The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Isaiah 50:4: “The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher.”

Let us pray. Lord God, You have called these women and men to be teachers to the people they serve. Give them the skill and motivation to take care of those they serve. Give these Representatives inspiration and protection and may You always be ready to provide what is needed. So, gracious God, make us both learners and teachers. Protect our defenders of freedom and first responders and keep them safe. Bless and keep our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time and talent to this State. Continue Your blessings on our men and women who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

Mrs. Taylor Janelle McFadden Robinson

I ask that when we adjourn today, that we adjourn in memory of Mrs. Taylor Janelle McFadden Robinson, 29, of Florence, SC, a Realtor who passed away on Sunday, January 23, 2022. She was a tragic victim of domestic violence. Taylor tried to get an order of protection against her husband, but was denied. Taylor was a wonderful mother and a very successful entrepreneur.

Loved ones left to cherish her memories are: two sons, De’Mari Robinson and Kayden Robinson; her father, John McFadden of Lake
