviation Unit, Bloodhound Tracking Team, Bomb Squad, Maritime Response Unit, Protective Services and Emergency Management Unit, SWAT Team, and Weapons of Mass Destruction Team.

Since 1994, the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors/Laboratory Accreditation Board (ASCLD/LAB) has accredited the laboratory. Accreditation is maintained through annual internal and periodic external assessments. The laboratory was initially accredited under the Legacy program with reaccreditation granted in 1999, 2004, and 2009. As ASCLD/LAB transitioned to the ISO/IEC:17025 based program, the laboratory underwent assessment and obtained ASCLD/LAB-International Accreditation on September 19, 2014. Reaccreditation was granted in February, 2019 under ANSI-ASQ National Accreditation Board (ANAB).

SLED continues to work in partnership with the Department of Administration during the construction phase of the new Forensic Services Laboratory. Both parties are participating in meetings twice a month with the Architects (LS3P) and Contract Construction since site construction began in February of 2020. Over the past six months the site has been cleared, parking lots defined, and the building foundations have been completed. Contract Construction has erected all the vertical steel and the concrete pours for all three floors is nearing completion. Exterior framing is also occurring on the first two floors. SLED is working with the Department of Administration to put major items out on bid once spending authority for soft costs are granted. The projected completion date is January 2022.

The SLED Computer Crime Center (SC3C) encompasses the preservation, processing, and analysis of evidence in an analog or digital format and is responsible for providing expertise to local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies in the scientific examination, repair (if possible), analysis and/or evaluation of electronically stored information contained on a wide variety of data storage devices. They then examine submitted evidence items to locate and identify probative biological samples. This department was instrumental in the identification of Neveah Adams, a case involving the analysis of over 75 individual items. In addition, this department improved the Sexual Assault Kit packaging design to increase processing efficiency. The goal of this effort is to ensure that samples are packaged in such a manner to facilitate efficient distribution to the relevant departments for testing. This department has and will continue to work to finalize this process by coordinating with all relevant parties submitting this evidence.

The DNA Database Department manages the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) which is a nationwide database containing the DNA profiles of criminal offenders, crime scene evidence, missing persons and their relatives. Over 25,000 assignments are received annually by the Evidence Control Department. In this section, Forensic Technicians retrieve evidence and enter corresponding case information into the Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS).

The Toxicology Department is responsible for the analysis of biological fluids and tissues for the presence or absence of alcohol, drugs, and poisons. The department handles postmortem, driving under the influence (DUI), criminal sexual conduct, and moonshine investigations. This department validated a new blood cannabinoid method that reduces the limit of quantitation to recommended levels. This method eliminated the need for derivatization, which improves safety and efficiency. This unit also completed a new blood and urine opioid validation as well as a new blood cocaine validation, which will each improve efficiency.

The Trace Evidence Department analyzes a variety of evidence. The categories of testing performed in this laboratory are explosives analysis, fiber analysis, fire debris analysis, glass analysis, gunshot primer residue (GSR) analysis, paint analysis, and general physical and chemical analysis.

SCLEAP are full-time professional staff who, along with a statewide cadre of volunteer chaplains, provides 24-hour/7-day per week statewide service for all law enforcement agencies and departments in South Carolina. SCLEAP provides services to over 17,000 sworn officers, non-sworn personnel, and family members of officers at over 260 state and local agencies in South Carolina. This unit received an average of 25 requests for service each month as well as hosting three Post-Critical Incident Seminars (PCIS).

The National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) unit coordinates and cooperates with the FBI, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF), state, and local law enforcement agencies related to NICS information and firearm prohibitions. This unit works to implement the FIX NICS Act and South Carolina’s state implementation plan for such. NICS is a national, name-based system utilized by federal firearm licensees to check available records on individuals who may be prohibited from owning, purchasing, or possessing firearms in accordance with federal or state law. This unit works with the probate courts and other law enforcement agencies to ensure all information provided to NICS is current and accurate.

This unit also provides regulatory oversight for private investigation businesses, contract security businesses, proprietary security business licenses, and registration certificates related to such. The unit also regulates and oversees South Carolina State Constables.

In addition, this unit manages and regulates the South Carolina CWP Program to ensure compliance with all state and federal laws. This unit also oversees CWP instructor training and qualifications to ensure that South Carolina’s CWP program remains the “Gold Standard”.

South Carolina Critical Infrastructure Cybersecurity Program

The South Carolina Critical Infrastructure Cybersecurity Program’s (SC CIC) mission is to serve local government and critical infrastructure/key resources (CIKR) by enhancing the cybersecurity posture throughout the State of South Carolina. These efforts enhance and strengthen information technology and criminal justice information systems to improve services and to increase security.

The Information Security Unit implemented consistent server vulnerability testing which resulted in an improved operating system patch application that has decreased attack vector and vulnerabilities on critical servers. Additionally, enhanced logging of server and workstations has resulted in improved incident response and forensic capabilities, thus reducing the response time following a cyber-event.

The Governance, Risk and Compliance (GRC) team created an enhanced training class for local agency security officers. The GRC team also integrated open source software to facilitate, track, and manage local agency audits. The Information Security Unit and GRC team have participated in training programs and attained numerous certifications this fiscal year that position the Unit to respond effectively to cybersecurity events.

The SLED Cyber Monitoring Program, referred to as South Carolina Security Initiative Operations (SCSIOPS), mission is to serve as a central resource for cyber situational awareness and provide program partners with a voluntary no-cost Intrusion Detection System (IDS). It is the goal of this unit to provide CIKR participants with near real-time automated identification and alerting on traditional and advanced threats to a network using statewide monitoring and analysis.

The SC CIC program now has over 120 cyber liaison officers representing all 16 CIKR sectors. Additionally, the SC CIC monitoring/detect capability has nearly 80 CIKR participants including 26 local elections infrastructure networks. The SC CIC program and task force has responded to 8 significant cyber events in the state, saving county government hundreds of thousands of dollars in cyber response and remediation costs.

Challenges:

SLED’s primary challenge is the need for additional manpower and resources to meet the ever expanding need for SLED’s services throughout the state of South Carolina.

Risk Assessment and Mitigation Strategies:

The safety, integrity, and security of statewide public resources, infrastructure, data, and citizens in South Carolina would be adversely affected if SLED were not provided the necessary manpower and resources to meet the ever-growing law enforcement and public safety needs in South Carolina.
