

SOUTH CAROLINA REVENUE AND FISCAL AFFAIRS OFFICE
STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT
(803)734-0640 • RFA.SC.GOV/IMPACTS

Bill Number:	H. 3029	Amended by the House of Representatives on March 5, 2019
Author:	Fry
Subject:	Executive Committee
Requestor:	Senate Judiciary
RFA Analyst(s):	Miller
Impact Date:	June 25, 2019

Fiscal Impact Summary

This amended bill would have no impact to the State Election Commission (SEC) because it would continue to reimburse the political parties for the court reporter and transcript hearings, whether the hearings are held at the county level or the state level.

This amended bill would have no expenditure savings impact on counties because the political parties pay for the county executive committees' hearings.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Amended by House of Representatives on March 5, 2019

State Expenditure

This amended bill eliminates the county executive committees and gives the state executive committee the authority to hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections.

Currently, the county executive committees hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections. Both the county executive committees and the state executive committee hearings are paid for by the political parties. The SEC reimburses the political parties for the court reporters and transcript hearings at both the county and state level. The SEC will continue to reimburse the political parties for the court reporters and transcript hearings at the state level. Therefore, this bill will have no impact on the SEC.

State Revenue

N/A

Local Expenditure

This amended bill eliminates the county executive committees and gives the state executive committee the authority to hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections.

Currently, the county executive committees hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections. Both the county executive committees and the state executive committee hearings are paid for by the political parties. Therefore, this bill would not have an expenditure savings impact for counties.

Local Revenue

N/A

Introduced on January 8, 2019State Expenditure

This bill eliminates the county executive committees and gives the state executive committee the authority to hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections.

Currently, the county executive committees hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections. Both the county executive committees and the state executive committee hearings are paid for by the political parties. The SEC reimburses the political parties for the court reporters and transcript hearings at both the county and state level. The SEC will continue to reimburse the political parties for the court reporters and transcript hearings at the state level. Therefore, this bill will have no impact on the SEC.

State Revenue

N/A

Local Expenditure

This bill eliminates the county executive committees and gives the state executive committee the authority to hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections.

Currently, the county executive committees hear and decide protests and contests arising from local primary elections. Both the county executive committees and the state executive committee hearings are paid for by the political parties. Therefore, this bill would not have an expenditure savings impact for counties.

Local Revenue

N/A

Frank A. Rainwater, Executive Director