Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 18, 2017

State Expenditure

House Bill 3508 allows public school districts to set August 17, 2017 as the opening date of the 2017-2018 school year rather than the third Monday in August. The Department of Education indicates the bill does not operationally or fiscally impact the department or local school districts. Therefore, the bill does not have an expenditure or revenue impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds.
