AGENCY'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

USC Upstate Agency's Discussion and Analysis

As USC Upstate enters the fifth year of implementation of our Strategic Plan, the leadership team continues its campus-wide assessment of resources, processes, and outcomes. Despite an enrollment drop that began during the pandemic, these efforts are yielding continual improvements that are benefiting students, faculty, staff, and the Upstate communities we serve.

Dr. Bennie L. Harris led USC Upstate in 2021-2022 in his first year as Chancellor. Chancellor Harris remained committed to focusing on the university's strategic priorities and responding to the changing needs of students, employees, and community. Under the leadership of Dr. Harris, USC Upstate has continued to move forward.

The 2018-2023 Strategic Plan Up. Together identifies three strategic priorities in creating transformative opportunities for students, employees, and the community at large:

- Priority 1: Providing Rigorous, Career Relevant, and Accessible Education
- Priority 2: Enhancing the Quality of Life in Upstate South Carolina
- Priority 3: Being the University of Choice for Faculty and Staff, Students, and the Community

These priorities guide improvements at USC Upstate, as we stay focused on associated goals and core metrics related to student success, academic excellence, community engagement, and institutional effectiveness.

Risk and Mitigation Strategies. USC Upstate has experienced enrollment challenges stemming from the pandemic and related local factors such as Spartanburg Community College offering free tuition. Enrollment dropped 10% over the previous year causing a shortfall in the reoccurring budget. One-time funds were used to cover these costs while strategies were implemented to increase enrollment, cut reoccurring costs, and realign the budget.

- A campus Enrollment and Retention Summit was held in fall 2021 followed by campus-wide retention mini-grants.
- Additional resources were put into enrollment and marketing including partnerships with EAB and Ology.
- Preparations were made for joining the National Student Success Initiative for 2022-2023 to help identify and address obstacles impeding retention and graduation.
- Non-essential positions were frozen when staff and faculty openings occurred.
- An institutional program review was completed in spring 2022 with the help of a consultant from AASCU resulting in a number of recommendations including faculty reductions through voluntary attrition in specific departments.
- A Voluntary Incentive Plan was developed to be offered in 2022-2023.

New Initiatives. In addition to initiatives that responded directly to these challenges, additional new and developing initiatives at USC Upstate are helping to realize our strategic priorities, included the following:

Priority 1: Providing Rigorous, Career Relevant and Accessible Education

- The George Dean Johnson, Jr. College of Business and Economics created an online option for the MS. In Business Analytics and moved all undergraduate programs from concentrations to majors.
- The B.A. in Biology was approved by CHE.
- The Child Advocacy Studies Post-baccalaureate certificate was transitioned to online delivery.
- The M.S. in Exercise Science was approved by SACSCOC and is beginning in fall 2022.
- The B.S. in Health Information Management was approved.
- The Doctorate in Nursing Practice passed faculty senate and was sent to CHE.
- For the second year, ER(Up)T Faculty Fellows mentored students in an 8-week summer program in biomedically-related research funded by the National Institute of Health (NIH).
- Faculty participate in the USC Upstate Open Educational Resources and Affordable Resources initiative resulting in significant savings in course material costs for students.
- USC Upstate's Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP), Professional and Career Growth Initiative: Moving Up, was approved by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC).

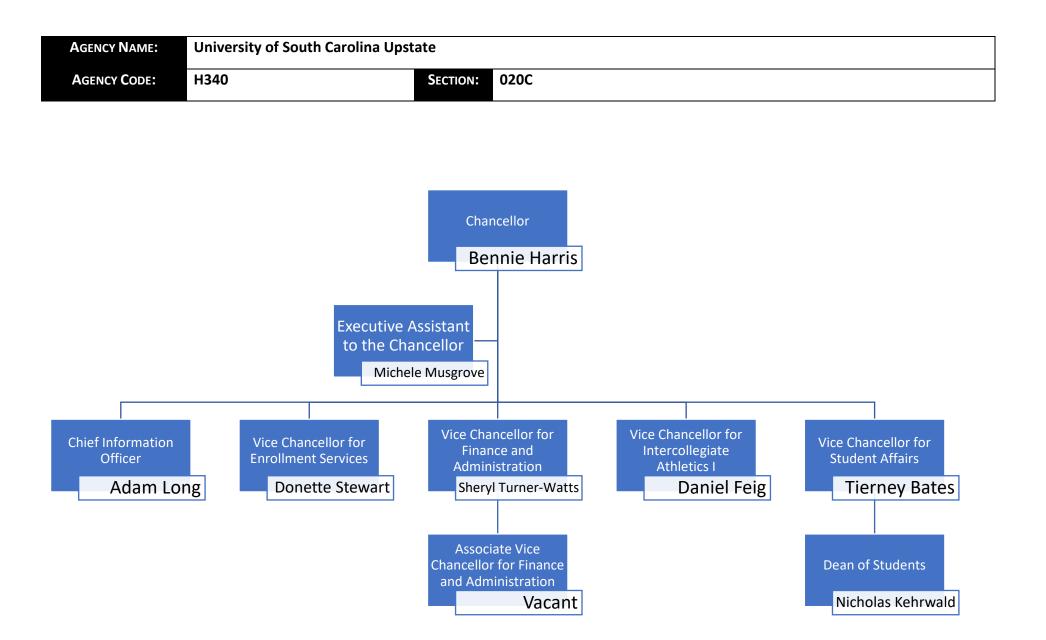

Priority 2: Enhancing the Quality of Life in Upstate South Carolina

- Prisma Health provided a $1.3M gift to USC Upstate Mary Black College of Nursing (MBCON) to support nursing education and workforce development.
- A new Upstate Crime Analysis Center (UCAC) opened in Greenville.
- Faculty led a summer workshop for K-12 teachers on the mill history of the Upstate, Fabric of the Past, supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH).

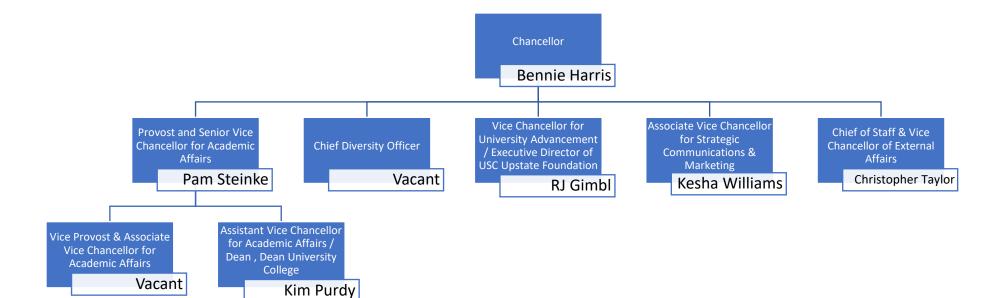

Priority 3: Being the University of Choice for Faculty and Staff, Students, and the Community

- The USC Upstate on-site SACSCOC reaccreditation visit was conducted in March 2022 resulting in zero recommendations.
- Searches were conducted for key leadership positions resulting in new hires in each of the following positions: Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs; Associate Vice Chancellor for Strategic Marketing and Communication; Vice Chancellor for Advancement; Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs; and Dean of the College of Education, Human Performance, and Health.
