Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 10, 2017

State Expenditure

This bill relates to traffic regulation and provides that the Department of Public Safety may issue a civil penalty citation to the registered owner of a vehicle who has unlawfully met or overtaken a school bus. The first civil penalty citation may not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, and each subsequent civil penalty citation may not exceed five hundred dollars. The registered owner of the vehicle will not be responsible for payment of the civil penalty provided that, within thirty days after receiving notice of the citation, he provides the magistrate court in the county where the violation occurred with either an affidavit containing the name and address of the person or company having custody or control of the vehicle at the time of the violation, or an affidavit stating that the vehicle was stolen at the time of the violation, evidence that the vehicle was insured at the time of the violation, and a police report confirming that the vehicle was stolen. The registered owner of a vehicle who receives a civil penalty citation under these provisions will not receive points for violations. Civil penalty citations must be sent to owners of registered vehicles via first-class mail and include information on how the citation can be appealed.
