Fiscal Impact Summary

Most agencies contacted indicate that expenses for their members of the council will be managed within the budgets of their respective agencies. Therefore, for these agencies, the bill does not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds. However, a final expenditure impact determination is pending, contingent upon a response by the Department of Commerce.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 10, 2017

State Expenditure

This bill adds Section 59-59-175 to create the South Carolina Education and Economic Development Coordinating Council (council). The council is comprised of twenty-nine members. Initial appointments must be made by October 1, 2017. The council's responsibilities include advising the Department of Education and the Department of Commerce, reviewing accountability and performance measures, and reporting annually by December first on the provisions of Chapter 59 of Title 59 to specifically include progress toward career pathways and its ability to provide a better prepared workforce. The council shall also make recommendations on a communication and marketing plan to the Department of Education and Department of Commerce and provide input on the promulgation of regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Personnel from the Department of Education and the Department of Commerce shall staff the council.

The Department of Education, Commission on Higher Education, Department of Employment and Workforce, Education Oversight Committee, and First Steps. These agencies indicate that expenses for their members of the council will be managed within the budgets of their respective agencies. Therefore, for these agencies, the bill does not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds.

The House of Representatives and the Senate. Both agencies stated that their council members would be paid subsistence, per diem, and mileage for any meeting held on non-session days. The expenditure would be subsistence of $195.53 and per diem of $35.00 per day plus mileage per member for each meeting held on non-session days. These expenditures would be managed within their existing budgets.

Department of Commerce. The expenditure impact of this bill on the Department of Commerce is pending, contingent upon a response from the agency.
