Author: Davis
Subject: Property and Casualty Insurance
Requestor: Senate Banking and Insurance
RFA Analyst(s): Miller
Impact Date: March 8, 2023

Fiscal Impact Summary

This bill allows an insurer to mail, deliver or post a standard property and casualty insurance policy on the insurer's website. This applies only if the policy or endorsement does not contain personally identifying information. This bill also outlines certain guidelines the insurer must follow if the policy is posted online to ensure the insured has easy and convenient access to the policy or endorsement.

This bill will have no expenditure impact for the Department of Insurance (DOI) as the agency anticipates being able to manage any additional responsibilities with existing staff and within existing appropriations.
