MR. POULOS: No, I'm not saying that. I'm just saying that our -- that we go through a background -- I mean, we've filled out paperwork. We've -- we're sitting here answering questions today. And, you know, I could -- if I was a student at USC, I could go run for the president and become the president, and then just all of a sudden, I've got a vote just like 18 or 19 other people have that are on the board -- or 16 basically.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And is there anything in your work that would preclude you from being a regular attendee at regularly scheduled board meetings?

MR. POULOS: No, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you, Mr. Poulos, for offering to serve. I have a couple of questions.

Have you served on any other boards?

MR. POULOS: I have not. I was approached to serve on a couple of other boards. The timing wasn't right, so I had to decline those.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And have you had the opportunity to see or review the AGB report that has been referred to here today?

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. POULOS: I think I've seen the condensed version of it.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And you talk about tuition, that it's around $27,000 a year. I guess that $27,000 would be the total --

MR. POULOS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: -- cost of tuition, room --

MR. POULOS: Housing, meals, books, and supplies. That was the total.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Okay. And my final question, ways to improve the school, tuition, scholarships, facilities, housing. Sports teams?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Easy. Easy.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: What's the desire of the committee?

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Favorable.

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: The motion is favorable report. Seconded. Any other discussion? Hearing none, raise your right hand.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And Ms. Davis.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Plus Ms. Davis. Unanimous.

Thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. POULOS: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Next, we have the 15th Judicial Circuit. We have two candidates. Members, let's take a quick break. Please, three minutes.

(A recess transpired.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: We'll go ahead and get started. Back to order. 15th Judicial Circuit, under Tab Q, Egerton Burroughs from Conway.

How do you do, sir? I appreciate your patience for the day.

MR. BURROUGHS: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, if you would, give us your full name.

MR. BURROUGHS: James Egerton Burroughs.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. BURROUGHS: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to give us a brief statement?

MR. BURROUGHS: Thank y'all for what you're doing and the length of time you've been at it today. I appreciate the opportunity of being here before you.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

My name is Egerton Burroughs, as I said. I'm from Conway, South Carolina, originally. I live in Myrtle Beach now. I attended the University of South Carolina graduate school after I left the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee, for my undergraduate work.

When my father got ill in Conway, I left graduate school and went to work in the family business and basically have been there ever since. I started out at the Jerry Cox Company, a retail store, and went with Burroughs and Collins, Myrtle Beach Farms, and what's now Burroughs and Chapin Company.

I retired about seven years ago, and I'm in good health. My hearing is a little bad, and I wear hearing aids, but I am in good health, and I have the time to put into the job as a trustee.

I've been a trustee for 11 years, and the board -- the different committees that I've served on have been the housing committee -- building and grounds as we call it -- student liaison affairs, the medical committee. The one committee I've stayed on the whole time and was chair of for four years was the audit committee, and I'm still on that committee today.

But that's kind of where we are, where my experience with the school is.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you, sir.

Questions, comments?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Mr. Burroughs, thank you for enduring a long afternoon here and for your service.

I want to talk to you about -- you've been a member of this board for a period of time --

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: -- 12 years now, and you've seen a lot of things happen. But let's just go back within the last two years and the events that transpired that precipitated SACS becoming involved and then apparently the U of SC board determining that AGB needs to come in and conduct a session with you in a retreat.

Insofar as all of that is concerned, give me your view of where governance is at the university and the direction in which it should go.

MR. BURROUGHS: The governance procedures that I'm used to in a corporate environment would pertain to how the committees run, the board room runs, how it's organized, along with the ethics and different parts.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

We have one committee on our board now that has a charter, a work matrix, that does self-evaluations. It functions very well. Hopefully, with our new committee that we formed, governance committee, we'll put that in effect for the other committees. Hopefully, in that process, we might reduce the total number of committees down.

But I think our board is serious about addressing governance and changing our procedures to be a more effective board. Each committee needs a work matrix, a charter, duties, and a system of covering the business of the university in an organized way. I think we're getting closer to that. I think what's going on now will be very helpful to the university.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: I guess what's shocking to me is, you know, when I look at you and other members of that board of trustees and the background that you have, why did it take so long to recognize that there was problem with governance?

MR. BURROUGHS: The board room procedures -- and as I call them -- have been there for a long time. It's just a system that was there.

And we are trying to change that now. Like I said, I put in the -- when I was chair of the committee, we put in a charter, the work matrix, and we tried to get other committees to do it, and I think they're going to do it now.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: You point out that USC's biggest weaknesses -- and there are five of them: proper financial reporting, lack of board and administrative governance procedures, too much emphasis on the main campus, need to cut operating costs, and a lack of skill set diversity on the board.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: That's a lot of -- that's a lot of stuff there to have weaknesses in.

MR. BURROUGHS: Well, I truthfully answered the -- and I feel that way.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: How do you fix it?

MR. BURROUGHS: Well, one thing we are working on is the governance procedures, and some of us have tried, and I think that will happen now. We had that two-day retreat, an open retreat, and we've got ourselves kicked around and knocked up and for a good reason. We deserved it. Hopefully that will help us do better with the governance part.

Somebody -- I forget who it is. I think Leah mentioned earlier and maybe Rose also. There's something called the new budget model, and there's been a group of us working for years to get that into effect. We are very close to getting that installed. It has been a painful process because it's something different.

And it will give us, for the first time, very clear, easily understood financials on each unit. In the university system, we call a unit -- if it's in the Columbia campus, it will be the law school, the athletic department, and then the satellite campuses are units.

But these new financial statements, the procedure, the new budget model will give each trustee a lot better understanding, quickly, on a regular basis as to the costs, the costs of operating the different units, the administrative costs, and where the income comes from. And I think it's very positive, but it's taken a while to get it there.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for the promotion, Senator. Thank you for the promotion.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: What did I say?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Senator.

SENATOR VERDIN: It's been a long day, Mr. President.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: He stands corrected.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Yeah, I -- I take that back.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have a question for you.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: You said lack of skill --

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I should have said Representative Hill.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Oh.

Lack of skill set diversity on the board.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So I think that you are saying to this committee and to the House of Representatives that we need to start looking at the skill set and diversity -- the skill set diversity as we're selecting board members.

Am I reading that correctly?

MR. BURROUGHS: You're right on target, sir.

Can I offer a suggestion?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Yes, sir.

MR. BURROUGHS: Unless the procedures are changed on how the trustees are selected, even if there's a new district setup, I think the face of the trustees are going to be predominantly white old men because of the system that's out there.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

I offer this suggestion. If we, as part of our governance system, have a governance committee, which every college and university hopefully has something like that, they would study the board makeup and the composition of the skill sets needed.

And when a vacancy was going to occur, they would recommend -- this committee, not the board of trustees -- to y'all, some committee or group in the House or Senate, however y'all did it, that -- let's say in the district I'm in, District 15, Burroughs is retiring, sick, dying, whatever, and we've looked at the skill sets; we need an engineer, an architect, a builder, whatever.

And y'all put out in that district that we need an engineer, whatever y'all decide on and pick, and people from the district could apply to y'all directly if they were an engineer or architect, whatever was needed. Then y'all would look at the folks and pick them out, and it would give people of all walks of life, all different professions, a chance to come up and see y'all and present yourself.

At the same time, it would fill that need on the board for a builder, architect, engineer, or whatever. It's just a suggestion that I have.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay. My last question, and I appreciate your candid and honest -- honesty. How did you vote on the presidential --

MR. BURROUGHS: I voted for Caslen. I looked at all the candidates. I studied them. I interviewed them. And what I thought we needed at that point in time for the university was somebody that can help tighten up the expense, the operating cost of the university, and I felt in my heart of hearts that that person would probably do that better than most.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Can I -- let me make one statement --

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- and make it very clear. My questioning today in reference to how a person or how a member of the board voted for the president is no reflection on saying that I disagree --

MR. BURROUGHS: I understand.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- with who is the president.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I think my issue is the process.

MR. BURROUGHS: The process --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So I want to be -- and I just want to be very clear.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir. The process did not go well. It was bumpy. It was -- it was not pleasant to be there when it happened. I know it was not pleasant on the outside. It was handled poorly, and this whole board is to blame for it.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

We had the votes to get him in to start with, and it was very close, and I think had it been pushed and brought to a conclusion, none of this would have happened. But it turned out to be a mess.

SENATOR SCOTT: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Burroughs, for your willingness to serve. And as I look here at your resume, finance, banker, and real estate.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Kind of similar to -- but you're just more expanded than mine. And a little background on me, by the time I was 21, I was in the real estate business.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: At 26, I was a broker; 28, I owned a mortgage company, one of the few in the South, whole entire Southeast.

You of all understand the struggle of those industries. It was a long time, and now it's coming back to really hurt us in South Carolina, how long it took for us to work together in the real estate industry. So now those -- because of that, our rural communities don't have the infrastructure that we could have put together --

MR. BURROUGHS: That's for sure. That's correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- during those bad times. And because there was not an open-door policy till '84, '86 with the filing of legislation forcing fair lending practices, it's come back to bite us.

And so I'm just concerned that some of what I'm watching at the university -- and you've got the experience, and you've seen it happen over and over again because of the industry. What are you doing to try to prevent it from hurting us as we continue to recruit some of the best students in this country so that at some point, because of our lack of diversity or inability to adapt, to make culture changes, and now simply because on the educational side, these young folk are going back home after we educate them, and so we've got a shortage of teachers, shortage of everything --

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- and you're the flagship university who has the experience and knowledge and have seen this happen over and over again, and I'm pretty sure there are some things that, if you had to do over again, you would do it differently.

MR. BURROUGHS: Absolutely.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR SCOTT: And so what is there that you are offering with all that experience to help make some of those major changes to bring about that diversity? Because, listen, it's not about one segment of the population.

MR. BURROUGHS: No.

SENATOR SCOTT: It's about the state as a whole. And for some reason, they're not getting it. They just -- and from some of what I heard today on either side, they're not getting it, to understand if we don't do better in this state, we're going to watch the same thing that we've watched happen. These folk don't have to come here.

MR. BURROUGHS: That's correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: And at some point, they'll start going someplace else simply because we don't get it. You cannot be the flagship and not be the one that's moving in the right direction so that people feel comfortable, even those out-of-state people that come in, they train, they go back out when they really see what's going on.

So what's your long-term plan, as someone who's coming out of the business industry who's seen this thing over and over again, to try to help fix this problem with diversity?

MR. BURROUGHS: Well, one of the things that I do on the board is I don't mind voting no. I voted against a new campus because of the cost of it, and I just don't think we need to be in that big, new dormitory campus if we don't operate things well. So I voted against it. So I don't mind saying what I think.

The university has got to work on cutting its cost of operations to try to get the tuition down, and that's just something we have to address and cut our costs just like y'all have to manage your homes, businesses, or whatever. We should be better stewards of how we spend the money. And I think these new financial statements will help us with that.

As far as the amount of students, minority students, and diversity of students in the Columbia campus, the systems that the flagship universities are rated under in U.S. News and World Report -- and a lot of the colleges and universities pay a lot of attention to the ratings. A lot of the rating is based on your SAT scores of your incoming freshman class. That's why a lot of the universities have Bridge programs where they can come in and bring that student in the next semester that don't have those kind of grades.

So until we change that and say to ourselves do we want to lose some of the national rankings, to lower the SATs, it's going to be very hard to change things.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

One way to change them could be trying to recruit the students that maybe wouldn't apply with the higher -- with some type of financial assistance. Now, that's something that came straight out of the mouth of President Caslen. And for what it's worth, as soon as he got here and started talking to the board, he's talked more about diversity with the students and the faculty and administration than anybody I've heard in a while, so I think he's on the right track.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

Thank you, Chairman.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you. Just briefly.

And good afternoon, sir. I just want -- a couple of things here. Under here, does the -- does the university need to attract more students? You say, We need to cap our enrollment in Columbia.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Is the current number -- or what number does that need to be?

MR. BURROUGHS: And I'm the odd person on the board. We keep building this campus up. I think we've got to attract more capital, human capital and money capital, in the satellite campuses. We've put a lot in here.

The other part of it is, in higher ed, there's going to be less students around this country coming to college over the next 10, 15 years. That's just a fact. And we need to size Columbia and take care of it and prepare for less people and build up the other campuses, and the only way to do it that I see is to cap it. And, again, that's me speaking.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: So I've heard earlier testimony this afternoon, those that have said about restructuring -- you know, they point to the satellite campuses.

But yet I think I'm hearing you in your comments this afternoon that you're the lone person that's looking at those satellite campuses, that most of them are focusing on growth at the -- at the main campus here.

MR. BURROUGHS: I think most people's attention is caring for the whole system. But when you sit in there, Columbia is the flagship, and I'm just saying it's time to focus out on the satellites and to cap it because every time you bring in more students to Sumter or here, you've got to build more labs, more dormitories, more whatever to accommodate the increasing load.

And if you are used to the revenue coming in from the tuition and that thing cuts -- starts going down and you've got your bond indebtedness and everything geared up to a certain level, you get into trouble. It goes back to the cycles. I just think it's something we all need to look at very seriously not only with USC, but all schools will be facing the same thing.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir. And let me respond -- get you to respond as far as my consistency on sitting on the board, either the student government president or a faculty representative.

MR. BURROUGHS: All right, sir. I think that the student president -- and this year, we have Luke Rankin, and he's done a great job -- and the faculty person, they are sitting in the board room.

But when we go into executive session, they don't know what's said. And so they're sitting on a board that they don't understand everything that's going on, and I think sometimes because they don't understand what happens in executive session, it causes trouble, say, sometimes between the board and faculty or students. There's a misunderstanding.

I think had they been in the executive sessions when we went through the president struggles and all that, it might have been different. There would have been better understanding of what really went on.

So to answer the question, I think they should be in the executive sessions, and if that's something that they're required to be full voting members, then that's something the legislature's got to approve. But even if they don't vote, I think they should be in there so they hear what goes on.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir. And what is your -- what is your attendance record at regularly scheduled meetings?

MR. BURROUGHS: My attendance record is pretty good, and I think not the best --

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Is that 80 -- is that 80 percent, 70 percent?

MR. BURROUGHS: Oh, I'd say it's 90-something.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: 90-something percent.

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir. In person?

MR. BURROUGHS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you, sir.

MR. BURROUGHS: And just to -- if we ever get our governance and nominating committee in, they should keep records and send to y'all on our attendance. That should go in to y'all directly from the university.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: What's the desire of the committee?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Motion favorable.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Second.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any other discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Burroughs.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: As the proxy for Representative King, favorable.

MR. BURROUGHS: I want to -- I want to thank y'all so much.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

Morgan Martin has notified us that has withdrawn his name from consideration. Now our last candidate for the day, Jasper Ramsey from Myrtle Beach.

MR. RAMSEY: Thank you, Senator Peeler and members of the committee.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you. For the record, give us your full name.

MR. RAMSEY: Jasper N. Ramsey, Jr.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. RAMSEY: I do. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MR. RAMSEY: Yes, I would like to just speak briefly. I know it's very, very late. By the way, thank you all for bearing with me here.

I -- the University of South Carolina means everything to me and my family. I have observed the tremendous growth and improvement in the past ten years at the university under President Pastides' leadership within the quality of education provided to the students and in its role as a leading economic engine to the -- to the people of this state.

Events of the last year have shown me that I can no longer sit on the sidelines and watch this progress increasingly at risk. I want to state there is no other position on any state board that would be of interest to me whatsoever. My sole purpose is to give back to my alma mater so she may offer the same benefits to future students that she's provided to me and to my daughter, who just graduated in May magna cum laude from the university.

My background is a little bit different from most of the other people with whom you've spoken. I'm neither a banker nor a lawyer nor a trust fund baby. I'm a manager at a Chick-fil-a. I make $35,000 a year. I have a background of owning and operating my own businesses. I operated hotels in Myrtle Beach, my own restaurant. I've spent time in professional baseball and in various and sundry sales positions.

So I come with a very different perspective than what most of the members and candidates of the board have. And in no way belittling what they bring to the table, but I do bring somewhat of a fresh perspective.

I joked that, to a few friends to whom I've mentioned my candidacy, that the legislature -- the General Assembly has a reputation of choosing old, white, wealthy males. I'm totally different. I'm an old, white, poor male. So a little bit different there. But I say that being facetious, but to make a point. I come from a different point of view.

The university -- I became a Gamecock at the age of seven years old listening to a man named Bob Fulton broadcast basketball games on the radio for teams coached by a man named Frank McGuire. And I fell in love with the university there. I went to Coach McGuire's camps in the early '70s.

Senator Scott and I had a brief conversation talking about SAT scores. Largely because of SAT scores, I managed somehow, despite mediocre grades in high school, to be offered -- to be named a Furman Scholar and a Wofford Scholar. I turned both of those down because there was no other place I could imagine going but to USC.

There, I met wonderful professors, made great friends. It's the centerpiece of my life. I was married at Rutledge Chapel on the Horseshoe. I raised my youngest daughter to be a Gamecock, and, again, it prepared her wonderfully. She was editor of the -- editor in chief of The Daily Gamecock and is now off to a great start professionally.

Again, I know firsthand what the University of South Carolina can do for people in this state, and I really -- I want to make a point that I am in no way, shape, or form a protest candidate. I have a positive agenda that I wish to push forward to help breed a collegial atmosphere on the board of trustees. However, there's a point where you simply have to -- you simply have to step forward and do something.

I have nothing in the world against President Caslen. It seems he's a tremendously accomplished man. I've been pleased with what I've seen of what he's done as our president so far, and on the board I will certainly -- as long as he continues that, no one will be a bigger supporter than I.

Having said that, the process was simply horrible, as some of you have been kind enough to comment. The board of trustees set out a set of rules, it's my understanding, to the search committee for a new president, including, among other things, that that person hold a terminal degree.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

At that point, again, if media reports are correct, although President Caslen was not on the final four list prepared -- I'm assuming simply because he lacked a terminal degree. He certainly seems very qualified in other areas. They placed him on the -- they insisted that he be placed on the -- on the final list.

After things became a mess, the uni -- the searchees, I think, made a very wise decision to bring in the chancellor from USC Spartanburg and basically start over. I think that was a great, great process. And then for some reason, things changed dramatically around the 1st of July, and we've all followed what was involved in that.

And now we're faced with a situation where the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools -- I guess they haven't placed us on -- probation wouldn't be the term, but we're in a very serious situation, and it shook the core of the university to its very, very foundation.

So that's simply just an update on where I stand and why I'm here today. I look forward to answering your questions. I hope you'll give me -- I know it's really late -- at least a brief opportunity to share some of my ideas for the university moving forward.

SENATOR SCOTT: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Ramsey, for your willingness to serve.

MR. RAMSEY: A pleasure.

SENATOR SCOTT: And I'm sorry the time didn't allow for me to listen to where you wanted to go with the SAT, but I said to you when we got in here, I did want to hear --

MR. RAMSEY: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- what your thought process with those SAT scores --

MR. RAMSEY: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- and all that so that we look at the shift. The students are there.

MR. RAMSEY: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: They're just in different locations. So some of your ideas about the SAT scores, I'm open to hear it.

MR. RAMSEY: Well, Senator Scott, let me preface by saying, as a proud Gamecock, I'm awfully proud that we were the first flagship university in the Southeast to integrate way back in 1877. Unfortunately, through the efforts of some folks, that didn't last.

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. RAMSEY: I'm proud that when I was in school at Carolina from '77 to '81, we had by far the highest percentage of African-American students of any flagship university in the ACC/SEC area. And I'm proud that we're in the top three percent nationally in graduating African-American students.

That said -- and I'm proud that the number of African-American students at Carolina has increased. However, that said, given the increase in the university -- in the enrollment in other areas, the percentage has lowered dramatically. It's a concern to me. I know it was a concern to Dr. Pastides.

One of the -- and there are a number of areas that -- obviously, financial issues are one thing. I don't mean to generalize, but many minority students come from families like mine, families of limited means. That's certainly an issue there.

The idea of students starting out at the branch campuses or at the technical colleges and moving to the university are a great way to expand enrollment of limited financial means, be they African-American or otherwise. Absolutely all those things are important.

But the primary things I want to discuss with you -- number one is we all respond when we can see people like ourselves, and the ability for students to walk into the classroom, to attend board meetings, et cetera, and see people -- see a diverse group of people.

But as far as the SAT scores go, as I mentioned, I managed to get a Furman scholarship and a Wofford scholarship despite B grades because I scored great on the SAT. They're not perfect, and we all know that one of the big issues with them is they do tend to -- for whatever reasons, African Americans and minorities tend to score lower on SATs of similar academic achievement in high school.

One of the things I've heard here is the idea that, well, we know this is a problem, we need to do something about it, et cetera, et cetera, et cetera. I can't change this. I'm one person. It should be very much a part of our ongoing dialogue with our new provost.

But just let me mention some facts, okay, and this is a quick and dirty search of the Internet. There are a number of very prominent universities in this country -- New York University, Wake Forest, UT Austin, Arizona State, Cornell, the Ivy League, American University, George Washington, and many, many other fine schools, still a minority of schools -- that have eliminated the SAT/ACT altogether in their -- in their making their choices for students.

I mean, these are tremendous, quality universities ranging from Ivy League schools to small, to large colleges, to major flagship universities, and we need to have a dialogue about that. That's the thing I wanted to get with you in detail. The idea that this is some nebulous thing that might or might not work -- this is a trend in higher education, and it's time for the USC board to explore it in a serious manner. And, again, we wouldn't exactly be trailblazers.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

Does that make sense?

SENATOR SCOTT: That makes sense.

MR. RAMSEY: Thank you, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: So what would you do to -- outside of the SAT, the elimination of SATs, or even what you mentioned earlier, that these kids are going to the outlying campus -- but they're not coming back to the main campus.

MR. RAMSEY: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Very, very few, because once you establish yourself on a campus after your freshman year, you get involved in sororities, fraternities, and moving up to hold office, and you don't move.

MR. RAMSEY: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: And so that's a great thing to tell a student, you're going to move to these other campuses, but you're not. If you're in Spartanburg, you're not going to come back to Columbia. I mean, it's just too much of a change --

MR. RAMSEY: Sure.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- when you've already adapted.

So what do you -- what's your recommendation? These schools have the numbers.

MR. RAMSEY: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: But they've got the numbers spread out, and for some reason, one particular campus is the one we're protecting.

MR. RAMSEY: Well, again, I think in the interest of being completely open and not in any way attempting to tell you what I think you want to hear --

SENATOR SCOTT: Oh, no. Tell the truth.

MR. RAMSEY: -- part of the percentage change is based on -- it's my understanding that Dr. Pastides and the administration made a decision back in '07/'08 when the economic collapse occurred to keep the university up and going, to reach out to out-of-state students with good academic profiles who'd come in and pay a full load and help cover the tuition for in-state students, which I once was and my daughter was. So that skewed it over somewhat.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

And the things that you're hearing about the change in the way the federal government decides what one's racial ethnicity is, I'm sure that's a fact. These are honest people. But the way it's always worked and the way it's going to continue to work is, when a student who happens to be a person of color visits the university, if that person sees other people who look like them, if that person sees other people who look like them dealing in pleasant social situations with people of other ethnicities -- Caucasian, Asian-American, it doesn't matter at all -- that factors in the decision.

When they walk in to visit a classroom and they see a professor who looks like them with a background perhaps somewhat like them, that's going to make a difference. And if for some reason they should ever wander over to the Pastides Alumni Center and walk into a board meeting -- that's highly unlikely, but nevertheless, those things make a difference.

I am reluctant to be critical of the administration. But when we're -- I know we send people out into the high schools in this state to recruit students. I would hope that we are sending people from a diverse background. There are certainly numerous people of -- of various ethnicities who love Carolina who are capable of going in and doing a great job selling the university.

So I don't want to say that we're not doing that already, but if we aren't, we should. Does that make sense?

SENATOR SCOTT: Yeah, it does. You're doing that. Because the issue's at the intake.

MR. RAMSEY: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: It's not in recruiting. You're doing very well in recruiting. Like I said, I think you're probably recruiting three to one. But at the intake is where you're losing the students who can be progressive and can help you with those numbers.

MR. RAMSEY: Well, and I still think, too, you know, the tuition and the cost of -- the cost of attending college, which has of course expanded -- grown dramatically in the last 10 or 15 years in South Carolina, it affects all of us, but none more so than those of us of modest means, and it is simply a fact that our African-American population is somewhat of more modest means generally.

And going to a branch campus certainly is understandable. If you can stay at home or whatever, eat mama's cooking, it does make a difference.

SENATOR SCOTT: Well, if you look at --

MR. RAMSEY: But that's not --

SENATOR SCOTT: But if you look at tuition --

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. RAMSEY: That's the status quo.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- it's pretty well what most of the schools and somewhat in line -- most of these kids already know, when they get out, they've got bunch of debt, student loan debt.

MR. RAMSEY: I think it's -- the full cost of attendance is a little bit different, but I'm saying --

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

MR. RAMSEY: -- that simply is a fact. We have that. Again, when I was in school at Carolina, '77 to '81 -- I don't want to misspeak, but the African-American -- the percentage of African-American students on campus was 13, 14, 15 percent, by far the highest.

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

MR. RAMSEY: Again, I really think it goes back to people being comfortable. I talked -- in the little questionnaire that y'all gave us, I talked about the ability of people of various ethnicities at USC to be proud to be there and have their individual characteristics and needs addressed --

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

MR. RAMSEY: -- while at the same time feeling to be part of the total Carolina community. And part of that is, as I say, having mentors, people that they can see, teachers, leaders, et cetera, who look like them and come from a background like them.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. RAMSEY: My pleasure.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I'll be brief.

And thank you for being here and for your -- for being here for the majority of the day, the afternoon at least.

You say here that -- under this questionnaire you're referring to that the biggest weakness is the lack of recognition of economic value?

MR. RAMSEY: Well, yes, sir. I wasn't referring specifically to the board. I was talking about the university in general.

When I attended Carolina from '77 to '81, the legislature -- or the taxpayers of South Carolina, through the legislature and Governor Riley, provided about 65 percent of the university's operating income. It's my understanding in around '07 when the economic collapse occurred and everything changed, we were down to about 35 percent. And today, it's my understanding it's about 17 percent for the university altogether --

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Is that a --

MR. RAMSEY: -- about 13 percent for the campus at USC.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

That's what I was referring to. However, my solution isn't to come and browbeat you folks for more and more money, although we'll certainly take it. I was talking about we've got to find innovative ways to support the university and grow the university and keep tuition modest.

My daughter who just graduated from Carolina, she was a great high school student, Senator Alexander. She had multiple scholarships, and she maintained a 3.95 GPA at said USC and worked full-time, at least 30 hours a week, seven of her eight semesters. She still left with $25,000 worth of student debt. And her mother and I -- we're divorced, but we still support her. I want to make that clear. We also have $25,000 worth of debt, and many people have far, far, far more. We've got to get a handle on that.

And things like going after every research scholar that we can at USC, working to -- I guess we've become a member of the Association of American Universities, which opens up all kind of research opportunities. We've got to be looking under every stone in order to find a way to -- to better finance not just South Carolina, but Clemson, MUSC, and all of the other schools too.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay.

MR. RAMSEY: So that's what I was referring to.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you for that response.

MR. RAMSEY: My pleasure.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And then here it says that as far as the students and faculty being represented on the board, you're response to that is...

MR. RAMSEY: Yes, sir. I am 100 percent in favor of a student body representative and a faculty representative being members of the board and being full voting members of the board.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And have you --

MR. RAMSEY: And if I could have a few -- sorry -- to explain that, if I may. I know it's late.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Briefly.

MR. RAMSEY: While I feel that way.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Briefly, yes, sir.

MR. RAMSEY: Thank you.

When I went to school from '77 to '81, I -- I worked since I was 12 years old, and I saved up enough money to put gas in my car and buy beer. My mom wrote a check for $500 each semester for me and paid my way through the university.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

It's not like that anymore. I heard somebody say earlier today -- I don't mean to beat them up, but they made a comment in being negative towards students, a student representative, that when my daughter -- when his daughter was 21, she couldn't balance a checkbook. Okay.

Kids today are paying their way through the university. That's the world we live in. The day of mama and daddy writing the check or the taxpayers providing 65 percent of the university's budget as they did --
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Well, I would clarify that with that -- I don't want to interrupt you -- that's not including scholarship money that's going through the South Carolina Lottery.

MR. RAMSEY: Oh, absolutely, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: So let's clarify that.

MR. RAMSEY: And it's a tremendous -- and it's very, very important.

And by the way, to go back to Senator Scott real quick, if there's any parts of the criteria for scholarships for -- through the lottery, the lottery money, that's causing a negative impact on African-American students earning them who are good students, that's something I would -- I would ask y'all to address.

But to go back -- but to go back, it's simply a fact that that's the world we live in today. Students are paying their way through school, and they're paying the lion's share of -- of the university's budget. And, you know, it's taxation without representation, so to speak, and we fought -- we fought a war about that.

It's also not a unique -- again, it's not a unique concept. I've dug up an article that my daughter wrote last year when she was editor in chief of The Daily Gamecock, and she did some research. In the Southeastern Conference alone -- and these are all schools that are under the SACS governance -- LSU, the University of Florida, the University of Kentucky, and the University of Tennessee have voting student members on their board. East Carolina in the state of North Carolina have voting student members on their board.

Thirty-one of fifty states' flagship universities, according to this article -- and my daughter put a lot of research into it. I trust she's correct. Have voting student members. So it's not a radical concept.

And, again, the reason I am in favor of it is because these students who are in school are the stakeholders. They're -- this isn't just a question of coming on mama and daddy's dime. I mean, it is their -- they're leaving school with enormous -- they are engaged in a way that nobody else is. And, again, it's not a radical concept.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I got you. Thank you.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. RAMSEY: Those other schools manage to somehow get around any conflicts of interest or whatever, and as far as faculty goes, just real quick if I may -- you folks are all very progressive people. You know that the leading corporations today, public corporations, the cutting-edge corporations have put employees on their board in order to get their input. It's the direction that we're going, and there's a place for faculty members.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you. Thank you for your --

MR. RAMSEY: Thank for the opportunity to express my thoughts.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you. Thank you so much.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Mr. Ramsey, I see you're a -- you manage a Chick-fil-a?

MR. RAMSEY: I'm a manager at Chick-fil-a. I'm not the manager. Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Okay. Some of the hardest working people in Gaffney are the people who work in Chick-fil-a.

MR. RAMSEY: It's our pleasure.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Are you on track to become an owner or an operator?

MR. RAMSEY: I don't think so, Senator Peeler. I've spent most of my life working for myself. As I said, I owned a hotel in Myrtle Beach and owned a restaurant myself for ten years. I would never -- I'm sure that Chick-fil-a, being a fine company, would certainly even give someone of my advanced age an opportunity, but frankly my goal is to get back into owning my own business.

But Chick-fil-a has been a wonderful, wonderful experience for me, and I don't want to cut off if there's a question coming, but it's helped me understand something that'll help me to be a better board member. May I share that?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Yeah, go ahead.

MR. RAMSEY: Thank you.

One of the tenets of leadership at Chick-fil-a is what we call servant leadership, the idea that leaders are there to serve our employees and serve our customers. We aren't there to be catered to. And I'm sure there are many members of the USC board who embrace that. But we need a board-wide embracing of that -- of that tenet. It's vital that we have it.

We need what's called an inverted pyramid. At the very top of that pyramid -- versus the traditional pyramid that works like this with the board at the top, then the administration, then the faculty, then the students, at the top are the students. They're at the top of this pyramid.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

This is how we do it at Chick-fil-a. After that come alumni, faculty, and then after that comes staff, then the administration, and finally at the bottom is the board of trustees.

It doesn't mean that we're not, as was mentioned earlier, governing the university from a 30,000-foot-high point of view. But we -- we need -- we all need to embrace that and live that every single day.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: So let me ask you --

MR. RAMSEY: If we do that, then what we've seen over the last year or so at South Carolina, it wouldn't have occurred.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Unless they meet on Sundays --

MR. RAMSEY: That's true.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: -- are you going to be able to get off work to go to meetings?

MR. RAMSEY: That's a great question, and I did speak with my operator about that, by the way, to let her know what I was doing. And even though she, like you, is a Clemson alum, she was fully supportive of it. Yes, absolutely.

That's a -- and I've put a great deal -- as I said, I wrestled really hard with taking this step to throw my hat into the ring. And I've had a conversation with one of your fellow senators -- and didn't ask him for an endorsement. Ms. Martha and Ms. Julie told me you don't do that till you -- till you -- you don't assume anything until you're through this meeting.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: They told you right.

MR. RAMSEY: But I asked a little friend, Luke Rankin, I told him, I said, Luke, I think I'm having a stroke. I'm considering running for the USC board. And I said, Will you please talk me out of it and tell me I'm crazy?

And he looked at me, and he said, Jasper -- he goes, Let me tell you this. Which would make you feel worse, would you feel worse -- and the reason I said it was because I've got to work 50 hours a week. I've got a lot going on. I'm a person of modest means. I think I've lost my mind.

He said, Jasper, which would make you feel worse, if you ran for the board and you lost or if you did not run for the board and things stayed the same?

And I said, Luke, I've known you my whole life. How dare you do that to me.

But I took that advice to heart, and that's why I showed up today.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Favorable.

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: The motion is a favorable report. Any other discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

Thank you, sir.

MR. RAMSEY: Thank you all very, very much.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve.

MR. RAMSEY: It's a pleasure.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: You'd make a good lawyer.

MR. RAMSEY: Thank you, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: They get paid for their words.

MR. RAMSEY: I'm sorry. I -- there's a lot of passion, and thank you for bearing with me, especially at this late hour.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: That's all right.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I'd like to call the meeting to order. This is a meeting of the College and University Trustees Screening Commission. Welcome, everyone. May God continue to bless us all.

You have an agenda before you. First, University of South Carolina, 10th Judicial Circuit. First up, Tab A, Chuck Allen. Good morning, sir.

MR. ALLEN: Good morning.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, if you would, give us your full name.

MR. ALLEN: My full name is Donald Leverette Allen.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. ALLEN: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Good morning to you and other members of the committee or commission. I had previously, under the statute, submitted a written statement of proposed testimony that I submitted last week. Just reading the statute literally, it said that it had to be filed 48 hours prior to the hearing, so I, I did comply with that.

I'd like to read it this morning, Mr. Chairman, if that's okay.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Okay.

MR. ALLEN: It has been an honor and a privilege to serve on the board of trustees of the University of South Carolina, representing Anderson and Oconee County since 2008. Including my representation as a student athlete back in the day, I have now represented this university in some form or fashion for 16 years.

During this time, I have worked diligently and with steadfast commitment to the betterment of this university. I have faithfully attended board meetings, committee meetings, academic functions, administrative events, and commencement ceremonies in all parts of this state. As chairman of the Student and System Affairs Committee, I have also traveled with the president to regional campuses to demonstrate the importance of the mission of each institution and each campus. I have also – during my term of service, I have also served on the Athletics Committee during that time.

During my 12 years of service on the board, we have recently recorded the most secure financial position in recent history of the university. In fiscal year 2019, we recorded a net financial position, which I understand is tantamount to net worth, of one point – billion dollars, with assets of $2.7 billion. The current bond rating is AA for the university and AA for our Athletic Department bonds. And we hope to reach a AAA rating at the next rating call.

Academically, we serve a diverse student body of 35,000 students at the Columbia campus and an additional 17,000 – maybe 17,500 – at the regional campuses. We now have – not by percentage, but by actual number – the most minority students on our campuses that we've had ever.

Currently, our in-state students compromise about 60 percent of the enrollment in Columbia and about 65 percent of the total enrollment in the system, including all eight campuses. However, in the fall – I would like to point out, in the fall of 2019, I am informed that 97 percent of all in-state applicants to Columbia were accepted as either a traditional freshman or a residential bridge program student.

In closing, I would like to emphasize that I have served with an earnest and independent commitment to the best interest of the university without regard to any personal agenda or inappropriate external influences. Of course, I would hope to continue to serve my alma mater in this same spirit.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

Any questions or comments?

SENATOR SCOTT: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

Thank you, Chuck, for your willingness to serve. I want to go back to some of the statistics that you gave just a minute ago, and I see that in all the campuses, you're able to get it right in terms of influx of African-American students, with the exception of the Columbia campus. And I knew you were in the room yesterday; a lot of conversation about SAT scores and which students y'all will allow in the Columbia campus and those who you send to the other campuses.

I've heard all kinds of answers to that problem, with the exception of a broken intake system, and that's why you're 5.3 in terms of African-American participation on your campus; at least that's what Google show for y'all.

MR. ALLEN: I want to make sure –

SENATOR SCOTT: In the tracking system in our Columbia campus. Overall –

MR. ALLEN: Columbia campus.

SENATOR SCOTT: Overall.

MR. ALLEN: Yeah.

SENATOR SCOTT: I'm not concerned about the other campus. Those are just feeder systems. The answer's been that, Well, they'll go to this campus and then transfer, which we know that that doesn't happen. Once you become familiar with a campus, you don't really – that's where you end up staying for your four years.

So, let's talk a little bit about the Columbia campus and what you see that you think that y'all can do to improve percentage of African American – yes, you've expanded. You've got about 34,731 students overall. But your Columbia campus, for some reason – something is going on with that.

I even tracked, you know, the lottery, SAT scores, and the GPAs, and so I know at some of the other campuses, I'm pretty sure that you've got students out there as well that would qualify to come on this campus but have chosen not to. So what do you think is – what do you think is wrong?

MR. ALLEN: Well – and you heard some of this yesterday. I do think, under the new reporting requirements that have been required by the federal government, as far as the number of races a student reports, I do think that skews it a little bit. I know that's not – that's not the whole picture, but I do think that skews the numbers a little bit.

As far as remedy, to do better, and we need to do better. We need to do better. And the figure I see – the most recent figure I saw for the Columbia campus was about 9 percent.

SENATOR SCOTT: That's not 9 percent. That's minority students.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. ALLEN: Well –

SENATOR SCOTT: African-American students.

MR. ALLEN: Well, the one – I saw African American, but I, I won't quibble over that.

SENATOR SCOTT: Yeah.

MR. ALLEN: But we need to do better, and I think we – I think the emphasis and the effort got better under Harris Pastides. He created the – you know, our former president. He created the position of chief diversity officer. That was four or five years ago. That was John Dozier, who, unfortunately, recently left, or is leaving for MIT.

The new president, I think, is doing even better because – with that position because under Harris, or President Pastides, the diversity officer reported to the provost and kind of was down in the chain of command a little bit. Under President Caslen, he has already altered the organizational structure of the administration at the top level of the university and elevated this position. And we've just hired a new candidate for that job. He's coming in on June the 1st, I believe it is.

But that has been elevated to a vice presidential position. So what that means, in terms of emphasis and commitment, is that he will – when he arrives, he will report directly to the president. And the president is very interested, as you heard yesterday, that President Caslen had a very –

SENATOR SCOTT: What is the – Chuck, what is the board interest? I'm hearing about administration. What is the board interest in getting these things moved?

MR. ALLEN: Well –

SENATOR SCOTT: Because if your numbers were not where they needed to be the last five or six years we've been talking about that, and it appears that it's been the administration who has made it the number-one priority, and not the board.

MR. ALLEN: Well –

SENATOR SCOTT: So where's the board interest in making this a number-one priority?

MR. ALLEN: Well, of course, we aren't – you know, we aren't day-to-day operators, and –

SENATOR SCOTT: But you get percentages at your meeting.

MR. ALLEN: I understand.

SENATOR SCOTT: And it becomes a question – and it becomes what direction the board wants to go in if it's a board priority. And let me say this. You cannot continue to recruit some of the number-one companies in the country and not be able to demonstrate where the state is in terms of minority participation. The behavior of the college and university would also help us to curve how well we get along also back in these communities.

And so it's just more than the students coming to our campus and administrators and staff. It's the culture of the state. So unless it's a board priority, to push it back down on the administration – administrations come and go, but board is policy. What's the board policy?

MR. ALLEN: Well, I agree. I agree. It is a matter of policy, and I said earlier, it's a matter of commitment, and it's kind of a matter of culture. You know, there's 20 people on this board of trustees as it's currently constituted, and I can only speak for one.

SENATOR SCOTT: Do you think 20 is too many?

MR. ALLEN: No, no, no. No, not – that issue, I have indicated previously to the Chair. I think I wrote you back in the fall when the bill came up, that's a legislative prerogative. What the Legislature, the General Assembly, the governor – what it chooses to do as far as how we're comprised, what districts we come from, the numbers, and so on, that is a legislative priority. That is – that is not – I am not qualified to make that determination. You gentlemen and ladies are qualified to make that determination.

But I can only speak for one, as I was about to say. And my personal commitment, just by way of example, we appoint – as board members, we appoint members to the Board of Visitors. And this is just an example to address your question. I've had three appointments to the Board of Visitors. I've appointed one female out of those three, and the first African-American male to ever be appointed in the Anderson-Oconee district. That was Moe Brown. You've probably heard of him. He was a student athlete here, and he's from Anderson.

And so that was my personal commitment. I've got a somewhat – a little bit of a record of public service going back to a term in the General Assembly a long time ago, and I think that record would demonstrate a personal commitment to –

SENATOR SCOTT: All I'm saying is that moving forward, and you've got a new president, and it appears from all the comments that I've gotten from other candidates who are running, actually, for this board, he has a commitment. I just want to make sure that same commitment that the president, the board has the same commitment in support of the president and the direction the president wants to go to get it right.

Because I think the numbers are coming in, as demonstrated in the other campuses. There's just one campus – for some reason, you've got a policy, and that policy's prohibiting you to have good numbers for your campus. Thank you.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

Thank you.

MR. ALLEN: You're welcome. I would – let me – can I just say one more quick thing?

SENATOR SCOTT: Yes, please.

MR. ALLEN: I do think – and the president has shared this with us. I do think that cost – I think we have accepted a number of African-American applicants at the Columbia campus, and they don't end up coming here. And he tells us, in his brief experience so far, that cost is an issue in some of those cases.

And I – and we'll, you know – we're going to work to relieve the pressure on tuition. Of course, we would solicit assistance from the General Assembly in that regard, but –

SENATOR SCOTT: Didn't we provide some abatement for out-of-state students to come here?

MR. ALLEN: Well, that's kind of an administrative matter as well.

SENATOR SCOTT: So is the cost to get these kids in here.

MR. ALLEN: Got you.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative King?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. King.

I have a few questions for you. You know – let me see. Let me start off by asking you, how did you vote on the president, the present president?

MR. ALLEN: Could I – I voted no. I voted in the – with the minority. I voted no in the ultimate vote. But I would – could I comment on that?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I think with my next question, you may be able to.

MR. ALLEN: Got it.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Tell me, what did you think about the process? And I want you to be very honest and candid with us. What do you think about the process?

MR. ALLEN: Well, I'm under oath.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Yes, sir.

MR. ALLEN: When, we finally voted in July, you know, the – originally, it was – the intention was to vote in April. And about – I think it was eight to ten weeks passed between that designated date in April and when we did vote in July. But that was the reason, and, in fact, I issued a press release before we voted in July that I was very pleased with General Caslen and was impressed with him in April and was prepared to vote for him that day.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

I was not on the Search Committee. I didn't chair the Search Committee. I was not a member of the Search Committee. So all I could do was cast a vote. And, again, I'm one of 20 people. And I appeared for that meeting in April prepared to cast the vote for General Caslen. That did not happen, as we all – as you all well know. And by the time we voted in July – and, like I say, I issued a press release that would corroborate any and all of this. But we – the process had basically degenerated into a really difficult situation.

And my abiding commitment to the university anytime I cast a vote – and I said this on the record the day we did vote. I said that it was the most difficult vote I had cast in about 11 years on the board, but my allegiance and my fidelity was to the best interest of this university. And at that time, for whatever reason – there were a number of reasons. I mean, we, we were – it was donors, alumni, and we have a lot of constituencies that we've got to balance, and sometimes, there's cross-currents, and that almost turned into a vortex.

But at that point in time, using the standard of the best interest of the university, the process had degenerated to the point – was the reason I voted no and the only reason I voted no that day. If that answers your question.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And my last question to you, Senator Scott spoke with you a little bit about minority participation, minorities being at the school.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And since I've been on this committee, we hear the same thing over and over and over again in reference to, Oh, well, we understand.

But I guess my question to you is, what are you doing about it? This is not something new that you all have heard, that there is a lack of African-American presence in your enrollment there. You all hear this, not only through screening, but from us all the time. I'm not asking what the president has done, not asking what other board members have done. I'm asking what you will do and what you have done.

MR. ALLEN: Well, once again, I've, I've advocated, you know, that point of view – really, I'm 60 years old – my entire lifetime, and I do have a record out there, a public record, you know, that demonstrates, like I – and I said earlier, confirms, you know, that commitment.

As far as the future, I would – I would pledge and commit to work with President Caslen in whatever capacity I could assist him in formulating more policy, taking more action, and doing what I can to assist him because I do believe – and he's got a record, you know. When he was the superintendent at West Point, I mean, he made a substantial difference in some of the measurables of that issue. And I pledge to work with him, and I've told him that as much. I told him that I – and even in the system affairs process, I've told him that, you know – and we deal with – and there – the numbers are better on the regional campuses. But I'm committed to assist him.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Thank you for being here, Mr. Allen, and your service to the U of SC board. You were here yesterday afternoon and heard questions that we asked, responses that your fellow board members made, and one thing that struck me in thinking about it overnight was the fact that one of your board members described U of SC board as dysfunctional, that didn't know the difference between what was appropriate and inappropriate. And SACS came in, is coming back in.

You had a retreat where AGB came in and conducted a training session for your board. Tell me, what do you see has resulted already from the AGB report – and I preface all this, assuming that you've read that report – of what you view has happened already and what you envision happening in the future with your board?

MR. ALLEN: I've read – I read, of course, the SACS report, I mean, out of a matter of responsibility and duty.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Well, but from what I understand, SACS was basically a letter.

MR. ALLEN: It was brief.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And AGB was, was –

MR. ALLEN: Was comprehensive.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – was comprehensive.

MR. ALLEN: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Yes, sir.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, it was. What has been done at this point is that we have now implemented – and again, I can't speak for everyone, all 20 – the other 19, but we have already implemented – we did it relatively quickly after that meeting. We have already implemented policy and a code of – it's called a code of conduct. I would – I would probably have rather it said code of commitment or something else, other than – because it's really more about – it really highlights a couple of things.

And what SACS really was – based on their report to us, was bothered by, and AGB kind of confirmed it with more detail – as you said, the

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

AGB report and our conference with them was very comprehensive – were a couple of things. And again, and SACS, in particular – and that was independence.

And they talk about independence explicitly, that board members, the current board members, on the whole, were – did not demonstrate and did not utilize, in their fiduciary responsibility, preserve the independence that must be preserved in order to carry out your duties faithfully and with fidelity to the university. That was – that was the primary point that SACS made.

So rolling over to AGB, when they did their – and that was done at the recommendation of President Caslen, and we all agreed – they took a more comprehensive approach, as I said, and they had the same concern. And they went a little bit – a little bit further with the standard, realizing emphasizing that the standard, in executing your fiduciary responsibility, was, what's in the best interest of the institution?

So those two things and the policy and the code are explicitly addressed. I mean, it talks voluminously about independence and about best interest. Now, quite frankly, if I can – again, I'm under oath. If I can be candid –

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: I'd like for you to be.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. And I say this with great humility. I didn't – I didn't really – I didn't need that because every vote I've ever cast as a trustee of this university and this institution that I love so much, I have done out of the best interest – what I considered the best interest of the university, and I've done it in the spirit of independence. And you can't – you know, you – we have to be mindful that we have constituents because, of course, we do.

But ultimately, it's a – and it's kind of a fine line, but ultimately, you have to exercise those duties with the requisite amount of independence that you can preserve, protect, and promote the best interest of the university. And like I say, I say that with great humility, but I didn't – I didn't – I didn't need somebody – I didn't need a third party to tell me that.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Well, maybe you didn't, but maybe the other 19 did, and I certainly respect someone that has a streak of independence. That's something that I've always prided myself in.

I also want to move to something else that you said. You talked about two things that got my attention because in the short time that I've been on this joint committee, it's come up, and I've questioned board members about it, about who speaks for the board. And, you know, it's always, Well, the chairman speaks for the board. And you say that you issued a press release detailing your decision.

And, listen, I'm not casting any stones about that because I disagree with people around here all the time. And that's our system. But I do think that in being a member of board, that, while you can have your opinion, I think that there's a proper way in which to do it. And whether or not a press release is the proper way, you know, I'm not saying one way or the other.

But I thought it was interesting when you said that. Did any other members of the board of trustees issue a press release?

MR. ALLEN: There was – there were other board members that commented publicly. And, you know, we had a – we had a lawsuit. And there were other board members that talked to television, that talked to other form of media. And one of the – one of the reasons I did that – and I did it. I discussed it with the chair, and I told him. But I kind of – I kind of saw this coming a little bit. A little bit.

And I just wanted, in some form or fashion – I wanted to have it on the record so six to eight to ten months later, when I would explain how I – the thought process I went through and the deliberation I went through, I wanted to be able to not just sound self-serving and say, Well, hey, by the way, I didn't – I had a different point of view than some of the others. And that was the only way I knew to do it.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Well, and I also respect the fact that when people come in here and say, you know, If the vote had been held in April, I would have voted this way, but when the vote was hurriedly arranged in July, after there was a process that had been established for reopening that search, in essence –

MR. ALLEN: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – hiring an interim president –

MR. ALLEN: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: That had already been done.

MR. ALLEN: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: I think that it is a legitimate complaint or reason to say that you disagreed with the process because if the process is not being followed at this level, then we've got a huge problem. And we've seen, throughout state government, not just in the college and universities – we've seen problems in the process. And we've got huge issues that are confronting us right now because of that failure to follow process.

My last question: You mentioned – you alluded to abatements.

MR. ALLEN: Senator Scott, yeah, actually did that.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Senator Scott had talked about that. And you said that's an administrative issue. Is that not an issue that comes before the board to set the policy on what abatements are going to be and then the administration carries out that policy?

MR. ALLEN: It has not been. It has not been. And I think that's about to get corrected. We have – to my recollection, we have never addressed that. I'm not saying that we shouldn't have been. But we have never addressed that as a matter of policy per se.

The way I think it could be approached is, of course, we vote on a budget annually. And it's relatively specific. But I have never seen – and when we're talking about tuition, out-of-state students, in-state students, regional campuses, and so on and so on – I have never seen that line-itemed in our budget. But I, I – at this point, I believe that we should, at least through the budgetary process – that that needs to be addressed.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And Mr. Allen, please understand, this is a question that I've asked other colleges and universities, other board members, so I'm not trying to specifically pick on you or U of SC.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Two or three brief questions – and good morning.

MR. ALLEN: Good morning.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you for being here, Mr. Allen. So following up on Judge Clary, if I understood you to say, you've never had even a report from the administration on abatements?

MR. ALLEN: We have not. To my recollection and to my knowledge, I have not seen a written report. I have asked –

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Well how about a verbal report?

MR. ALLEN: Well, I've questions. I've asked questions about it.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: You have asked questions?

MR. ALLEN: I have, yes, sir. I have. I have. And the last –

SENATOR ALEXANDER: What kind of questions have you asked?

MR. ALLEN: Well, like, What's going on with that?

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And what kind of response did you get to that?

MR. ALLEN: Well, that it was – it was not – the financial impact was not as great as it had – was reported to be.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Did they give you a number for that?

MR. ALLEN: A number as far as –

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR ALEXANDER: The dollars, or, I mean, you – I mean, what's, what's small to you may be large to somebody else.

MR. ALLEN: Hey, and I'm a – (indistinct)

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Well, just get to the answer, yes, sir.

MR. ALLEN: I'm not rich.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I understand. I understand you're laughing about that, but that's okay. So they didn't give you a number.

MR. ALLEN: It was a couple of years ago, and I, frankly, don't – I can't – I can't recall. I just can't recall.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Do y'all set tuition?

MR. ALLEN: Do we set tuition?

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Does the board set tuition?

MR. ALLEN: Of course.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: So is that not a part of, of that process?

MR. ALLEN: It would – as I said to Representative Clary, it has not been. And it – and it – at this point, I would take the position that it should be.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I've been consistent in asking all the candidate about who should be sitting on the board as far as student government president and a faculty representative. And what is your position or thoughts on that?

MR. ALLEN: I think I indicated on my – the materials I submitted –

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Yes, sir, I've read that.

MR. ALLEN: Yeah, yeah.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I just wanted you to respond. So –

MR. ALLEN: Well, I, I – if you would, please. I indicated in the materials that I submitted that I thought both should have the – both – as you well know, as the committee's heard numerous times, they both are at the table for trustee meetings, the faculty representative and the student body president. It's been that way since I've been on the board.

And I indicated in materials that I thought both should have voting rights as far as being members of the board. I would like to amend that at this point in time and, and, and – in the sense that I would – I would – I did further research after that application or those materials were submitted, and I changed my mind on the faculty representative. I do not, after hearing from AGB with the comprehensive work they did for us and I became more educated on it, you might say –

SENATOR ALEXANDER: When –

MR. ALLEN: – I would not – I would not advocate that, for the faculty to vote – representative to vote. However, I would maintain that the student body president should.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR ALEXANDER: When did they issue that report?

MR. ALLEN: About a month ago.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: What is your attendance – talk to me about your attendance as a board member.

MR. ALLEN: As far as I can recall, I've missed one normal meeting because I was on a family vacation. And a couple of years, I drove back. I was at Hilton Head, and I would drive back for the meetings. And about two years ago, I couldn't – I couldn't do it. So as far as I know, one.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: You – and does any of that include call-in by teleconference?

MR. ALLEN: No, that –

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Or just in-person?

MR. ALLEN: That comment was limited to, yeah, physically being there on regularly scheduled meetings.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay.

MR. ALLEN: Call meetings by telephone, I've, I've –

SENATOR ALEXANDER: That's fine.

MR. ALLEN: Yeah.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I just wanted to make sure that when you were saying that, that wasn't inclusive of teleconference and that was physical, physical presence.

MR. ALLEN: Correct. But I've missed a few – I've missed a few teleconferences.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay. But that's –

MR. ALLEN: Because my schedule, you know. They get scheduled on three or four days' notice, and I may have a court appearance or something that I've got to attend to.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir. Thank you.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. ALLEN: Thank you for your service.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Whitmire.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

And welcome, Mr. Allen.

MR. ALLEN: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: The 10th Judicial Circuit trustee seat is the last one we've heard. We've heard from numerous others, as you well know, yesterday.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: And I have to admit, there were a lot of questions that were asked by our panel that I did not feel were answered properly. I felt some of them were very evasive, some of them didn't seem to know, and I – this whole process has garnered such negative publicity for the university; and, of course, the SACS issue. If you could go back before April, first vote, how would you have preferred that the president search and eventual naming of a president be made?

MR. ALLEN: Well, after the decision was made to name an interim president – because that was part of my consideration, too – I think we should have gone forward with that. Because if we had named an interim president – I mean, that was a public, clear, you know –

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: But going back before that, we were told yesterday by one trustee candidate that the votes were there in April to elect General Caslen and the vote was not taken. Am I – did I hear that right?

MR. ALLEN: That – it was a close vote. It was a close vote. There was no vote taken, of course, because we just – we couldn't do that.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: What – who made the decision not to vote in April? I guess that's my question.

MR. ALLEN: This is my recollection of that. The – there – you know, there are several members on the board that have, like, 30 and 40 years' seniority. And those senior members – I remember – I do remember this explicitly – said that this board is too divided. One member – one senior member said, I've never seen this board so divided, and we can't proceed like this.

And I think the deference in the room to the seniority, although hindsight might show it as erroneous judgement – but the deference in the room – or there was deference in the room to defer to that because of their experience. They had been through presidential search processes before. I'd never been through one, and, and, and so I think that's what – I think that's what tipped the balance that day, was when –

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: It really created a bigger mess, that's for sure.

MR. ALLEN: It got messy. It sure did, yes, sir. I agree. It got messy, and it, it – and it's been very regretful.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Well –

MR. ALLEN: But I would add – I would add, must me personally – again, I can only speak for this trustee. But the activities outside the boardroom that day had nothing to do with my deliberations; none, whatsoever.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: All right. My last question, and you might have answered this earlier. You said you would have voted for General Caslen in April, correct?

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir. And I think I said as much. When we had – when we –

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: And, and exactly why did you change your vote the second time around?

MR. ALLEN: Because after ten weeks had elapsed, the process – I – the process had gotten so messy and so difficult that at that point in time, because of everything that you have to consider as a trustee, all the constituent groups, it was so messy and so detrimental that I could not say it was the best – in the best interest of the university at that time. And I said that. I said that in the record.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: So I assume that if he had not been voted in, the process would have been opened back up again; is that correct?

MR. ALLEN: Well, that would be kind of – that would be kind of hypothetical since he got elected.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Right.

MR. ALLEN: But if I would venture, we, we – yeah, we would have had to continue because we would have had an interim president only, but that interim was prepared to work for, I think, up to a year. He was not on a contract, per se, but he was prepared to work for a while.

But so, yeah, I mean, that – necessity would have required that.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Thank you.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

SENATOR SCOTT: One other question.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Ms. Davis.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Unfortunately, yesterday afternoon, I was not in committee and so I missed the entire discussion about the accreditation issue. So would you tell me what the status of the accreditation at the college is?

MR. ALLEN: The way I – thank you, ma'am. The way I understand it is, there were no penalties assessed as such. However, SACS will remain engaged with us through whatever their process is. I think it's a minimal process. They will remain engaged with us to continue to monitor us to see what type of adjustments and what type of discharge of duties that occurs with the board, you know, from this point forward, up until – probably a year would be my –

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: So from what I have read, I believe the accreditation board cited undue political influence; is that correct?

MR. ALLEN: That's my – that's my – yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Do you believe that there is undue political influence on the board?

MR. ALLEN: Well, again, it's hard to speak for everybody else, and we – there's a lot of constituent groups, as I mentioned earlier, that have to be – that we have to be mindful of, including the General Assembly.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: But do you believe that there's undue political influence?

MR. ALLEN: By whom? Can I ask that?

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: I mean, I don't know. From what I read about – from the accreditation board, I don't believe the accreditation board cited particular – a particular person or entity that was causing undue influence. So I read that to be general undue influence.

MR. ALLEN: Well, there were text messages and emails that were FOI'd – you know, requested under the Freedom of Information Act – and I think some of those – and I produced all of mine. I didn't have many, but I produced all of mine. But I think some of those probably were direct evidence of some of that.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Okay. So I'm believing that the board has put into place some sort of action plan to address that particular concern of the accreditation board; is that correct?

MR. ALLEN: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Has the board put into place some action plan to take –

MR. ALLEN: It, it –

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: – to ensure that there is no undue political influence?

MR. ALLEN: There, there – as I mentioned earlier, there's a code, and then there was a policy section added to our by-laws. Also – I failed to mention this, and which I had kind of worked on this personally for several years. There's an oath of office now that we didn't have, and I thought – I thought, just, that we needed that.

I've thought that for a long time. And not something complicated, but just something that, you're pledging fidelity and allegiance to the best interest of the university. But that's what we have – and also; excuse me.

Also, there was an ad hoc governance committee formed recently, and it will – its charge is to look at committee structure, other policy adjustments, you know, in order to, again, enumerate and state explicitly some of the fiduciary responsibilities of the board. And that's probably

– I understand – I’m not on that committee either. I understand that’s probably about a six- to nine-month undertaking, that they will continue to work on that. So that also will be done.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Okay. So I’m assuming that you would agree with me that as a state, we want to ensure that we do not put the accreditation of our universities at risk.

MR. ALLEN: Absolutely. And that – and I – and that, once again, when I issued that statement, I cited that. I cited in that statement before that vote, I said, We’ve got accreditation issues on the line. And when the accreditation is in jeopardy, I can’t jeopardize that and say I’m exercising my duties in the best interest of the university.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: That’s right. I agree. Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you. Anyone else?

Mr. Allen, you’re a straight shooter, and that’s what I like about you.

MR. ALLEN: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: The board struggled on hiring the president, but the real struggle is who is going to be the next chairman of the board. Is that a true statement?

MR. ALLEN: Well, with all due respect and due regard, given that I’ve got vigorous opposition for this seat and in the General Assembly at this time, I – it would probably be presumptuous for me to comment. I may not be there. But as I see it – as I see it now –

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: My next question was going to be, What’s so important to be chairman of the board of trustees of the University of South Carolina to make the board go through this kind of turmoil if that was true?

MR. ALLEN: If that was true – that’s a good question because I don’t share – I don’t share that sentiment because I just – I don’t – and like I say, I may – I may be – you know, I may be in a real minority. I just, some of that – some of that sentiment I don’t share.

And I do believe with great passion, you might say, that it gets in the way, the, the, the agendas and the – because that’s kind of personal. Sometimes, that can become personal agenda and, you know, that’s not in the best interest of the university. And I just don’t – I don’t engage in it.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Okay. What’s the desire of the committee?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Motion is favorable. Second?

(Motion is seconded.)

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any other discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand. It's unanimous.

Thank you, sir.

MR. ALLEN: Yes, sir. Thank you and other committee members.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Next, under Tab B, Emma Morris, Walhalla.

Good morning, ma'am.

MS. MORRIS: Good morning.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, if you would, give us your full name.

MS. MORRIS: Emma Wyatt Morris.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MS. MORRIS: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MS. MORRIS: Sure.

I'm not sure exactly how much information you want about my background, but just so you kind of get a feel for who I am, I'm born and raised in Oconee County. My mother was an educator for 36 years. My grandmother was an educator for 40 years. My husband is an educator/student, grad student. I have a college student. My daughter is a junior at Furman University. I have two sons, a tenth grader and an eighth grader. They both go to Walhalla Middle School and High School.

I am a 199 graduate of the university. My major was finance from the business school. And then I attended the Cumberland School of Law at the – at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama.

I practice law in Seneca. I have two partners; oh, excuse me, one partner and a junior associate. My practice is real estate, probate, business-type law.

I've not been very involved since graduation with the university because I've been raising three children and working, but I've always had an interest in the university. I feel like I'm in a place in my life now where I could dedicate the time that I need to to serve on this board of trustees. I probably have maybe an untainted view of what's going on with the board, other than the negative publicity that I've seen, you know, with the hiring of the new president. And so I think I could bring a fresh perspective.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

I'm a fairly quiet person. I'm more analytical, I guess. I like to collect facts, collect information, and reserve, reserve my opinion until I can give a good opinion.

And so I appreciate you all having me here today. I don't – that's, that's my history. I'm not sure what else to tell you about that.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I appreciate you offering it.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

SENATOR SCOTT: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander?

Senator Scott, I –

SENATOR SCOTT: Yeah.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

Good morning, and thank you for your willingness to serve. In your capacities with your work, would there be any, any inability for you to attend meetings on a regular basis that are, that are scheduled?

MS. MORRIS: No, sir. I'm very rarely in court with, with the kind of law that I practice. It's mostly office appointments, and even my court schedule is pretty flexible, so.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And one question that I've asked all of the candidates across the board. As far as someone sitting on the board that's either the student government president or a faculty representative, do you have particular thoughts on that?

MS. MORRIS: Well, I think there were – those are two huge groups that need some form of representation on the board. They're, they're the heart and soul of what's going on on the campus on the university, whereas, you know, as a, as a board member, you're not there every day, all day, every week, over the weekend.

And so certainly, I think that they should be represented. Some careful consideration about the ability to vote, but definitely insight from those folks I think would be invaluable.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. President.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Ms. Morris, for your willingness to serve. You're – I see you're a 1992 graduate of the university, and you said you've not been involved in – very much in it since you left. So how do you kind of catch up to speed with all the stuff that's going on at the university? But you did say you spend a lot of time doing some in-depth studying. So you want to share with us what you, what you have collected and what you think is going on and what you think –

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MS. MORRIS: Sure.

SENATOR SCOTT: – you could do to make the situation better as a contributing member if you become a member of this board?

MS. MORRIS: Sure. I think one thing that I've, I've looked a lot at is something that you brought up earlier –

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay.

MS. MORRIS: – with minorities as a whole but specifically African American. I mean, I – like, I'm analytical, so like I said, as a board member, I would – I would want to go back to the beginning of the process. What do – what does the application pool look like versus what is the incoming class look like?

SENATOR SCOTT: Intake system.

MS. MORRIS: How does that compare? You know, is, is there a breakdown between the university and, and the high schools, getting information out, getting on those campuses? I know, having a child and children in high school, they have days where, where universities are on the campus, recruiting, so to speak, offering free application times. So, you know, is the problem that the applications are not coming in, or is the problem that the applications are not being accepted, and, and why? That, that would be where I want to start, is all the way back at the beginning of that.

And to tie in with that, I was – I was very shocked to see – I think the number I pulled, and I think it came off of the diversity inclusion part of the web page – it showed 44 percent out-of-state students.

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

MS. MORRIS: I was shocked and, and kind of hurt because this is our – the University of South Carolina, and we need to be having our own students from our own high schools.

SENATOR SCOTT: I've read also – I think it was some up-to-date data for this incoming freshman class – there were 14,730 applicants which they should increase by 1700 – 1750 additional minority students, taking the total count to 5100. And I'm seeing all of a sudden in the year that these folk have got to come before us, the intake system now decides to intake these students. And they also indicated that they had a three point – a thousand on the SAT when before, it was all about 1100. So it's right at the intake system, what the Columbia campus has decided it wants to be – the intake numbers coming in. So I don't think it's recruitment back at the schools.

MS. MORRIS: And I –

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR SCOTT: I think the applicant – I think the application pool is there. It's just going through the pool and pulling the information up. But I think you're right on target in looking at that intake system.

MS. MORRIS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Whitmire.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

And welcome, Ms. Morris.

MS. MORRIS: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Following up on what you said about the number of out-of-state students, this is a huge concern of mine and I think of a lot of other members on the committee. If you were chosen to be on the board, what would you do to change that dynamic to bring more in-state students into the university?

MS. MORRIS: Well, from what I read, part of that has to do with money. Because if you bring somebody in from out of state, that's almost double the tuition. So I tried to find what was happening with the bill – 238, I think, is the number – and what are the ideas. And I may not have the best information, but looking on the website, it looked like that came out of the Senate. So certainly, I think if there is more funding to balance out, that, that would help. And certainly – REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: What do you feel about abatements for out-of-state students? We've asked that question quite a number of times.

MS. MORRIS: I just feel like our students deserve priority, and there needs to be some way to, to give them the priority to – that they deserve.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Okay. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Good morning, Ms. Morris.

MS. MORRIS: Good morning.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – and thank you for being here. Thank you for offering to serve. When I look at your information and you say you haven't been involved at the university, what other types of things have you been involved in in so far as board memberships, organizations

MS. MORRIS: Sure.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – things like that in your local area because I'm not seeing anything that jumps out at me, and maybe there's something that you haven't mentioned.

MS. MORRIS: Sure. I'm currently on the board of a charitable organization called Grace's Closet; excuse me. This is an organization that has a true closet in every school in our district that provides clothes, shoes, food, personal hygiene items, so I'm the attorney/board member for that board. I help with all that fund-raising. We've just turned that to – the director is now a paid position, so it's a pretty decent-sized organization, being in 19 schools.

I served on the Crime Stoppers board in Oconee County. I've served on the Voc Rehab board for Anderson and Oconee County. I've served on various committees at my church, from personnel to finance; employee search committees.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: In the last couple of days, we've learned a lot about the dysfunction that existed with the board at U of SC. And we've alluded to the fact that SACS has been involved, that the university, to their credit, involved AGB, a national organization, to come in and conduct a seminar. Have you read that AGB report?

MS. MORRIS: No, sir, I have not.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else? What is the desire of the committee?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Motion is favorable.

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Seconded. Is there any discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand. Unanimous.

Thank you, ma' am.

MS. MORRIS: Thank you.

Thank you very much for your time this morning.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Next, Phillip Owens from Easley.

Good morning, sir.

MR. OWENS: Good morning.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: You don't need to give us your full name, but for the record, if you would.

MR. OWENS: Yes, sir. Phillip Drayton Owens.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. OWENS: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Why don't you sit down and make a brief statement.

MR. OWENS: Thank you.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman and committee. It's a pleasure to come before you this morning and to offer for this trustee position at the University of South Carolina. I am a resident of Easley and the – at this time, the 10th Judicial Circuit. I spent some time down here in this institution a while back. And I am a local businessman.

I started and created a few businesses in the Pickens County area and Union County and some other places, and I have also been an advocate for my flagship university. I – as I replied in my statement, I feel that the university provided me with the necessary skills and abilities to move forward in my life cycle beyond graduation, and for that I'm quite grateful.

And also, that allows – would allow me an opportunity to return some gifts that I may have to the university in helping direct it forward in the mission that we want it to accomplish.

So once again, thank you for being here.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

Questions or comments?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Good morning, Mr. Owens. Good to see you again.

MR. OWENS: Good morning.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And thank you very much for offering to serve. When I look at the information that you provided, you talk about ways to attract students, and there are several needs in there: affordable price; students should reflect high standards of academia; controlled growth needed; need effective marketing. How about expanding on that a little bit.

Controlled growth; I mean, everything that I've heard in the last couple of days is that the main campus here is just about tapped out. So what do you do in so far as continuing some sort of growth, and then how do you effectively market that?

MR. OWENS: Well, thank you, Representative Clary, for that question. I think that part of the responsibility of the board is to help develop and, and follow the vision of the university after receiving input from the General Assembly and those outside; from the students; from the citizens of South Carolina. That once we identify that, that we move forward.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

As far as – and I think I said in my statement, with the input from the students and faculty, administration, and staff. That's how we would look at doing that.

Now, growth, whether it is in a university or whether it's in a business or whether it's elsewhere, in order to be effective, in my opinion, it has to be looked at from, What are the facilities that are available, and, as you alluded to, Representative Clary, what is the land that is available?

Where are we? I know other institutions have – and some of the presidents and some of the boards have made public statements that they would like to increase their student enrollment from X-number to X-number, and that's a large number. And that has an impact, not only on the university but the town that that university resides in and so forth and so on.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: I hear you.

MR. OWENS: So I think that, looking at all of those factors, that's why I said that it has to be controlled. I don't – I don't think that a university wants to get to a point where they say they're full and I don't want any more students because the university serves a purpose of providing skills to the – to the citizens of South Carolina and those that they allow from outside. So I think that they have to look at, what do they have? What are they able to expand and build, and how do they serve, first, the South Carolinians that wish there and then the others that they bring in?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: I would assume that you kept up with the issues that confronted the board of trustees at U of SC over the last year or so and the hiring of the new president, the intervention by SACS. And once again, to the university's credit, they acknowledged that they had issues, and they brought in AGB for training. Have you read that AGB report?

MR. OWENS: I have not, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: All right.

Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Good morning, Mr. Owens.

MR. OWENS: Good morning, Senator.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Good to see you today.

MR. OWENS: Thank you.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Is there anything that, in your current capacity, would preclude you from being active and attending meetings of the board?

MR. OWENS: No, sir. I'm retired.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay. And as far as about someone sitting on the board, the student government president or a faculty representative – and I read, as I had already read some of the other ones, but I wanted you – but I wanted them to comment – your thought on that, and you said you'd leave it to the General Assembly to decide.

And I guess my question would be, if you were a member of the General Assembly at this time, what would your position be from that standpoint?

MR. OWENS: Thank you, Senator, for that question. If I might expand or clarify just a minute. I do think that the – for – alumni and the faculty should be – have a seat on the board. I think the General Assembly should decide whether it is a voting seat or not.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Whitmire.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Good morning, Mr. Owens. It's been a while.

MR. OWENS: Yeah. Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: We've, you know, had trustees, candidates, from numerous colleges and universities throughout the state over the last three months. Most of them seem to have a lot more in-state students than U of SC. I'm really concerned that I don't feel like we are, you know, dedicating our flagship university to our own in the state. How do you feel about that?

MR. OWENS: I agree with you, Representative Whitmire, and during my previous tenure, we dealt with that quite, quite often, as you're aware, in that there – there's always trying to be balance between – of course, out-of-state students bring in double the revenue to the university than in-state students.

But as I responded, in my opinion, we always have to favor our South Carolina in-state students above the out-of-state students. If you go to some universities, you will notice that in certain areas, you have a disproportionate number of out-of-state and sometimes out-of-the-country participants and graduates if you attend those ceremonies.

And we always have to serve South Carolinians first, and then afterwards, if we have that controlled growth, we can add the others.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: What concerns me the most is that most of the out-of-state students, whether it's U of SC or Clemson, wherever, they don't stay in state once they graduate. Most of the students who come from the state do stay. So I feel like we're spending all of our state money educating someone who might not stay around. And so that's always been a concern. I know that it has been of yours, too, so –

MR. OWENS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: All right. Thank you, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Rep Owens, Mr. Owens, whatever the new name you've taken in your retirement years.

MR. OWENS: Grandpa.

SENATOR SCOTT: Grandpa. That's a good name. That's better than all of them.

You've had, first-hand, the opportunity to see – before leaving in 2014 – a number of issues through the higher ed community. I think you served as a chair of the education committee –

MR. OWENS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: – if I'm not mistaken. What was your position when you were there as relates to the growing number of out-of-state students and always using that same, I guess, excuse that the General Assembly doesn't fund us at the same level, as well as your input and ideology when you were here as relates to diversities on these campuses since we have allowed the growth of out-of-state students create a bigger divide?

When you listen to USC, that's a campus you want to go and work on. Grew 40 percent out-of-state students, which simply means that it blocks the door for all in-state students coming in when out-of-state is growing faster than the in-state.

What was your take at the time, and what would you do different as a member of that board of trustees to try to slow this down so we can get some, I guess, some parity, or at least we get South Carolina students coming back to South Carolina schools? Because when you don't have schools for them, they go someplace else.

MR. OWENS: Well, I think we have to go beyond statistics, and we have to monitor results. If we are promoting diversity, either through introduction of out-of-state students or from our own students/citizens here in South Carolina, we need to go beyond saying, We have this program and we have that program and we're this and that.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

We need to monitor and review and say, Well, I know we have these three programs that focus on this particular method to solve some of the problems that you put forward, Senator Scott, but where's the accountability? Where are the numbers that say these programs are working? I think someone alluded earlier, you know, that we, you know, for six or seven years – it may have been you, Senator Scott – we've talked about these things.

I think we, we have got to take better control of saying, you know, This particular program or this particular control or this particular monitor on it – out-of-state students coming in – gives us these results, but we don't do anything with the results, and we follow forward with the program. So we've got to be results-oriented rather than just making reports every year.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Motion is favorable.

((Motion is seconded.))

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Seconded. Any other discussion?

Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand. Unanimous.

Thank you, sir.

MR. OWENS: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Last candidate, Blair Stoudemire from Seneca.

Sir, for the record, if you would, give us your full name.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Certainly. Blair Lowry Stoudemire.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you. Would you like to make a brief statement?

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Yes. Thank you. Again, I, like everyone except Mr. Allen, have not been on this board, so I'll just give you a little bit of background about myself. My name is Blair Stoudemire. While I was born on an Air Force base in Florida, in Panama City, while my dad was serving in the Air Force, I have lived the entirety of my life in Oconee County, South Carolina.

I went to Walhalla High School. Attended and graduated from the University of South Carolina in 1990. Probably should have been a semester early, but as my dad liked to say, I spent one semester majoring in fraternity, and for that, I was –

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Only one?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Only one. Working at a textile mill during the summer will change your viewpoint on life.

But after graduation, I attended and graduated from St. Thomas University School of Law in Miami. Came back to Oconee County to practice. I practiced with my father for a number of years and then went on to the Oconee County Solicitor's Office, where I've worked since 2006.

I've got a wife, Patty, and two daughters, Kathryn and Nicole. Kathryn graduated in May from the University of South Carolina and is now scaring me to death on a daily basis living in New York City. And I have my younger daughter, Nicole, who is scheduled to graduate from Clemson University in May, which breaks my heart just a little.

I think that's it.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Questions or comments?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Welcome, Mr. Stoudemire, and it's good to see you. I've known your dad for a long time. For no one that – or anyone that has not had the opportunity to try a murder trial in Walhalla with Julian Stoudemire, they're missing an absolute treat, I'll tell you that.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Well, try growing up with him.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: All I can say is, I'm surprised you're as normal as you are.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: As far as you know.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: As far as I know.

In looking at your background, tell me about your involvement with the university –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – over the years.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Over the years, I've been a member of the alumni association, the Gamecock Club, things like that, and for most of us, I think that's really kind of what you're limited to unless you go and serve on a board of trustees seat or really live a little bit more locally and can be more – be more involved.

So that's my involvement to this point, that and being the – being the parent of a graduate, certainly, I've been down here more in the past four years than I – than I have been outside of football games in a long time.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: You cite the biggest weakness is not realizing what we have. What do you mean by that?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yeah. We – what I saw when, when Kathryn was going through the graduation process, is, we're the flagship university of the state of South Carolina. We have the largest alumni network of any university in this state. I don't think we use it to its fullest ability.

Now, with the building of the new alumni center and things of that nature, I think we're doing a much better job than we did, say, many years ago when I was here. But we've got graduates all over the place in various businesses and various industries, and I still see students today that are graduating, struggling to get interviews with top firms from various fields that they're trying to go into where those firms have people from the university working there and sometimes in a position that would be able to help hire. And it's just – it's not being utilized for whatever reason.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And, of course, you've heard all the discussion about the issues that have gone on over the last months –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – into last year, the SACS intervention –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: – at the university, the AGB report. Have you read that report?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I have not had an opportunity to read that report, no sir.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: All right.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Davis.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Is that microphone on? Is that working?

Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I'll lean over here towards Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: That's fine.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: I see in your responses that you're an out-of-the-box-type thinker.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I try to be, yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: And so that really appeals to me because I believe that there are some undiscovered collaborations that we could identify in higher education to help our students have more successful careers and have jobs waiting for them.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

We've worked very hard in the state of South Carolina to bring industry and jobs into the state.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: And one of our jobs here as legislators and – is to ensure that our students are getting the education they need in order to take these jobs. So I kind of have a feeling, by reading your responses, that you might have some ideas along those lines. You mentioned that you are an out-of-the-box thinker. You also mentioned that some of the schools at the business need to possibly communicate better. So is any of that – does any of that –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: – tie together in your mind?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes. I –

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Talk about – talk about some of your ideas, if you would.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Again, just to give you an example, and I know I keep falling back on this, but having a recent graduate, that's what I know to fall back on.

Kathryn was a journalism major, and within the journalism school, you've got various schools in there with regard to broadcast journalism, with regard to advertising, and even library science is involved in there. For instance, with – when she was looking for a job, none of those – none of those schools communicated with each other at all.

She could have – she could sit there and be very good friends and associate with some professors and have them helping her out, but as a whole, there may be other professors within the same college that would have absolutely no idea what one of their own schools was doing with regard to helping students get jobs.

And I think it's the same thing within the business administration school. You've got a multitude of majors that fall within there between advertising, marketing, finance, accounting, things like that, and some of those schools work well together and there's really kind of a dovetail between these schools, so naturally, they work together.

But I think that we need to try to go beyond the natural fit and almost put a square peg in a round hole or put a round peg in a square hole a little bit, just to see if we can jam it in there and maybe help somebody get that initial job out of college because I think the studies have shown, once they get the initial job out of college, that's really the hard part for these graduates.

Where they go from there is going to be up to them, their work ethic, and what they're able to do on their own from that standpoint, for the most part. But I feel like these schools could be working together in just some alternative ways that they haven't before.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Well, just in follow-up, as a member of the board, would you be willing to take on that challenge to work and put something in place so that those schools are communicating with each other and perhaps even put a direct line of communication between those schools and industries and jobs so that our students can have those opportunities?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Okay. All right, thank you.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, ma'am.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anybody else?

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

Good morning. Good to see you.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Good morning, Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Appreciate you being here. Just again, to consistency there, with your work at the Solicitor's Office, is there anything that would preclude you from being able to attend regularly scheduled meetings if you were a member of the board?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: That's – and you're coming from the same area I do, so I – so I know you know – and Senator – and Representative Whitmire know how far it is for us to come down here. So accommodations have to be made. I'm very fortunate, and I've spoken with the deputy solicitor who's in charge of our office and also our elected solicitor. In addition to that, I've spoken with some of the judges that I regularly appear before, and I will not have a problem being able to come to any meetings.

Fortunately, we've got a really good office, and if I'm missing court, then I've got somebody who can – who can run back up for me and attend a court session. With regard to trial, I can – those are usually scheduled weeks, if not months, out. So that's not a concern at all.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you. And would you briefly say your position on either the student government president and/or a faculty representative sitting on the board and/or with voting rights?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes. I, I would echo what Ms. Morris said on that. Those are two of the groups that are really most affected by everything that the board of trustees does and the university administration does on a day-to-day basis.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

With regard to the student representative, I know that there's been some concern and some talk about, Well, what if the student body president, who – let's just say, for example, the student body president were to be the representative to serve on the board. What happens if the student body president is somebody from out-of-state? Or what happens if you have a faculty member who, you know, comes, comes from out-of-state that really has not spent a great deal of time here?

So I think those are – those are things that need to be taken, maybe, into consideration, but the bottom line is, is I think if you put a student on the board, student body president, say, and you put a – you put a faculty member, a tenured faculty member on the board, certainly, they're going to have the university's best interest at heart, and I think they'll be valuable additions to the board.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. President.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

SENATOR SCOTT: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Stoudemire – mire or mare –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Whatever you want to call me.

SENATOR SCOTT: – depending on which part of the country you're from.

The Solicitor's Office; I see you've been there 14 years.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir. It will be 14 years this September.

SENATOR SCOTT: How many staff is in the Solicitor's Office?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: In our particular office, we have – we have five lawyers and then staff beyond that. I think we're totaling about 15, 16 people.

SENATOR SCOTT: Are there any minority lawyers in there?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: There are no minority lawyers in our particular office. However, in the Circuit, we do – we do have some in the Anderson office, yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: How many? How many in the Anderson office?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Two.

SENATOR SCOTT: Two. And how big is that Anderson office?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Anderson office has – I'd have to go back and check, but I want to say they've got somewhere in the neighborhood of 10 lawyers in that office.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. And I see you were a history major, so you're –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR SCOTT: I was a history major and I changed. I wasn't going to make any money, so I changed.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yeah, I sympathize with that.

SENATOR SCOTT: All I could do was teach – yeah. I could teach, and that's about it, or do research. Well, listen, my question to you is diversity –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: – as relates to the university. I've been trying to get some kind of feel for you as an individual, your feeling on diversity, and it's easy to understand diversity a little bit better if you're working with a very diverse population –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I agree.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- that's around you –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I agree.

SENATOR SCOTT: – outside of just representing them in court or either put them in jail in court. So share with me your insight as it relates to diversity. Now you're not on the side of the law where you're defending the state or the county, but you're now looking at students in an intake system that's broken and how we educate the young African Americans and other minority students in the state. So it's some of the same concern you indicated a minute ago about your daughter getting a job.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: It's wide open because they were USC graduates regardless of race who are on those jobs who could help bridge that gap that you talked about.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes. With regard to diversity, I think that we – we've made some headways, and you talked about it with, with Mr. Allen earlier, about things that have been set up – certainly under Mr. Dozier and the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs – that have been started, I think we need to continue the work that's been started there.

Going back and looking, I think, when, you know, every year, students start looking at going to college and thinking about higher education earlier and earlier. When I was – I never thought about it that much until I was in high school and, to be honest, until I was a junior and you start thinking about applying.

Now, kids are thinking about that in middle school. So I think that what we need to start doing is, instead – it's great that we're going out to various high schools across the state and trying to get kids in high school to become interested in the University of South Carolina. I think we need to go beyond that. I think we need to go out to middle schools.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

And I also think we need to go out in some areas that we may not have identified as essentially feeders for the university to this point. We need to focus more on some rural areas, maybe a few poorer areas, and look at some kids who may be, All right, this kid's really interested in going to college, but neither of his parents, nobody in his family's ever been to college.

We need to – we need to try to get that kid into college because then, what we're doing is, we're not just continuing a cycle of people just dealing with lower education. We're going and we're really lifting people up at that point.

Now, some of that deals with minorities. Some of that deals purely with financial barriers. But sometimes, I think that goes hand in hand. With regard to minorities in particular, and in particular, African-American students, I think we need to do a much better job than what we've been doing. I think we do need to be targeting high school and middle schools that are predominantly African American and getting those kids interested in coming to the University of South Carolina.

And beyond that, maybe we need to start looking at giving them some sort of financial incentive to come. If you're a – if you're a first-time – if you're the first member of your family to go to college, you know, maybe there's a scholarship waiting for you. Maybe, maybe –

SENATOR SCOTT: Would you move outside of the targeting of counties with large African-American populations, even in counties with large majority Caucasian, white population –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: – to be able to get those students to go – and those students coming back, giving back to your community, also help bridge a lot of that culture gap –

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I agree.

SENATOR SCOTT: – that exists? People continue to ignore the gap that's out there.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I agree.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

I just have a comment/question. Would you realize or believe that some students who would like to go to any of the institutions here in South Carolina, not just USC, are sometime prohibited because they cannot pay for the application fee? And they may be applying to multiple colleges –

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: – and so they have to prioritize. And so do you – would you believe that some of those students that would like to apply to multiple colleges are unable to because of the application?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes. That would not surprise me. Application fees are one of those things that – let's face it, it's just a money generator. You know, years ago, I think it was – when I applied to University of South Carolina, I want to say it was $10 to apply to the university.

Harvard – they didn't know me obviously – sent me an application, and their fee was $50. I didn't waste my $50 because I wasn't going to Harvard. But now, I cannot imagine – I cannot imagine what the fees are, and what we do is, we put these kids having to come up with this fee before they even think of doing anything else, before they think about scholarships or anything like that.

And a lot of times, you've got application deadlines, and, you know, Mom and Dad are having to make the decision between whether or not we're going to get groceries this week or whether or not Junior's going to apply for – apply for multiple colleges or just put all his eggs in one basket.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander. Motion to – Mr. Whitmire has a question. I'm sorry.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Hold that thought, Mr. Alexander.

Welcome, Mr. Stoudemire.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Thank you, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: I noticed on your ways to improve school, you said build on the alumni base. Would you care to expand on that a little bit?

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Yes. I, I, I think I talked about that a little bit with Representative Davis.

Again, we've got the largest alumni base in my opinion. I think we've got the largest alumni base of any school in the state simply because U of SC is the largest school in the state. You got to bring people back into the fold. It's not enough – like, I've, I've been getting barraged lately with, Update your information from the University of South Carolina, which means, basically, they want me to call, and they want me to give some money.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

Which is fine. I understand that, and I understand that the university – there's always going to be a need for money. Whether or not they really want my address or not, who knows? But we've got to bring people back into the fold.

When I talk with graduates from Carolina, to a person, man or woman, they, you know – they can look back and come up with 10 memories off the top of their head of the great time they had at Carolina. So you always bring people back for homecoming and things like that. We need to bring people back into the fold in new and different ways, not just during football season, you know, which is – let's face it – almost a religion in the South, if not a religion.

But in addition to just having people come back in, have people recognize that the business leaders of tomorrow and the education leaders of tomorrow and the legal and medical leaders of tomorrow come from this university. So we need to do a better job with, with putting our self out there to everyone, statewide, if not nationally, to let people know that we are the – among the best of the best. I mean, we've got several colleges that are ranked number one or at – or near number one in the country, and outside of the state of South Carolina, people don't know it sometimes.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: You know, you and Emma make me feel awfully old. I remember both of you in middle school, and now you've got college kids and graduates.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: I'm sure that's partly our fault.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: I didn't think I was that old, but I believe I am. And your grandmother was my fifth-grade teacher. I don't know if you knew that or not.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Well, that makes me feel old too.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Well, that's true, so anyway, thank you very much.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander moves for a favorable report. Second?

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Second.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Seconded. Any other discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand. Unanimous.

Thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. STOUDEMIRE: Thank you, sir.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

WINTHROP UNIVERSITY

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Now we move to Winthrop University. We'll go to 2nd Congressional District, Seat 2, John Brazell, Columbia.

MR. BRAZELL: Hello.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: If you would, give us your full name for the record.

MR. BRAZELL: John Edward Brazell.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I'll swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. BRAZELL: So help me God, yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MR. BRAZELL: Sorry, I could barely hear you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I said, would you like to make a brief statement on why you would like to serve on the Winthrop board?

MR. BRAZELL: Well, I graduated from Winthrop back in '93. When I initially attended, starting in '88, there was -- Winthrop was very small, the city of Rock Hill was very small, and over that -- over a period of time, it's grown tremendously, and there are some great things that are going on there.

I think they've had a couple of different presidents that have done a great job to push the campus forward. It's well diversified as far as the, you know, the population there at the school. And athletics, they've increased over the years.

So I just want to give -- an opportunity to give back to what Winthrop did for me all those years ago to help me be successful and give me a great foundation. So when this opportunity came up, I thought it was a great chance for me to get involved and, like I said, give back to Winthrop.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Okay. Questions or comments?

Mr. King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

You said Brazell?

MR. BRAZELL: Brazell, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Brazell, what type of relationship do you think Winthrop or any institution should have with the local legislative delegation from that community?

MR. BRAZELL: I think it's important to be close with the community there. You've got to be able to communicate --

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

REPRESENTATIVE KING: No, no, no, no. The local legislative delegation, the members of the General Assembly that serve that community in which Winthrop resides.

What type of relationship should you have, not the board, but the entire institution with the members who represent York County, where Winthrop is, with their local legislative delegation? What type of relationship do you think they should have?

MR. BRAZELL: Honestly, you're asking me a question -- I've never had any kind of question like that before. I've not dealt with -- in politics before, so I would assume that they would need to work together closely to understand the needs of the area. You know --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Would you be surprised that Winthrop is in my district and that I have no relationship, not on my -- not because of my not willing to work with Winthrop, but knocking on their doors and asking to be a part of that institution, and year after year, they have ignored me? Would you be surprised about that?

MR. BRAZELL: I would. I mean, do you know a reason why? I mean, was --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I don't know a reason why. Maybe you can tell me that once you become a board member.

But Winthrop resides in my district, and I've reached out on several occasions to be a part of their community, and they have not been very favorable to me. So if you are elected, I would ask that you work to bridge that gap there.

MR. BRAZELL: Yeah. That's unfortunate, and I would think that anyone that has, you know, insight and that has ideas that could help Winthrop succeed and do better, why would you keep them out versus bringing them in and at least hearing what they have to say and build a relationship.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I appreciate you listening to me.

MR. BRAZELL: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I asked that question because it seems as if you may be the next member, new member on the board, and while I've made that known to other members, it has fallen on deaf ears, and so maybe you will bridge that gap for me.

MR. BRAZELL: Okay.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. BRAZELL: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

In your -- Mr. Brazell, in your information that you provided, Winthrop's biggest weakness, low graduation rate. Tell me a little bit about how low it is and what kind of steps you think you as a board member could take to improve that.

MR. BRAZELL: Well, I was very surprised as I did some research just to look at the updated numbers. Winthrop was in, I believe, the 52 percentile on graduation, and they also had people -- it was taking people longer to graduate, maybe around six years.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: But would it surprise you to know that most of our -- well, not most -- our colleges and universities in this state and throughout the nation do work on a six-year model?

MR. BRAZELL: Well, I personally worked on a six-year model myself -- actually five years.

But it just surprised me that -- and from what I understand, the longer you're in school, the more debt you're probably taking on. So I would say all institutions probably need to do a better job there, but -- and find out, really, the reason why we're not graduating folks, why they're leaving early, and also find out what's taking them a long time.

I worked through college, so I know that that extended my stay there, but it was -- I still got the education, and I got the diploma. But I also left with some debt that needed to be taken care of.

But I really feel like you just have to -- you have to find out why they're not graduating and address those issues to see if you can get that percentage up because it's -- it's important not to have someone walk away from a school that they've got a ton of debt and they never -- they didn't end up with an education. So...

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: I certainly don't disagree with that, and also I think that it comes down to a standpoint sometimes -- and maybe you'll figure out if Winthrop has this situation in that classes are not always offered on the schedule that those students are in line to take them in their course of study.

So those are things that I would suggest that you take into consideration when you -- when you become a member of that board. Thank you, sir.

MR. BRAZELL: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Move favorable.

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: The motion is favorable. Discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

Thank you, sir.

MR. BRAZELL: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I appreciate your willingness to serve.

Now pending, Winthrop University, 6th Congressional District, Seat 4, Ashlye Wilkerson.

MS. WILKERSON: Good afternoon.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, give us your full name.

MS. WILKERSON: Ashlye Victoria Wilkerson.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MS. WILKERSON: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes. I would like to thank you all for electing me to serve on Winthrop University for the past seven years. It's my alma mater, and so it's an honor for me to serve the institution that poured so much into me. I graduated from Winthrop University in 2005, and it has prepared me for my life journey thus far.

I've had the opportunity to serve alongside my peers on the board. I represent voices that aren't often heard around the table. I'm the most recent graduate on the board. I'm the youngest trustee on the board and the only woman of color on the board. So I bring diversity of thought, and I work really hard to bridge the gap between families, students, and board members.

Thank you so much for having me.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

Questions or comments?

SENATOR SCOTT: Chairman?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Ms. Wilkerson...

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: When will you finish this Ph.D.? Is it May? I think I felt a turmoil.

MS. WILKERSON: Yeah. So --

SENATOR SCOTT: Most of the questions have been -- I see you -- Hampton, 2007, and in 2020, you should finish this Ph.D. program.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. My husband and I experienced an unforeseen instance when we were carrying our daughter. I almost lost our daughter. I was pre-labor, and I was placed on mandatory medical leave, and I had to take a break from school. And so that delayed my graduation.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

And unfortunately when I returned from my mandatory medical break, my advisor was no longer with the university. So not only did my advisor change, my committee changed, and then my committee changed my topic twice. So it delayed the program for me, and I'm finally getting ready to get out of the University of South Carolina with a Ph.D. in teaching and learning.

SENATOR SCOTT: Also -- also, there were some questions as to the financial situation. I know you've sent us some documents.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Do you want to explain --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- exactly what these documents are?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. So the University of South Carolina had my original anticipated graduation date in the system, and it did not update in the system, so they stopped reporting me as a student in the department to my loan service provider.

So that put my loans into active status at $3,200 a month, and so I had to submit documentation that shows that I am still a student working on my dissertation. And I also had to submit my pay stub that shows that I'm a part-time employee of the university. That pay is roughly $300 a month for that placement of employment in the College of Education.

So they did update my student loan system. One of the student loans go back into payment status April 5th, 2020, and the other one is September 21st, 2020.

SENATOR SCOTT: Also, there were some questions, 2-28, sales usage of $706.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. It was actually more than that. So our business, they -- it's a painting studio, and they thought we sold wine on the premise, and we do not. It's a bring-your-own studio, so people can bring their beverages in and participate in a paint session.

So they did send an auditor to the site to look at the studio, and I did submit five years' worth of monthly sales, monthly bank statements, and tax payments. The auditor went through every single document, and they showed that we did not sell wine, and we do not owe sales taxes for wine.

They did find, however, that because of one of the vendors that we order from was based in North Carolina, we did have to pay an additional tax outside of the North Carolina tax. So that was squared away on

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

January the 27th. It has been put in good standing, and we pay $260 a month for that particular tax payment.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Mr. King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Ms. Wilkerson...

MS. WILKERSON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for your service on the board at Winthrop.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: The same question I asked your soon new colleague, what type of relationship do you feel that Winthrop should have the local legislative delegation?

MS. WILKERSON: I think it's very important for us to have a strong relationship, especially for the delegation where our university resides.

I have expressed that concern to my fellow board members, as well as the sitting president, for us to further develop and enhance those relationships, to reach across the aisle a little more frequently, to extend more invitations, and to make you all welcome -- feel welcome more so on our campus and through activities.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I think you and I have had that conversation --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- ever since you have been elected.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My next question is -- and I've had this conversation with you before as well. What are you doing on the board to -- while Winthrop is known for the number of students of color --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- at their school -- I believe you all have one of the highest numbers in --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir, and our current freshman class, it's the first time it's 51 percent. Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And with that being said, as you know, I live in Rock Hill and live in the community and am very active in my community. When I speak with Winthrop students that are black, I ask them in reference to their instructors, and I find that some have never experienced one African-American instructor or one at most out of their four years there.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

What are you all doing to increase the number of African-American instructors on campus, and what are you doing for the African-American instructors that you all have there as adjunct instructors to have them move into full -- full-time status as full instructors on campus? What are you doing in your work as a board member?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. So I took notice of that when I first entered the board position seven years ago, and over the course of that time, we've developed several different layers to address that issue.

First and foremost, we made it a part of the evaluation of the president. And so at the end of the day, the board sets the policy, the governing policy for the university, and if we don't have a way to evaluate that the president is actually addressing that concern, then it's hard to implement that.

So we made that a part of the evaluation, and in that, we have increased diversity in staffing and hiring practices. We have senior-level members of color now, which was not there before. We have an African-American woman vice president. We did not have any members on the senior team that was of color.

And then we've also increased employment, and we started by announcing vacancies in areas of diversity and so utilizing magazine subscriptions where that's the -- the base of consumers is where we put those postings now so that we have a diverse reach and that our audience is diverse when they receive the information.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Mr. Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Ms. Wilkerson, now that you've been on the board for the period of time that you have, could you tell me what kind of training you have received from your earliest days as a member of the board of trustees up through the present time?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. We have received in-house training, retreats, orientations, informational sessions. We've also received a membership to the Trusteeship magazine, and with that, each trustee receives that magazine, and we're able to stay abreast on national trends and issues in higher ed.

We also receive invitations to attend conferences. Me personally, I would like to see more support in that regard for trustees to be able to attend conferences. As of now, there isn't a mechanism that supports trustees going out of their own university to receive training.

Me personally, I've done a lot of research because of my trade and finishing a research Ph.D. I've done a lot of research, and I've purchased books and magazines to help further prepare me. But I would like to see more of that for the board as a whole.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: And insofar as board decisions, as they are made, do you have any perspective that you can offer from the standpoint of discussion, disagreement when these policy decisions are made, how that -- how you're able to articulate that, and what view do you -- how do you view the board and its relationship with the administration?

MS. WILKERSON: So the board has had a series of changes and what I refer to as growing pains.

When I first entered the position seven years ago, we were transitioning from having a president that was there for 20-plus years. And so in that, the board has changed a little bit with retirement of trustees, the transition of new trustees, as well as the changes of hiring three different presidents for the university.

So because of that, we've had to learn how to navigate the terrain together. And we've been very vocal. We're also very welcoming to hearing everyone's input and ideas. Even though we do have a chair and a vice chair of the board, we also have an executive team of the board. All members of the board are informed and notified and are invited to participate in discussions on a committee level as well as a full board level.

And then in addition to that, our committee representative reports to the full board with a -- with a recap of what took place in their committee so that the full board is aware and knowledgeable of what's taken place in every facet of the board.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: So my final question to you would be is the board merely a rubber stamp of what the chairman and/or the president wishes to be the direction of the university?

MS. WILKERSON: It is not.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you, ma'am.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

And it's good to see you this afternoon.

MS. WILKERSON: Good to see you too.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I appreciate your service.

What has been the greatest experience for you being on the Winthrop board --

MS. WILKERSON: You know --

SENATOR ALEXANDER: -- and serving as a board member?

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MS. WILKERSON: The fact that it's an extension for me. When I was a student there, I served as a university ambassador, and it was an honor to be able to guide parents for their first, initial contact with the university.

And I've had that opportunity to do that same thing as a trustee.

Just recently I ran into someone, and they said, Thank you, thank you, thank you; it's because of you that my son decided to go to Winthrop University, and he is thoroughly enjoying his first year there.

And so with that, I have the opportunity to speak directly to future students and students and their parents. Just this past Friday, I served as the speaker for the multicultural prospective students' luncheon, and I shared an invitation for them to join our community of learners too. I imparted on them that our motto is to leave the world a better place. I invited them to come and help make Winthrop even better so that we can continue to leave our mark on the state and beyond.

And so those opportunities -- also bridging the gap while on the board. I worked with the Council of Student Leaders to develop Winthrop Day at the State House. That was not done prior to me getting on the board, so I was able to be instrumental in that process as well.

And then I've also continued to work with the Winthrop alumni admissions volunteers, which is something that the board was not aware that the university had. So I've been able to kind of bridge that gap and inform the board of ways that they can get involved as recruiters officially, bringing students to Winthrop University and growing our community.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Good. Just one other thing.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

So I heard the discussion with the Senator from Richland here, Senator Scott, and I commend you for getting your other degree -- working on your other degree, and I certainly understand health issues. So are all of those things outlined that we have -- are they in good standing now --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: -- or where -- where are the -- there's -- have you been notified by the agencies that everything is --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: -- satisfied?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir, I have, and I did -- I do have proof of notification. They're all in good standing, yes, sir.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And "in good standing," does that mean they're current, or does that mean they've been satisfied completely, or what does that mean?

MS. WILKERSON: Some are satisfied completely, and others are current.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And I think you say that on the -- on your business --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: -- that you all have that you don't sell alcohol. So you don't have an alcohol license?

MS. WILKERSON: We don't need one because -- well --

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Because it's --

MS. WILKERSON: But they thought we needed one, essentially, is what the issue was. They thought that we needed an alcohol license because the name of the company has the word wine in it, so they thought we sold wine, and so they thought we needed an alcohol license.

And once they sent an auditor on-site, they were able to get the confirmation that they needed.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And when did they send the auditor on-site? Has that been recently?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir -- well, it was right before the Christmas holiday, and then I met with -- the last meeting with the Department of Revenue was on January the 27th, and they were able to close the file.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: So does that close the file on sales and use tax, or is that a different issue?

MS. WILKERSON: Well, they were able to close the file that we do not need the sales and use tax because we don't sell wine or alcoholic beverages.

And they were able to identify that the only thing that was old on the account was for the merchandise or the supplies that were purchased from a North Carolina vendor. They said that even though it was purchased in North Carolina, you still have to pay the difference or an additional tax for South Carolina. And so they were able to give me that total amount, and then that was the decision for that.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And so that was January when?

MS. WILKERSON: 27th, 2020.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I have --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: So let's revisit your finances here. Four outstanding liens unsatisfied as of January 31st, 2020. Is that --

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

those four and then two more, 2-28-19 and 12-31-18, sales and use tax, is that what you're talking about, the line --

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir, and it's right here. And I have the date for January 27th, and they have that we owe $216 a month, and we made our first payment in January, the 27th.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Okay. Now let's get to your credit reports and student loans. You have a loan of $115,095; is that correct?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: And according to our records, the student loans were sent to a collection account. It said the loans are in default. You say they're not now?

MS. WILKERSON: No, sir. I have a statement right here that has the past-due balance of zero dollars and that my student loan date is 4-5-2020, is when it comes -- when it has to be -- start paying on it.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Do you have an additional loan for your Ph.D. program at USC? Is that something different?

MS. WILKERSON: So it's all combined. So they did it in two separate categories. They have one category for student loans for undergraduate and graduate. Then they have another category for Ph.D. work.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: So are you borrowing money to go to that program or not?

MS. WILKERSON: Not anymore, no, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Not anymore. And your student loans are now up-to-date?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: And you have a payment program?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. Well, it doesn't start until 4-5-2020. Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Are you okay with that much debt?

MS. WILKERSON: Do I want that much debt?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: No. Are you going to be able to carry it?

MS. WILKERSON: No, I do not. Yes, sir, I will. So the average -- once I -- once I finish my degree, the average income for Ph.D.-ers are 65- to 72,000 a year.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: One last question. Rent, where do you rent -- what's your address? What's your current address?

MS. WILKERSON: I have a permanent address, which is 705 Sunset Drive, and then a renter's address is 30 -- 3501 Lyles. Both of them are in Richland County. Both of them are in Congressional District 6.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: You're okay with your finances?

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MS. WILKERSON: I am, yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: You're going to be able to stay afloat?

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any other questions? What's the desire of the committee?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Second?

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any other discussion? Hearing none, all in favor, raise your right hand.

Thank you for your willingness to serve and getting to work out there and pay off those loans.

MS. WILKERSON: I know. I'm so ready to graduate. You'll get an invitation.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: I'll suggest Representative King be the keynote speaker.

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Chairman?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: And in the middle of all that, are you working on another children's book? I know you and your husband write children's books.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir, we write --

SENATOR SCOTT: They spend their time giving back to our community.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir, we both -- this is my husband. He came for moral support. We both write children's books. I'm working on my fifth one. He's working on his fourth one. And we've done extensive work within the state of South Carolina with early childhood literacy.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MS. WILKERSON: Yes, sir.

Thank you all.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: We'll crank back up. Winthrop University, Tab S, Randall Imler from Tega Cay.

MR. IMLER: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Seat 9. For the record, if you would, give us your full name.

MR. IMLER: James Randall Imler.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. IMLER: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MR. IMLER: I would. Mr. Chairman and members of the committee, thank you for the opportunity to come here today. I have served as a Winthrop trustee since 2014 and have chaired the committee on finance since 2016. I've also had the opportunity to serve on six of the seven board committees.

In doing so, I've learned much about the institution and the competitive landscape of higher ed in South Carolina. And hopefully, I've been able to help the university throughout my first term.

I believe the university has made progress over the past six years, without unrestricted net position increasing by over a hundred percent to $22 million when you take out the state's unfunded pension and OPEB liabilities. We've also retired over $40 million in institutional debt during that time.

The budget process has been transformed and is more transparent, and stakeholders and the board of trustees are able to assess and evaluate all components of our financial statements and our statement of net position.

Much work remains, however, in two key areas, and that would be enrollment growth and deferred building maintenance. The area of the state in which Winthrop is fortunate to be located has experienced dynamic population growth, and one of the opportunities for Winthrop is to capture its share of graduating high school seniors from high-growth counties around the region.

Winthrop's online graduate education programs are growing rapidly as well. These online programs are augmenting our residential masters programs, and according to the 2019 South Carolina Commission on Higher Ed -- of Higher Education Statistical Abstract, Winthrop has the highest number of masters students of any comprehensive teaching institution in the state.

Winthrop certainly appreciates the steps that the Legislature and the governor are taking to support higher education through the budget and through the allocation of additional financial resources. With that support, we will do our part to curtail the inflation of cost for a Winthrop degree.

We do face continuing challenges in the areas of deferred building maintenance, as do many of our peer institutions. Again, the Legislature's recognition of this issue and additional funding to pay for deferred maintenance on university buildings is greatly needed and greatly appreciated. Roofs, electrical systems, and boilers are not exciting things, but they sure are important in the life of an institution.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

I'm seeking a second term because I appreciate and want to preserve and enhance the value that Winthrop brings to our community, our region, and our state. The university is an economic anchor, and as such, deserves the commitment of all its stakeholders -- the board of trustees, faculty and staff, students, and alumni, of which I am one -- to position her for continued service to students and citizens throughout South Carolina and the nation.

I'm happy to take any questions you might have.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Questions or comments?

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: (Raises hand.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative Clary.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Thank you very much, Mr. Imler, for your service and for being here today. In looking at your responses, I guess it's no surprise that you're in a period of transition now that your president has announced that he is going elsewhere. And you pointed out some areas of flat enrollment for ten years, small endowment, searching for a new president.

As a board member, what kind of strategic -- do you have a strategic plan that you're operating under? Now, I know when you get a new president, you'll probably have another one, but tell me what you're doing to address these issues, because you've had a lot of -- a lot of movement over there in the last few years.

MR. IMLER: Sure. When Dr. Mahoney came, he set in place the Winthrop Plan, which takes the institution through 2025. We are operating under that strategic plan.

The board of trustees has hired an interim president, Dr. George Hynd. Dr. Hynd served as provost at the College of Charleston and also as president of Oakland University in Michigan.

Dr. Hynd's interim tenure is strategically pegged at being over two years, which is a long tenure for an interim. But the university is entering in its SACS reaccreditation process, which is about an 18-month process, and so the board felt it was prudent to have a long-term interim in place and gives the trustees an opportunity to think strategically, to your point, about what is necessary for the institution as we search for a long-term, permanent president.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: You know, I look at your background. You have an unusual background for your vocation now. Did you ever have that guy by the name of Bill Malambri when you were over at Winthrop?

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. IMLER: I do know Dr. Malambri.

REPRESENTATIVE CLARY: Well, God bless you. He's a good friend of mine.

MR. IMLER: He's actually played golf with my father quite a bit.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else? Desire of the committee?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Favorable.

MS. CASTO: Senator Scott has a question.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Oh, Senator Scott. I thought he was moving.

Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Question.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Thank you for your willingness to serve. Tell me a little bit about the diversity plan up to Winthrop and what are you doing to recruit students and costs associated with tuition.

MR. IMLER: Senator, I'm pleased to say that we are one of, if not the most, diverse institutions in the state. We have a minority enrollment that tops 40 percent.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay.

MR. IMLER: Our freshman class last year, over 50 percent were considered minority students.

Regarding costs --

SENATOR SCOTT: Tuition.

MR. IMLER: Yes, sir. The board held tuition increase to less than -- or to a half a percent last year, and in the preceding four years, to around 2 1/2 percent each year. We do recognize we are one of the higher tuition -- in-state tuition institutions in the state, and the board has worked to address this over the years, and that's why, as other institutions have had higher increases, we've had lower increases.

SENATOR SCOTT: So most of your students live within the area?

MR. IMLER: No, it's -- about 87 percent are in-state students. We do have a --

SENATOR SCOTT: What about region? What about within your region?

MR. IMLER: We do have a concentration of students within what I'll say -- the Chester, Lancaster --

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MR. IMLER: -- York County area, but we have students from all over the state; a lot from Columbia, a lot from Charleston, a lot from the Upstate.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you.

Anyone else?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Motion is favorable. Any other discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand. Unanimous. Thank you, sir.

MR. IMLER: Thank you. Appreciate your time.

WIL LOU GRAY OPPORTUNITY SCHOOL

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School, At-Large. The first is Doris Adams from Columbia.

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: How do you do, ma'am?

MS. ADAMS: Hello.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, if you would, give us your full name, ma'am.

MS. ADAMS: Doris McBride Adams.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MS. ADAMS: Yes, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

It is an honor as well as a pleasure serving on the Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School board. In keeping with Dr. Wil Lou Gray's motto, "Why stop learning," we're committed to serving and motivating at-risk students of South Carolina into becoming productive, employable young adults through academic and vocational coursework.

And guess what? The school started in 1921. In 2021, we'll be what? One hundred years old. We'll have our 100th anniversary. And it has been a pleasure serving on the board and helping our students.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Good. Questions or comments?

Mr. Whitmire.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Ms. Adams, welcome today.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: My subcommittee in Ways and Means gets the opportunity to listen to the Wil Lou Gray story, and I just wanted to tell you and I want to tell the other candidates, it's just refreshing to have a school like that that has -- I think has stepped up and probably saved a lot of children --

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: -- that would have gone the wrong way if they hadn't offered that military and some discipline in their lives.

MS. ADAMS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE: And they shared with me how many of the students go on and are successful in life, and so I just want to personally thank you for your service and for the school.

MS. ADAMS: Thank you, and I'd like to -- I brought this letter along because we're always receiving letters and information about our students. It says, My name is Darion Lord (phonetic), and I am from Irmo, South Carolina. I attended Dutch Fork High School for approximately one year before I disenrolled and chose to come to Wil Lou Gray.

Even though I knew I had leadership qualities, I chose to ignore them, and I became a follower. Then I was following -- the people that I was following were not the right ones. They were leading me down a path my grandmother had not set out for me to go down.

I eventually moved in with my grandparents and soon after started Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School. Before I came here, I only had one goal, which was only to get my GED. I quickly realized that I needed much more than that.

Aside from my GED, I found out that I needed discipline. Discipline is what is going to allow me to use my GED in the future. Without discipline, my GED will be useless.

Wil Lou Gray has helped instill the quality in myself and other cadets with the distinct military structure of the school, which I have learned to appreciate. I've been using my skills, becoming more of a leader, by leading by example and by being vocal while serving as my classmates' platoon sergeant. I am very grateful for Wil Lou Gray since I've been here.

And these are the kinds of letters that we receive from our students.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Chair, more than 55 years ago, I met this lady. I guess I was a third grader or fourth grader. And I can tell you, she has spent her entire life in education.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

And I want to commend you, Ms. McBride Adams, for all the many years, and still at the latter part of your career, you're still working to help these children. Thank you so much for your service. You're a true South Carolinian.

MS. ADAMS: Thank you.

SENATOR SCOTT: And we really appreciate your hard work.

So at the appropriate time, I move for a favorable report.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Did he behave in the third grade?

MS. ADAMS: Did he behave?

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Yes, ma'am.

MS. ADAMS: Oh, he was an excellent student.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: How'd you get him to hush? I can't get him to hush.

Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: She'll give you some pointers maybe later on.

And thank you, and please share those with us.

A couple of things. I really wanted to talk to you and ask you about the weakness, but I just wanted to point out that their biggest strength is its board of trustees and director. So I think that was a -- that's worth noting from that standpoint.

But the weakness, constant staff turnover, how are you -- I mean, I think that's something we're seeing statewide. Is there any initiative that y'all are doing to try to address the turnover rate?

MS. ADAMS: Well, with the Education Oversight Committee, we have meetings with them during the year, and we give the input about that during that time.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Favorable report. Do you second?

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

Thank you so much, ma'am.

MS. ADAMS: Thank you too, sir.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Next, Bryan England, Georgetown, Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. ENGLAND: Good afternoon.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, if you would, give us your full name.

MR. ENGLAND: My full name is Bryan Benson England, Jr.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. ENGLAND: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a statement?

MR. ENGLAND: Yes, sir.

I've been on the board for around 20 years, and I've seen Wil Lou Gray make great strides. I remember when I first considered trying to be on this board, and I looked around at the different boards that I might apply for. But the one that appealed to me the most was Wil Lou Gray. And the reason it did is because I really deeply believe in what they do. And I believe we've served this state well, and we will continue to do so.

As all of y'all know, there's a lot of at-risk kids in this state, and thankfully, we're able to offer an opportunity to them to bring some discipline to them, give them an educational opportunity, and give them a chance to turn their life around.

I guess the thing that probably gives me the greatest satisfaction is maybe a young man will come up to me and my -- see my car at the car wash, and he'll notice that I'm on the Wil Lou Gray board, and he'll say, I went there, and I'm glad I did, and today I'm doing this, or I'm doing that. And I knew that -- I could tell that he'd benefitted from the experience and that it'd changed his life. And that's what I think we're all about.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Questions or comments? Well, what's the desire of the committee?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Second?

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any other discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

Thank you, sir. Thank you so much for your service.

Next, Reginald Thomas, Spartanburg.

Good afternoon, sir.

MR. THOMAS: Good afternoon.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: For the record, give us your full name, sir.

MR. THOMAS: Reginald Jason Thomas.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Let me swear you in. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MR. THOMAS: I do.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MR. THOMAS: Yes, sir.

For 30 years, I was the program director directing the operations for Spartanburg city and county parks and recreation department. It gave me the opportunity to really work with youth, teens, and young adults, and retiring eight years ago, I continue my work throughout the city and county doing the same thing.

And then having the opportunity to come almost four years ago to be a trustee at Wil Lou Gray gave me the opportunity to continue there, to see -- to help young people become productive citizens. When they're going down the wrong path, then it gives them the opportunity to change their lives. It's just an honor and a blessing to me to be able to serve and continuing to serve in that capacity.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you so much.

Questions or comments? Desire of the committee?

(Motion for a favorable report.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Motion favorable. Seconded?

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Any discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

Thank you so much, sir.

MR. THOMAS: Thank you. Y'all have a blessed day. May I say --

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Certainly.

MR. THOMAS: If you haven't gone out to the school, we surely invite you to come and go and see how -- the wonderful job the administration and the staff, as well as the good jobs that the -- the young adults are doing there. I think you'll be very impressed if you go.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Thank you, sir.

MR. THOMAS: Thank you, and we appreciate your support.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Next, Kimberly Suber, Chapin.

Good afternoon, ma'am. For the record, give us your full name.

MS. SUBER: Kimberly L. Suber.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

MS. SUBER: I do.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Would you like to make a brief statement?

MS. SUBER: I would.

I see everybody is looking at counties, and I've come from different counties. I was born in Chester County, lived in Fairfield County in the Blair community, grew up in Pomaria, and now I'm in Chapin.

So I have been in education for 17 years and spent 3 years as a social worker. And during that time, I have learned that we have to provide challenges -- provide opportunities for kids, especially with at-risk youth.

I have served as a secondary administrator. I have also helped place children at Wil Lou Gray for that second opportunity, so I'm a believer in second chances.

My son, who is now a grad -- he's graduating in 2020, in May, from The Citadel -- was once an alternative school student, so I'm very proud of that, how he was able to overcome that. And those success stories are things that can inspire others, and I think that's where I -- that's why I have a passion for alternative schools.

So recently, my recent job now is in Richland One School District where I had to create an alternative school for kindergarten through fifth grade. And at this time, we have two sites. We have a site that's at Hyatt Park Elementary, and we also have a site that's at Horrell Hill Elementary.

I think the problem is -- now is that the social-emotional learning is what our children need now. And being able to provide that for students who don't have an opportunity to go to Wil Lou Gray would be an excellent opportunity to stand on what Wil Lou Gray already has.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Questions or comments?

Senator Alexander.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

And good afternoon, and thank you for your willingness to serve.

Did I understand that in your role in education you've had the opportunity to recommend students to be students at Wil Lou Gray?

MS. SUBER: Yes. Yes, sir. I've had students that were recommended that attended, and I've had students that, because they did not want to attend, those students ended up on "Live PD."

And I think that's one change that I want to see, where the parents are supported more, because at Wil Lou Gray, if the student's not interested in going, then they can't go. And at 16 years old -- as a mother, as a single parent myself, I just don't think a 16-year-old can make that decision. I think we should do some probationary things to get those kids in and possibly save them also.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: And it's my understanding from your comments that your son had also been a --

MS. SUBER: Yes, my son was in an alternative school. He'd made a mistake, got a second chance. Ended up being a stand-out football player at Chapin High School. He's now at The Citadel. He's on the President's List. He's Gold Star. He's done so many different things, and I'm proud of him.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: I was getting ready to say I'm sure you're proud of him.

MS. SUBER: Yes. And I have one more. I just did his IGP meeting this morning. So he's -- he'll -- he's in ninth grade and will finish up Eagle Scout by this summer.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Wow.

MS. SUBER: Yeah.

SENATOR ALEXANDER: Congratulations.

MS. SUBER: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else?

Ms. Davis.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I believe you mentioned that you are currently starting alternative schools --

MS. SUBER: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: -- for K through fifth grade. Did I hear you correctly on that?

MS. SUBER: Yes, that is -- that is correct.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: So if you don't mind just explaining a little about what you're doing there. I mean, I'm surprised that we need alternative school --

MS. SUBER: We do.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: -- for K through fifth grade. So if you would just educate me a little bit on what you're doing there, I would appreciate that.

MS. SUBER: So with K -- Richland One came to a place where we were having so many hearing boards, hearing boards on K-5 students. And believe it or not, a K-5 student could probably tear this whole room up if they are having an episode.

So what we did was we decided that we needed to provide an intervention, and that intervention is a smaller classroom. It's more on a

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

Tier 3 basis where we implement counseling, mental health. We also work with the parents and make the parents accountable.

So through that, we're doing it as -- their motto is "Together we will." We do it as a team effort. So within those 45 days that they are placed with us, we work with them intentionally on social-emotional learning, and that improves academic motivation once you tap into that. Because we have to realize that the children from 17 years old -- 17 years ago are not the same as the children now because they have so many adverse childhood experiences that we never experienced.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: So I just have a follow-up to that.

MS. SUBER: Go ahead.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Then -- so are you seeing success with that program? How long has that program been in existence?

MS. SUBER: This program has been -- it's going in its third year. We have been successful. The state department has come and looked at us as a model school.

Right now some of the things that I've implemented, we are taking it into the regular schools, so transforming schools. I just worked with a full school staff -- I'm still working with them now -- within our district. So they're taking that model and trying to implement it in the schools now.

REPRESENTATIVE DAVIS: Good. Thank you for your work on that. I appreciate that.

MS. SUBER: Thank you.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

Ms. Suber...

MS. SUBER: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I am a native of Chester, South Carolina, as well, as you know. I just want to say I'm so proud --

MS. SUBER: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- of your success, but more importantly proud of who you are as a mother and what you have done with your sons.

MS. SUBER: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So I wish you much success with that.

Can you tell me -- can you tell me what you feel is -- and you may have already said this -- the weakness and strength of Wil Lou Gray?

MS. SUBER: I would say the strength is that they already have a process in place. I think that you can always add as the times change.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

One thing as an administrator that I've noticed that was an issue was I had children who were very intelligent in Fairfield County, but because they didn't want to make that decision to go, they were denied -- of attending. And I think sometimes you have to push a child. My son didn't want to go to The Citadel, but I pushed him and said, No, that's where you're going because you need discipline.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, thank you for your willingness to serve.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Anyone else? What's the desire?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Favorable report.

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Favorable.

(Motion is seconded.)

CHAIRMAN SENATOR PEELER: Second. Discussion? Hearing none, we'll take it to a vote. All in favor, raise your right hand.

Thank you, ma'am. Thank you so much.

Received as information.

SPEAKER IN CHAIR

H. 3411--SENATE AMENDMENTS AMENDED AND RETURNED TO THE SENATE

The Senate Amendments to the following Bill were taken up for consideration:

H. 3411 -- Reps. G. R. Smith, W. Newton, Funderburk, Willis, Anderson, Weeks, Erickson, Elliott, R. Williams, Wheeler, Young and Clemmons: A BILL TO MAKE APPROPRIATIONS AND TO PROVIDE REVENUES TO MEET THE ORDINARY EXPENSES OF STATE GOVERNMENT FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 2020, IN THE EVENT THAT THE GENERAL APPROPRIATIONS ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2020-2021 HAS NOT BEEN ENACTED BY THAT DATE, TO REGULATE THE EXPENDITURE OF SUCH FUNDS, AND TO FURTHER PROVIDE FOR THE OPERATION OF STATE GOVERNMENT.

Reps. G.M. SMITH, LUCAS, SIMRILL and RUTHERFORD proposed the following Amendment No. 1A to H. 3411 (COUNCIL\DG\3411C002.NBD.DG20), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ PART I

Continuing to Fund the Ordinary Expenses of State Government

SECTION 1. (A)(1) If the 2020-2021 state fiscal year begins with no annual general appropriations act in effect for that year, the authority to pay the recurring expenses of state government continues at the level of amounts appropriated in Act 91 of 2019 for the recurring expenses of state government for Fiscal Year 2020-2021 except as provided in subsection (A)(2).

(2) The effective dates of Parts IA and IB of Act 91 of 2019 are extended until the effective date for appropriations made in a general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, after which appropriations made pursuant to this joint resolution are deemed to have been made pursuant to the general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021.

(B) Notwithstanding debt service appropriations in Act 91 of 2019 and until the effective date of the appropriations made in a general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, there is appropriated whatever amount is necessary for timely debt service on state obligations and other amounts constitutionally required to be appropriated, including the General Reserve Fund, the Capital Reserve Fund, and to conduct the 2020 primary, runoff, and general elections, to include expenses to provide for protection of the health and safety of voters, poll workers, and employees of county election commissions. The General Reserve Fund is established in the amount required by law. The Executive Budget Office shall, in conjunction with the Comptroller General and the State Treasurer, implement the necessary and appropriate accounting transactions to implement the provisions in this paragraph.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

PART II

Specific Provisions Related to the Operation of State Government

SECTION 2. (A)(1) The State of South Carolina desires to procure professional grant management services for oversight and compliance of funds received through the ‘Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act’ (CARES Act) and any other available source of federal COVID-19 relief funds. It is intended that the procurement will result in a contract for professional grant management services that can assist the State with grant management to include, but not be limited to: understanding the requirements and funding streams related to the CARES Act and federal relief funds; creating a framework for grant management from application for funds to disbursement of funds to include the development of processes and controls, data collection, evaluation of requests, and reporting; and creating a system of monitoring for compliance and detecting possible fraud, waste, and abuse.

(2) It is vital to the State’s interest that a contract be awarded for such professional grant management services in the most expeditious manner possible and time is of the essence. Accordingly, this procurement should be done pursuant to the provisions of Section 11-35-1570 of the 1976 Code. The Executive Director of the South Carolina Department of Administration shall coordinate the process used to procure the professional grant management services needed and shall be responsible for the development of specifications to be included in any contract awarded. The State Fiscal Accountability Authority shall serve as the procuring officer for the procurement process and is responsible for administrative duties related to the process and the contract awarded pursuant to it. The State Fiscal Accountability Authority shall assign such personnel as requested by the Executive Director of the Department of Administration to assist the Department of Administration in carrying out its duties under this act.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

(B) State boards, commissions, agencies, departments, and institutions of higher learning are authorized to receive funds directly from the federal government in response to the 2019 Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19). Funds so received shall be expended for COVID-19 preparedness and response and in accordance with applicable federal laws and regulations. Any state board, commission, agency, department, or institution of higher learning that receives funds must submit an expenditure plan to the Governor, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. Beginning on June 1, 2020, and on the first day of each month thereafter, the recipient shall provide a detailed accounting of the expenditure of all federal relief funds to the Governor and the General Assembly. The detailed accounting must be made available on the Governor's website. Unexpended funds, without limitation, may be carried forward into the succeeding fiscal year and expended for the same purpose.

(C) The Governor is authorized to receive on behalf of the State of South Carolina federal funds designated for the Coronavirus Relief Fund.

(D) The Executive Budget Office shall establish the Coronavirus Relief Fund as a federal fund account separate and distinct from all other accounts. All federal appropriations received by the Governor pursuant to subsection (C), must be credited to the Coronavirus Relief Fund account. No other funds may be credited to this account and funds in the account may be expended only by appropriation or authorization by the General Assembly.

(E) Nothing herein limits any state board, commission, agency, department, or institution receiving funds from the Coronavirus Relief Fund from continuing to expend funds from other sources, including state appropriated funds, that are necessary to address the state's response to COVID-19. Any unexpended funds from the Coronavirus Relief Fund, without limitation, may be carried forward into the succeeding fiscal year and expended for the same purpose.

SECTION 3. (A) From the Fiscal Year 2018-2019 Contingency Reserve Fund, there is appropriated:

From the funds appropriated herein, the Treasurer shall credit $20,000,000 to the Disaster Trust Fund to be used for disaster relief assistance for a federally declared disaster or a state of emergency declared by the Governor. The Treasurer shall establish a COVID-19 Response Reserve account which shall be separate and distinct from other accounts. From the funds appropriated herein, the Treasurer shall credit $155,000,000 to the COVID-19 Response Reserve account.

(2) $25,000,000 to the Medical University of South Carolina for statewide community COVID-19 testing.

(3) $1,500,000 to the Department of Administration for oversight and compliance of state spending of federal COVID-19 relief funds.

(B)(1) The Governor may direct the expenditure of funds from the COVID-19 Response Reserve account to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the public as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to any expenditure, the Governor must submit the planned expenditure to the Joint Bond Review Committee for its review and comment. Thereafter the Governor may direct the Executive Budget Office to release the funds for the purposes identified in the Governor's plan. Any recipient of funds from the COVID-19 Response Reserve account must provide an accounting of the expenditures to the Governor and the Joint Bond Review Committee as soon as practicable.

(2) The Governor may direct reimbursement to local governmental entities and hospitals for expenses related to the state's COVID-19 response, to include, but not limited to, emergency needs for hospitals to prevent closure or violation of bond covenants. Priority should be given to expenses related to the participation of first responders.

(3) The Governor also may direct the expenditure of up to $15,000,000 from the COVID-19 Response Reserve account to underwrite the cost for protection of the health and safety of voters, poll workers, and employees of a county election commission related to conducting the 2020 primary, runoff, and general elections.

(C)(1) The Medical University of South Carolina, in consultation with the Department of Health and Environmental Control and the South Carolina Hospital Association, shall develop and deploy a statewide COVID-19 testing plan within ten days of the effective date of this act. The plan must emphasize testing in rural communities and communities with a high prevalence of COVID-19 and/or with demographic characteristics consistent with risk factors for COVID-19 including, but not limited to, communities with higher proportions of seniors, African-Americans, or individuals with chronic lung disease, asthma, serious heart conditions, severe obesity, compromised immune systems, diabetes, liver disease, or who are on dialysis.

(2)(a) The Department of Health and Environmental Control shall provide financial and administrative support to assist with the implementation of the statewide COVID-19 testing plan, including collaboration with hospitals, medical providers and other stakeholders, providing access to information on hotspots and contact tracing, coordination of all testing efforts, and supplementing efforts with resources, testing kits, and other supplies available to the department.

(b) Within fourteen days of the effective date of this act, the department shall allocate funds to hospitals in support of the statewide COVID-19 testing plan. After making these allocations, the department shall provide the Governor and the Joint Bond Review Committee with a written explanation of its methodology. Up to twenty-five percent of a hospital's allocation may be used to expand or improve the COVID-19 testing capabilities of its laboratories; all remaining funds must be used in direct support of providing COVID-19 testing. The department shall require that a hospital receiving funds pursuant to this section commit those funds to the provision of community testing, in consultation with the department and in alignment with the statewide testing plan. Any hospital receiving funds pursuant to this section shall report testing results to the department in a manner and form to be specified by the department.

(c) Where appropriate and feasible, medical providers and hospitals receiving grants or reimbursement for COVID-19 testing pursuant to this section shall also seek reimbursement from private health insurers, Medicare, Medicaid, and the Health Resources and Services Administration for COVID-19 diagnostic services covered pursuant to Division F of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) as amended by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) or any subsequent relevant congressional action.

(d) The department shall, no later than June 1, 2020, identify no fewer than 1,000 contact tracers through its own staff and/or community partners that include, but are not limited to, furloughed healthcare workers, students, school nurses, teachers, retirees, faith-based organizations, and others with relevant skills or experience. In identifying these contact tracers, the department shall take care to identify individuals who are best suited to interact, in a manner that is culturally appropriate and in the required languages, with populations that have been disproportionately affected by COVID-19.

(3) To support implementation of the statewide COVID-19 testing plan, the Department of Health and Environmental Control shall utilize funds appropriated in subsection (A) and all available state and federal funding sources, including, but not limited to:

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

- (a) any funds available pursuant to Act 116 of 2020;
- (b) the Coronavirus Relief Fund established pursuant to Section 5001 of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act; and
- (c) funds received from the Public Health and Social Services Emergency Fund pursuant to Title I, Division B of the Paycheck Protection Program and Health Care Enhancement Act.

(4) The Department of Health and Environmental Control must submit to the Joint Bond Review Committee, for its review and comment, any plan for expenditure under the provisions of this act or any expenditure of federal funds for COVID-19 pandemic response.

SECTION 4. (A) The Superintendent of Education is authorized to exercise the following emergency powers if she determines that any, or all, of them are necessary and appropriate measures in response to the COVID-19 public health emergency:

(1) waive statutory requirements concerning testing, assessments, and reporting including, but not limited to, those requirements contained in Chapter 18, Title 59; Article 3, Chapter 18, Title 59; and Section 59-155-160 of the 1976 Code;

(2) include all days of distance learning during which instruction was provided in good faith pursuant to a school district's distance learning plan as an instructional day required to meet the one hundred eighty instructional day requirement contained in Section 59-1-425; and

(3) provide maximum programmatic and financial flexibility including, but not limited to, the authority to carry forward any cash balances to local school districts adjusting to operations in response to COVID-19.

(B) The State Superintendent of Education is authorized to promote and encourage districts to use summer reading camps and all other available tools to ensure appropriate time is spent by students to keep them on grade level and satisfy their learning needs.

(C) The State Superintendent of Education is authorized to carry forward any cash balances maintained by the Department of Education. The superintendent is further authorized to transfer any appropriations within the department to assist local school districts adjusting operations in response to COVID-19.

(D) The state teacher minimum salary schedule will remain at the Fiscal Year 2019-2020 level. Step increases are suspended until the annual general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021 is enacted.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

(E) On or before August 1, 2020, the State Superintendent of Education shall provide a report to the Senate Finance Committee, the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee, the Senate Education Committee, and the House of Representatives Education and Public Works Committee concerning the emergency powers exercised in subsection (A). The report shall identify the statutory requirements waived and the reason for which the waiver was granted and identify and describe any actions taken in regards to subsection (A)(3).

SECTION 5. (A) In order to provide maximum flexibility to a state agency or institution of higher learning during the state's COVID-19 response, an agency or institution experiencing significant decreases in revenue sources or significant unanticipated expenditures as a result of the COVID-19 response may implement a mandatory furlough subject to the review and approval of the Department of Administration Division of State Human Resources. Approved furloughs must comply with all federal laws. Implementation of furloughs should be in a manner similar to furloughs authorized in Chapter 11, Title 8, exceptions may be approved by the Division of State Human Resources.

(B) During a furlough, affected employees shall be entitled to participate in the same state benefits as otherwise available to them except for receiving their salaries. As to those benefits that require employer and employee contributions including, but not limited to, contributions to the South Carolina Retirement System or the optional retirement program, the state agencies, institutions, and departments are responsible for making both employer and employee contributions if coverage would otherwise be interrupted; and as to those benefits which require only employee contributions, the employee remains solely responsible for making those contributions.

(C) The division shall report to the President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chairman of Senate Finance Committee, and the Chairman of House Ways and Means Committee when any furloughs are implemented. This information also shall be published on the division's website.

SECTION 6. In order to provide maximum flexibility to a state agency or institution of higher learning during the state's COVID-19 response, agencies and institutions are authorized to spend earmarked and restricted revenue sources to maintain critical programs impacted by the state's COVID-19 response. Any spending authorization for these purposes must receive the prior approval of the Executive Budget Office and must be reported to the Governor, Senate Finance Committee, and the House Ways and Means Committee. The Comptroller General is authorized to implement the procedures necessary to comply with this directive. This provision is provided notwithstanding any other provision of law restricting the use of earned revenue. Appropriation transfers may exceed twenty percent of the program budget upon approval of the Executive Budget Office in consultation with the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

SECTION 7. The Executive Budget Office is authorized to approve agency requests for federal and other fund authorization adjustments. Requests will be approved and reported by the Executive Budget Office pursuant to Chapter 65, Title 2, the "South Carolina Federal and Other Funds Oversight Act."

SECTION 8. The Comptroller General is directed to accrue into Fiscal Year 2019-2020 General Fund revenues previously due for remittance to the Department of Revenue by April fifteenth or June fifteenth but allowed to be remitted as late as July fifteenth pursuant to federal directive or the Governor's Executive Order 2020-12 including, but not limited to, individual and corporate income tax returns and quarterly estimated declarations.

SECTION 9. The increase in the employer contribution rate imposed by Section 9-1-1085 and Section 9-11-225 for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, respectively, are suspended. The employer contribution rate for the South Carolina Retirement Systems and the Police Officers Retirement Systems during Fiscal Year 2020-2021, expressed as a percentage of earnable compensation, shall remain at the same rate imposed for Fiscal Year 2019-2020.

SECTION 10. All voluntary support payments made by an employer to a furloughed employee as a result of the COVID-19 crisis shall be classified as a form of severance pay, are not wages, and are not subject to repayment by the furloughed employee. Any provision of law that conflicts with this section is suspended until July 31, 2020.

SECTION 11. (A) Unless otherwise allowed herein, the South Carolina Public Service Authority (Santee Cooper) may not take any action which would impair, hinder, or otherwise undermine from an economic, operational, feasibility, or any other perspective the ability of the General Assembly to complete its consideration regarding Santee Cooper's status.

(B) Santee Cooper is prohibited from:

(1) entering into any contracts with a duration of longer than one year, except those contracts necessary in the ordinary course of business; and

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

(2) entering into employment contracts with executive management with a duration longer than six months, or extension of existing executive management contracts for a period longer than six months.

(C) There is established the Santee Cooper Oversight Committee consisting of the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. The Santee Cooper Oversight Committee shall meet in public session. Santee Cooper and any party having made an appropriate request under this subsection will be provided prior notice and an opportunity to be heard at any meeting of the committee. The committee will convene only for the following:

(1) Consideration and authorization of any contract of a duration longer than one year or in excess of a duration contained in this section that is not otherwise specifically authorized by this section; and

(2) Consideration and clarification of any portion of subsection (E) as requested by Santee Cooper or any party, including Central Electric Power Cooperative (Central), with a direct contractual and financial interest in the contract at issue, prior to the execution of the contract.

(3) Consideration and clarification of any matter discovered by the Office of Regulatory Staff (ORS) pursuant to subsection (E) that the Office of Regulatory Staff determines is in violation of the terms contained in subsection (E).

All decisions, authorizations or clarifications of the Santee Cooper Oversight Committee shall require the vote of a majority of the membership of the committee and shall be issued as soon as practicable after any written request is received, but in no case more than forty-five days after such a written request is received by each member of the Committee.

(D) Santee Cooper will conduct resource and strategic planning discussions with Central Electric Power Cooperative.

(E) Nothing in this section prohibits Santee Cooper from:

(1) doing those things necessary for closing and decommissioning the Winyah Generating Station including, but not limited to, planning, permitting, and securing by purchase or lease one hundred megawatts of combustion turbines and minor transmission upgrades, subject to the consent of Central pursuant to the Power System Coordination and Integration Agreement between Santee Cooper and Central, as amended (the Coordination Agreement). (8) defeasing debt, issuing or refunding debt under existing bond resolutions and agreements, and entering into financing arrangements consistent with existing bank facilities, all as necessary to manage day to day operations and financing needs, including converting variable rate debt to fixed rate debt. Refunding of existing debt is permitted if it achieves present value savings or mitigates risk and does not extend the average life of the debt;

(9) resolving outstanding lawsuits and claims;

(10) taking whatever steps are prudent and consistent with good utility practice to address the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic; and

(11) freezing rates as provided in the settlement of Cook v. Santee Cooper, et al.

Through the time period designated in subsection (G), Santee Cooper will be subject to monthly reviews by the Office of Regulatory Staff for actions taken under this subsection. Within thirty days of this resolution, ORS will provide to Santee Cooper a reasonable process for reviews.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. G. M. SMITH raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 2A to H. 3411 is out of order in that the amendment is not germane to the Bill.

REP. BRAWLEY spoke against the point.

REP. COBB-HUNTER spoke against the point.

Rep M. SMITH spoke in favor of the point.

SPEAKER sustained the Point of Order and stated that Rule 5.3.B required that the substantial effect of all temporary provisions of law and amendments thereto must be directly germane to the appropriations of funds, affect revenue, or be rules, regulations, directives, or procedures relative to the appropriation of funds or affecting revenue for the fiscal year referred to in the Bill. He stated that Amendment No. 2A failed to meet the test and ruled the amendment to not be germane.

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 3A to H. 3411 (COUNCIL\DG\3411C001.NBD.DG20), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

Continuing to Fund the Ordinary Expenses of State Government

SECTION 1. (A)(1) If the 2020-2021 state fiscal year begins with no annual general appropriations act in effect for that year, the authority to pay the recurring expenses of state government continues at the level of amounts appropriated in Act 91 of 2019 for the recurring expenses of state government for Fiscal Year 2020-2021 except as provided in subsection (A)(2).

(2) The effective dates of Parts IA and IB of Act 91 of 2019 are extended until the effective date for appropriations made in a general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, after which appropriations made pursuant to this joint resolution are deemed to have been made pursuant to the general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021.

(B) Notwithstanding debt service appropriations in Act 91 of 2019 and until the effective date of the appropriations made in a general appropriations act for Fiscal Year 2020-2021, there is appropriated whatever amount is necessary for timely debt service on state obligations and other amounts constitutionally required to be appropriated, including the General Reserve Fund, the Capital Reserve Fund, and to conduct the 2020 primary, runoff, and general elections, to include expenses to provide for protection of the health and safety of voters, poll workers, and employees of a county election commission. The General Reserve Fund is established in the amount required by law. The Executive Budget Office shall, in conjunction with the Comptroller General and the State Treasurer, implement the necessary and appropriate accounting transactions to implement the provisions in this paragraph.

TUESDAY, MAY 12, 2020

PART II

Specific Provisions Related to the Operation of State Government

SECTION 2. (A)(1) The State of South Carolina desires to procure professional grant management services for oversight and compliance of funds received through the 'Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act' (CARES Act) or any other available source of federal COVID-19 relief funds. It is intended that the procurement will result in a contract for professional grant management services that can assist the State with grant management to include but not be limited to: understanding the requirements and funding streams related to the CARES Act and federal relief funds; creating a framework for grant management from application for funds to disbursement of funds to include the development of processes and controls, data collection, evaluation of requests, and reporting; and creating a system of monitoring for compliance and detecting possible fraud, waste, and abuse.

(2) It is vital to the State's interest that a contract be awarded for such professional grant management services in the most expeditious manner possible and time is of the essence. Accordingly, this procurement should be done pursuant to the provisions of Section 11-35-1570 of the 1976 Code. The Executive Director of the South Carolina Department of Administration shall coordinate the process used to procure the professional grant management services needed and shall be responsible for the development of specifications to be included in any contract awarded. The State Fiscal Accountability Authority shall serve as the procuring officer for the procurement process and is responsible for administrative duties related to the process and the contract awarded pursuant to it. The State Fiscal Accountability Authority shall assign such personnel as requested by the Executive

Funds so received shall be expended for COVID-19 preparedness and response and in accordance with applicable federal laws and regulations. Any state board, commission, agency, department, or institution of higher learning that receives funds must submit an expenditure plan to the Governor, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee. Beginning on June 1, 2020, and on the first day of each month thereafter, the recipient shall provide a detailed accounting of the expenditure of all federal relief funds to the Governor and the General Assembly, and made available on the Governor’s website. Unexpended funds, without limitation, may be carried forward into the succeeding fiscal year and expended for the same purpose.

(C) The Governor is authorized to receive on behalf of the State of South Carolina federal funds designated for the Coronavirus Relief Fund.

(D) The Executive Budget Office shall establish the Coronavirus Relief Fund as a federal fund account separate and distinct from all other accounts. All federal appropriations received by the Governor pursuant to subsection (C), must be credited to the Coronavirus Relief Fund account. No other funds may be credited to this account and funds in the account may be expended only by appropriation or authorization by the General Assembly.

(E) Nothing herein limits any state board, commission, agency, department, or institution receiving funds from the Coronavirus Relief Fund from continuing to expend funds from other sources, including funds appropriated for the current fiscal year, that are necessary to address the state’s response to COVID-19. Any unexpended funds from the Coronavirus Relief Fund, without limitation, may be carried forward into the succeeding fiscal year and expended for the same purpose.

(3) $1,500,000 to the Department of Administration for oversight and compliance of state spending of federal COVID-19 relief funds.

(B)(1) The Governor may direct the expenditure of funds from the COVID-19 Emergency Response Reserve account if exigent circumstances exist that requires immediate action to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the public as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Governor may direct reimbursement to local governmental entities and hospitals for expenses related to the state's COVID-19 response, to include, but not limited to, emergency needs for hospitals to prevent closure or violation of bond covenants. Priority should be given to expenses related to the participation of first responders.

(2) The Governor also may direct the expenditure of up to $15,000,000 from the COVID-19 Response Reserve account to underwrite the cost for protection of the health and safety of voters, poll workers, and employees of a county election commission related to conducting the 2020 primary, runoff, and general elections.

(3) Prior to any expenditure, the Governor must submit the planned expenditure to the Joint Bond Review Committee for its review and comment. Thereafter the Governor may direct the Executive Budget Office to release the funds for the purposes identified in the Governor's plan. Any recipient of funds from the COVID-19 Emergency Response Reserve account must provide an accounting of the expenditures to the Governor and the Joint Bond Review Committee as soon as practicable.

The plan must emphasize testing in rural communities and communities with a high prevalence of COVID-19 and/or with demographic characteristics consistent with risk factors for COVID-19, including but not limited to communities with higher proportions of seniors, African-Americans, or individuals with chronic lung disease, asthma, serious heart conditions, severe obesity, compromised immune systems, diabetes, liver disease, or who are on dialysis.

(b) Within fourteen days of the effective date of this act, the department shall allocate funds to hospitals in support of the statewide COVID-19 testing plan. After making these allocations, the department shall provide the Governor and the Joint Bond Review Committee with a written explanation of its methodology. Up to twenty-five percent of a hospital's allocation may be used to expand or improve the COVID-19 testing capabilities of its laboratories; all remaining funds must be used in direct support of providing COVID-19 testing. The department shall require that a hospital receiving funds pursuant to this section commit those funds to the provision of community testing, in consultation with the department and in alignment with the statewide testing plan. Any hospital receiving funds pursuant to this section shall report testing results to the department in a manner and form to be specified by the department.

(c) Medical providers and hospitals receiving grants or reimbursement for COVID-19 testing pursuant to this section shall also seek reimbursement from private health insurers, Medicare, Medicaid, and the Health Resources and Services Administration for COVID-19 diagnostic services covered pursuant to Division F of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) as amended by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act or any subsequent relevant congressional action.

(d) The department shall, no later than June 1, 2020, identify no fewer than 1,000 contact tracers through its own staff and/or community partners that include but are not limited to furloughed healthcare workers, students, school nurses, teachers, retirees, faith-based organizations, and others with relevant skills or experience. In identifying these contact tracers, the department shall take care to identify individuals who are best suited to interact, in a manner that is culturally appropriate and in the required languages, with populations that have been disproportionately affected by COVID-19.

(3) To support implementation of the statewide COVID-19 testing plan, the Department of Health and Environmental Control shall “Section 7-15-330. To vote by absentee ballot, a qualified elector or a member of his immediate family must request an application to vote by absentee ballot in person, by telephone, or by mail from the county board of voter registration and elections, or at an extension office of the board of voter registration and elections as established by the county governing body, for the county of the voter’s residence. A person requesting an application for a qualified elector as the qualified elector’s authorized representative must request an application to vote by absentee ballot in person or by mail only and must himself be a registered voter and must sign an oath to the effect that he fits the statutory definition of a representative. This signed oath must be kept on file with the board of voter registration and elections until the end of the calendar year or until all contests concerning a particular election have been finally determined, whichever is later. A candidate or a member of a candidate’s paid campaign staff, including volunteers reimbursed for time expended on campaign activity, is not allowed to request applications for absentee voting for any person designated in this section unless the person is a member of the immediate family. A request for an application to vote by absentee ballot may be made anytime during the calendar year in which the election in which the qualified elector desires to be permitted to vote by absentee ballot is being held. However, completed applications must be returned to the county board of voter registration and elections in person or by mail before 5:00 p.m. on the fourth day before the day of the election. Applications must be accepted by the county board of voter registration and elections until 5:00 p.m. on the day immediately preceding the election for those who appear in person and are qualified to vote absentee pursuant to Section 7-15-320. A member of the immediate family of a person who is admitted to a hospital as an emergency patient on the day of an election or within a four-day period before the election may obtain an application from the board on the day of an election, complete it, receive the ballot, deliver it personally to the patient who shall vote, and personally carry the ballot back to the board of voter registration and elections. The board of voter registration and elections shall serially number each absentee ballot application form and keep a record book in which must be recorded the number of the form, the name, home address, and absentee mailing address of the person for whom the absentee ballot application form is requested; the name, address, voter registration number, and relationship of the person requesting the form, if other than the applicant; the date upon which the form is requested; ~~and~~ the date upon which the form is issued; and the date and method upon which the absentee ballot is returned. This information becomes a public record at 9:00 a.m. on the day immediately preceding the election, except that forms issued for emergency hospital patients must be made public by 9:00 a.m. on the day following an election. A person who violates the provisions of this section is subject to the penalties provided in Section 7-25-170.”

F. Section 7-15-440 of the 1976 Code of Laws is amended to read:

“Section 7-15-440. The county board of voter registration and elections shall, after each election, prepare a list of all persons to whom absentee ballots were issued and all persons who cast absentee ballots. The list so compiled shall be made available for public inspection upon request. This list is in addition to the information provided pursuant to Section 7-15-330.”

G. Chapter 13, Title 7 of the 1976 Code of Laws is amended by adding:

“Section 7-13-825. The State Election Commission and each county board of voter registration and elections must post the requirements to challenge a ballot pursuant to the provisions of Section 7-13-810 in a conspicuous location in their respective offices and on their respective websites.”

H. The amendments contained in subsections A., B., and C. of this SECTION are repealed on December 31, 2021, and the text of these code sections therefore shall revert back to the language as contained in the South Carolina Code of Laws as of January 23, 2020.

All return-addressed envelopes received by the county board of voter registration and elections before the time for closing the polls must be examined in this manner. A ballot may not be counted unless the oath is properly signed and witnessed nor may any ballot be counted which is received by the county board of voter registration and elections after time for closing of the polls. A request for an application to vote by absentee ballot may be made anytime during the calendar year in which the election in which the qualified elector desires to be permitted to vote by absentee ballot is being held. However, completed applications must be returned to the county board of voter registration and elections in person or by mail before 5:00 p.m. on the fourth day before the day of the election. We pray for all people and especially for those who suffer illness. Heal them and make them whole. Bless and keep our defenders of freedom and first responders in Your care. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 2020

Rep. OTT proposed the following Amendment No. 7A to H. 5202 (COUNCIL\AHB\5202C003.BH.AHB20), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the joint resolution, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

/ “SECTION ____ . A.This SECTION may be cited as the “South Carolina COVID-19 Liability Safe Harbor Act”.

B. The General Assembly hereby finds and declares that providing reasonable protections from the risk and expense of lawsuits related to the Coronavirus pandemic to businesses and health care providers will help encourage them to remain open and reopen and that providing such a safe harbor to businesses and health care providers that operate consistent with applicable public health guidance will help ameliorate the adverse impacts of a closed economy and the resulting unemployment.

C. The following terms shall have the following meanings unless otherwise specified:

(1) “Covered Entity” means any of the following:

(a) any for profit or not-for-profit business entity, organized in any form whatsoever;

(b) any South Carolina government agency, division, authority, board, commission, instrumentality, political subdivision, municipality, county, or other governmental entity;

(c) any health care facility, as further defined in Chapter 4, Title 44 of the South Carolina Code, and any health care provider, as further defined in Chapter 4, Title 44, of the South Carolina Code.

(2) “Covered Individual” means any director, officer, employee, agent, contractor, third-party worker, or other representative of a Covered Entity.

(3) “Coronavirus disease 2019”, commonly abbreviated as “COVID-19”, means the virus generally known as “severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2”, any mutation thereof, and any disease or condition caused by “severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2”.

(4) “Public Health Guidance” means any applicable published guidance, directive, order, or rule provided by the United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention, the United States Occupational Safety and Health Administration, South Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Administration, United States Department of Health and Human Services, United States Food and Drug Administration, South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control, or other federal or state governmental entity that is applicable to the type of Covered Entity or Covered Individual and to the Coronavirus Claim at issue.

(5) “Coronavirus Claim” means any claim that arises from the Coronavirus, which shall include any cause of action that is related to any actual, alleged, or feared exposure to or contraction of Coronavirus:

- (a) from the premises of a Covered Entity;
- (b) from the operations, products, or services provided on or off premises of a Covered Entity;
- (c) from the acts or omissions of a Covered Individual or Covered Entity, to include the delay or withholding of medical care; and
- (d) from efforts to prevent or delay the spread of the coronavirus, to include making precautionary equipment or supplies such as personal protective equipment.

D. (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a Covered Entity or Covered Individual that reasonably adheres to Public Health Guidance applicable at the time the conduct giving rise to a Coronavirus Claim occurs shall be entitled to a safe harbor from liability for any acts or omissions in the course of, or through the performance or provision of, any business or health care service.

(B) This safe harbor will not apply if a claimant proves by clear and convincing evidence that the Covered Entity or Covered Individual caused the injury or damage:

- (1) through knowingly reckless, wilful, or intentional misconduct; or
- (2) by failing to make any attempt to adhere to Public Health Guidance.

(C) Any failure by a Covered Entity or Covered Individual to adhere to Public Health Guidance shall not constitute negligence per se, nor shall such failure create an inference that the Covered Entity or Covered Individual acted in a knowingly reckless, wilful, intentional, or wanton manner.

E. Nothing in this SECTION shall be construed to limit in any way any defense or right that exists under law, and the liability protection provided by this SECTION is in addition to and cumulative of other defenses and rights that exist under law.

F. The provisions of this SECTION are severable. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, item, subitem, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this SECTION is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of the SECTION, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, item, subitem, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, items, subitems, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective. To the extent any provision of this SECTION conflicts with any other law of this State, then the provisions of this SECTION shall prevail.

G. This SECTION takes effect upon approval by the Governor and its provisions apply to all civil and administrative causes of action that arise between March 13, 2020, and December 31, 2021, or 180 days after the final state of emergency is lifted for COVID-19 in this State, whichever is later, that are based upon facts that occurred during this time period. The provisions of this SECTION continue to apply to all claims that arise during this time period for three years and one day after December 31, 2021, or 180 days after the final state of emergency for COVID-19 is lifted in this State, whichever is later, at which time the provisions of this SECTION are repealed.” /

Re-number sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. OTT explained the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. BAMBERG raised the Rule 9.3 Point of Order that Amendment No. 7A to H. 5202 was not germane to the Joint Resolution.

Rep. OTT spoke against the point.

The SPEAKER stated that the Joint Resolution, H. 5202, as amended by the Senate, concerned the authorization of CARES Act money for reimbursement of expenses related to COVID-19. The SPEAKER stated that Amendment 7A went beyond the scope of the Joint Resolution, as amended by the Senate, and related to the liability of private businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic. He sustained the Point of Order ruled Amendment 7A to be non-germane.

Rep. HILL spoke against the Senate Amendments.

Rep. GOVAN spoke upon the Senate Amendments.

Rep. COBB-HUNTER spoke upon the Senate Amendments.

Members of the South Carolina General Assembly
Columbia, South Carolina

Dear Fellow Members:

Enclosed is the State Regulation of Public Utilities Review Committee's Report as to Qualifications of Candidates for Seats 1, 3, 5, and 7 of the Public Service Commission (Commission). The report is designed to provide you with information on the candidates found qualified and nominated by the Review Committee, and also includes information on the candidates who were not found qualified nor nominated but wished to be in the report. The Review Committee is charged with nominating up to three candidates for each seat on the Commission. In accordance with this mandate, the Review Committee thoroughly investigated each candidate with respect to his or her suitability for service on the Commission.

The Review Committee initially held public hearings on January 7 and 8, 2020 to question the candidates. After the public hearings concluded on January 8th, the Review Committee found a total of six candidates qualified. No further action was taken by the Review Committee on January 8th.

On February 5, 2020, the General Assembly passed a joint resolution, S. 996, which extended the application period for Seats 1, 3, 5, and 7. The Review Committee intended to complete the screening process for an election by the General Assembly in early May of 2020. However, the screening process had to be delayed due to Covid-19.

The Review Committee held public hearings from July 20 through July 23, 2020 to question the candidates who applied during the extended application period, pursuant to the joint resolution. The Review Committee also received affidavits from candidates found qualified following the January public hearings and had an opportunity to question these candidates as to whether or not there had been any substantive and/or substantial change in circumstance since the January public hearings.

A transcript of the oral examination of the candidates, as well as each candidate's edited Personal Data Questionnaire, is available for review on the Review Committee's website at: <https://www.scstatehouse.gov/CommitteeInfo/PublicUtilitiesReviewComm/2019PublicServiceCommissionScreeningInfo.php>

The Review Committee considered the qualifications of each candidate. The Review Committee's finding that a candidate is qualified and nominated means that the candidate satisfies the constitutional and statutory criteria for service on the Commission and the Review Committee's evaluative criteria.

Candidates are prohibited from asking for your commitment until Tuesday, September 1, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Members of the General Assembly are not permitted to issue letters of introduction, announcements of candidacy, or statements detailing a candidate's qualifications on behalf of a candidate, and are not permitted to offer a pledge to vote for a candidate until 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, September 1, 2020. If you find a candidate violating the pledging prohibitions or if you have questions about this report, please contact Heather Anderson at (803) 212-6208 or Steve Davidson at (803) 734-3015.

Sincerely,
Thomas C. Alexander

REVIEW COMMITTEE REPORT AS TO THE QUALIFICATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION, SEATS 1, 3, 5, AND 7

INTRODUCTION

Section 58-3-530(1)(a) of the South Carolina Code of Laws charges the State Regulation of Public Utilities Review Committee ("Review Committee") with the duty to nominate candidates for the members of the South Carolina Public Service Commission ("Commission"). The terms for Commission Seats 1, 3, 5, and 7 expired on June 30, 2020.

The Review Committee began the screening process in August 2019, with advertisements and press releases regarding the positions. A total of 21 candidates submitted applications by the application deadline of October 11, 2019. Four of these candidates withdrew from consideration prior to the Review Committee's public hearings on January 7 and 8, 2020 to question the candidates. After the public hearings concluded on January 8th, the Review Committee found a total of six candidates qualified. The Review Committee did not make any nominations at that time.

On February 5, 2020, the General Assembly passed a joint resolution, S. 996, which extended the application period for Seats 1, 3, 5, and 7. Thirty completed applications were received by the extended application deadline of February 28, 2020. The Review Committee intended to complete the screening process for an election by the General Assembly in early May of 2020. However, the screening process had to be delayed due to Covid-19.

The Review Committee held public hearings on July 20 through July 23, 2020 to question the candidates who applied during the extended application period, pursuant to the joint resolution. A number of these candidates withdrew after submitting an application in February, and the Review Committee screened the remaining 16 candidates. The Review Committee also received affidavits from candidates found qualified in January, 2020, and had an opportunity to question each of these candidates as to whether or not there had been any substantive and/or substantial change in circumstance since his or her public hearing in January.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

The Review Committee conducted background investigations of each candidate, including credit, driver's license, and law enforcement checks. It gave a written examination to determine the level of knowledge that each candidate has with respect to substantive public utility issues, ethical constraints applicable to the Commission, and the operations of the Commission. The Review Committee also obtained attendance records at Commission meetings and hearings for the incumbent Commissioner. During the public hearings, each candidate was questioned and given an opportunity to make statements as to his or her qualifications and desire to serve as a Commissioner. Each candidate was also questioned and given an opportunity to discuss matters from his or her background check; matters of a private or confidential nature were discussed in executive session.

LEGAL QUALIFICATIONS

Pursuant to Section 58-3-20(A), members of the Commission must have the following qualifications:

- (1) a baccalaureate or more advanced degree; and
- (2) a background of substantial duration and an expertise in at least one of the following areas:
 - (a) energy;
 - (b) telecommunications;
 - (c) consumer protection and advocacy;
 - (d) water and wastewater;
 - (e) finance, economics, and statistics;
 - (f) accounting;
 - (g) engineering; or
 - (h) law.

The Review Committee may find a candidate qualified even though he or she does not have a background of substantial duration and expertise in at least one of the above areas if three-fourths of the Review Committee vote to qualify the candidate.

The Review Committee is also required to consider: "(1) the ability, dedication, compassion, common sense, and integrity of the candidates; and (2) the race and gender of the candidates and other demographic factors to assure nondiscrimination to the greatest extent possible of all segments of the population of the State." S.C. Code Ann. §58-3-560. The determination of legal qualifications includes a determination of the candidate's residence in the appropriate Public Service Commission district as established by Section 58-3-20, the candidate's eligibility for election as determined by Section 58-3-24, and the candidate's compliance with constitutional provisions limiting election to those persons eligible to be electors of this State.

Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §58-3-530, the annual performance review of Commissioners seeking reelection must be made a part of the Commissioner's record for consideration if the Commissioner seeks reelection. These evaluations are included after the Commissioner's summary of qualifications.

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS

To determine fitness beyond mere legal qualifications, the Review Committee considered each candidate's experience, temperament, compliance with and knowledge of legal and ethical constraints on public service, knowledge of Commission operations, demonstrated or potential aptitude for meaningful leadership and/or service at the Commission, and demonstrated integrity, including the handling of personal financial affairs. The Review Committee considered each candidate as a whole in making a determination of qualified and nominated.

Experience

Section 58-3-20 requires that Commissioners have a background of substantial duration and an expertise in energy; telecommunications; consumer protection and advocacy; water and wastewater; finance, economics, and statistics; accounting; engineering; or law. The Review Committee considered not only whether a candidate has succeeded in one of these fields but also whether the candidate has the capability of transferring this success and knowledge to the operations of the Commission. The Review Committee's transcript contains each applicant's background and employment history.

Temperament

The Review Committee sought to determine whether a candidate's sense of the role he or she is to fill on the Commission is such that his or her work will be productive, proactive, and protective of the interests of all South Carolinians.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

Compliance with and Knowledge of Legal and Ethical Constraints

Section 58-3-30 requires that Commissioners adhere to the State Ethics Act and the Judicial Code of Conduct. The Review Committee believes that not only must the candidates be aware of the legal and ethical constraints, they must have conducted and comported themselves with the highest regard for ethics in their actions.

Potential Aptitude for Meaningful Leadership and/or Service at the Public Service Commission

The Review Committee believes that the Commission should have strong leadership, work toward common goals, have a positive influence on employees, and ensure that parties and persons appearing before the Commission are treated fairly and impartially. The Review Committee therefore sought to gauge each candidate's potential aptitude to serve as a leader and/or as a Commissioner supporting the goals and mission of the agency.

Integrity

Candidates must assure the Review Committee that their word is their bond. The Code of Judicial Conduct requires, among other factors, that Commissioners and candidates handle their finances in a responsible manner. The Review Committee therefore considered the way each candidate has managed his or her financial affairs.

Substantive Knowledge of Commission Operations

The Review Committee believes that every candidate, whether incumbent or non-incumbent, must demonstrate some basic understanding of the role of the Commission and its operations. It would be unfair, however, to require non-incumbents to have accumulated a wealth of knowledge about Commission operations specifically, or regulated utilities generally. Unlike incumbent Commissioners, challengers have not had the benefit of a compensated opportunity to educate themselves in hearings or through conversations with Commission staff. The Review Committee expects incumbents and others who have substantial experience appearing before the Commission to be able to discuss these matters with a greater fluency than those persons who have, to date, committed themselves to other employment. The Review Committee emphasizes that the substantive knowledge findings contained in this report are a measure of a candidate's knowledge at the time of his or her candidacy. The findings are not necessarily indicative of a candidate's ability to subsequently master Commission operations and the multitude of issues relating thereto.

FINDINGS AS TO QUALIFICATIONS AND NOMINATIONS

The Review Committee screened a total of 17 candidates for Seats 1, 3, 5, and 7 on January 7 and 8, 2020, and a total of 16 candidates on July 20 through July 23, 2020. Due to the delays caused by Covid-19, the Review Committee also received affidavits from candidates found "qualified" during the January 2020 screenings as to whether there were substantial or substantive changes since the candidate's screening, and had the candidate verify his or her information under oath - each candidate stated there were no changes. In accordance with Section 58-3-530(1)(a), the Review Committee may nominate up to three candidates per seat to be elected by the General Assembly. The Review Committee found the following candidates qualified and nominated them for election to the South Carolina Public Service Commission:

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| SEAT 1 | John C. Dulude

commissioner from attending these meetings. My understanding of national and state issues grows each time I attend these sessions.

2. Participation in organizations.

- National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC) I am a member of the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC). As referenced, I attend all the meeting and education sessions provided. I participate in the discussions, moderate panels and help shape national policy.

- Committee on Water - I serve as the Co-Vice Chair of the Committee on Water. I help build the Water Committee program with other Commissioners and staff from all over the country. I moderate a panel on a relevant topic at most meetings.

- Subcommittee on Nuclear Issues -Waste Disposal - I attend all of these meetings, I also received a weekly update on Nuclear Issues from the NARUC office in Washington, DC.

- Southeastern Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (SEARUC) SEARUC is one of the divisions of NARUC comprised of mostly southeastern states and Puerto Rico. We meet at every NARUC meeting and then on our own once a year to discuss issues that are relevant to the Southeast.

3. Representation in Official Capacity as Commissioner

- South Eastern Water Infrastructure Summit, Charlotte, NC, April 28-29, 2019 Attended as Co-Vice Chair of the Water Committee. Participated as a panel member on a panel entitled “Communicating with Customers”.

- Illumination Energy Summit, Columbus, OH, May 14- 16, 2019

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

This conference focused on innovations in the energy business, particularly in the technology side of electricity. One of the things I have focused on as Chair of the Public Service Commission is doing more research so that we are looking ahead instead of always reacting to innovations in the utility world.

(Time spent out of the office: 3 days)

4. Notable Cases.

• Consolidated Dockets Concerning Abandonment of SCE&G Nuclear Project, Emergency Rate Relief, and Merger of SCE&G with Dominion Energy (Dockets No. 2017-207-E, 2017-305-E, and 2017-370-E): This case considered the abandonment of the VC Summer Nuclear Units, the merger of Dominion Energy with SCE&G, and the rates for ratepayers going forward. This was the most high-profile case in SC history. Despite the fact that the Baseload Review Act was passed by the General Assembly with virtually no opposition, the PSC became everyone's target for rate increases and the failure of the plant, even though the PSC has no investigative authority, while following the law set forth by the General Assembly. Every educational session that I have ever attended had influence in this case. Rate school, Grid school, Ethics training, Judicial training among others all had relevance in this proceeding.

• Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC (Docket No. 2018-319-E): This was a significant rate case by Duke Energy Carolinas (DEC). DEC wanted at rate increase including a ROE of 10.5% and an increase in the Base Facilities Charge to $28.00. The PSC limited ROE to 9.5% and settled on a BFC of $11.96. More significantly, the PSC disallowed from rates the cost of the NC Coal Ash Management Act put into place by the North Carolina Legislature. NARUC Rate School and Judicial training were instrumental in making this case much easier to rule on.

• Chem-Nuclear Systems, LLC (Docket No. 2018-13-A): At this hearing, the Commission questioned Chem Nuclear, among other things, about news reports that indicated the tritium plume was expanding outside of the nuclear waste containment area. Ultimately it was determined that this was not an issue that affected allowable costs as described by S.C. Code Ann. § 48-46-10 et sec. Participation in the NARUC Nuclear Waste Subcommittee was very helpful in deciding the merits of this case.

5. Accomplishments of the Public Service Commission

I think the greatest accomplishment of The Public Service Commission (PSC) in 2018 was preparing for hearings and adjudicating the combined dockets in the SCE&G abandonment of the VC Summer Units and its merger with Dominion Energy in a compressed time frame. The last merger case that the Commission dealt with took over a year and a half. When you add the VC Summer abandonment to it, the PSC completed this task in a month and a half. We managed over 20 intervenors with more than 60 attorneys in the hearing room and finished the hearing portion of the case between November 1 and Thanksgiving. I think another accomplishment that the PSC has had under my leadership as Chairman is to instigate a process or restructuring the commission to make the entire commission more efficient and more transparent in its processes. We have live streamed every hearing and ever commission meeting since the summer of 2018. Also, working with Jocelyn Boyd, our executive Director and General Clerk we have instituted a research group to look at trends for the future of the business that we regulate. The goal is to be proactive in what we know and act on instead of reactive.

6. Work Schedule and Preparation.

The answer to this question really doesn't vary much from year to year. We really don't have a typical work week at the Commission. One of the fulfilling and interesting aspects of this job is the variety of issues that we deal with and the variety of actions and reactions that comprise our workload. Being a Commissioner in the South Carolina Public Service Commission is very stimulating. I really enjoy learning something new almost every day. With that background, I commute to the Commission office from my home in Clinton (two-hour round trip). I am physically in the office usually four day and rarely less than three days a week. During the fall I was there five days a week especially during the VC Summer hearings. As Commission Chairman I begin almost every day on the phone beginning between 7:30 and 8:30am with Jocelyn Boyd discussing the events of the day and what we need to accomplish that day. I speak with the legal staff and technical staff every day about cases and about general issues at the commission. In preparation for a hearing, I spend many hours reading hundreds of pages of testimony. After reading the testimony, I spend time with our staff looking at historical data to help me draw my conclusions. If I am not in the office, I have an office in District 3 set up in my home complete with a personal computer and the Commission iPad. My day does not change significantly.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

7. Effects of Code of Judicial Conduct and South Carolina's ethics laws on your role as Commissioner.

Being under the Judicial Code has positive and negative effects. With that in mind, I do think that being under the Judicial Code is appropriate for members of the South Carolina Public Service Commission. It does allow and require us to maintain distance from the parties involved in each docket. It is important that we are always unbiased in our deliberations. It also sets boundaries for everyone to follow that are clear. Making sure that ex-parte communications are controlled is a benefit to all parties. The one negative is that the Judicial Code prevents the Commissioners from being able to speak about anything that we have going on in a case. This was particularly worrisome when we were being attacked by many people who didn't seem to understand the Baseload Review Act or the tenants of the Judicial Code. We had to read about what we did by the loudest and most uninformed individuals who had the ear of the press. This was very discouraging at times. The ethics laws in our state do assist in aiding the unbiased appearance of the Commission's decisions. The Commissioners and staff are all very professional and very serious about their duty and obligations regarding the Judicial Code and the ethics laws. I am confident that the South Carolina Public Service Commission's business is conducted in a manner that should make everyone proud.

NOTE: Do not provide any information that would violate the prohibition against ex parte communication or would otherwise violate any privilege.

Ethics Statement: I, Commissioner Comer H. "Randy" Randall, III have read and understand the Code of Judicial Conduct and the ethics laws of South Carolina. I certify that I have adhered to these standards at all times during this review period.

2. Participation in organizations

On October 21-23, 2018, I attended the Gas Technology Institute (GTI) Advisory Board meeting in Chicago, IL. GTI is a research and development institution that takes new and experimental natural gas technologies, including renewable gas technologies, and turns them into real practical applications and energy solutions. This meeting also included a tour of GTI's cutting edge Research & Development Lab in Des Plaines, IL. I am honored to serve on the GTI Advisory Board with fellow Commissioners from other States. At this meeting, after serving as Chairman of the Board for 2 years, an election was held, and I was honored to be able to present the gavel to Florida Commissioner Julie Brown, who had served as Vice Chairman during my two years as Chairman.

On April 21-23, 2019, I attended the Gas Technology Institute (GTI) Advisory Board meeting in Washington, DC. I now serve on the board as immediate past Chairman. This meeting included our business meeting and many educational updates in the natural gas industry as well as presentations from many other GTI executives.

On June 2-5, 2019, I attended the Southeastern Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (SEARUC) meeting in Gulf Shores, AL. At this meeting I attended sessions on: Alternative transportation in the Southeast - the "All of the Above" strategy - Electric Vehicles (EVs) in the Southeast; Addressing aging Critical Infrastructure; How rising U.S. LNG Exports Impact Domestic Gas Flows; Nuclear Straight Talk; Federal Pipeline Safety Reauthorization Bill; and Challenges and Opportunities of Broadband in rural Southeast. I attended this meeting as the immediate Past President of SEARUC and member of the SEARUC Executive Committee. As President of SEARUC, I held a very successful meeting in Charleston, SC in 2018 and left SEARUC in sound financial condition for SEARUC 2019.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

Summary of all organizations and positions that I am a member of:

- Co Vice-Chairman - NARUC Committee on Critical Infrastructure
- Member - NARUC Washington Action Committee
- Member - NARUC Nuclear Issues and Waste Disposal Subcommittee
- Member - NARUC Committee on Gas
- Immediate Past Chairman - Gas Technology Institute Advisory Board
- Immediate President - Southeastern Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (SEARUC)
- Member - NARUC - US DOE: Gas Infrastructure Modernization Partnership

3. Representation in Official Capacity as Commissioner

I represented the Commission in 2 of the 3 NARUC meetings during the review period, and below are the dates of those meetings: NARUC Summer - July 13-17, 2018; (I missed the November 2018 NARUC meeting due to the Dominion - SCE&G merger / Nuclear abandonment / Emergency Rate Relief case); and NARUC Winter - February 9-13, 2019. In these NARUC meetings, I represented the Commission, and I am a voting member of the Gas Committee, and the Critical Infrastructure Committee (I am Vice Chairman of the Critical Infrastructure Committee), and I am also a member of the Subcommittee on Nuclear Waste and Nuclear Issues, and the Washington Action Committee. I also represented the Commission at the annual SEARUC meeting June 2-5, 2019, in Gulf Shores, AL, where I served on the executive committee as immediate Past President of SEARUC. However, I have it listed under item #2 in participation in organizations above. I believe that these two NARUC meetings and the one SEARUC meeting should also be listed under Educational Programs in item #1, but I chose to list them in item #2 and item #3.

I also represented the Commission in September 17-19, 2018 at the U S Department of Energy / NARUC Natural Gas Infrastructure Site Visit and technical workshop in Andover, MA. The technical workshop was held at the Massachusetts Utilities Commission, and the site visit included Natural Gas leak detection technologies, followed by a demonstration of an unmanned aerial vehicle with Remote Methane Gas Leak detector technology to detect Methane leaks over a wide area. Unfortunately, this technical workshop and site visit were following a Natural Gas explosion involving injuries and a fatality in the area. This event would have also been listed under Educational Programs in item #1.

I represented the Commission on May 8-10, 2019 along with Commissioner Justin Williams at the U S Department of Energy / NARUC site visit to the National Carbon Capture Center (NCCC) near Birmingham, AL. We saw firsthand, Carbon Capture and sequestration technology and research by the U S Department of Energy. We also toured a major Coal and Natural Gas-fired power plant that hosts the NCCC. We also attended a technical session on other clean coal technologies. As Coal generation continues to decrease in South Carolina and the US, innovative methods such as these will be deployed to continue to dramatically lessen the environmental impacts of coal. This event could have also ben listed under Educational Programs in item #1.

4. Notable Cases

• Duke Energy Progress, LLC (Docket No. 2018-318-E): In this rate application, the merits hearing was held over several days from April 11-17, 2019. The Commission held two public night hearings in the Company's service territory. The Company sought a Return on Equity of 10.25%, and a revenue / rate increase totaling $69 mil lion. Originally, the Company sought a Base Facilities Charge (BFC) increase from $9.06 to $29.00 for residential customers, though the Company later agreed to limit the increase to $11.78 for residential customers. There were ten intervening parties, and most parties presented testimony. After hearing all the evidence presented, and entertaining stipulations between parties, the Commission issued Order No. 2019-341 that limited the Company to approximately $41.5 million of the requested $69 million, which resulted in an approximate $6.27 increase in residential rates from $122.49 per month for a 1,000 kWh residential customer to $128.76 per month (net of simultaneous fuel clause adjustment). This case was notable as the Commission not only heard from large numbers of residential ratepayers, but the Commission also heard from many farmers in the Pee Dee Region who were impacted with multiple meters.

• Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC (Docket No. 2018-319-E): In this rate application, the Commission held three public night hearings in the Company's service territory and a five-day merits hearing. This was the first fully contested electric rate case for DEC in several years. In addition to the utility and the Office of Regulatory Staff, eight intervenors made appearances and presented testimony in this case. In its original application, the utility sought a net revenue increase of approximately $168 million and a return on equity of 10.50 percent. The Company also initially requested a dramatic increase in the Residential Basic Facilities Charge (BFC) from $8.29 to $28.00 per month. The Company later agreed to accept a Residential BFC of $11.96 per month. In reviewing of all of the evidence and testimony, the Commission approved a net revenue increase of approximately $106,931,000 and a return on equity of 9.50% in Order No. 2019-323. The largest disallowance adopted by the Commission involved excluding $469,894,472 incurred by the Company in complying with the North Carolina Coal Ash Management Act. The Commission's order on the utility's motion for rehearing and reconsideration is pending, and the utility is expected to appeal the Commission's decision to the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

- Consolidated Dockets Concerning Abandonment of SCE&G Nuclear Project, Emergency Rate Relief, and Merger of SCE&G with Dominion Energy (Dockets No. 2017-207-E, 2017-305-E, and 2017-370-E): In 2008, SCE&G began construction of two Westinghouse AP1000 nuclear units at the V.C. Summer site in Jenkinsville, South Carolina. Over the course of the following nine years, SCE&G invested approximately $5 billion dollars in the Project, an amount roughly equal to its non-nuclear electric rate base.

SCE&G abandoned the Project on July 31, 2017. This happened approximately four months after its contractor, Westinghouse Electric Company, LLC ("Westinghouse" or "WEC"), filed bankruptcy and immediately after SCE&G's co-owner, the South Carolina Public Service Authority ("Santee Cooper"), ceased funding the Project. At the time of the abandonment, recovery of capital costs on its investment in the Project constituted approximately 18% or $445 million of SCE&G's annual retail electric revenue.

The Sierra Club and Friends of the Earth filed a petition in Docket No. 2017-207-E (Friends of the Earth and the Sierra Club v. South Carolina Electric & Gas Co.) prior to abandonment of the Project asking the Commission to end funding for the Project and to grant reparations under S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-960. The South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff ("ORS") filed a petition in Docket No. 2017-305-E (Request of the Office of Regulatory Staff for Rate Relief to South Carolina Electric & Gas Company's Rates Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920) seeking emergency rate relief under S.C. Code Ann. § 58-27-920.

Numerous parties intervened in PSC Dockets Nos. 2017-207-E and 2017-305-E, and after receiving and reviewing myriad filings by the various parties, the Commission, under my Chairmanship, heard two days of arguments to determine whether these dockets would proceed. On December 20, 2017, in Order Nos. 2017-769 and 2017-770, the Commission found that the Office of Regulatory Staff and Friends of the Earth and the Sierra Club had met the threshold required for their respective dockets to continue, and therefore denied SCE&G's motions to dismiss.

In early January 2018, Dominion Energy proposed to purchase SCANA. The proposed business combination would include merger benefits of approximately $3.8 billion to be provided to SCE&G's customers in resolution of the regulatory issues surrounding the Project. This amount of merger benefits appeared to be unprecedented in utility mergers. The merger's benefits initially offered included immediate one-time payments to customers of $ 1.3 billion upon closing of the merger, write-offs of nuclear Project and other generation assets and regulatory assets of $1.9 billion, and reductions to on-going bills of $575 million, all of which were included in a regulatory proposal known as the "Customer Benefits Plan." To offset the financial impacts of these concessions on SCE&G, Dominion Energy offered to use capital from its balance sheet to infuse equity into SCE&G and to support the refund benefits offered under the Customer Benefits Plan. Dominion Energy also agreed to merger conditions including protections for SCE&G employees and customers, infrastructure investment and service level commitments, and continued local leadership of SCE&G's operations. SCANA announced its agreement to the plan of merger on January 3, 2018.

On January 7, 2018, the Joint Applicants initiated Docket No. 2017-370-E. seeking approval of the merger and adoption of the regulatory plan proposed by Dominion Energy (the "Customer Benefits Plan"). The Joint Application also presented two disfavored alternative plans that SCE&G proposed absent the merger. Those plans are the "No Merger Benefits Plan" and the "Base Request." The primary relief sought in the Joint Application was approval of the merger and adoption of the Customer Benefits Plan.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

On June 28, 2018, the General Assembly adopted legislation ("Act 258") requiring, among other things, a temporary reduction in SCE&G retail electric rates of approximately 15%, amending the BLRA. The Commission implemented the mandated rate reduction by Order No. 2018-459, elated July 2, 2018.

The Commission held nearly a month-long hearing, commencing November 1, 2018 and lasting until Thanksgiving in this complex consolidated matter. The Commission received testimony from 44 witnesses. The evidentiary record compiled in the course of the proceeding was voluminous. The analysis required of the Commission and Staff was intensive and challenging.

In deciding this matter, the Commission was required to determine which plan would (1) provide maximum customer benefits; (2) bring finality and certainty; and (3) be in the public interest of South Carolina ratepayers. Within the bounds of the law and the evidence of record in this case, the Commission was required to choose between adopting the Customer Benefits Plan- B Levelized (a modification of the original Customer Benefits PI an that provided additional rate relief) and allowing the Dominion Energy merger to close, or, adopting ORS's Optimal Benefits Plan and almost certainly letting the Dominion Energy merger fail. The Commission chose the former. The Commission concluded in Order No. 2018-804(A), after exhaustive analysis, that the plan proposed by the Joint Petitioners would provide immediate and sustained bill reductions to customers coupled with strong assurances that SCE&G would continue to operate as a financially sound, reliable, and responsible utility going forward. SCE&G's electric bills would be brought into alignment with neighboring utilities and be well below national averages. This result would be achieved without material risk to SCE&G's solvency, creditworthiness, or ability to conduct its future utility operations safely, reliably, and efficiently. No other option before the Commission provided this combination of benefits. The Commission believed it had enormous value for all SCE&G ratepayers, stakeholders, and the State as a whole. This could be the largest and most impactful case ever in the history of the Commission.

5. Accomplishments of the Public Service Commission

During the review period, the Commission continued to operate under intense public scrutiny and pressure. I believe that pressure and scrutiny led the Commission to clearly demonstrate that it could administer the laws of South Carolina and caused the Commission to produce many accomplishments. I will discuss some of these accomplishments below.

From the very beginning of the review period, the Commission showed that it was capable of responding quickly and in real time and operated seamlessly. This was clearly demonstrated when Act 258 was adopted by the General Assembly on June 28, 2018. This was during the last hours of my Chairmanship, and as Chairman, I immediately ordered a Special meeting regarding Act 258. This was on a Friday, and Chief Clerk Jocelyn Boyd publicly noticed the meeting minutes before 5pm, and minutes later around 5:05pm, SCE&G brought suit against all the Commissioners in their official capacity in US District Court. The meeting that I ordered could not take place until the next business day which happened to be Monday, July 2, 2018, and my Chairmanship officially ended June 30, 2018. I worked with Vice Chairman Randall (who was Chairman elect at this time) and Chief Clerk / Administrator Jocelyn Boyd and along with other Commission staff members to ensure that this was a seamless transition late Friday and into the weekend. The end result was that Commissioner Randall presided as the new Chairman on Monday, July 2, 2018 and the Commission followed the new law of the General Assembly and handled a very delicate matter expeditiously, and in real time, by issuing Order No. 2018-459 which ordered a temporary reduction in SCE&G retail electric rates of 15%.

Other MAJOR accomplishments of the Commission include the final disposition of one of the largest cases to ever come before the Commission in the history of the Commission. (Dockets No. 2017-207-E, 2017-305-E. and 2017-E). I won't go through the case in depth as I have already done so in the notable cases section. However, I do consider this a MAJOR accomplishment of the Commission, as the Commission was successful in holding lengthy hearing, in which all parties were heard, has 44 witnesses testify, and evidentiary record was voluminous. The end result was Commission Order No. 2018-804(A) which provided: maximum ratepayer benefits and was in the public interest of ratepayers of South Carolina; and brought finality and certainty to SCE&G ratepayers, stakeholders in the case, and to the future of one of South Carolina's largest investor-owned utilities.

In addition to the Commission demonstrating how quick and nimble it can adapt and administer the law, Other accomplishments include the Commission becoming much more transparent. Through the leadership of Chairman Randall and the diligence of Chief Clerk Jocelyn Boyd, and additional funding, the Commission is now able to live-stream hearings and meetings. All meetings and hearings have always been open and public, but live-streaming enables most South Carolinians and interested parties to watch live in real time. This is a great accomplishment because the public is now able to see in real time what the Commissioners have always seen: the examination and cross-examination of witnesses and questions by Commissioners. Live-streaming also gives the public (many for the first time) unique insight into utility cases, and Commissioner deliberations, and how utility cases are decided. I believe it has been a tremendous success and is a huge aid in public confidence and trust.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

While there are many other accomplishments of the Commission during the review period, I want to mention one more. I support the Commission promulgating a new regulation. Chief Clerk Jocelyn Boyd has worked hard to bring forth Regulation 103-817.1. This Regulation allows for electronic transmission and filing (e-filing) of documents. E-filed Documents now constitute the official record. While the Commission has accepted electronic filing for a while, this regulation sets forth rules and policies governing e-filing and notice of service. This accomplishment corresponds with other Judicial bodies in South Carolina.

6. Work Schedule and Preparation

My work schedule for the most part remains unchanged from previous years, as I continue to be in the office in Columbia practically every day during the work week. However, as immediate Past Chairman of the SC Commission, my responsibility has decreased during the review period. I no longer have the responsibilities of personnel, budget, procedural matters, scheduling or any other duties statutorily assigned to the Chairman. I value being a "Regular Commissioner" again after the heavy pressure of the previous 2 years. While the pace is still fast, and the caseload seems to be heavier, I do believe we have made progress. I look back on my words from two years ago in this evaluation and I pledged to the Ratepayers of South Carolina, PURC Committee, the Legislature, the Governor, the staff at the PSC, and my fellow Commissioners to take the Commission to a "better place" by taking things 1 day at a time. I believe we are in a "better place", and Chairman Randall and Chief Clerk

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

Jocelyn Boyd are working hard to make us even better at serving all South Carolinians.

My preparation during the review period remains unchanged from previous years. I still receive printed copies of the testimony here at the Commission and review (while the Commission is completely electronic and state of the art - I still read printed copies in most cases, especially large cases, as I prefer not to look at a computer screen for those long periods of time). I am briefed by the Commission's technical and legal staff in the law library. During the hearings, I listen to the Testimony, evidence, cross-examination by the attorneys, questions by my fellow Commissioners, and then I ask questions of the witnesses. Afterwards, I read proposed orders from all parties in the case and seek advice and counsel from Commission technical staff and Commission attorneys.

7. Effects of Code of Judicial Conduct and South Carolina's ethics laws on your role as Commissioner

As I have stated previously, public trust and public confidence must remain high in this Commission for us to function as a judicial body. I believe that each Commissioner and I have strictly adhered to the Code of Judicial Conduct and to SC Ethics laws. I also said in a previous questionnaire that one of our instructors in Ethics Training said years ago "some people might find the Code of Judicial Conduct burdensome to the average citizen". I also believe that my fellow commissioners and I have "gladly and willingly" abided by the restrictions or the Code of Judicial Conduct and ethics rules. As a NARUC member State, we are aware that some states have "loose" ethics laws. South Carolina is known throughout all 50 States in NARUC as having the toughest ethics laws of any State Commission. Our SC Ethics laws are so strong that SC Ethics Director Meghan Walker has been a featured speaker at both SEARUC and NARUC in the last year or so. While it is certainly important at all times to have strict ethics laws, the last 2 years have shown that South Carolina's strict ethics laws and Judicial Code of Conduct have worked. While public trust was very low and heavily questioned, I do believe that as the limitations, roles and responsibilities of the Commission continue to be understood by the public, along with recently passed new Legislation that public trust is coming back. Also, I am eager to hear any suggestions that our instructors may have in our mandatory ethics training that is scheduled in just over a month or so.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

As Commissioner, I personally will continue to strive every day to abide by Code of Judicial Conduct and SC Ethics Laws. The Code of Judicial Conduct also requires that Commissioners "avoid the appearance or impropriety" and I will continue every day to adhere to that requirement as well .

NOTE: Do not provide any information that would violate the prohibition against ex parte communication or would otherwise violate any privilege.

Ethics Statement: I, Commissioner Swain E. Whitfield have read and understand the Code of Judicial Conduct and the ethics laws of South Carolina. I certify that I have adhered to these standards at all times during this review period.

RESIGNATION

The following was received:

July 17, 2020
The Honorable Jay Lucas, Speaker
South Carolina House of Representatives
506 Blatt Building
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Speaker Lucas,

Please take notice that effective at noon, of the date hereof, I am resigning my office as a member of the South Carolina House of Representatives. It has been one of the great blessings of my life, and a singular honor, to serve and represent my neighbors and friends of Myrtle Beach and Briarcliffe Acres since having first been elected in the year 2002 to the South Carolina General Assembly. I shall forever cherish my time serving in the Legislature and the strong bonds of friendship and collegiality made over the years.

This decision does not come lightly, but only after significant reflection and prayer with my family. In the waning days of the most recent primary election where I was once again honored by the voters of District 107 to carry the Republican banner into the coming General Election, I was afforded the opportunity to represent clients in my law practice that would take significant time away from my duties in Columbia. From my first day in the Legislature I have fulfilled my commitment to put the representation of my constituents first; this resignation arises from my refusal to retreat from that commitment.

Furthermore, I believe no one can understand better than you and our House colleagues just how much time we forfeit, through our service in the Legislature, to our professions and our families. This is a challenge that we accept, yet it is still an issue that weighs upon us and those whom we cherish most.

After nearly eighteen years of service, I am proud of the legacy that I leave behind and I am grateful to you, our House and Senate colleagues, and our staff, who have empowered my effectiveness in establishing that legacy. Together, we have increased the security of, and confidence in, elections; we have decreased taxes and government fees; and we have removed regulatory hurdles to empower successful small businesses. I also fondly recall our Legislature, in a blaze of nonpartisan support, leading dozens of other states in demonstrating tangible support for our state's, and country's, great ally and trading partner, Israel, by refusing to open our state's doors of commerce to those businesses that support economic boycotts of the Jewish nation. Our legislature has stood tall among our sister states time, and time again, in support of Israel and against anti-Semitism. I thank you, Speaker Lucas, as I thank each of my House and Senate colleagues, for empowering my legislative legacy.

While this letter will signal the end of the public chapter of my commitment to service, my private commitment to service to my neighbors will continue. In that same vein, in whatever way I may be of service to you, my colleagues, and the State of South Carolina, please do not hesitate to reach out.

With fond personal regards, I remain.

Sincerely yours,
Alan D. Clemmons

Whereas, upon his retirement from a career in education in 1993, he went on to be elected to the South Carolina House of Representatives House District 111 in Charleston. During his tenure, he served on numerous committees, including Interstate Cooperation and Medical, Military, Public and Municipal Affairs. Dedicating himself to others, he served with distinction and dedication until his retirement in 2008; and

Whereas, he then began a new venture overseeing the College of Charleston's Call Me MISTER program, otherwise known as Mentors Instructing Students Toward Effective Role Models. This statewide program recruits and readies Black men to become educators. Fran Welch, the dean of the School of Education, Health and Human Performance at the college enlisted Breeland for the position when she was notified that he was retiring from his life in politics; and

Wheeler, White, Whitmire, R. Williams, S. Williams, Willis, Wooten and Yow: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS THE PROFOUND SORROW OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES UPON THE PASSING OF THE HONORABLE JAMES MELVIN "JIMMY" NEAL OF KERSHAW AND TO EXTEND THE DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO HIS FAMILY AND MANY FRIENDS.

Whereas, the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives were deeply saddened by the passing of the Honorable James Melvin "Jimmy" Neal of Kershaw on August 26, 2020, at the venerable age of seventy-seven; and

Whereas, born in Lancaster on April 30, 1943, he was the son of the late James Melvin Neal and Annie Mae Horton Neal Smith and stepson of the late William Bryant Smith. In preparation for his life's work, Jimmy received his bachelor's degree in 1965 from Clemson University and earned his master's degree in education from Winthrop College in 1978; and

Whereas, as a young man, Jimmy loved to play sports. For most of his life, he could be found at Andrew Jackson Stadium on Friday nights, Death Valley on Saturday, and Center Grove Baptist Church on Sunday. He also looked forward to his weekly walking-club dates with friends. However, Jimmy's greatest joy came from time spent with his beloved family and from sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ; and

Whereas, the first head football coach at Andrew Jackson High School, and ultimately principal of that same institution, Mr. Neal retired in 1995 from the Lancaster County School District after serving over thirty years as a respected teacher and principal; and

Whereas, Jimmy Neal was a community-minded man and took any opportunity to serve his fellow citizens, as when he served on the Lancaster County Election Commission and Lancaster County Literacy Council. Another opportunity led him to the State House, where he proudly represented Lancaster County House District 44, serving fourteen years in the South Carolina House of Representatives, from which he retired in 2012; and

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020

Whereas, for his significant contributions to education, he was inducted into the Lancaster County Education Hall of Fame in 2006, and for his outstanding service in the House of Representatives, he was named Emergency Medical Services Legislator of the Year in 2007; and

Whereas, preceded in death by his dear wife, Harriett Hawkins Neal, and a granddaughter, Emily Elizabeth Neal, Jimmy Neal leaves to cherish his memory his sons, Bryant (Beth Hinson) Neal of Kershaw and Scott (Jody Gibson) Neal of Camden; five grandchildren, Laura Neal (Reece) Taylor, Blythe Neal, Bry Neal, Sloane Neal, and Ava Neal; a great-granddaughter, Annie Martin Taylor; and a special friend, Sara Lou Hinson; and

Whereas, the people of South Carolina were made better by the influence of Jimmy Neal and will greatly miss his impactful presence. His was a life well lived. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, by this resolution, express profound sorrow upon the passing of the Honorable James Melvin “Jimmy” Neal of Kershaw and extend the deepest sympathy to his family and many friends.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be presented to Bryant Neal for the family.

The Resolution was adopted.

Bless our President, Nation, State, Governor, Speaker, and staff as they continue to do the right thing for the people of this world. Keep us safe from all sickness and despair. SECTION 2. (A) Unless specified otherwise in this act, the expenditure authorizations contained in SECTION 3(A), (C), and (F) are supplemental to the expenditure authorizations for the same purposes as contained in Act 142 of 2020. The remaining expenditure authorizations contained in SECTION 3 are for the maximum amounts that may be reimbursed by the Executive Budget Office from the Coronavirus Relief Fund.

(B) State agencies, institutions of higher education, including not for profit independent colleges and universities, historically black colleges and universities, and technical colleges, counties, municipalities, and special purpose districts shall maximize the use of federal funds made available in this act wherever possible within the allowable uses. If any reimbursement to any recipient, or subrecipient, resulting from an authorization contained herein is disallowed by federal law, then the recipient or subrecipient shall promptly return the funds disbursed to the Executive Budget Office for deposit in the Coronavirus Relief Fund.

Part II

Directives to Receiving Entities

SECTION 4. The Department of Education is authorized to utilize unexpended authorizations contained in SECTION 3(B) of Act 142 of 2020 for the costs associated with the following:

(1) school safety measures taken in response to COVID-19 including, but not limited to, purchasing masks, gloves, wipes, hand sanitizer, face shields, cleaning solutions, plexiglass, and other cleaning equipment and supplies;

(2) additional expenses incurred by Virtual SC in response to COVID-19;

(3) hire or contract for school nurse services for those schools that do not have a full-time school nurse;

(4) tutoring, supplemental services, and support services to include services for unengaged students; interventionists; and after school learning extensions that prioritize face-to-face instruction focused on students with identified reading or math difficulties and students with IEPs to address deficits resulting from COVID-19;

(5) technology purchases of devices and connectivity equipment to support online learning resulting from COVID-19.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that reimbursements for item (1) - school safety measures - be the Department's first priority for reimbursement.

SECTION 5. State agencies may apply for reimbursement in a similar manner as set forth in SECTION 6 of Act 142 of 2020.

SECTION 6. (A) There is established through the SC CARES Grant Management Program a nonprofit entity reimbursement grant program. The program shall award grants to qualifying nonprofit entities in an amount equal to two-months' payroll expenses immediately before March 1, 2020. A qualifying nonprofit entity may receive a grant in an amount between two thousand five hundred dollars and twenty-five thousand dollars. Nonprofit entities must apply for grants no later than November 1, 2020.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2020

(B)(1) Applications for grants shall be made to the panel established in item (2). An applicant shall provide the panel with information concerning the applicant's expenditures for which the applicant seeks a grant. Grants must be awarded for qualifying expenditures in amounts determined by the panel. The panel may award a grant only if the qualifying nonprofit entity experiences an interruption in business due to COVID-19. First, priority must be given to applicants that did not receive other assistance, such as a Paycheck Protection Program loan or other CARES funds. Then, priority must be given to applications for entities that provide: (1) food assistance, including prepared meals; (2) rent or mortgage assistance; (3) mental health counseling; (4) health care services, including access to health care supplies, mental health, and behavioral health; and (5) arts and cultural items or activities.

(2)(a) Applications for grants shall be evaluated and awarded by a panel consisting of:

(i) the Director of the Department of Social Services, or his designee;

(ii) the Director of the Department of Mental Health, or his designee;

(iii) the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, or his designee;

(iv) the Director of the Department of Health and Human Services, or his designee;

(v) the Director of the Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Services, or his designee;

(vi) the Secretary of State, or his designee;

(vii) the Director of the South Carolina Arts Commission, or his designee;

(viii) the Director of the Department of Archives and History, or his designee; and

(ix) the Executive Director of the South Carolina State Housing Finance and Development Authority, or his designee.

(b) The panel shall meet as often as is necessary to fulfill its obligations as provided herein. The panel may utilize remote technology for meetings or other activities as necessary. The Department of Administration shall assist with the coordination of the panel's meetings.

(c) The panel shall develop an application and establish criteria for the evaluation of applications that is consistent with the requirements contained herein, including the priorities identified in subsection (B)(1). During its evaluation of applications, the panel shall give consideration to the geographic distribution of services provided by the qualifying expenditures so that grants are awarded on a statewide basis.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2020

(d) The Department of Administration shall provide staff support for the panel. The Department of Administration, in conjunction with SC CARES Act Grant Management Program, shall confirm that all reimbursement requests in the grant applications comply with federal CARES Act requirements.

(C) For the purposes of the nonprofit entity reimbursement grant program, 'qualifying nonprofit entity' means a 501(c)(3) with twenty-five or fewer employees that has been operating in South Carolina for at least six months prior to the Governor's initial COVID-19 state of emergency declaration on March 13, 2020. However, if the nonprofit entity provides food assistance, then the nonprofit may have more than twenty-five employees and still be considered a qualifying nonprofit entity.

SECTION 7. (A) There is established through the SC CARES Grant Management Program a minority and small business enterprise reimbursement grant program. The program shall award grants to qualifying minority and small business enterprises to reimburse the qualifying business enterprise for some, or all, of the costs associated with qualifying expenditures incurred or expected to be incurred. A qualifying minority or small business enterprise may receive a grant in an amount up to twice its monthly payroll before COVID-19, including the owners draw, or twice its monthly rent or mortgage expenses before COVID-19, whichever is greater; however, the grant maximum is twenty-five thousand dollars. Additionally, if twice the monthly payroll or twice the monthly rent or mortgage expense of a qualifying business enterprise is less than five thousand dollars, then the qualifying business enterprise may be awarded a grant for qualifying expenses either incurred or expected to be incurred that, when added to the greater of twice its monthly payroll or rent or mortgage expense, is equal to at least five thousand dollars. Minority and small business enterprises must apply for grants no later than November 1, 2020.

(B)(1) Applications for grants must be made to the SC CARES Act Grant Management Program. An applicant shall provide the SC CARES Act Grant Management Program with evidence of business interruption due to COVID-19, the applicant's monthly payroll or rent or mortgage expense, and information concerning the applicant's expenditures for which the applicant seeks a grant. The grant manager shall evaluate grant applications to confirm that all reimbursement requests in the grant applications comply with federal CARES Act requirements and that the applicant has provided the necessary evidence and information. The grant manager also shall determine the total amount of the grant that the applicant is qualified to receive. Once the grant manager has made the appropriate confirmations and determinations, the application must be forward to the panel established in item (3).

(2) Grants may be awarded only if the qualifying minority or small business experiences an interruption in business due to COVID-19. Priority must be given to minority businesses, to applicants that did not receive other assistance, such as a Paycheck Protection Program loan or other CARES funds, to businesses with fifteen or fewer employees, and to businesses that demonstrate the greatest financial need.

(3)(a) Priorities must be assigned to minority and small business enterprises by a panel consisting of:

- (i) the Director of the Commission for Minority Affairs, or his designee;
- (ii) the Secretary of Commerce, or his designee; and
- (iii) the Director of the Department of Revenue, or his designee.

(b) In addition to assigning priorities, the Panel also must make an initial determination of which applicants meet the definitions set forth in subsection (C). Once the panel has made such determinations and has assigned priorities, the Panel shall award grants in the amounts determined by the SC CARES Act Grant Management Program and in accordance with this SECTION.

(C) For the purposes of the minority and small business enterprise reimbursement grant program:

(1) 'Economically disadvantaged individuals' means those socially disadvantaged individuals whose ability to compete in the free enterprise system has been impaired due to diminished capital and credit opportunities as compared to others in the same business area who are not socially disadvantaged.

(2) 'Minority business enterprise' means a business with twenty-five or fewer employees that has been operating in South Carolina for at least six months prior to the Governor's initial COVID-19 state of emergency declaration on March 13, 2020, and is owned by an individual who is a United States citizen and who is economically and socially disadvantaged.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2020

(3) ‘Small business enterprise’ means a business with twenty-five or fewer employees that has been operating in South Carolina for at least six months prior to the Governor’s initial COVID-19 state of emergency declaration on March 13, 2020.

(4) ‘socially disadvantaged individuals’ means those individuals who are members of the following groups: African Americans; Hispanic Americans; Native Americans (including individuals recognized as American Indians, Eskimos, Aleuts, and Native Hawaiians), and Asian Pacific Americans.

SECTION 5. State agencies may apply for reimbursement in a similar manner as set forth in SECTION 6 of Act 142 of 2020.

SECTION 6. (A) There is established through the SC CARES Grant Management Program a nonprofit entity reimbursement grant program. (c) The panel shall develop an application and establish criteria for the evaluation of applications that is consistent with the requirements contained herein, including the priorities identified in subsection (B)(1). During its evaluation of applications, the panel shall give consideration to the geographic distribution of services provided by the qualifying expenditures so that grants are awarded on a statewide basis.

(d) The Department of Administration shall provide staff support for the panel. The Department of Administration, in conjunction with SC CARES Act Grant Management Program, shall confirm that all reimbursement requests in the grant applications comply with federal CARES Act requirements.

(C) For the purposes of the nonprofit entity reimbursement grant program, 'qualifying nonprofit entity' means a 501(c)(3) with twenty-five or fewer employees that has been operating in South Carolina for at least six months prior to the Governor's initial COVID-19 state of emergency declaration on March 13, 2020.

SECTION 7. (A) There is established through the SC CARES Grant Management Program a minority and small business enterprise reimbursement grant program. The program shall award grants to qualifying minority and small business enterprises to reimburse the qualifying business enterprise for some, or all, of the costs associated with qualifying expenditures incurred or expected to be incurred. A qualifying minority or small business enterprise may receive a grant in an amount up to twice its monthly payroll before COVID-19, including the owners draw, or twice its monthly rent or mortgage expenses before COVID-19, whichever is greater; however, the grant maximum is twenty-five thousand dollars. Additionally, if twice the monthly payroll or twice the monthly rent or mortgage expense of a qualifying business enterprise is less than five thousand dollars, then the qualifying business enterprise may be awarded a grant for qualifying expenses either incurred or expected to be incurred that, when added to the greater of twice its monthly payroll or rent or mortgage expense, is equal to at least five thousand dollars. Minority and small business enterprises must apply for grants no later than November 1, 2020.

(B)(1) Applications for grants must be made to the SC CARES Act Grant Management Program. An applicant shall provide the SC CARES Act Grant Management Program with evidence of business interruption due to COVID-19, the applicant's monthly payroll or rent or mortgage expense, and information concerning the applicant's expenditures for which the applicant seeks a grant. The grant manager shall evaluate grant applications to confirm that all reimbursement requests in the grant applications comply with federal CARES Act requirements and that the applicant has provided the necessary evidence and information. The grant manager also shall determine the total amount of the grant that the applicant is qualified to receive. Once the grant manager has made the appropriate confirmations and determinations, the application must be forward to the panel established in item (3).

(2) Grants may be awarded only if the qualifying minority or small business experiences an interruption in business due to COVID-19. Priority must be given to minority businesses, to applicants that did not receive other assistance, such as a Paycheck Protection Program loan or other CARES funds, to businesses with fifteen or fewer employees, and to businesses that demonstrate the greatest financial need.

(3)(a) Priorities must be assigned to minority and small business enterprises by a panel consisting of:

(i) the Director of the Commission for Minority Affairs, or his designee;

(ii) the Secretary of Commerce, or his designee; and

(iii) the Director of the Department of Revenue, or his designee.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2020

(b) In addition to assigning priorities, the Panel also must make an initial determination of which applicants meet the definitions set forth in subsection (C). Once the panel has made such determinations and has assigned priorities, the Panel shall award grants in the amounts determined by the SC CARES Act Grant Management Program and in accordance with this SECTION.

(C) For the purposes of the minority and small business enterprise reimbursement grant program:

(1) 'Economically disadvantaged individuals' means those socially disadvantaged individuals whose ability to compete in the free enterprise system has been impaired due to diminished capital and credit opportunities as compared to others in the same business area who are not socially disadvantaged.

(2) 'Minority business enterprise' means a business with twenty-five or fewer employees that has been operating in South Carolina for at least six months prior to the Governor's initial COVID-19 state of emergency declaration on March 13, 2020, and is owned by an individual who is a United States citizen and who is economically and socially disadvantaged.

(3) 'Small business enterprise' means a business with twenty-five or fewer employees that has been operating in South Carolina for at least six months prior to the Governor's initial COVID-19 state of emergency declaration on March 13, 2020.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

September 22, 2020
Charles Reid, Clerk
South Carolina House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Reid,

I am notifying you that I did not participate in the vote on S. 217, a bill which would ensure that if the revenues are used to control and repair of flooding and drainage at tourism-related lands or areas, the revenues must be expended exclusively on public works projects designed to eliminate or mitigate the adverse effects of recurrent nuisance tidal flooding. In accordance with Section 8-13-700(B) of the SC Code, I recused myself from voting on the the bill because of a potential conflict of interest due to an economic interest of myself, my family member as

(B) If the Executive Budget Office determines that the amount of eligible expenditures through December 30, 2020 exceeds the authorizations provided for in Act 142 of 2020 and Section 3(G) of this act, then the Executive Budget Office is authorized to prioritize the remaining reimbursements for expenses incurred as a result of COVID-19 in the following order:

Interest accrued by the fund must remain in the fund and unexpended funds must be retained and carried forward to be used for the same purposes.

Section 48-62-60. (A) Following a federally declared disaster, the Disaster Relief and Resilience Reserve Fund may make available immediate disaster relief assistance to aid resilient rebuilding in affected communities with significant unmet needs. For purposes of this section, disaster relief assistance includes, but is not limited to:

(3) assistance to low- and moderate-income homeowners to help lower flood risk through flood insurance, structural and nonstructural mitigation projects, or other means;

(4) loans and grants to state and local governmental entities for hazard mitigation and infrastructure improvement projects; and

(5) approved mitigation projects identified in local post-disaster recovery plans created and adopted prior to a disaster.

(B) Upon its creation, funding priority must be given to projects identified by the Statewide Resilience Plan or local hazard mitigation plans.

(C) In approving financial assistance for hazard mitigation and infrastructure improvement projects, the office shall ensure that selected projects are in compliance with requirements of the National Flood Insurance Program or any more stringent requirements adopted by a local government and shall give priority to projects which offer enhanced protection from future flood events or which utilize or incorporate natural features to achieve protections. Funds may not be used for projects which, rather than lowering risks overall, increase the flood vulnerabilities of neighboring areas.

(D) In order to qualify for hazard mitigation and infrastructure improvement grants and loans, eligible fund recipients must apply to the office and meet all criteria set forth by the office.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the "South Carolina Business License Tax Standardization Act".

SECTION 2. Article 3, Chapter 1, Title 6 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 6-1-400. (A)(1) Unless otherwise specifically provided for by state law, a county or municipality that levies a business license tax must comply with the provisions of this article.

(2) As used in this article:

(a) 'Business license' means a license issued to a taxpayer by a county or municipality for the privilege of doing business in that county or municipality.

(b) 'Taxing jurisdiction' means a county or municipality levying a business license tax.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2020

(c) 'Taxpayer' means an individual, firm, partnership, limited liability partnership, limited liability corporation, corporation, trust, estate, association, or company.

(B)(1) A business license must be issued to a taxpayer for a twelve-month period beginning May first and ending April thirtieth. Each business license issued must expire April thirtieth or, if issued on a construction contract, at the completion of the construction project. The business license must be renewed before May first of the year in which it expires. If the tax is not paid before May first, then a taxing jurisdiction may impose penalties, except that an admitted insurance company may pay before June first without penalty.

(2) The business license tax must be computed based on the gross income for the calendar year preceding the due date, for the business's twelve-month fiscal year preceding the due date, or on a twelve-month projected income based on the monthly average for a business in operation for less than one year. The tax for a new business must be computed on the estimated probable gross income for the balance of the license year. A business license related to construction contract projects may be issued on a per project basis, at the option of the taxpayer.

(3) A taxpayer is entitled to a refund if he submits a business license tax payment that is greater than the amount owed. The refund must be requested by the taxpayer before June first. The taxing jurisdiction shall issue the refund to the taxpayer within thirty days of the taxpayer's request for the refund.

(C) Wholesalers are exempt from business license taxes unless they maintain warehouses or distribution establishments within the taxing jurisdiction. A wholesale transaction involves a sale to an individual who will resell the goods and includes delivery of the goods to the reseller. It does not include a sale of goods to a user or consumer. The provisions of this article do not amend or repeal Sections 12-21-1085 or 12-33-20.

(D)(1) For the purposes of this article:

(a) 'Charitable organization' means an organization that is determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be exempt from federal income taxes under 26 U.S.C. Section 501 (c)(3), (4), (6), (7), (8), (10) or (19).

(b) 'Charitable purpose' means a benevolent, philanthropic, patriotic, or eleemosynary purpose that does not result in personal gain to a sponsor, organizer, officer, director, trustee, or person with ultimate control of a charitable organization.

(2) A charitable organization shall be exempt from the business license tax on its gross income unless it is deemed a business subject to a business license tax on all or part of its gross income as provided in this section. A charitable organization, or any for-profit affiliate of a charitable organization, that reports income from for-profit activities, or unrelated business income, for federal income tax purposes to the Internal Revenue Service shall be deemed a business subject to a business license tax on the part of its gross income from such for-profit activities or unrelated business income.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2020

(3)(a) A charitable organization shall be deemed a business subject to a business license tax on its total gross income if:

(i) any net proceeds of operation, after necessary expenses of operation, inure to the benefit of any individual or any entity that is not itself a charitable organization as defined in this section; or

(ii) any net proceeds of operation, after necessary expenses of operation, are used for a purpose other than a charitable purpose as defined in this section.

(b) Excess benefits or compensation in any form beyond fair market value to a sponsor, organizer, officer, director, trustee, or person with ultimate control of a charitable organization shall not be deemed a necessary expense of operation.

(E)(1) For the purposes of this article:

(a) 'Gross income' means the gross receipts or gross revenue of a business, received or accrued, for one calendar or fiscal year collected or to be collected from business done within a taxing jurisdiction. For taxing jurisdictions in which the person or business has a domicile, business done within that taxing jurisdiction shall include all gross receipts or revenue received or accrued by such person or business, excepting income earned outside of the taxing jurisdiction on which a license tax is paid by the person or business to some other taxing jurisdiction and fully reported to the taxing jurisdiction. For taxing jurisdictions in which the person or business does not have a domicile, business done within that taxing jurisdiction shall include only gross receipts or revenue received or accrued within such taxing jurisdiction. In all cases, if the taxpayer pays a business license tax to another county or municipality, then the taxpayer's gross income for the purpose of computing the tax within the taxing jurisdiction must be reduced by the amount of gross income taxed in the other county or municipality.

(b) 'Gross income for agents' means gross commissions received or retained. If commissions are divided with other brokers or agents, then only the amount retained by the broker or agent is considered gross income.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2020

(c) 'Gross income for insurance companies' means gross premiums written.

(d) 'Gross income for manufacturers of goods or materials with a location in a taxing jurisdiction' is the lesser of gross income collected from business done at the location, the amount of income allocated and apportioned to that location by the business for purposes of the business's state income tax return, or the amount of expenses attributable to the location as a cost center of the business. Manufacturers include those taxpayers reporting a manufacturing principal business activity code on their federal income tax returns.

(e) Gross income for telecommunications providers is subject to the provisions of Article 20, Chapter 9, Title 58.

(2) Gross income for business license tax purposes may not include taxes collected for a governmental entity, escrow funds, or funds that are the property of a third party. The value of bartered goods or trade in merchandise may be included in gross income.

(3) The gross receipts or gross revenues for business license purposes may be verified by inspection of returns and reports filed with the Internal Revenue Service, the South Carolina Department of Revenue, the South Carolina Department of Insurance, or other governmental agencies.

(F) Each taxing jurisdiction shall accept a standard business license application as established and provided by the Director of the Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office.

(G)(1) By December thirty-first of every odd year, a taxing jurisdiction levying a business license tax shall adopt, by ordinance, the latest Standardized Business License Class Schedule as recommended by the Municipal Association of South Carolina and adopted by the Director of the Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office. The Municipal Association of South Carolina shall determine and revise the Standardized Business License Class Schedule every even year using the latest available nationwide Internal Revenue Service statistics for the calculation of profitability of businesses and using the latest business classification codes of the latest North American Industry Classification System (NAICS).

(2) A taxing jurisdiction, upon a finding of a rational basis as explained in its ordinance and by a positive majority vote of county or municipal council, may provide for additional reasonable subclassifications, described by an NAICS sector, subsector, or industry, based upon particularized considerations as needed for economic stimulus or the enhanced or disproportionate demands by specific business subclassifications on taxing jurisdiction services or infrastructure.

(H)(1) Any special ordinance, formal agreement, or informal agreement entered into between a taxing jurisdiction and a taxpayer regarding rate classes, an annual flat fee, or the calculation of business license taxes that was adopted by ordinance or agreed to before enactment of this subsection is considered valid upon the approval of the taxpayer. A taxpayer may prove the existence and terms of an agreement through direct or circumstantial evidence, including evidence of prior payment accepted.

(2) This section does not impair or affect any future special business license ordinance passed for economic stimulus, an annual flat fee, or any future formal or informal agreement between a taxing jurisdiction and a taxpayer regarding the calculation of business license taxes.

(I)(1) A taxing jurisdiction must establish its 2022 Business License Tax Rate Schedule using the gross income reported by businesses for a twelve-month period in the 2020 business license year so that the aggregate taxing jurisdiction business license tax calculated for 2022 does not exceed the aggregate taxing jurisdiction business license tax collected in 2020 from the same businesses.

(2) If the rate for an NAICS sector, subsector, or industry is unchanged from 2020 to 2022, then the business license tax collections may be excluded from the calculation set forth in item (1).

(J)(1) A taxing jurisdiction shall provide access to taxpayers for the reporting, calculation, and payment of business license taxes through the business license tax portal hosted and managed by the Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office, subject to the availability and capability of the portal. Any limitations in portal availability or capability do not relieve taxpayers from existing business license or business license tax obligations. Any audit of income or assessment of tax reported through the business license tax portal must be undertaken by the taxing jurisdiction. Data obtained through the business license tax portal may not be used by parties other than the taxing jurisdictions for statewide analytics or any other purpose not specified in this section. Parties other than the taxing jurisdictions are prohibited from auditing a taxpayer using the business license tax portal. A taxing jurisdiction shall receive the entirety of the business license tax paid to it by a taxpayer through the business license tax portal. In addition to allowing a payment through the business license tax portal, a taxing jurisdiction shall allow a taxpayer to file and pay its business license tax in person at a location within the taxing jurisdiction, by telephone, by mail, or through an online payment system in existence on January 1, 2018 or prior, that is owned and operated by the taxing jurisdiction.

(2) The Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office is authorized to contract with software providers and payment processors for the purposes of implementing the provisions of this section. The Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office may promulgate regulations to carry out the provisions of this section. The software provider may not retain any portion of the business license tax paid by the taxpayer to a taxing jurisdiction through the business license tax portal.

(3) The Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office is authorized to expend any funds carried forward from previous fiscal years for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this section. Expenditures may not exceed the actual cost of implementing the provisions of this section.

Section 6-1-410. (A) If a taxpayer fails or refuses to pay a business license tax by May first or, for business license taxes collected pursuant to Article 20, Chapter 9, Title 58 and Chapters 7 and 46 of Title 38, the date on which the business license tax is due, the taxing jurisdiction business license official may serve notice of assessment of the business license tax due on the taxpayer by mail or personal service. Within thirty days after the date of postmark or personal service, a taxpayer may request, in writing with reasons stated, an adjustment of the assessment. An informal conference between the taxing jurisdiction business license official and the taxpayer must be held within fifteen days of the receipt of the request, at which time the taxpayer may present any information or documents in support of the requested adjustment. Within five days after the conference, the taxing jurisdiction business license official shall issue a notice of final assessment and serve the taxpayer by mail or personal service with the notice and provide a form for any further appeal of the assessment by the taxpayer.

(B) Within thirty days after the date of postmark or personal service, the taxpayer may appeal the notice of final assessment by filing the completed appeal form with the taxing jurisdiction business license official, by mail or personal service, and by paying to the taxing jurisdiction in protest at least eighty percent of the business license tax based on the final assessment. The appeal must be heard and determined by the taxing jurisdiction council or its designated appeals officer or appeals board. The taxing jurisdiction council or its designee shall provide the taxpayer with written notice of the hearing and with any rules of evidence or procedure prescribed by the taxing jurisdiction council or its designee. The hearing must be held within thirty days after receipt of the appeal form unless continued to another date by agreement of the parties. A hearing by the taxing jurisdiction council, its designee, or the appeals board must be held at a regular or special meeting of the taxing jurisdiction council or appeals board. At the appeals hearing, the taxpayer and the taxing jurisdiction have the right to be represented by counsel, to present testimony and evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses. The hearing must be recorded and must be transcribed at the expense of the party so requesting. The taxing jurisdiction council, its designee, or the appeals board shall decide the assessment by majority vote. The taxing jurisdiction council, its designee, the appeals board, or the designated appeals officer shall issue a written decision explaining the basis for the decision with findings of fact and conclusions and shall inform the taxpayer of the right to request a contested case hearing before the Administrative Law Court. The written decision must be filed with the taxing jurisdiction business license official and served on the taxpayer by mail or personal service. The decision is the final decision of the taxing jurisdiction on the assessment.

(C) Within thirty days after the date of postmark or personal service of the taxing jurisdiction's written decision on the assessment, a taxpayer may appeal the decision to the Administrative Law Court in accordance with the rules of the Administrative Law Court.

(D) For the purposes of this section, 'business license official' means the officer, employee, or agent designated by the taxing jurisdiction as having primary responsibility for business licensing within the taxing jurisdiction.

Section 6-1-420. (A) Notwithstanding Section 5-7-300, a taxing jurisdiction may contract by ordinance with an individual, firm, or organization to assist the taxing jurisdiction in collecting property or business license taxes. A private third-party entity is prohibited from assessing business license taxes or requiring a business entity to remit confidential business license tax data to that private third party on behalf of a taxing jurisdiction. This section may not prohibit a taxing jurisdiction from contracting with a third-party entity in assisting in the collection of business license taxes. For the purposes of this section, assisting in the collection of business license taxes is limited to a contractual agreement with a taxing jurisdiction for a third party to identify, through publicly available records, businesses that are operating within the contracting taxing jurisdiction without a business license, to provide that identification to a taxing jurisdiction, to communicate with those businesses identified to determine whether any business license taxes are due and owing, and to assist those businesses that owe a business license tax with paying the relevant taxing jurisdiction. The third party may also assist the contracting taxing jurisdiction with providing, by United States official mail or electronic mail, the taxing jurisdiction's business license form, along with a self-addressed envelope containing the taxing jurisdiction address, to identified businesses on behalf of the taxing jurisdiction. If a business requests in writing that the third party cease communication with the business, then the third party is strictly prohibited from any further contact. A third party assisting in the collection of business license taxes as defined in this section is prohibited from retaining personal or proprietary information from the identified business.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2020

(B) It is unlawful for any individual, firm, or organization to contact a business in this State regarding noncompliance with a business license ordinance unless the contact is made pursuant to a contract with a taxing jurisdiction in accordance with this section.

(C) This section may not prohibit a taxing jurisdiction from contracting with a third party for the purpose of providing payment processing services for the acceptance of business license tax payments.

(D) A taxing jurisdiction may enter into a contract with a third party to assist the taxing jurisdiction in collecting delinquent business license taxes which includes a contingency fee based on a percentage of taxes collected or otherwise depends on the specific result obtained provided the third party may not be paid on a contingency or success basis until the taxing jurisdiction issues a proposed assessment of business license taxes and the business fails to appeal the proposed assessment in a timely manner or the appeal is adjudicated. This section does not apply to the collection of business license taxes pursuant to Article 20, Chapter 9, Title 58 and Chapters 7 and 45 of Title 38.

(E) Except as needed for a third party to assess and collect business license taxes collected pursuant to Article 20, Chapter 9, Title 58 and Chapters 7 and 45 of Title 38, a taxing jurisdiction may not share or disclose any information relating to business license tax applications with any third party other than to acknowledge whether or not a business has paid the taxing jurisdiction's business license tax for a relevant year. Nothing in this section should be construed as prohibiting a person or entity that gathers and disseminates news, as defined in Section 19-11-100, from obtaining the information not protected by Section 6-1-120 found on the business license tax application from the taxing jurisdiction.

(F) A third-party entity contracting with a taxing jurisdiction to assist in identifying and collecting outstanding business license taxes may not engage in any conduct in which the natural consequence is to harass a business, including, but not limited to the following:

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 2020

- (1) contacting a business in any capacity after the business informs the third-party entity in writing to cease communication;
- (2) stating that a business is required to provide any information to the third-party entity; or
- (3) contacting the business in a manner that the third-party entity knows or should know creates any meaningful business interruption.

(G) The provisions of subsection (A) of this section do not apply to business license taxes collected pursuant to Article 20, Chapter 9, Title 58 and Chapters 7 and 45 of Title 38.

(H)(1) A person or entity may bring a private right of action:

- (a) based on a violation of this section or any regulations prescribed pursuant to this section to enjoin such violation;
- (b) to recover for actual monetary loss from such a violation, or to receive five hundred dollars in damages for each violation, whichever is greater; or
- (c) for both actions described in subitems (a) and (b).

(2) If the court finds that a defendant wilfully or knowingly violated this section or any regulations prescribed pursuant to this section, then the court may, in its discretion, increase the amount of the award to an amount equal to no more than three times the actual monetary loss resulting from such violation.”

SECTION 3. Section 6-1-420 of this act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. The remaining sections of this act take effect January 1, 2022. /
