(B) Mistake, or unintentional error on the part of a licensed physician or other licensed health care provider or his or her employee or agent or any person acting on behalf of the patient shall not subject the licensed physician or other licensed health care provider or person acting on behalf of the patient to any criminal liability under this article.

(C) Medical care or treatment includes, but is not limited to, ordering, dispensation, or administration of prescribed medications and medical procedures.

Section 16-3-764. Any person may be compelled to testify in any action or prosecution initiated pursuant to this article where the victim is an unborn child; provided, however, that such testimony shall not be admissible in any civil or criminal action against such witness and such witness shall forever be exempt from any prosecution for the act concerning which the witness testifies except a prosecution for perjury.

SECTION 5. This act is prospective only and shall not apply to conduct committed prior to the effective date of this act.

SECTION 6. Section 16-3-1083, Chapter 41 of Title 44, and any other existing provisions relating to prenatal homicide or assault or

Rep. MCCRAVY spoke against the amendment and moved to table the amendment, which was agreed to.

Rep. HARRIS proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0025H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the “South Carolina Prenatal Equal Protection Act of 2023”.

SECTION 2. The General Assembly finds the following:

Acknowledging the sanctity of innocent human life, created in the image of God, which should be equally protected from fertilization to natural death, the purpose of this act is:

(1) to afford equal protection of the laws to all preborn children from the moment of fertilization;

(2) to comply with the Constitution of the United States, which requires that “no state...shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws,” by repealing exceptions that permit wilful prenatal homicide;

(3) to ensure that all persons potentially subject to such laws are entitled to due process protections; and, therefore,

(4) to abolish abortion in this State as a legal act or as a crime separate and distinct from equivalent acts committed against a person who has been born.

SECTION 3. Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Article 7

South Carolina Prenatal Equal Protection Act of 2023

Section 44-41-800. (A) As used in this article, “fertilization” means the fusion of a human spermatozoon with a human ovum.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

(B) As used in this article and in Chapter 3, Title 16, “person” includes an unborn child at every stage of development from fertilization until birth.

Section 44-41-810. Where the victim is an unborn child and the defendant is the child’s mother, it is a defense to prosecution under Articles 1 and 7, Chapter 3, Title 16 that the mother engaged in the proscribed conduct because she was compelled to do so by the threat of imminent death or great bodily injury.

Section 44-41-820. (A) In a prosecution under Article 1, Chapter 3, Title 16 where the victim is an unborn child, unless specifically provided otherwise:

(1) enforcement is subject to the same presumptions, defenses, justifications, laws of parties, immunities, and clemencies as would apply to the homicide of a person who had been born alive;

(2) solicitors and the Attorney General shall have concurrent authority to prosecute criminal cases and to perform any duty that necessarily relates to such prosecution; and

(3) this article and Article 1, Chapter 3, Title 16 prevail over other law to the extent of any conflict.

(B) In a prosecution under Article 7, Chapter 3, Title 16 where the victim is an unborn child, unless specifically provided otherwise:

(1) enforcement is subject to the same presumptions, defenses, justifications, laws of parties, immunities, and clemencies as would apply to the assault of a person who had been born alive;

(2) solicitors and the Attorney General shall have concurrent authority to prosecute criminal cases and to perform any duty that necessarily relates to such prosecution; and

(3) this article and Article 7, Chapter 3, Title 16 prevail over other law to the extent of any conflict.

Section 44-41-830. (A) Medical care or treatment provided with the requisite consent by a licensed physician to avert the death of a pregnant woman that results in the accidental or unintentional injury or death of her unborn child when all reasonable alternatives to save the life of the unborn child were attempted or none were available does not constitute a violation of Article 1 or 7, Chapter 3, Title 16.

(B) Mistake or unintentional error on the part of a licensed physician or other licensed health care provider or his or her employee or agent or any person acting on behalf of the patient shall not subject the licensed physician or other licensed health care provider or person acting on behalf of the patient to any criminal liability under Article 1 or 7, Chapter 3, Title 16.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

(C) Medical care or treatment includes, but is not limited to, ordering, dispensation, or administration of prescribed medications and medical procedures.

Section 44-41-840. Any person may be compelled to testify in any action or prosecution initiated pursuant to Article 1 or 7, Chapter 3, Title 16 where the victim is an unborn child; provided, however, that such testimony shall not be admissible in any civil or criminal action against such witness and such witness shall forever be exempt from any prosecution for the act concerning which the witness testifies except a prosecution for perjury.

SECTION 4. This act is prospective only and shall not apply to conduct committed prior to the effective date of this act.

SECTION 5. Section 16-3-1083, Chapter 41 of Title 44, and any other existing provisions relating to prenatal homicide or assault or regulating abortion or abortion facilities are not repealed but are superseded to the extent that such provisions may conflict with or may be inconsistent with this act.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-41-830(A)(2) and inserting:

(2) A physician who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman pursuant to subitem (1)(a) must report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff in the county in which the rape or incest occurred. The report must be made no later than twenty-four hours after performing or inducing the abortion. The report may be made orally or in writing and must include the name and contact information of the pregnant woman making the allegation. Prior to performing or inducing the abortion, the physician who will perform or induce the abortion based upon an allegation of rape or incest must notify the pregnant woman that the physician will report the allegation of rape or incest to the Sheriff in the county where the rape or incest occurred. The physician shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records that the abortion was performed pursuant to the applicable exception, that the physician timely notified the appropriate Sheriff of the allegation

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 6 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0021H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by deleting Section 44-41-810(4).

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by deleting Section 44-41-810(8).

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-41-830(A), (B), (C), (D), and (E) and inserting:

(A)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 for a physician to perform a medical procedure necessary in his reasonable medical judgment to prevent the death of a pregnant woman, a substantial risk of death of a pregnant woman due to a physical condition, or the substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions.

(2) It is presumed that the following medical conditions constitute a substantial risk of death or substantial risk of substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of a pregnant woman: molar pregnancy, partial molar pregnancy, blighted ovum, ectopic pregnancy, severe preeclampsia, HELLP syndrome, abruptio placentae, severe physical maternal trauma, uterine rupture, intrauterine fetal demise, and miscarriage. However, when an unborn child is alive in utero, the physician must make all reasonable efforts to deliver and save the life of an unborn child during the process of separating the unborn child from the pregnant woman, to the extent that it does not adversely affect the life or physical health of the pregnant woman, and in a manner that is consistent with reasonable medical practice. The enumeration of the medical conditions in this item is not intended to exclude or abrogate other conditions that satisfy the exclusions contained in item (1) or prevent other procedures that are not included in the definition of abortion.

(3) A physician performing a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall make reasonable medical efforts under the circumstances to preserve the life of the pregnant woman's unborn child, to the extent that it does not substantially risk the death or physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions and in a manner consistent with reasonable medical practices. A medical procedure shall not be considered necessary if it is performed based upon a claim or diagnosis that the woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(4) A physician who performs a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall declare, in a written document maintained with the woman's medical records, that the medical procedure was necessary, the woman's medical condition necessitating the procedure, the physician's rationale for his conclusion that the procedure was necessary, and that all reasonable efforts were made to save the unborn child in the event it was living prior to the procedure. The declaration required by this item must be placed in the woman's medical records not later than thirty days after the procedure was completed. A physician's exercise of reasonable medical judgment in relation to a medical procedure undertaken pursuant to this subsection is presumed to be within the applicable standard of care.

(B) Medical treatment provided to a pregnant woman by a physician which results in the accidental or unintentional injury or death of her unborn child is not a violation of Section 44-41-820.

(C)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, or administer a contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device if the contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device is used, sold, prescribed or administered in accordance with manufacturer's instructions and is not used, sold, prescribed or administered to cause or induce an abortion.

(2) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and insert an intrauterine device if the intrauterine device is used, sold, inserted, and prescribed within the reasonable medical judgment of a physician and is not used, sold, prescribed, or administered to cause or induce an abortion of an unborn human being.

(3) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and administer an emergency contraceptive drug designed to be taken within five days of unprotected sex and used according to the manufacturer's instructions. For purposes of this item, an emergency contraceptive drug does not include mifepristone or misoprostol.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

(D)(1) Except as provided in item (2), it is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to perform or undergo assistive reproductive technology, including but not limited to in vitro fertilization, within the accepted standards of care by the reproductive medical community.

(2) Performing selective reduction is a violation of Section 44-41-820 unless it is necessary within reasonable medical judgment to prevent a substantial risk of death or a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of another unborn child.

RECORD FOR VOTING

I was temporarily out of the Chamber on constituent business during the vote on Amendment No. 6 of H. 3774. If I had been present, I would have voted in favor of the Amendment.

Rep. Davey Hiott

RECORD FOR VOTING

Today, I voted to table Amendment No. 6 during the debate of the Human Life Protection Act. This is the first time in my 22-year legislative career that I have voted against stripping exceptions from pro-life legislation. I remain ardently committed to protecting life. In our current political reality, passage of this Amendment will not lead to the passage or enactment of the Bill – leaving no pro-life law in our State. I have voted to table this Amendment in order to give us the best chance of successfully moving forward in our pursuit of protecting life in South Carolina.

Rep. G. Murrell Smith

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 7 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0022H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by deleting Section 44-41-810(8).

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-41-830(A) and inserting:

(A) A physician may perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman if there exists a fatal fetal anomaly that has been confirmed by two physicians in separate medical practices who specialize in obstetrics or the area of medicine in which the fatal fetal anomaly is diagnosed.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Rep. OTT raised the Parliamentary Inquiry that if it had been appropriate to accept Rep. HART's motion to table Amendment No. 9 on H. 3774 before the amendment was explained.

Rep. RUTHERFORD argued that the Rules required that an amendment be explained at least ten minutes.

The SPEAKER cited Rule 5.19 and stated that the rule required that a bill or joint resolution be explained at least ten minutes before the question of second reading being voted upon by the Body. The SPEAKER stated that the rule did not apply to amendments. The Speaker started further that he felt that he should have allowed the amendment sponsor to explain his or her position before accepting the motion to table. The SPEAKER stated that henceforth he would allow the amendment sponsor to explain his or her amendment before accepting a motion to dispose of the amendment.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE* IN CHAIR

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 10 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0015H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-41-860 and inserting:

Section 44-41-860. (A) Before January 1, 2027, a pregnant woman on whom an abortion is performed or induced in violation of this article may not be criminally prosecuted for violating any of the provisions of this article or for attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or acting complicitly in committing a violation of any of the provisions of the article and is not subject to a civil or criminal penalty based on the abortion being performed or induced in violation of any of the provisions of this article.

(B)(1) Beginning January 1, 2027, a pregnant woman who intentionally commits an abortion, as defined in Section 44-41-810, upon her own child is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, must be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than two years, or both. A finding of coercion must be regarded as a complete defense. Cooperation with prosecution as to other related crimes including, but not limited to, a sexual assault that caused the pregnancy, or an abortion procedure performed by a licensed medical doctor, shall provide cause in the discretion of the court for reduced sentencing.

(2) A person who files a charge under this subsection which is found to be frivolous or dismissed for lack of reasonable evidence of intent is subject to a cause of action in this State and may be held liable for double damages.

Rep. WETMORE proposed the following Amendment No. 14 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0030H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the “Reproductive Freedom Bill of Rights Act”.

SECTION 2. Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

CHAPTER 140
Reproductive Rights
Article 1

Definitions

Section 44-140-10. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) “Abortion” means the use of an instrument, medicine, drug, or other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant for reasons other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

(2) “Abortion-inducing drugs” means a medicine, drug, or any other substance prescribed or dispensed with the intent of terminating the clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman, with knowledge that the termination will with reasonable likelihood cause the death of the unborn child. This includes off-label use of drugs known to have abortion-inducing properties, which are prescribed specifically with the intent of causing an abortion, such as misoprostol (Cytotec) and methotrexate. This definition does not apply to drugs that may be known to cause an abortion but which are prescribed for other medical indications including, but not limited to, chemotherapeutic agents or diagnostic drugs. Use of such drugs to induce abortion is also known as “medical”, “drug-induced.”

(3) “Assistive reproductive technologies” means treatments or procedures that involve the handling of human egg, sperm, and embryo outside the body with the intent of facilitating a pregnancy. Assistive reproductive technologies include, but are not limited to, in-vitro fertilization, egg, embryo, or sperm cryopreservation, egg or embryo donation, and gestational surrogacy.

(4) “Contraceptive” means any drug, device, medication, or method used to prevent pregnancy. A contraceptive may prevent ovulation, fertilization, or implantation in the uterus.

(5) “Department” means the Department of Health and Environmental Control.

(6) “Emergency contraception” means a form of contraception that is effective if administered within a specified period of time after sexual intercourse.

(7) “Hospital” means those institutions licensed for hospital operation by the department in accordance with Article 3, Chapter 7 of this title and which have also been certified by the department to be suitable facilities for the performance of abortions.

(8) “Infertility” means the inability to establish pregnancy after twelve months of regular, unprotected sexual intercourse; or a person’s incapacity for reproduction either as an individual or with his partner, which may be determined after a period of less than twelve months of regular, unprotected sexual intercourse, or based on medical, sexual, and reproductive history, age, physical findings, or diagnostic testing.

(9) “Pregnant” means the condition of a woman carrying a developing embryo or fetus within her body. Pregnancy does not begin until a zygote is implanted in the uterine wall.

(10) “Spontaneous abortion” means a noninduced embryonic or fetal death or passage of products of conception before twenty weeks gestation.

(11) “Viability” means the state of fetal development when the life of the fetus may be continued indefinitely outside the womb by natural or artificial life-supportive systems. A legal presumption is hereby created that viability occurs no sooner than the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy, recognizing that some pregnancies may never become viable.

Article 3

Abortions Generally

Section 44-140-310. An abortion may be performed or induced by a physician on a woman with her consent prior to the viability of her fetus. The decision to have an abortion prior to the viability of her fetus shall be solely that of the pregnant woman in consultation with her physician.

Section 44-140-320. An abortion may be performed or induced by a physician after a fetus reaches viability only with a pregnant woman’s consent and only when the:

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

- (1) abortion is necessary based upon her physician's best medical judgment to preserve the life or health of the woman;
- (2) pregnancy was the result of rape;
- (3) pregnancy was the result of incest; or
- (4) abortion is necessary based upon a fetal diagnosis that is incompatible with life.

Section 44-140-330. A physician practicing telemedicine in accordance with the requirements contained in Section 40-47-37 may prescribe abortion-inducing drugs.

Section 44-140-340. A pregnant woman may not be kept alive by artificial methods in order to carry a pregnancy to term without her consent. In the event of incapacity, a pregnant woman may not be kept alive by artificial methods in order to carry a pregnancy to term without the consent of her medical power of attorney, next of kin, or immediate family members, in that order of priority.

Section 44-140-350. No person may seize any blood, DNA, medical waste, or anything related to an abortion in order to be used in prosecuting an allegation of rape or incest without the written consent of the woman upon whom the abortion was performed or induced. In the event that the woman upon whom the abortion was performed was a minor, consent must be obtained from one of her parents or legal guardian who is not alleged to have committed the rape or incest that resulted in the pregnancy.

Section 44-140-360.(A) No private or nongovernmental hospital or clinic shall be required to admit any patient for the purpose of performing or inducing an abortion, nor shall such institutions be required to permit their facilities to be utilized to perform or induce abortions. No cause of action shall arise against any such hospital or clinic for refusal to perform or induce or to allow the performance or induction of an abortion if the institution has adopted a policy to not admit patients for the purpose of performing or inducing abortions; provided that no hospital or clinic shall refuse an emergency admittance.

(B)(1) No physician, nurse, technician, or other employee of a hospital, clinic, or physician shall be required to recommend, perform, induce, or assist in the performance or induction of an abortion if he advises the hospital, clinic, or employing physician in writing that he objects to performing, inducing, assisting, or otherwise participating in such procedures. Such notice will suffice without specification of the reason therefor.

(2) No physician, nurse, technician, or other person who refuses to perform, induce, or assist in the performance or induction of an abortion shall be liable to any person for damages allegedly arising from such refusal.

(3) No physician, nurse, technician or other person who refuses to perform, induce, assist in the performance or induction of an abortion shall because of that refusal be dismissed, suspended, demoted, or otherwise disciplined or discriminated against by the hospital or clinic with which he is affiliated or by which he is employed. A civil action for damages or reinstatement of employment, or both, may be prosecuted by any person whose employment or affiliation with a hospital or clinic has been altered or terminated in violation of this chapter; provided that no physician, nurse, technician, or other person may refuse to provide care in a medical emergency.

(4) Any physician who performs an abortion shall also provide, for proper compensation, necessary aftercare for his patient unless released by the patient in writing. The extent of aftercare required shall be that care customarily provided by physicians in such cases in accordance with accepted medical practice.

(C) A private or nongovernmental hospital or clinic, or a physician, nurse, technician, or other person who refuses to provide emergency contraception to a rape victim must inform the rape victim as soon as practicable of her right to emergency contraception and where she can obtain emergency contraception, including a referral to another medical facility or physician.

Section 44-140-370. Any abortion performed or induced in this State must be reported by the performing physician on the standard form for reporting abortions to the State Registrar, Department of Health and Environmental Control, within seven days after the abortion is performed or induced. The names of the patient and physician may not be reported on the form or otherwise disclosed to the State Registrar. The form must indicate from whom consent was obtained, circumstances waiving consent, and, if an exception was exercised pursuant to Section 44-140-320, which exception the physician relied upon in performing or inducing the abortion.

Section 44-140-380.(A)(1) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the certification of hospitals as defined in Section 44-140-10 as suitable facilities for the performance of abortions.

(2) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the licensing and certification of facilities other than hospitals as defined in Section 44-140-10(7) wherein abortions are to be performed or induced.

(B)(1) A facility in which five or more abortions are performed or induced in a month must be licensed by the department to operate as an abortion clinic.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

(2) The department shall promulgate regulations concerning sanitation, housekeeping, maintenance, staff qualifications, emergency equipment and procedures to provide emergency care, medical records and reports, laboratory, procedure and recovery rooms, physical plant, quality assurance, infection control, and information on and access to patient follow-up care necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

Section 44-140-390.(A) A pregnant woman who is experiencing or has experienced a miscarriage or spontaneous abortion is immune from all legal action, including police investigation and prosecution.

(B) Physicians are authorized to treat a woman experiencing a spontaneous abortion or miscarriage or who has already experienced a spontaneous abortion or miscarriage with any medical procedure or pharmaceutical deemed by medical professionals to be the appropriate standard of care.

(C) Pharmacists are authorized to dispense medication known to induce abortions for the treatment of miscarriage or spontaneous abortion.

Section 44-140-400. All medical schools in this State must include training on miscarriage and spontaneous abortion management in their required instruction of students who will provide reproductive care to women.

Section 44-140-410. It is unlawful to deceive, or attempt to deceive, a woman, regardless of whether the woman is pregnant, by providing her with false or misleading information concerning the gestational age of her fetus, her due date, how much time she has to make a decision concerning an abortion, or any other false or misleading information that may impact a woman's decision concerning her pregnancy and whether to have an abortion. A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, must be fined up to ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for up to five years, or both.

Section 44-140-420. The General Assembly may not appropriate funds or otherwise commit resources to crisis pregnancy centers or any other facility that inaccurately presents itself as a health care facility.

Section 44-140-430. All data related to a woman's fertility, including data related to tracking menstrual cycles must:

(1) remain confidential and may not be released to anyone without the woman's prior written consent; and

(2) not be used as evidence in any prosecution of the woman.

Article 5

Abortions on Minors

Section 44-140-510. (A) No person may perform an abortion upon a minor unless consent is obtained in accordance with one of the following provisions:

(1) the attending physician or his agent or the referring physician or his agent has secured the informed written consent, signed and witnessed, of the pregnant minor and:

- (a) one parent of the minor; or
- (b) a legal guardian of the minor; or
- (c) a grandparent of the minor; or

(d) any person who has been standing in loco parentis to the minor for a period not less than sixty days;

(2) the minor is emancipated and the attending physician or his agent has received the informed signed written consent of the minor; or

(3) the attending physician or his agent has obtained the informed signed written consent of the minor and has received the order of the court obtained by the minor pursuant to this chapter.

(B) If a parent or legal guardian refuses to give the informed written consent for the minor's abortion and there has been a judicial finding of refusal of consent, and the minor has a child or children as a result of that pregnancy, the duty imposed by law of supporting the child or children extends to the minor and jointly and severally to the refusing parent or legal guardian and the natural father until the minor reaches the age of eighteen years or is emancipated.

(C) Any person standing in loco parentis and who consents to the abortion of the minor as permitted in subsection (A)(1) shall sign an affidavit indicating the nature and length of his or her relationship with the minor. The affidavit must state the penalties for wilfully or knowingly making a false representation. Anyone who knowingly or wilfully makes a false representation in the affidavit shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than three thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year.

Section 44-140-520. Every minor has the right to petition the court for an order granting her the right to obtain an abortion without the consent. In seeking this relief the following procedures apply:

(1) The minor may prepare and file a petition in either the circuit or family court. The petition may be filed in the name of Jane Doe to protect the anonymity of the minor.

(2) The Adoption and Birth Parent Services Division of the Department of Social Services, upon request of the minor, must provide assistance to the minor in preparing and filing the petition. Preparation and filing of the petition must be completed within forty-eight hours after the request. The Department of Social Services shall promulgate regulations establishing the procedures to be followed in providing this assistance.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

(3) Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor, taking into consideration the preference of the minor. The minor may participate in court proceedings on her own behalf, but the court shall advise her that she has a right to court-appointed counsel and shall provide her with counsel upon her request.

(4) All proceedings pursuant to this section must be given precedence over other matters pending before the court.

(5) The court shall hold a hearing and rule on the merits of the petition within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition. This time may be extended upon the request of the minor. The court shall consider the emotional and physical development, maturity, intellect, and understanding of the minor; the nature and possible consequences of the abortion and of the alternatives to the abortion; and other evidence that the court may find useful in determining whether the minor should be granted the right on her own behalf to consent to the abortion or whether the abortion is in the best interest of the minor. The court shall weigh this against the ability of the minor to provide and care for a child. The court also shall consider the risks of an abortion versus the risks of pregnancy, including the maternal and infant mortality rates in this State.

Section 44-140-530.(A) The court shall enter a written order stating findings of fact and conclusions of law in support of its decision to:

(1) grant the minor the right on her own behalf to consent to the abortion if the court finds that the minor is mature and well-informed enough to make the abortion decision on her own;

(2) grant consent for the abortion if the court finds that the performance of the abortion would be in the minor's best interest; or

(3) deny the petition if the court finds that the minor is immature and that performance of the abortion would not be in the minor's best interest. If the father of the child born after the denial of the petition is identified by adjudication, he shall share in the expenses of the delivery and rearing of the child as determined by the court. Orders issued under this item shall specify that the minor shall have the right to counseling services, appropriate prenatal care, delivery, neonatal, and postnatal care, the cost of which may be paid by the State. Additionally, the State shall have subrogation rights against the father for payments made by the State on behalf of the child.

(B) The court shall immediately issue a written order to the minor, her guardian ad litem, attorney, or other person designated by the minor to receive notice on her behalf.

Section 44-140-540.(A) A minor has the right to appeal to the Supreme Court a decision rendered pursuant to Section 44-140-530. She is entitled to an anonymous and expeditious appellate review which takes precedence over other matters pending before the court.

(B) A minor who declares she has insufficient funds to pursue the procedures provided in this section or in Section 44-140-520 must not be required to pay the costs associated with these procedures.

(C) The notice of intent to appeal must be filed with the court issuing the order within seventy-two hours from the date the order is received. The record on appeal must be completed and the appeal must be perfected within ten days from the filing of the notice of intent to appeal. These filing requirements are not considered jurisdictional and may be extended by the Supreme Court upon request of the minor for good cause shown.

(D) All hearings conducted under this section and Section 44-140-520 must be closed to the public. All records related to these sections and Section 44-140-520 are not open to public examination and must be sealed by the court.

(E) The Supreme Court shall adopt rules governing the administration of the courts or practice and procedure before such courts necessary to carry out the provisions of this section and Sections 44-140-520 and 44-140-530.

Section 44-140-550. Failure to obtain required consent constitutes prima facie evidence of interference with family relations in appropriate civil actions. The law of this State does not preclude the award of exemplary damages in an appropriate civil action relevant to violations concerning a minor. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to limit the common law rights of parents.

Section 44-140-560.(A) A person who intentionally performs an abortion with knowledge that, or with reckless disregard as to whether, the person upon whom the abortion is to be performed is an unemancipated minor, and who intentionally or knowingly fails to conform to any requirement in this article is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than two thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than three years, or both. No part of the minimum fine may be suspended. For conviction of a second or subsequent offense, the sentence must be imprisonment for not less than sixty days nor more than three years, none of which may be suspended.

(B) A physician or any person employed or connected with a physician, hospital, or health care facility performing abortions who acts in good faith is justified in relying on the representations of the unemancipated minor or of any other person providing the information required under this chapter. A physician or other person who furnishes professional services related to an act authorized or required by this chapter and who relies upon the information furnished pursuant to this chapter may not be held to have violated any criminal law or to be civilly liable for the reliance, provided that the physician or other person acted in good faith.

Section 44-140-570.(A) A physician or other professional person or agency counseling or discussing with a minor the question of her obtaining an abortion shall fully inform her of the procedures she must follow under law to obtain an abortion without the required consent.

(B) The Adoption and Birth Parent Services Division of the Department of Social Services shall develop and distribute brochures to health and education professionals for use in counseling pregnant minors. This brochure shall include the following:

- (1) how to access her local health department for prenatal care;
- (2) how to access her local Adoption and Birth Parent Services Division of the Department of Social Services or any private not-for-profit adoption service;
- (3) the parental consent requirement as outlined in this bill;
- (4) the judicial by-pass procedure as provided in this article; and
- (5) how to access her local mental health center for counseling services.

Article 7

Assistive Reproductive Technologies and Contraceptives

Section 44-140-710. It is the public policy of this State to protect and promote equitable access to the full range of assistive reproductive technologies. Any undue burden placed on a person seeking to utilize assistive reproductive technologies is a violation of this section.

Section 44-140-720. Practitioners of assistive reproductive technologies are not required to preserve eggs or sperm. However, a patient, after consultation with her practitioner, may choose to preserve eggs or sperm. If the patient chooses to preserve eggs or sperm, then the practitioner must provide for appropriate preservation in accordance with generally accepted medical standards.

Section 44-140-730. It is the public policy of this State that individuals in this State are entitled to make autonomous decisions concerning contraceptives. Each individual in this State is entitled to access, possess, and use the contraceptive method that the individual decides is best for her circumstances.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

Article 9

Pregnancy and Childbirth

Section 44-140-910.(A) It is the public policy of this State that all pregnant women in South Carolina are entitled to high-quality health care during pregnancy, childbirth, and for at least one year after childbirth, regardless of their insurance plan coverage, lack of insurance, or ability to pay.

(B) To facilitate the delivery of high-quality delivery of prenatal and postnatal health care services to financially challenged women, beginning January 1, 2023, an adult sixty-five years of age and younger whose income is at or below one hundred thirty-three percent of the federal poverty level, with a five percent income disregard, is eligible for Medicaid as provided for in the “Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act” (P.L. No. 111-148) and amendments to that act.

Section 44-140-920. A pregnant woman may choose to receive prenatal and postnatal care from a midwife, doula, physician, nurse, nurse practitioner, or any other health care provider of her choice.

Section 44-140-930. A pregnant woman may give birth at the location of her choice. A woman may not be compelled to give birth in a hospital, birthing center, or any other location not of her choosing.

SECTION 3. Section 40-47-37(C)(6) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(6) prescribe within a practice setting fully in compliance with this section and during an encounter in which threshold information necessary to make an accurate diagnosis has been obtained in a medical history interview conducted by the prescribing licensee; provided, however, that Schedule II and Schedule III prescriptions are not permitted except for those Schedule II and Schedule III medications specifically authorized by the board, which may include, but not be limited to, Schedule II-nonnarcotic and Schedule III-nonnarcotic medications; further, provided, that licensees prescribing controlled substances by means of telemedicine must comply with all relevant federal and state laws including, but not limited to, participation in the South Carolina Prescription Monitoring Program set forth in Article 15, Chapter 53, Title 44; further, provided, that prescribing of lifestyle medications including, but not limited to, erectile dysfunction drugs is not permitted unless approved by the board; ~~further, provided, that~~

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

~~prescribing abortion inducing drugs is not permitted; as used in this article "abortion inducing drug" means a medicine, drug, or any other substance prescribed or dispensed with the intent of terminating the clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman, with knowledge that the termination will with reasonable likelihood cause the death of the unborn child. This includes off label use of drugs known to have abortion inducing properties, which are prescribed specifically with the intent of causing an abortion, such as misoprostol (Cytotec), and methotrexate. This definition does not apply to drugs that may be known to cause an abortion, but which are prescribed for other medical indications including, but not limited to, chemotherapeutic agents or diagnostic drugs. Use of such drugs to induce abortion is also known as 'medical', 'drug induced', and/or 'chemical abortion';~~

SECTION 4. Chapter 71, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-71-48. Every health maintenance organization, individual and group health insurance policy, or contract issued or renewed in this State that provides coverage for pregnancy and childbirth must also provide coverage for:

- (1) abortions and related services; and
- (2) medical procedures intended to permanently prevent pregnancy including, but not limited to, tubal ligation, hysterectomy, and vasectomy.

Section 38-71-49. Every health maintenance organization, individual and group health insurance policy, or contract issued or renewed in this State must offer coverage for assistive reproductive technologies. Coverage offered pursuant to this section shall include, but shall not be not limited to, ovulation induction, egg retrieval, sperm retrieval, artificial insemination, in vitro fertilization, genetic screening, intracytoplasmic sperm injection, and any other nonexperimental treatment, as determined by the Director of the Department of Health and Environmental Control in consultation with appropriate professional and patient organizations such as the American Society for Reproductive Medicine, RESOLVE, the National Infertility Association, and the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.

SECTION 5.A. Section 59-32-10(2) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

- (2) "Reproductive health education" means age appropriate, unbiased, comprehensive, and medically accurate instruction in human physiology, conception, prenatal care and development, childbirth, and postnatal care, but does not include instruction concerning sexual practices outside marriage or practices unrelated to reproduction except within the context of the risk of disease. Abstinence and the risks associated with sexual activity outside of marriage ~~must be strongly emphasized~~ may be encouraged and discussed, however, it may not be the only or primary method of prevention of pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases.

B. Section 59-32-10(4) of S.C. Code is amended to read:

(4) "Pregnancy prevention education" means instruction intended to:

(a) ~~stress the importance of~~ encourage abstaining from sexual activity until marriage;

(b) help students develop skills to enable them to resist peer pressure and abstain from sexual activity;

(c) explain methods of contraception and the risks and benefits of each method. Abortion must not be included as a method of birth control. Instruction explaining the methods of contraception must not be included in any education program for grades kindergarten through fifth. Contraceptive information must be given in the context of future family planning.

SECTION 6. Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is repealed.

SECTION 7. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

Rep. BAMBERG moved to adjourn debate on the amendment, which was agreed to.

Rep. RUTHERFORD proposed the following Amendment No. 16 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0037H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by deleting Section 44-41-810(4).

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by deleting Section 44-41-810(8).

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-41-830(A), (B), (C), (D), and (E) and inserting:

(A)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 for a physician to perform a medical procedure necessary in his reasonable medical judgment to prevent the death of a pregnant woman, a substantial risk of death of a pregnant woman due to a physical condition, or the substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions.

(2) It is presumed that the following medical conditions constitute a substantial risk of death or substantial risk of substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of a pregnant woman: molar pregnancy, partial molar pregnancy, blighted ovum, ectopic pregnancy, severe preeclampsia, HELLP syndrome, abruptio placentae, severe physical maternal trauma, uterine rupture, intrauterine fetal demise, and miscarriage. However, when an unborn child is alive in utero, the physician must make all reasonable efforts to deliver and save the life of an unborn child during the process of separating the unborn child from the pregnant woman, to the extent that it does not adversely affect the life or physical health of the pregnant woman, and in a manner that is consistent with reasonable medical practice. The enumeration of the medical conditions in this item is not intended to exclude or abrogate other conditions that satisfy the exclusions contained in item (1) or prevent other procedures that are not included in the definition of abortion.

(3) A physician performing a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall make reasonable medical efforts under the circumstances to preserve the life of the pregnant woman's unborn child, to the extent that it does not substantially risk the death or physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions and in a manner consistent with reasonable medical practices. A medical procedure shall not be considered necessary if it is performed based upon a claim or diagnosis that the woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(4) A physician who performs a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall declare, in a written document maintained with the woman's medical records, that the medical procedure was necessary, the woman's medical condition necessitating the procedure, the physician's rationale for his conclusion that the procedure was necessary, and that all reasonable efforts were made to save the unborn child in the event it was living prior to the procedure. The declaration required by this item must be placed in the woman's medical records not later than thirty days after the procedure was completed. A physician's exercise of reasonable medical judgment in relation to a medical procedure undertaken pursuant to this subsection is presumed to be within the applicable standard of care.

(B) Medical treatment provided to a pregnant woman by a physician which results in the accidental or unintentional injury or death of her unborn child is not a violation of Section 44-41-820.

(C)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, or administer a contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device if the contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device is used, sold, prescribed or administered in accordance with manufacturer's instructions and is not used, sold, prescribed or administered to cause or induce an abortion.

(2) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and insert an intrauterine device if the intrauterine device is used, sold, inserted, and prescribed within the reasonable medical judgment of a physician and is not used, sold, prescribed, or administered to cause or induce an abortion of an unborn human being.

(3) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and administer an emergency contraceptive drug designed to be taken within five days of unprotected sex and used according to the manufacturer's instructions. For purposes of this item, an emergency contraceptive drug does not include mifepristone or misoprostol.

(D)(1) Except as provided in item (2), it is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to perform or undergo assistive reproductive technology, including but not limited to in vitro fertilization, within the accepted standards of care by the reproductive medical community.

(2) Performing selective reduction is a violation of Section 44-41-820 unless it is necessary within reasonable medical judgment to

Rep. J. L. JOHNSON proposed the following Amendment No. 18 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0029H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 63-17-790(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(A) The division may establish paternity of a child upon conception in the course of a negotiation conference held pursuant to Section 63-17-750 based upon an application for services or receipt of services by the custodian pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. Service on the alleged father pursuant to this section must be made as provided in Section 63-17-740. In addition to the notice of financial responsibility as set forth in Section 63-17-730, the division must serve the alleged father with a notice of paternity determination which shall include:

(1) an allegation that the alleged father is the natural father of the born or unborn child involved;

(2) the child's name and date of birth or if not yet born, the probable date of conception and expected date of birth;

(3) the name of the child's mother and, if the child is born, the name of the person or agency having custody of the child, if other than the mother;

(4) a statement that if the alleged father fails to timely deny the allegation of paternity, the question of paternity may be resolved against the alleged father without further notice;

(5) a statement that if the alleged father timely denies the allegation of paternity:

(a) the alleged father is subject to compulsory genetic testing and that expenses incurred may be assessed against the alleged father if he is found to be the father;

(b) a genetic test may result in a presumption of paternity; and

(c) upon receipt of the genetic test results, if the alleged father continues to deny paternity, the alleged father may request the division to refer the matter to Family Court for a determination of paternity

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

pursuant to Section 63-17-780. An order for child support resulting from a subsequent finding of paternity is effective from the date the alleged father was served with the notice of paternity determination.

So, the amendment was tabled.

Reps. BAUER and COBB-HUNTER proposed the following Amendment No. 19 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.DG0042H), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking the bill in its entirety and inserting:

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO SECTION 10, ARTICLE I OF THE CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH CAROLINA, RELATING TO PROTECTIONS AGAINST UNREASONABLE SEARCHES AND SEIZURES AND INVASIONS OF PRIVACY, SO AS TO DELETE THE PROTECTION AGAINST UNREASONABLE INVASIONS OF PRIVACY.

SECTION 1. It is proposed that Section 10, Article I of the Constitution of this State be amended to read:

Section 10. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures and unreasonable invasions of privacy shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, the person or thing to be seized, and the information to be obtained. The right of the people against unreasonable invasions of privacy may not be construed so as to provide a person a right to an abortion.

SECTION 2. The proposed amendment must be submitted to the qualified electors at the next general election for representatives. Ballots must be provided at the various voting precincts with the following words printed or written on the ballot:

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

“Must Section 10, Article I of the Constitution of this State, relating to protections against unreasonable searches and seizures and invasions of privacy, be amended so as to provide that the right against unreasonable invasions of privacy does not provide a person a right to an abortion?”

Yes ☐

No ☐

Those voting in favor of the question shall deposit a ballot with a check or cross mark in the square after the word ‘Yes’, and those voting against the question shall deposit a ballot with a check or cross mark in the square after the word ‘No’.”

SECTION 3. This joint resolution takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep HIOTT raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 19 to H. 3774 was not germane. Rep. HIOTT stated that the Bill concerned with the legality and regulation of abortion, but the Amendment proffered a proposed constitutional amendment dealing with the right to privacy.

Rep. BAUER spoke against the Point of Order.

Rep. HART spoke against the Point of Order.

Rep. BAMBERG spoke against the Point of Order.

The SPEAKER stated that Rule 9.3 governs the germaneness of amendments and that an amendment must have the same substantial effect or impact as the bill it proposes to amend. He stated that an amendment cannot expand upon or go beyond the scope of the bill’s subject matter. He stated, “This Bill has an effect of dealing with statutory law as it relates to abortion. The proposed Amendment’s substantial effect is to strike the Bill and put a Joint Resolution on the Bill to which it is a constitutional amendment. A statutory amendment cannot be used and go beyond the scope to use a constitutional amendment.” He sustained the Point of Order and ruled the Amendment No. 19 to be non-germane.

Reps. BAUER and COBB-HUNTER proposed the following

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

Amendment No. 20 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.DG0044H), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. (A) A statewide advisory referendum must be held at the same time as the 2024 General Election to ascertain the wishes of the qualified electors of this State as to whether the State should amend its Constitution so as to provide that the right of the people against unreasonable invasions of privacy may not be construed so as to provide a person a right to an abortion.

(B) The question must be submitted to the qualified electors at the 2024 advisory referendum. Ballots must be provided at the various voting precincts with the following words printed or written on the ballot:

“Should the State of South Carolina amend its Constitution so as to provide that the right of the people against unreasonable invasions of privacy may not be construed so as to provide a person a right to an abortion.?”

Yes ☐

No ☐

Those voting in favor of the question shall deposit a ballot with a check or cross mark in the square after the word ‘Yes’, and those voting against the question shall deposit a ballot with a check or cross mark in the square after the word ‘No’.”

(C) Within sixty days after the results of the 2024 General Election are certified, the State Election Commission must submit a report to the General Assembly concerning the results of the referendum.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep HIOTT raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 20 to H. 3774 was not germane.

Rep. HART spoke against the Point of Order.

Rep. BAMBERG spoke against the Point of Order.

The SPEAKER stated that Rule 9.3 governs the germaneness of amendments. He stated that Amendment No. 20 called for a non-binding referendum. He stated that the Amendment went beyond the scope of the Bill and was not germane to the Bill. He sustained the Point of Order.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

Rep. J. L. JOHNSON proposed the following Amendment No. 21 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0048H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 5, by striking Section 63-17-325 and inserting:

Section 63-17-325. A biological father of a child has a duty to pay the mother of the child the following financial obligations beginning with the date of conception, which are payable upon the birth of the child after a determination of paternity:

(1) child support payment obligations in an amount determined pursuant to Section 63-17-470;

(2) fifty percent of the mother's pregnancy expenses.

(a) Any portion of a mother's pregnancy expenses paid by the mother or the biological father reduces that parent's fifty percent obligation regardless of when the mother or biological father pays the pregnancy expenses.

(b) Pregnancy expenses must include fifty percent of the mother's insurance premiums that are not paid by her employer or governmental program beginning from the date of conception and before the pregnancy ends, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(c) Item (2) does not apply if a court apportions pregnancy expenses as part of an award of child support in item (1).

(B) In the case of a mother who becomes pregnant as a result of rape or incest, the biological father, in addition to the duties imposed by subsection (A), also is responsible for the full cost of any expenses incurred by the mother for mental health counseling arising out of the rape or incest.

(C) The duties imposed by this section accrue at the time of conception and must be applied retroactively when paternity is contested and medical evidence establishes the paternity of the child. Interest accrues on any retroactive obligations beginning with conception until either the obligations are brought current or paid in full whichever happens first. The rate of interest must be calculated based on the applicable interest rate for money decrees and judgments in this State established annually by the South Carolina Supreme Court.

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 5 to H. 3774 (LC-3774.VR0006H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3, Title 16 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Article 21

Violence to Unborn Children

Section 16-3-2310. As used in this article, “unborn child” means a living member of the species homo sapiens, at any state of development during a pregnancy, from detectability of fertilization until birth.

Section 16-3-2320. (A) The deliberate termination of an unborn child by any means or at any stage of development is murder under Section 16-3-10.

(B) Medical treatment provided by a licensed physician that results in the accidental or unintentional injury or death of the unborn child does not constitute a violation of this section.

Section 16-3-2330. (A) A person who commits a violent crime, as defined in Section 16-1-60, that causes the death of, or bodily injury to, an unborn child at the time that the violent crime was committed, is guilty of a separate offense under this section.

(B) The punishment for a separate offense under this section is the same as the punishment provided for that criminal offense had the death or bodily injury occurred to the unborn child’s mother.

(C) Prosecution of an offense under this section requires proof that:

(1) the person committing the violent offense had knowledge or should have had knowledge that the victim of the underlying offense was pregnant; or

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

(2) the defendant intended to cause the death of, or bodily injury to, the unborn child.

Section 16-3-2340. Any person may be compelled to testify in any action or prosecution initiated pursuant to this article; provided, however, that such testimony may not be used in any other action or prosecution against such witness and the witness is forever exempt from any prosecution for the act concerning which the witness testifies, except prosecution for perjury.

SECTION 2. The provisions of this act supersede the following:

(1) Section 14-8-200(b)(7) of the S.C. Code;

(2) Section 16-3-1083 of the S.C. Code;

(3) Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code; and

(4) Any provision of the S.C. Code that could otherwise be construed to allow for the deliberate termination of an unborn child, without limiting common law defenses of duress, necessity, or mistake of fact.

SECTION 3. This State and its political subdivisions, and agents thereof, are not required to enter an appearance, special or otherwise, in any federal suit challenging this act.

SECTION 4. Pursuant to the powers granted to the General Assembly by Article XV of the South Carolina Constitution, 1895, any judge of this State who purports to enjoin, stay, overrule, or void any provision of this act is subject to impeachment or removal from office.

SECTION 5. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Ecclesiastes 8:1: “Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing?”

Let us pray. Dear Lord, may the light of Your goodness and mercy be brought to all corners of the Earth, to heal lives and restore hope. Give these Representatives the ability to do the right thing for the right reason. Bless them in their endeavors. Look in favor upon our defenders of freedom and first responders. May Your light shine upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time in doing the people’s work. Grant them safety and peace as they continue their duties. Keep our men and women of our armed forces in Your loving care. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. HYDE moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of the Honorable Kenneth Edward Myers, Sr., which was agreed to.

The Honorable Kenneth Edward Myers, Sr.

Mr. Speaker and Members,

On behalf of the Spartanburg Delegation, I move to adjourn in memory of the Honorable Kenneth Edward Myers, Sr., husband of our dear colleague, Representative Rosalyn Henderson-Myers.

Dr. Myers was a distinguished member of the Spartanburg School District 7 Board. And as he said on his radio show, Voice of the People on WASC (1530 am) at 10:15 a.m. every Saturday morning, “He loved us enough to tell us the truth, but he respected us enough to give us the facts.”

God’s peace to our colleague, Representative Rosalyn Henderson-Myers and family.

Rep. Max Hyde

STATEMENT BY REP. RIVERS

Rep. RIVERS made a statement relative to the life and legacy of Robert Smalls.

The Committee on Medical, Military, Public and Municipal Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3802 (LC-3802.WAB0001H):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 25-21-20(A) and inserting:

(A) There is created the Board of Trustees for the Veterans' Trust Fund of South Carolina composed of ~~nineteen~~ eleven voting members. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint the board consisting of seven members from the State at large, two members currently serving as county veterans affairs officers, and two members representing veterans' service organizations. Of the eleven appointed members, at least six must be United States Armed Forces veterans. Any veteran who serves on the board, must have been honorably discharged from the armed services. The Secretary of the Department of Veterans' Affairs shall serve as the executive director of the trust fund and an ex officio nonvoting member of the board. The board shall utilize the staff of the Veterans' Affairs Department in order to carry out its duties, as provided in Section 25-21-30. One member of the board of trustees must be the Director of the Department of Veterans' Affairs. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint individuals to fill the remaining positions on the board of trustees. Of the ~~eighteen~~ remaining positions filled by gubernatorial appointment, four must be county veterans' affairs officers and five must represent veterans' service organizations. At least eleven of the members of the board of trustees must be United States Armed Forces veterans who were honorably discharged; the remaining members are not required to be veterans; however, if any are veterans, they also must have been honorably discharged from the armed services. The members of the board shall elect officers from among themselves as necessary and shall utilize the staff of the Veterans' Affairs Department in order to carry out its duties, as provided in Section 25-21-30.

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 27:5: "May the power and mercy of God protect you in times of trouble and danger."

Let us pray. Almighty God, help us to see You at work in the World and to follow You above all else. Guide these Representatives and Staff as they do the work for the people of South Carolina. Bless them as they finish this week's work and return with new vigor from this weekend for the week ahead. Bless and keep our first responders and defenders of freedom who keep us safe. Bless and keep our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Bless those who suffer due to wounds, seen and unseen. Bless those who carry the heavy loads even those on the weekends. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2023

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. HART raised the Point of Order that SPEAKER SMITH had failed to recognize Rep. HART earlier when Rep. HART attempted to raise the twenty-four hour Point of Order on H. 3594.

SPEAKER SMITH overruled the Point of Order and stated that Rep. HART raised the Point of Order too late as the House had already addressed H. 3594 and the Bill was no longer in front of the House for consideration. SPEAKER SMITH explained further that Rep. HART had attempted to raise the twenty-four hour Point of Order on H. 3594 after more than five Members had requested debate on the Bill. The SPEAKER stated that the Point of Order was raised too late because the Bill had already been moved to the contested calendar and the only appropriate action to be taken on the Bill at that point was further requests for debate or objections.

H. 3686--POINT OF ORDER

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3686 -- Reps. Bernstein, J. L. Johnson, Henegan, Rutherford, Wetmore, Bauer, Brittain, Rivers, Gilliard and Anderson: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 1-1-1710 SO AS TO PROVIDE A FRAMEWORK IN WHICH ANTI-SEMITISM IS CONSIDERED REGARDING ALL LAWS PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATORY ACTS, AND TO EDUCATE STATE PERSONNEL AND OFFICIALS ON ANTI-SEMITISM.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. PACE made the Point of Order that the Bill was improperly before the House for consideration since its number and title have not been printed in the House Calendar at least one statewide legislative day prior to second reading.

The SPEAKER sustained the Point of Order.

H. 3340--POINT OF ORDER

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3340 -- Reps. Dillard, Henegan, Hyde, Felder, King, Howard, Bernstein and Williams: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 23-3-330, RELATING TO THE ENDANGERED PERSON NOTIFICATION

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2023

SYSTEM, SO AS TO PROVIDE THE SYSTEM ALSO SHALL PROVIDE FOR THE DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION REGARDING MISSING PERSONS BELIEVED TO BE SUFFERING FROM A DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY SUCH AS AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. W. NEWTON made the Point of Order that the Bill was improperly before the House for consideration since its number and title have not been printed in the House Calendar at least one statewide legislative day prior to second reading.

The SPEAKER sustained the Point of Order.

RECURRENCE TO THE MORNING HOUR

Rep. W. NEWTON moved that the House recur to the morning hour, which was agreed to.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

The following was introduced:

H. 3994 -- Reps. members representing veterans' service organizations. Of the eleven appointed members, at least six must be United States Armed Forces veterans. Any veteran who serves on the board, must have been honorably discharged from the armed services. The Secretary of the Department of Veterans' Affairs shall serve as the executive director of the trust fund and an ex officio nonvoting member of the board. The board shall utilize the staff of the Veterans' Affairs Department in order to carry out its duties, as provided in Section 25-21-30. One member of the board of trustees must be the Director of the Department of Veterans' Affairs. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint individuals to fill the remaining positions on the board of trustees. Of the eighteen remaining positions filled by gubernatorial appointment, four must be county veterans' affairs officers and five must represent veterans' service organizations. At least eleven of the members of the board of trustees must be United States Armed Forces veterans who were honorably discharged; the remaining members are not required to be veterans; however, if any are veterans, they also must have been honorably discharged from the armed services. The members of the board shall elect officers from among themselves as necessary and shall utilize the staff of the Veterans' Affairs Department in order to carry out its duties, as provided in Section 25-21-30.

Rep. FORREST moved that the House do now adjourn, which was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

At 1:11 p.m. the House, in accordance with the motion of Rep. MITCHELL, adjourned in memory of David Allen, to meet at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow.

Wednesday, February 22, 2023
(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Hebrews 13:1: "Let mutual love continue."

Let us pray. God of all times and places, open our eyes to Your word and our heart to Your calling. Guide all of us to take heed in doing what You expect us to do. Bless and keep our defenders of freedom and first responders. Open our eyes to see the wonderful things You have done for these women and men who serve this State. Let Your light shine upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve this place. Keep safe our women and men who serve and protect our Nation. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our warriors who suffer for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. POPE moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Tom "Tommy" Erwin McLean, Jr., which was agreed to.

Mr. Tom "Tommy" Erwin McLean, Jr.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3594 (LC-3594.CM0003H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by striking Section 16-23-20(B)(1) and inserting:

(1) regular, salaried law enforcement officers, and reserve police officers of a state agency, municipality, or county of the State, uncompensated Governor's constables, law enforcement officers or other authorized personnel of the federal government or other states when they are carrying out official duties while in this State, deputy enforcement officers of the Natural Resources Enforcement Division of the Department of Natural Resources, and retired commissioned law enforcement officers;

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2023

Amend the bill further, SECTION 16, by striking Section 16-23-500(A) and inserting:

(A) It is unlawful for a person who has been convicted of a ~~violent crime, as defined by Section 16-1-60, that is classified as a felony offense;~~ crime punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of more than one year to possess a firearm or ammunition within this State.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 16, by striking Section 16-23-500(B)(1), (2), and (3) and inserting:

(1) for a first offense, must be imprisoned not more than five years;

(2) for a second offense, must be imprisoned for a mandatory minimum of five years, but not more than twenty years; and

(3) for a third or subsequent offense, must be imprisoned for a mandatory minimum of ten years, but not more than thirty years.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 16, by striking Section 16-23-500(E) and inserting:

(E) A second or subsequent offense for the purpose of this section means any conviction pursuant to Section 16-23-500(A).

Amend the bill further, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X. Section 22-5-910 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 22-5-910. (A) Following a conviction for a crime carrying a penalty of not more than thirty days imprisonment or a fine of one thousand dollars, or both, or a first offense for unlawful possession of a firearm or weapon carrying a penalty of not more than one year or a fine of one thousand dollars, or both, the defendant after three years from the date of the conviction, including a conviction in magistrates or general sessions court, may apply, or cause someone acting on his behalf to apply, to the circuit court for an order expunging the records of the arrest and conviction and any associated bench warrant. However, this section does not apply to an offense involving the operation of a motor vehicle.

(B) Following a conviction for domestic violence in the third degree pursuant to Section 16-25-20(D), or Section 16-25-20(B)(1) as it existed before June 4, 2015, the defendant after five years from the date of the conviction, including a conviction in magistrates or general sessions court, may apply, or cause someone acting on his behalf to apply, to the circuit court for an order expunging the records of the arrest and conviction and any associated bench warrant.

(C) If the defendant has had no other conviction, including out-of-state convictions, during the three-year period as provided in subsection (A), or during the five-year period as provided in subsection (B), the circuit court may issue an order expunging the records including any associated bench warrant.

(D) After the expungement, the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division is required to keep a nonpublic record of the offense and the date of the expungement to ensure that no person takes advantage of the rights of this section more than once. This nonpublic record is not subject to release pursuant to Section 34-11-95, the Freedom of Information Act, or any other provision of law except to those authorized law or court officials who need to know this information in order to prevent the rights afforded by this section from being taken advantage of more than once.

(E) As used in this section, "conviction" includes a guilty plea, a plea of nolo contendere, or the forfeiting of bail. For the purpose of this section, any number of offenses for ~~crimes carrying a penalty of not more than thirty days imprisonment or a fine of one thousand dollars, or both~~ listed pursuant to subsection (A), for which the individual received sentences at a single sentencing proceeding that are closely connected and arose out of the same incident may be considered as one offense and treated as one conviction for expungement purposes.

(F) No person may have the person's record expunged under this section if the person has pending criminal charges of any kind unless the charges have been pending for more than five years; however, this five-year time period is tolled for any time the defendant has been under a bench warrant for failure to appear. No person may have the person's records expunged under this section more than once. A person may have the person's record expunged even though the conviction occurred before the effective date of this section.

SECTION X. Section 23-31-240 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 23-31-240. Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this article, the following persons who possess a valid permit pursuant to this article may carry a concealable weapon anywhere within this State:

- (1) active Supreme Court justices;
- (2) active judges of the court of appeals;
- (3) active circuit court judges;

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2023

Rep. GARVIN proposed the following Amendment No. 13 to H. 3594 (LC-3594.AHB0039H), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Chapter 31, Title 23 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Article 2

Firearms Criminal Background Checks

Section 23-31-70. For purposes of this article, the term:

(1) "Antique firearm" means:

(a) a firearm, including a firearm with a matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system, manufactured in or before 1898; and

(b) a replica of a firearm described in subitem (a) if such replica:

(i) is not designed or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional centerfire-fixed ammunition; or

(ii) uses rimfire or conventional centerfire-fixed ammunition which is no longer manufactured in the United States and which is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.

(2) "Firearm" means a weapon, including a starter gun, which will, is designed to, or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive; the frame or receiver of such weapon; a firearm muffler or firearm silencer; or a destructive device; but the term does not include an antique firearm. In the case of a licensed collector, the term means only curios and relics.

(3) "Firearm frame or receiver" means that part of a firearm which provides housing for the hammer, bolt or breechblock, and firing mechanism, and which is usually threaded at its forward portion to receive the barrel.

(4) "Firearm muffler or firearm silencer" means a device for silencing, muffling, or diminishing the report of a portable firearm, including any combination of parts, designed or redesigned, and intended for use in assembling or fabricating a firearm silencer or firearm muffler, and any part intended only for use in such assembly or fabrication.

Section 23-31-80. (A) In addition to any other requirements pursuant to state and federal law, all sales, exchanges, or transfers of firearms must be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this article unless the sale, exchange, or transfer is conducted by a licensed importer, licensed manufacturer, or licensed dealer, as those terms are defined in 18 U.S.C. Section 922, when the sale, exchange, or transfer is conducted pursuant to that person's federal firearms license or the sale, exchange, or transfer is between members of an immediate family. For purposes of this section, 'immediate family' means spouses, domestic partners, children, and stepchildren.

(B) Before any sale, exchange, or transfer pursuant to the provisions of this article, a national instant criminal background check pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 922 must be completed by a licensed dealer who consents to conduct the check, and upon completion of the background check, shall complete a document, the form of which shall be approved by the Chief of the State Law Enforcement Division (SLED), that identifies and confirms that the check was performed.

(C) All dealers shall maintain a record of transactions conducted pursuant to this article and the record must be maintained on the premises mentioned and described in the license and must be open at all reasonable hours for inspection by any law enforcement officer acting in the scope of his employment.

Section 23-31-90. (A) A national instant criminal background check must be conducted and a person may not sell, exchange, or transfer a firearm at a gun show in this State except in accordance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 922 and the provisions of this section.

(B) A person may not offer or agree to sell, exchange, or transfer a firearm to another person at a gun show in this State and transfer or deliver a firearm to another person, or person acting on his behalf, at a location other than the gun show for the purpose of evading or avoiding compliance with 18 U.S.C. 922.

(C)(1) Before a gun show vendor sells, exchanges, or transfers a firearm at a gun show in this State, he shall:

(a) require that a national instant background check be conducted of the person; and

(b) obtain approval of a transfer from SLED after a national instant background check has been requested by a licensed gun dealer.

(2) A gun show promoter shall arrange for the services of one or more licensed gun dealers on the premises of the gun show to obtain the background checks required by this section.

(3) If any part of a firearm transaction takes place at a gun show, no firearm may be sold, exchanged, or transferred unless a national instant background check has been obtained by a licensed gun dealer.

Section 23-31-100. (A) A dealer may require that any sale, exchange, or transfer conducted pursuant to this article be subject to a fee of not more than twenty-five dollars per transaction.

(B) A record produced pursuant to this article and any transmission of the record to a governmental agency is not considered a public record for purposes of Chapter 4, Title 30, the Freedom of Information Act.

(C) A person who knowingly violates the provisions of this article is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year.

RECORD FOR VOTING

Amendment No. 13 of the House Bill 3594 was an amendment to require background checks for the purchase of firearms. It was my intention to vote 'Yea' to table the Amendment, but I mistakenly voted 'Nay'. I then voted 'Nay' on the Amendment. I thought I was voting on the Amendment; therefore, my 'Nay' vote was actually an attempt to show a strong disapproval of the Amendment.

ADJOURNMENT

At 4:44 p.m. the House, in accordance with the motion of Rep. POPE, adjourned in memory of Tom "Tommy" Erwin McLean, Jr., to meet at 10:00 a.m. tomorrow.

Thursday, February 23, 2023
(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 15: "O Lord, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy hill?"

Let us pray. God, strengthen our faith and welcome us into the shelter of Your love. Lord God, You have given these Representatives and Staff strength. Help to take care of these people who work for the citizens of South Carolina. Guide them this day to do their duty. Bless our first responders and defenders of freedom as they care for us. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor for this great cause. Heal the wounds, seen and those hidden, of our warriors who suffer for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. HENEGAN moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of William Light "Bill" Kinney, Jr., which was agreed to.

STATEMENT BY REP. WILLIAMS

Rep. WILLIAMS made a statement relative to the life and legacy of Judge Matthew J. Perry.

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Isaiah 58:13: "Call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the Lord."

Let us pray. Dear God, fill us with Your spirit that we might find our rest and work in You. Bless and keep each of these, Your people, as they do the work of the citizens of South Carolina. May Your blessings be carried to all Members and their families as they share what You have done for them. Look in favor upon our first responders and defenders of freedom. May the light of Your mercy shine on our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their energy for the greater good. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our warriors who suffer for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

SENT TO THE SENATE

The following Bill was taken up, read the third time, and ordered sent to the Senate:

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 12:00 noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 33:18: "Truly the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His steadfast love."

Let us pray. Dear God, thank You for caring about every detail of our lives. Help us remember that You are always with us. Guide us to do what is expected of us to care for those in need. Bless these Representatives and Staff as they work for the people of South Carolina. Look in favor upon our defenders of freedom and first responders. Bless and keep our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve this great cause. Bless our men and women who serve in the Armed Forces and those who suffer wounds, those seen and those hidden. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Rep. G. M. SMITH explained the Joint Resolution.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE granted Rep. COLLINS a leave of absence for the remainder of the day.

Rep. G. M. SMITH continued speaking.

Rep. BAMBERG proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3591 (LC-3591.SA0005H), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the joint resolution, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 10-1-165 of the S.C. Code is repealed.

Re-number sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. BAMBERG explained the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. MAGNUSON raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 1 was not germane to H. 3591.

Rep. BAMBERG argued contra.

Rep. COBB-HUMTER argued contra.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE POPE sustained the Point of Order. The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that the Joint Resolution, H. 3591, proposed to repeal a constitutional provision concerning state funds and direct appropriations to private and religious schools, but Amendment No. 1 would repeal a statute, Section 10-1-165, also known as the Heritage Act. The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that the Amendment was not related to the subject matter of the Joint Resolution, went beyond the Joint Resolution's scope, and was not germane.

Rep. OTT spoke against the Joint Resolution.

SPEAKER IN CHAIR

Rep. OTT continued speaking.

Rep. MCDANIEL spoke against the Joint Resolution.

Rep. WETMORE spoke against the Joint Resolution.

Rep. BAMBERG spoke against the Joint Resolution.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2023

Rep. COBB-HUNTER spoke against the Joint Resolution.

The question recurred to the passage of the Joint Resolution.

The yeas and nays were taken resulting as follows:

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Hebrews 13:2: "Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it."

Let us pray. We give thanks for these men and women who give of their time and energy to work for the people of South Carolina. Lord, bless them in what they do for the sake of all. Give these women and men the ability to care for us and cherish their deeds. God of love, thank You for the new life that You give to us. Bless our first responders and defenders of freedom. Let Your light shine on our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve this great cause. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

OBJECTION TO RECALL

Rep. HARRIS asked unanimous consent to recall H. 3529 from the Committee on Judiciary.
Rep. W. NEWTON objected.

SENT TO THE SENATE

The following Joint Resolution was taken up, read the third time, and ordered sent to the Senate:

H. 3591 -- Reps. G. M. Smith, Taylor, B. Newton, West, Pace,
Haddon, Yow, W. Newton, Felder, Thayer, McCravy, Cromer, Hixon, Elliott, Erickson, Caskey, Pope, Leber, Hartnett, Bustos, Landing and
M. M. Smith: A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO REPEAL SECTION 4, ARTICLE XI OF THE CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1895, RELATING TO THE PROHIBITION AGAINST THE STATE OR ITS POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS PROVIDING DIRECT AID TO RELIGIOUS OR OTHER PRIVATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 2023

MOTION PERIOD

The motion period was dispensed with on motion of Rep. FORREST.

H. 3532--AMENDED AND INTERRUPTED DEBATE

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3532 -- Reps. G. M. Smith, Pope, McCravy, B. Newton, West, Chapman, Burns, Wooten, Haddon, O'Neal, Carter, W. Newton, M. M. Smith, Davis, Pace, B. L. Cox, Gilliam, Thayer, Bailey, Hardee, Blackwell, Leber, Mitchell, Chumley, Ligon, Hiott, Yow, Landing, Hixon, Taylor, Oremus, Cromer and J. E. Johnson: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 17-15-270 SO AS TO PROVIDE SENTENCING ENHANCEMENTS FOR PERSONS WHO COMMIT CERTAIN ADDITIONAL CRIMES WHILE ON PRETRIAL RELEASE ON BOND; BY ADDING SECTION 17-15-280 SO AS TO PROHIBIT PRETRIAL RELEASE ON BOND FOR PERSONS CHARGED WITH COMMITTING CERTAIN ADDITIONAL CRIMES AND TO PROVIDE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINING IF ADDITIONAL CHARGES ARE PENDING; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 17-15-15, RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT OF A CASH PERCENTAGE IN LIEU OF BOND, SO AS TO REQUIRE A FULL CASH BOND FOR PERSONS CHARGED WITH CERTAIN CRIMES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3532 (LC-3532.AHB0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 17-15-270(A), (B), (C), and (D) and inserting:

(A) If a person commits a subsequent violent crime while out on bond or other pretrial release for a previous violent charge, is charged and convicted of committing or attempting to commit the subsequent violent crime, he must be imprisoned for five years in addition to the punishment provided for the principal crime. The five-year sentence does not apply in cases when the death penalty or a life sentence without parole is imposed for the violent crime. For purposes of this subsection, a subsequent violent crime is one that occurs at a later date and time than the offense that resulted in the imposition of the bond or other pretrial release conditions.

(B) Service of the five-year sentence is mandatory unless a longer mandatory minimum term of imprisonment is provided by law for the violent crime. The court may impose this mandatory five-year sentence to run consecutively.

(C) Except as provided in this subsection, the person sentenced under this section is not eligible during this five-year period for parole, work release, or extended work release. The five years may not be suspended and the person may not complete his term of imprisonment in less than five years pursuant to good-time credits or work credits.

(D) The additional punishment may not be imposed unless the State notifies the defense in writing of its intention to seek such penalty at least thirty days prior to the trial of the violent crime that occurred while on bond or other pretrial release. If the defendant is convicted of the violent crime that occurred while on bond or other pretrial release, the court must as soon as practicable thereafter conduct a separate sentencing hearing relating to the additional punishment. Only evidence relating to whether the defendant was on pretrial release at the time the subsequent violent crime was committed may be considered in the sentencing hearing. In the hearing, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant was on pretrial release for some other charge at the time the subsequent violent crime was committed. If the defendant was tried by jury, the same jury that found him guilty of the principal offense must serve for the sentencing hearing. If trial by jury has been waived by the defendant and the State, or if the defendant pleaded guilty, the sentencing hearing must be conducted before the judge. In the sentencing hearing, the jury or judge shall hear only evidence related to whether the defendant was on pretrial release. The State and the defense are permitted to present closing arguments. If the appropriate fact finder, either jury or judge, finds beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant was on pretrial release when the subsequent violent crime was committed or the defendant stipulates that the subsequent violent crime was committed while he was on pretrial release, the additional five-year penalty must be imposed.

(E) For purposes of this section, violent crime is defined as the same as those contained in Section 16-1-60.

Amend the bill further, by deleting SECTION 2.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 17-15-15(D) and inserting:

(D) The provisions of this section do not apply if the defendant is charged with a violent crime as defined by Section 16-1-60 while out on bond or other pretrial release. If the court, pursuant to the limitations of Section 17-15-30, finds that such defendant may be released pending trial, bond must be set at the full United States currency cash bond to the exclusion of all other forms of bond whether the bond is posted by the defendant or with a surety.

Amend the bill further, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X. Section 17-15-55 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 17-15-55. (A)(1) The circuit courts, at their discretion, may review and reconsider bond for general sessions offenses set by summary court judges. Also, the circuit courts may consider motions regarding reconsideration of bond for general sessions offenses set by summary court judges upon motions filed with the clerks of court. Hearings on these motions must be scheduled. The rules of evidence do not apply to bond hearings.

(2) After a circuit court judge has heard and ruled upon a defendant's motion to reconsider a bond set by a summary court judge, further defense motions to reconsider may be heard by the circuit court only upon the defendant's prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances which relate to the factors provided in Section 17-15-30, and which have arisen since the prior motion to reconsider. In addition, the circuit court may hear further defense motions to reconsider based on the length of time the defendant has been held for trial after six months. The chief judge shall schedule a hearing or if such showing is not set forth in the written motion, deny the motion for failure to make a prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances. ~~Information regarding the defendant's guilt or innocence does not qualify as a change in circumstances for purposes of reconsidering bond absent the solicitor's consent.~~ Notwithstanding another provision of law, nothing prevents a solicitor or the defendant from filing a motion for a speedy trial or requesting the court to set a date certain for trial based on the facts and circumstances in the case.

(B)(1) Motions by the State to revoke or modify a bond must be made in writing, state with particularity the grounds for revocation or modification, and set forth the relief or order sought. The motions must be filed with the clerks of court, and a copy must be served on the chief judge, defense counsel of record, and bond surety, if any. The court must have a hearing and rule on the state's motion within thirty days of the filing.

(2) After a circuit court judge has heard and ruled upon the state's motion to reconsider a bond set by a summary court judge, further state motions to reconsider may be heard by the circuit court only upon the state's prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances which have arisen since the prior motion to reconsider. The chief judge shall schedule a hearing or if such showing is not set forth in the written motion, deny the motion for failure to make a prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances.

(3) If the state's motion to revoke or modify bond includes a prima facie showing of imminent danger to the community, imminent danger to the defendant, or flight by the defendant, the chief judge or presiding judge shall conduct or order an emergency bond hearing to be conducted by the circuit court judge within forty-eight hours of receiving service of the state's motion or as soon as practical. The chief judge shall order the solicitor to notify the defense counsel of record and bond surety of the time and date of the hearing, and the solicitor shall provide proof reasonable efforts were made to affect the notice. Upon notice by the State, the defense counsel of record and bond surety shall make reasonable efforts to notify the defendant of the emergency hearing. The court may proceed with the hearing despite the absence of the defendant or bond surety. The court may not proceed with the hearing if the defense counsel of record is not present. If an emergency bond hearing is held without the presence of the defendant and bond is revoked, the judge having heard the matter may conduct the hearing on the defendant's motion to reconsider the revocation. Defense motions to reconsider revocation must be filed with the clerk of court and served on the solicitor and bond surety.

(C) If a person commits a violent crime, as defined in Section 16-1-60, which was committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent crime and the subsequent violent crime did not arise out of the same series of events as the previous violent crime, then the bond ~~hearing for the subsequent violent crime~~original offense must be revoked and a hearing for the subsequent violent crime must be held in the circuit court within ~~thirty~~fourteen days. The court must issue findings of fact and conclusions of law addressing the revocation of bond, whether a new bond is issued for the previous offense as well as if bond is appropriate for the subsequent violent crime. If the court finds that certain conditions of release on bond will ensure that the person is unlikely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community and the person will abide by the terms of release on bond, the judge shall consider bond in accordance with the provisions of ~~this chapter and set or amend bond accordingly~~ Section 17-15-15(D) and under the condition that the defendant be placed on electronic monitoring. If the court finds no such conditions will ensure that the person is unlikely to flee or not pose a danger to the community, the court shall not set a bond for the instant offense and must revoke all previously set bonds.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 2023

(D) If a person commits a violent crime, as defined in Section 16-1-60, which was committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent crime, and the subsequent violent crime did not arise out of the same series of events as the previous violent crime, then the arresting law enforcement agency must transmit notice of the second arrest, implicating subsection (C), to the solicitor of the circuit in which the crime was committed and the administrative chief judge of the circuit in which the crime was committed. The prosecuting agency must notify any victims of the initial or subsequent crimes pursuant to Chapter 3, Title 16 of any bond hearings.

~~—(E) For the purpose of bond revocation only, a summary court has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court for ten days from the date bond is first set on a charge by the summary court to determine if bond should be revoked.~~

SECTION X. Section 22-5-510(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(A) Magistrates may admit to bail a person charged with an offense, except offenses the punishment of which is not death or imprisonment for life; provided, however, with respect to or violent offenses as defined by the General Assembly pursuant to Section 15, Article I of the Constitution of South Carolina, 1895; ~~magistrates may deny bail giving due weight to the evidence and to the nature and circumstances of the event, including, but not limited to, any charges pending against the person requesting bail.~~ “Violent offenses” as used in this section means the offenses contained in Section 16-1-60. If a person under lawful arrest on a charge not bailable is brought before a magistrate, the magistrate shall commit the person to jail. If the offense charged is bailable, the magistrate shall take recognizance with sufficient surety, if it is offered, in default whereof the person must be incarcerated. Nothing in this section should be read to exclude a motion to reconsider denial of bail to a circuit court.

Cox, Gilliam, Thayer, Bailey, Hardee, Blackwell, Leber, Mitchell, Chumley, Ligon, Hiott, Yow, Landing, Hixon, Taylor, Oremus, Cromer and J. E. Johnson: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 17-15-270 SO AS TO PROVIDE SENTENCING ENHANCEMENTS FOR PERSONS WHO COMMIT CERTAIN ADDITIONAL CRIMES WHILE ON PRETRIAL RELEASE ON BOND; BY ADDING SECTION 17-15-280 SO AS TO PROHIBIT PRETRIAL RELEASE ON BOND FOR PERSONS CHARGED WITH COMMITTING CERTAIN ADDITIONAL CRIMES AND TO PROVIDE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINING IF ADDITIONAL CHARGES ARE PENDING; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 17-15-15, RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT OF A CASH PERCENTAGE IN LIEU OF BOND, SO AS TO REQUIRE A FULL CASH BOND FOR PERSONS CHARGED WITH CERTAIN CRIMES.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE IN CHAIR

Rep. TEDDER proposed the following Amendment No. 4 to H. 3532 (LC-3532.SA0026H), which was tabled:

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1, 2023

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 17-15-270(E) and inserting:

(E) For purposes of this section, violent crime is defined as the same as those contained in Section 16-1-60 but does not include an offense involving a controlled substance pursuant to Chapter 53, Title 44.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 2, by striking Section 17-15-15(D) and inserting:

(D) The provisions of this section do not apply if the defendant is charged with a violent crime as defined by Section 16-1-60 while out on bond or other pretrial release. If the court, pursuant to the limitations of Section 17-15-30, finds that such defendant may be released pending trial, bond must be set at the full United States currency cash bond to the exclusion of all other forms of bond whether the bond is posted by the defendant or with a surety. For the purposes of this section, a violent crime does not include an offense involving a controlled substance pursuant to Chapter 53, Title 44.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, Section 17-15-55, by adding a subsection to read:

(E) For the purposes of this section, a violent crime does not include an offense involving a controlled substance pursuant to Chapter 53, Title 44.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 17-15-270(A) and inserting:

(A) If a person commits a subsequent violent crime while out on bond or other pretrial release for a previous violent charge, is charged and convicted of committing or attempting to commit the subsequent violent crime, he must be imprisoned for five years in addition to the punishment provided for the principal crime. If the original charge is dismissed or the person is found to be not guilty, the State shall pay the person two hundred fifty thousand dollars. The five-year sentence does not apply in cases when the death penalty or a life sentence without parole is imposed for the violent crime. For purposes of this subsection, a subsequent violent crime is one that occurs at a later date and time than the offense that resulted in the imposition of the bond or other pretrial release conditions.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Hebrews 13:6: "So we can say with confidence, the Lord is my helper."

Let us pray. God of promise, help us not to put our confidence in things that do not last, but to put our trust in Your steadfast love and faithfulness. Bless these men and women as they work for the people of South Carolina. Thanks be to You O Lord. Be with our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for us. Look in favor on our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in these Halls of Government. Bless our men and women who serve our Nation and for those who suffer hidden wounds. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Mr. Speaker, thank you for allowing me to make you all aware of a great honor bestowed on a Chester County native.

As you recall, in Genesis God created the Heaven and earth and rested on the seventh day. On the eight-day (per Paul Harvey) God created a farmer. A farmer to tend to the land he is blessed with, as its caretaker, to plant and harvest, and repeat for generation and generation.

Today, the S.E. Farm Press Magazine has named this Chester County resident, my neighbor and friend, as the 2023 South East Cotton Farmer of the Year.

Rusty Daily of Chester is the recipient of this honor. This is a great honor for Mr. Daily, but also for all cotton famers statewide, but specifically, for the cotton farmers in the upstate.

Mr. Daily's farm, known as "High Cotton Farm" has been in his family, in constant cotton production, since 1820, over 200 years! They also have a nice herd of beef cattle.

Rusty is blessed with a beautiful family. He and his wife Cindy have four beautiful children and ten grandchildren. A Christian family man, Rusty has taught and continues to lead his Sunday school class for the last 20 years. Rusty is active in the SC Farm Bureau and the National Cotton Council. He is a Clemson Agricultural Alumni and graduate.

Ladies and gentlemen, when you eat your dinner or sleep in cotton sheets, thank a farmer.

Mr. Speaker, please help me congratulate Mr. Daily and of course understand, he is not here, as he is getting ready to plant cotton very soon!

Rep. Randy Ligon

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 47:7: "For God is the king of all the earth."

Let us pray. Loving God, You have shown us the way to love and mercy. Help us to share Your love and power of reconciliation of all people. You have called these Representatives and Staff to serve the people of South Carolina. Bless our first responders and defenders of freedom. When the difficult times arrive, we know we can call on You, O Lord. In Your mercy remember our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who contribute to this great cause. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer to keep us free. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 12:00 noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Mark 9:50: "Salt is good: but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another."

Let us pray. Eternal God, You who never gives up on us and always opposes evil, we thank You for Your steadfast love and mercy. Loving God, thank You for giving us daily bread. Help us to give to others that they may also be given daily bread. Guide us through this day. Care for our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for us. Send Your blessings upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Bestow Your blessings on our men and women who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

ABSTENTION FROM VOTING

March 7, 2023

The Honorable G. Murrell Smith, Jr.

Speaker of the House of Representatives

Dear Speaker Smith,

I am notifying you in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. Section 8-13-700 that I will not participate in the vote on H. 3750 relating to the exemptions from the state procurement code, so as to add planning for repairs to bridges, highways, road, etc. to the list of exemptions. I will abstain from this vote because of a potential conflict of interest as an economic interest of myself and the business with which I am associated may be affected. Please note this in the House Journal for March 7, 2023.

Sincerely,

Rep. JA Moore

H. 3866--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3866 -- Rep. Rutherford: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 1-7-95 SO AS TO CLARIFY THAT, WHEN THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 2023

PROCEEDS IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT UNDERTAKE REPRESENTATION OF STATE AGENCIES AND CANNOT BE CONSIDERED TO HAVE POSSESSION, CUSTODY, OR CONTROL OVER STATE AGENCY DOCUMENTS OR ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION; AND BY ADDING SECTION 39-5-55 SO AS TO SPECIFY THAT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL IS ACTING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST OF THE STATE IN UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICE PROCEEDINGS, AND TO PROVIDE AN EXCEPTION.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3866 (LC-3866.DG0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 39-5-80 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 39-5-80. To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this article, the Attorney General, in addition to other powers conferred upon him by this article, may issue subpoenas to any person, administer an oath or affirmation to any person, conduct hearings in aid of any investigation or inquiry, prescribe such forms and promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary, which rules and regulations shall have the force and effect of law; provided, however, that none of the powers conferred by this article shall be used for the purpose of compelling any person to furnish testimony or evidence which might tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; and provided, further, that information obtained pursuant to the powers conferred by this article shall not be made public or disclosed by the Attorney General or his employees beyond the extent necessary for law-enforcement purposes in the public interest. At the conclusion of the investigation or litigation, the Attorney General may return information obtained pursuant to the powers conferred by this article to the producing party, destroy the information, or maintain it in accordance with applicable document retention policies.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. ELLIOTT explained the amendment.

Wednesday, March 8, 2023
(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 33:8: "Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him."

Let us pray. God, thank You for Your care and guidance. Help us trust the future You have in store for us. We hope for and trust that You, O Lord, have given us a plan amid our human dreams and schemes. Holy Spirit, give these women and men the power to discern Your call. Bless each of us as we all go about the business at hand. Guide these Representatives and Staff as they do the work for the people. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time and space for this great cause. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our great warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. KING moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Andrew P. "A. P." Corley, which was agreed to.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for the family and friends of Sandy Jones.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for Representative Henegans's husband, Ron Henegan.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for the family and friends of former circuit judge Richard Fields.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

Weeks, McDaniel, Rivers and Gilliard: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 17-1-43 SO AS TO PROVIDE FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF ARREST RECORDS OF PERSONS ARRESTED AS A RESULT OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY NOT LATER THAN ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY DAYS AFTER AN INVESTIGATION BY A LAW ENFORCEMENT OR PROSECUTION AGENCY REVEALS THAT THE PERSON WAS ARRESTED AS A RESULT OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY, AND TO PROVIDE THAT THE LAW ENFORCEMENT OR PROSECUTION AGENCY MAY NOT CHARGE OR COLLECT A FEE FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF ARREST RECORDS UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES; AND BY ADDING SECTION 17-1-70 SO AS TO ALLOW PERSONS CHARGED WITH SPECIFIC OFFENSES TO PETITION TO HAVE THEIR CHARGES DISMISSED IF THEY HAVE NOT BEEN ADJUDICATED OR OTHERWISE DISMISSED AFTER A PERIOD OF TIME AND OTHER DELINEATED CONDITIONS ARE MET, AND TO PROVIDE PROCEDURES FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF THE RECORDS.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3019 (LC-3019.AHB0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 17-1-43(A) and inserting:

Section 17-1-43. (A) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 17-1-40, not later than one hundred eighty days after an investigation by a law enforcement or prosecution agency reveals that a person was arrested as a result of mistaken identity, the law enforcement or prosecution agency with appropriate jurisdiction shall destroy the arrest records of that person made as a result of mistaken identity. The law enforcement or prosecution agency, as appropriate, shall establish a review process for verifying that a person's arrest records relating to mistaken identity in which no charges were filed have been destroyed as provided in this section. Neither the law enforcement or prosecution agency may charge or collect a fee for the destruction of arrest records pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. J. E. JOHNSON explained the amendment.

The amendment was then adopted.

REQUESTS FOR DEBATE

Reps. CROMER, OREMUS, MAGNUSON, HARRIS, MCCRAVY, BEACH, WHITE, MAY, MCCABE and KILMARTIN withdrew their requests for debate on the following Bill, whereupon requests for debate were raised by Reps. STAVRINAKIS, OTT, ELLIOTT, B. J. COX, HART, WETMORE, BAUER, BERNSTEIN, GARVIN, WEST, KING, J. L. JOHNSON, JEFFERSON, W. JONES, DILLARD, WHEELER, GATCH, MCDANIEL, HOSEY, ANDERSON, HERBKERSMAN, BALLENTINE and W. NEWTON:

H. 3014 -- Reps. PINCKNEY HATE CRIMES ACT"; BY ADDING ARTICLE 22 TO CHAPTER 3, TITLE 16 SO AS TO ENTITLE THE ARTICLE "PENALTY ENHANCEMENTS FOR CERTAIN CRIMES", TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL PENALTIES FOR PERSONS WHO COMMIT CERTAIN DELINEATED CRIMES WHEN THE VICTIM WAS INTENTIONALLY SELECTED BASED ON CERTAIN FACTORS, AND TO PROVIDE VICTIMS OF A VIOLATION OF THE ARTICLE MAY BRING A CIVIL ACTION FOR DAMAGES SUSTAINED.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. MAGNUSON raised the Point of Order that members could not add their requests for debate to a bill during the period for "Withdrawal of Objections and Requests for Debate".

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that it was the long-standing practice of the House that once the door was opened by Members removing requests for debates or objections from a bill that other Members could add their requests for debate or objections. He stated that Members had removed their requests for debate from H. 3014;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

however, five requests for debate remained on the Bill. Thus, the Bill remained on the contested calendar, did not move back to the uncontested calendar, and was not “ping-ponged”. He reiterated that once requests for debate were removed that the door was opened and other Members could then add their requests for debate. He overruled the Point of Order.

OBJECTION TO RECALL

Rep. WHITE asked unanimous consent to recall H. 3529 from the Committee on Judiciary.

Rep. STAVRINAKIS objected.

MOTION PERIOD

The motion period was dispensed with on motion of Rep. OTT.

H. 3726--AMENDED AND INTERRUPTED DEBATE

GEOGRAPHIC CONFIGURATIONS, AND TO PROVIDE A MULTIAGENCY COLLABORATIVE EFFORT TO PROMOTE CERTAIN OFFERINGS OF REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS; AND BY REPEALING ARTICLE 13 OF CHAPTER 1, TITLE 13 RELATING TO OVERSIGHT OF REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, AND ARTICLE 15 OF CHAPTER 1, TITLE 13 RELATING TO THE COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3726 (LC-3726.WAB0007H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the “Statewide Education and Workforce Development Act”.

SECTION 2. Title 41 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

CHAPTER 30
EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE – WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Article 1

General Provisions

Section 41-30-110. (A) The purpose of this chapter is to endeavor to reach the workforce potential of this State. It seeks to coordinate, align, and enhance all publicly funded workforce development services and centralize oversight of the entities that provide these services to enhance accountability, enhance transparency, and promote a customer-centric workforce system so that the opportunities available through it are easy to access, highly effective, and simple to understand, and to provide a mechanism to marshal workforce development resources and services to meet the immediate and future needs of specialized industry workforce demands and economic development commitments of this State and in specific areas of the State. Further, this chapter seeks to:

(1) deliver value-added services to business customers by collaborating with them to address skills shortages in priority industries and in-demand occupations;

(2) provide for broader dissemination of information to help students, parents of students, and job seekers make career choices based on an awareness of jobs, skills in demand, and related educational pathways;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

(3) develop methods for coupling workforce training with a continuum of services to assist those who are struggling to overcome workforce participation barriers; and

(4) address obstacles unique to those in rural areas.

(B) To achieve this purpose:

(1) a unified comprehensive statewide education and workforce development plan is established;

(2) all entities performing publicly funded workforce development-related functions are required to comply with the obligations under the plan; and

(3) their compliance will be monitored and, when necessary, compelled by the Office of Statewide Workforce Development, and such reports will be made publicly available in order to further transparency and better inform workforce development spending and policymaking.

Section 41-30-120. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) “Department” means the Department of Employment and Workforce;

(2) “Director” means the Director of the Office of Statewide Workforce Development;

(3) “Executive director” means the Executive Director of the Department of Employment and Workforce;

(4) “Executive committee” means the executive committee of the Coordinating Council for Workforce Development;

(5) “Unified State Plan” or “USP” means the comprehensive statewide education and workforce development plan that provides a systemwide approach to streamline and unify efforts of entities involved in education and workforce development in the State;

(6) “Office of Statewide Workforce Development” or “OSWD” means the Office of Statewide Workforce Development created in this chapter; and

(7) “Coordinating Council for Workforce Development” or “CCWD” means the Coordinating Council for Workforce Development administered by the department.

Section 41-30-130. On July 1, 2023, all functions, powers, and duties provided by law to the Department of Commerce with respect to the Coordinating Council for Workforce Development, formerly the Education and Economic Development Coordinating Council, are hereby transferred from the Department of Commerce to the Department of Employment and Workforce, and these functions, powers, and duties are devolved upon the Department of Employment and Workforce, and the Coordinating Council for Workforce Development's officers, members, records, property, personnel, and unexpended appropriations also are transferred to the Department of Employment and Workforce. All rules, regulations, standards, orders, or other actions of these entities shall remain in effect unless specifically changed or voided by the department in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act. The Department of Commerce and the Department of Employment and Workforce shall work together at all stages of the process until the transition is complete.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

Section 41-30-140. (A) All state and local government agencies, nonprofit groups, and quasi-governmental groups that are appropriated state funds or are authorized to expend federal funds shall:

(1) provide information requested by OSWD prior to the Comptroller General approving release of such funds to ensure proper reporting on any activities that may be workforce development related; and

(2) prepare a report detailing:

(a) anticipated plans for funds that will be allocated to workforce development related projects;

(b) the actual amount of funds used on workforce development related projects from the previous fiscal year;

(c) the projects for which funds were used; and

(d) whether a balance of such funds exists and, if a balance exists, the amount of the balance.

(B) The report annually must be completed and submitted to the Director of OSWD by August first. Failure to timely submit this report to OSWD may be considered noncompliance with this chapter.

Article 3

Office of Statewide Workforce Development

Section 41-30-310. The Office of Statewide Workforce Development is created in the Department of Employment and Workforce to coordinate, align, and direct workforce efforts throughout the State to maximize available resources and actively foster a customer-centric workforce development system that is readily accessible, highly effective, and easily understandable.

Section 41-30-320. The Executive Director of the Department of Employment and Workforce shall hire the Director of the OSWD, who shall serve at the pleasure of the executive director. The OSWD shall:

(1) oversee and ensure implementation of Coordinating Council for Workforce Development responsibilities pursuant to Section 41-30-540;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

(2) efficiently marshal public resources to optimally align, consolidate, streamline, and coordinate publicly funded workforce development efforts in this State;

(3) provide centralized oversight of all publicly funded workforce development services in this State provided by state and local government agencies, nonprofit groups, and quasi-governmental groups that are appropriated state funds or are authorized to expend federal funds related to workforce development;

(4) provide oversight of Regional Workforce Advisors as required in Section 41-30-710, et. seq.;

(5) monitor compliance of each state and local government agency, nonprofit group, and quasi-governmental group that is appropriated state funds or is authorized to expend federal funds related to workforce development and, when necessary, direct those entities to take any action necessary to comply with the responsibilities set forth in the USP. Noncompliance with a directive of the OSWD must be recorded and made part of the report made as required in subitem (6); and

(6) shall submit an annual report by October first of each fiscal year to the Governor, Speaker of the House, President of the Senate, Chair of the House Ways & Means Committee, and Chair of the Senate Finance Committee detailing all funds used for workforce development projects by all reporting state and local government agencies, nonprofit groups, and quasi-governmental groups that are appropriated state funds or are authorized to expend federal funds related to workforce development. This report also must identify those entities that did not comply with the provisions of this chapter.

Section 41-30-330. Any decision of the executive committee must be made by a majority vote of the entire membership of the committee.

Section 41-30-340. The Director of the OSWD and the executive committee of CCWD shall develop and publish uniform procedures and guidelines for the conduct of their responsibilities and duties, including the procedure for considering and voting on recommendations of the CCWD or the director.

Article 5

Coordinating Council for Workforce Development

Section 41-30-510. The Coordinating Council for Workforce Development is reconstituted and generally is responsible for:

(1) engaging in discussions, collaboration, and information sharing concerning the ability of the State to prepare and train workers to meet current and future workforce needs; and

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

(2) performing the other required duties of this chapter under the direction of the Chairman of the CCWD.

 - (7) one person appointed by the Speaker of the House and one person appointed by the Senate President, both of whom have professional expertise in economic development and workforce issues.
- (B) The executive committee:
- (1) shall review and vote on recommendations made by the CCWD or Director of OSD;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

(2) shall review and approve any actions proposed to be undertaken by the CCWD including adoption or modification of the USP or any provision of the USP; and

(3) may recommend the appropriate actions necessary to eliminate duplicative programs and workforce activities that do not further the USP, improve programs not meeting stated performance targets, and, when necessary and to the extent not prohibited in law, recommend that entities discontinue programs that repeatedly do not meet targets or may no longer be needed.

Section 41-30-540. (A) The CCWD shall:

(1) make recommendations to the General Assembly as needed to implement the provisions of this chapter;

(2) regularly meet with industry associations to gain an understanding of their workforce needs and ideas;

(3) facilitate and coordinate the development of the USP;

(4) use data and analysis to create measurable, time-sensitive metrics for the USP in which all workforce pipeline stakeholders including, but not limited to, education and workforce boards, councils, and partner representatives, participate. These measurable, time-sensitive metrics include, but are not limited to:

(a) ten-year labor participation rate target; and

(b) ten-year target for the number of South Carolinians who possess a high-quality credential or postsecondary degree;

(5) create an education and workforce dashboard or other application to enable the public to monitor and track progress of the USP; and

(6) annually review the USP and update as needed.

(B) The USP should include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) assurance that agency constituents remain served;

(2) compliance with federal and state laws, including, but not limited to, those relating to state plans, to avoid duplication of efforts;

(3) identification of statewide workforce priorities and methods for identifying and addressing long-term workforce needs;

(4) assurance that the components of Chapter 59, Title 59, the South Carolina Education and Economic Development Act, are implemented with fidelity to provide a better prepared workforce, student success in postsecondary education, and enhanced coordination between K-12, higher education, and employers;

(5) establishment and maintenance of standardized education and workforce terminology and definitions to be used across all agencies and sectors;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

(6) development and implementation of an annual statewide workforce and education supply gap analysis which may include, but is not limited to:

(a) evaluation of current and projected future employer demands;

(b) determination of the makeup of the state's labor force and identifying the industries and occupations that are thriving by constructing a baseline analysis of the state's demographics and performing an analysis of the trends in the workforce and education infrastructure pipeline, including the supply of graduates in the state and the number of graduates by degree/certificate category;

(c) identifying the supply of skills found in the workforce, and demand for skills employers need from the workforce, and a means for determining how to close gaps that exist between the supply and demand of such skills; and

(d) reviewing growing industry and occupation clusters;

(7) creation and maintenance of an Education and Workforce Portal to provide South Carolinians with information critical to their lifelong educational journey, which may include, but is not limited to:

(a) an "Educational Program Alignment Toolkit" that serves as an infrastructure of resources to enable the K-12, technical college, and higher education systems to individually and collectively ensure their respective educational curriculum, initiatives, and programming match workforce needs;

(b) a "Career Pathways Tool" that uses applicable occupational data, educational programming, workforce needs, salary information, job market analyses, in-demand occupations, and other information to provide students, parents of students, job seekers, educators, and counselors, with useful information about potential career pathways and the various routes to meaningful employment;

(c) real-time labor market information;

(d) comprehensive inventory of all education and training assets in the State; and

(e) global view of workforce-related program data including federal, state, and local education and training options and opportunities;

(8) development and implementation of a study, recommendations, and tools to address barriers to labor participation, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) affordable access to childcare and transportation;

(b) government assistance programs and requirements available to working families to determine potential opportunities to better incentivize and support employment, and employment-related activities, while easing the “cliff effect” during the transition to economic self-sufficiency;

(c) providing individuals who are receiving assistance from public benefit programs with the supports, skills, and credentials they need to gain and retain employment in occupations for which employers demonstrate persistent demands; and

(d) a “SC Benefits calculator” to help families, case managers, and community providers understand the impact of earnings and assist families planning their exit from the use of these public benefits, with the goal of promoting self-sufficiency and maximizing use of available opportunities;

(9) review of state and federal funding for all workforce development programs of which CCWD is aware, including passthrough funding to nonprofit/local/regional workforce programs to eliminate duplication and ensure funding is going towards meeting the goals of the USP;

(10) development of a reliable and replicable model for measuring returns on public investment in individual education and workforce programs, including a set of common measures used in a performance accountability system;

(11) development and delivery of a consolidated budget report that:

(a) improves transparency in workforce funding to enable smarter policy decisions; and

(b) makes recommendations for using legislative and executive means to improve system alignment, accountability, and efficiency;

(12) development and implementation of a method for conducting an ongoing inventory of existing workforce programs to identify duplications among and within the programs and identify ineffective programs; and

(13) development and implementation of other procedures for sharing information and coordinating efforts among stakeholders to prepare the state’s current and emerging workforce to meet the needs of the state’s economy.

(C) The executive director of the Department of Employment and Workforce shall serve as Chairman of the CCWD, and, as Chairman of the CCWD, monitor and audit the implementation of this chapter, review accountability and performance measures, and annually report to the Governor and the General Assembly by November first of each fiscal year, on the:

- (a) actions taken by the council during the previous fiscal year;
- (b) engagement of the council to include attendance, participation, and compliance with the USP, and;
- (c) any recommendations for legislation.

The executive director or OSWD may submit additional reports on an ongoing basis as considered necessary.

(D) Agencies represented on the CCWD shall provide staff for the CCWD. These staff members may be provided by means of memorandums of agreement that address the scope of duties of each member agencies' personnel in providing this staff support.

(E) The Department of Employment and Workforce shall provide office space and equipment for the OSWD.

Article 7

Regional Workforce Advisors

Section 41-30-710. (A) The OSWD shall provide oversight to the regional workforce advisors (RWA), which are to coordinate and facilitate the delivery of information, resources, and services to students, educators, employers, and the community as provided in this article. The department shall hire RWA's and shall seek input from the State Department of Education and others, as needed, in carrying out the requirements of this section.

(B) The primary responsibilities of these advisors are to:

- (1) provide services to students and adults for career planning, employment seeking, training, and other support functions;
- (2) provide information, resources, and professional development programs to educators;
- (3) provide resources to school districts for compliance and accountability pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 59, Title 59;
- (4) provide information and resources to employers including, but not limited to, education partnerships, career-oriented learning, and training services;
- (5) facilitate local connections among businesses and those involved in education; and
- (6) work with school districts and institutions of higher education to create and coordinate workforce education programs.

(C) Each RWA must be certified and recognized by the National Career Development Association and shall coordinate career development, and postsecondary transitioning for the schools in its region.

(D) The RWAs shall provide data and reports that the department requests.

(E) Each RWA's geographic area of responsibility must conform to the geographic configuration of the local areas designated pursuant to the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act, Pub.L. 113-128. Each RWA's geographic area of responsibility shall have an advisory board comprised of a school district superintendent, high school principal, local workforce investment board chairperson, technical college president, four-year college or university representative, career center director or school district career and technology education coordinator, parent-teacher organization representative, and business and civic leaders. Appointees must reside or do business in the geographic area of the RWA's geographic area of responsibility. Local legislative delegations shall make the appointments to their respective advisory boards.

Section 41-30-720. The Department of Employment and Workforce, in collaboration with the Department of Commerce, the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education, the Commission on Higher Education, and the State Department of Education shall plan and promote the career information and employment options and preparation programs provided for in this section by:

- (1) identifying potential employers to participate in the career-oriented learning programs;
- (2) serving as a contact point for employees and job seekers who are seeking career information and training;
- (3) providing labor market information including, but not limited to, supply and demand;
- (4) promoting increased career awareness and career counseling through the management and promotion of the South Carolina Occupational Information System;
- (5) collaborating with local agencies and businesses to stimulate funds; and
- (6) cooperating in the creation and coordination of workforce education programs.

SECTION 3. Section 41-31-160 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 41-31-160. The department shall not require contribution and wage reports more frequently than quarterly. Effective with the quarter ending March 31, ~~2003~~2024, every employer with ~~two hundred fifty~~ten or more employees and every individual or organization that, as an agent, reports wages on a total of ~~two hundred fifty~~ten or more employees on behalf of one or more subject employers, and effective with the quarter ending March 31, ~~2005~~2026, every employer ~~with one~~

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

~~hundred or more employees and every individual or organization that, as an agent, reports wages on a total of one hundred or more employees on behalf of one or more subject employers, shall file that portion of the “Employer Quarterly Contribution and Wage Reports” containing the employee's social security number, name, Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) code, total number of hours worked, and total wages on magnetic tapes, diskettes, or electronically, in a format approved by the department. The department may waive the requirement to file using magnetic media electronically if hardship is shown. In determining whether a hardship has been shown, the department shall take into account, among other relevant factors, the ability of the taxpayer/employer to comply with the filing requirement at a reasonable cost.~~

SECTION 4. Section 41-35-615 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 41-35-615. All notices given to an employer concerning a request for determination of insured status, a request for initiation of a claim series in a benefit year, a notice of unemployment, a certification for waiting-week credit, a claim for benefits, and any reconsideration of a determination must be made by United States mail or electronic mail. The employer may designate with the department its preferred method of notice. If an employer does not make a designation, then notices must be made by United States mail. The employer may not be required to respond to the notice until ten calendar days, or the next business day if the tenth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or state holiday, after the postmark on notices sent via United States mail or ten calendar days after the date a notice is sent via electronic mail. Effective March 1, 2024, every employer with ten or more employees and every individual or organization that, as an agent, reports information to the department on ten or more employees on behalf of one or more subject employers, and effective March 1, 2026, every employer and every individual or organization that, as an agent, reports information to the department on behalf of one or more subject employers, shall file responses to department requests for information regarding an individual's claim for benefits (e.g., job separations, wage audits, etc.) electronically, in a format approved by the department. The department may waive the requirement to file electronically if a hardship is shown. In determining whether a hardship is shown, the department shall take into account, among other relevant factors, the ability of the employer to comply with the filing requirement at a reasonable cost.

SECTION 5. Article 13 and Article 15 of Chapter 1, Title 13 of the S.C. Code are repealed.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

Fanning and Representatives MITCHELL, WILLIAMS, OREMUS, HOSEY and SCHUESSLER. The President recognized our special guests and then the National American Legion Commander addressed the General Assembly as follows:

Address by the Honorable Vincent J. “Jim” Troiola National Commander of The American Legion
March 8, 2023

Ladies, gentlemen, distinguished Members of this great Body--it's truly an honor to speak to you today in this historic capitol.

Before I begin, please allow me a moment to introduce members of The American Legion family who are with me today.

We have with us the Commander of the South Carolina American Legion, Jim Jarvis of Columbia.

National Executive Committeeman, Joe Lysaght of James Island.

James Holland, Alternate NEC from Aiken.

The Department Adjutant, Mike Strauss of North Augusta.

The American Legion Auxiliary Department of South Carolina President, Pat Ward of Greenville.

And, the Sons of The American Legion South Carolina Detachment Commander, Ryan Henderson of Charleston.

Ladies and gentlemen--we have all heard the famous saying that there are two things that are inevitable in life--death and taxes! Well, that maybe so, but I want to thank this Legislature and Governor McMaster for at least making taxes less burdensome for military retirees and surviving spouses.

Thanks to the hard work of the men and women of this Legislature, military pensions are now exempt from South Carolina taxes. This sends exactly the right message to veterans searching for a state to call home after a career of military service.

Even before the governor signed the Workforce Enhancement and Military Recognition Act on May 13th – the Palmetto State earned a well-deserved reputation as a welcoming community for America's heroes.

South Carolina had already given veterans state employment preferences, education and tuition assistance, vehicle tags, as well as hunting and fishing license privileges. You have also expanded property tax exemptions to include surviving spouses of disabled veterans.

Simply put, when it comes to the treatment of veterans, this State gets us.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

Moreover, South Carolina is a major contributor to America's military strength, with eight major military installations and numerous smaller facilities within your borders. The annual economic impact of the military community here is estimated to be $34.3 billion, while translating into more than a quarter-million jobs. You have the tenth highest density of service members in the country and nearly 400,000 veterans call South Carolina "home".

Twenty-three thousand of South Carolina's veterans are Legionnaires, serving local communities through more than 160 posts. But it isn't just veterans and the military who American Legion Families serve. They are awarding scholarships, conducting some of the finest youth programs in the Country and educating the next generation of South Carolinians on the importance of patriotism and good citizenship.

On July 11th, a national team from The American Legion met with veterans and VA representatives at Post 130 in Cayce. It was our first System Worth Saving townhall since before the COVID-19 pandemic.

Included in the visit was a tour of the Columbia VA Medical Center. The VA Health Care System has made some remarkable improvements over the last decade. The American Legion is vigilant to ensure that VA serves veterans as well as veterans have served this Country. We will point out VA's mistakes and we will often be loud in doing so. But we also recognize that VA usually provides outstanding care and must be fully funded so veterans can have access to this needed benefit.

Last Wednesday, I testified before a Joint Session of Senators and Representatives in the U.S. Congress. I told them that the number one priority of The American Legion is stopping veteran suicide.

Every Member of this Legislature – indeed, every American – can help us with this effort.

I have seen estimates that 17 veterans per day take their own lives. I've seen another study that says it's more than 40.

The number is more likely somewhere in between.

Sometimes their military service was overlooked. Other suicides are mistakenly ruled as accidental overdoses. In other words, the statistics are all over the place. As far as The American Legion is concerned, the most important number to remember is ONE. As in Be the one to stop it.

Be the one to discuss a topic that for years went unmentioned in polite society. Be the one to reach out to a veteran who may be struggling. Be the one to encourage the veteran to seek help. Be the one to follow-up with the veteran to let him or her know that they are not forgotten. Be the one to convince a veteran that life is worth living and that suicide is absolutely not an option. In other words, be the one to save one.

Very few of us are professional therapists which is why we welcome the announcement that as of January 2023, any veteran in suicidal crisis can be seen at any VA or non-VA health care facility free of charge. The veteran does not even have to be enrolled in the VA system for this benefit. It includes up to 30 days of inpatient or 90 days of outpatient care at any VA or non-VA facility.

As elected officials and leaders in your districts, you have a large platform. Please use it to share the new crisis hotline number, 988.

We need to ensure that 988 is as widely known as 911. In fact, a 988 call today can help prevent a 911-call tomorrow.

For several years now, The American Legion has conducted Buddy Check efforts in which veterans reach out to other veterans to foster friendship and wellness. Peer support works. Thanks to congressional action, I'm pleased to say that this year the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs will be designating annual Buddy Check weeks nationwide.

Veterans value courage. If you can help The American Legion remove the stigma associated with PTSD and depression, and if you can help us make the case that seeking mental wellness is courageous, then my time with you today has been well-spent.

South Carolina not only believes in supporting those who served, but through great institutions like the Citadel – you are producing tomorrow's defenders of freedom.

I am pleased to see that last Fall the Citadel welcomed its first cadet-recruits from Ukraine. The American Legion does not support the deployment of U.S. troops to that war-torn nation, but we do support arming and assisting the Ukrainian people in their fight for survival. The international community, and especially our allies, must use all diplomatic and economic tools at our collective disposal to stop Russian aggression.

We remain equally concerned with the provocations of communist China. Every year The American Legion hosts representatives from the Taiwan Veterans Affairs Council at our national convention. I was briefed by senior U.S. military commanders during my visits to Okinawa and Hawaii in December. The military and economic threats represented by China and the saber-rattling by North Korea should not just concern the people of the Indo-Pacific region but Americans here in the homeland.

For my friends who believe that we spend too much of our budget on national defense, I encourage you to travel abroad. Visit Korea's demilitarized zone. Attend a Pearl Harbor observance and reflect on what could happen. The American Legion believes that a strong defense is not just wise policy, but a constitutionally mandated imperative. We must not jeopardize our readiness through feel-good budgetary cuts.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

I just reiterated the many ways in which South Carolina shows its appreciation for veterans. We owe it to the next generation of veterans to ensure that they are always the best-trained, best-equipped, and best-armed military force on the planet.

Yesterday, I had the honor of visiting Shaw Air Force Base and Fort Jackson.

Though Sumter is a close drive from Columbia, when it comes to housing, they are worlds apart. While it is the federal government that allocates the housing allowance for members of the military, service members at Shaw receive about $300 a month less in Basic Housing Allowance than those at Fort Jackson. More concerning is the lack of affordable housing for military members in the Sumter community. If the State were to incentivize landlords to give our military a break on rent, they will find servicemembers make ideal tenants.

Another issue is a lack of affordable daycare. A common complaint that we heard was about the onerous regulatory process that goes with operating a daycare. We all want safety for our children, but cost should go down and options should go up.

The future of the U.S. Army truly runs through this State. Fort Jackson is not just a basic training camp. It conducts the Future Soldier Prep Course, where men and women strengthen their intellectual, physical, and nutritional fitness before they even enter basic training. This is designed to overcome shortfalls that may hinder one's ability to pass recruit training.

Fort Jackson is also the home of the U.S. Army's Drill Sergeant Academy. The men and women at this school epitomize leadership. They shoulder the enormous responsibility of creating U.S. soldiers. They do so with great strength, skill, firmness, and fairness. When it comes to U.S. military representation in this state, South Carolina should be proud.

While I am here, I would like to extend my congratulations to Jonathan Biering. Jonathan is a senior at Pinopolis High School in Pinopolis, South Carolina. I just saw Jonathan last week in Washington. He is one of 10 recipients of a Samsung American Legion Scholarship. It is a well-deserved honor for the young man, who is the great-grandson of a Korean War Navy veteran. More than 4,600 high school juniors nationwide applied for the $10,000 scholarship, which is awarded to students who are descendants of veterans and have met standards of academic excellence and community service. Jonathan is also a graduate of The American Legion Department of South Carolina Boys State program.

Now, if you would allow me for one moment to call to the two Members of this distinguished Body who have proven that they are not only great lawmakers, but they are advocates for those who have served. They have been designated by The American Legion Department of South Carolina as the Outstanding Members of the Legislature for 2023. They are true friends of veterans and The American Legion.

Senator George "Chip" Campsen, III and Representative Matthew W. Leber would you please join me?

Congratulations Senator Campsen and Representative Leber. We appreciate all that you do on behalf of veterans.

Thank you so much, South Carolina Legislature.

God Bless you, God Bless America, and God Bless South Carolina!

JOINT ASSEMBLY RECEDES

The purposes of the Joint Assembly having been accomplished, the PRESIDENT announced that under the terms of the Concurrent Resolution the Joint Assembly would recede from business.

The Senate accordingly retired to its Chamber.

THE HOUSE RESUMES

At 12:48 p.m. the House resumed, the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE in the Chair.

H. 3726--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

Debate was resumed on the following Bill, the pending question being Rep. STAVRINAKIS' Point of Order.

H. 3726 -- Reps. G. M. Smith, West, Ballentine, Davis, Hager, Hewitt, Kirby, Long, B. Newton, Ott, M. M. Smith, Stavrinakis, Tedder, Robbins, Brewer, Murphy, Taylor, Leber, Sandifer, Ligon, Williams, Anderson, Blackwell, Nutt, McCravy, Mitchell, Yow, W. Newton, Weeks, Alexander, Pope, Hixon, Forrest and King: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ENACTING THE "STATEWIDE EDUCATION AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT ACT" BY ADDING CHAPTER 30 TO TITLE 41 SO AS TO CREATE THE OFFICE OF STATEWIDE WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT COORDINATION IN THE DEPARTMENT OF

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE, TO CENTRALIZE OVERSIGHT OF CERTAIN PUBLICLY FUNDED WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT SERVICES IN THE OFFICE, TO PROVIDE FOR THE MANAGEMENT AND FUNCTIONS OF THE OFFICE, TO TRANSFER THE COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT TO THE DEPARTMENT AND PROVIDE FOR THE COMPOSITION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE COUNCIL, TO CREATE AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE COORDINATING COUNCIL AND PROVIDE FOR THE COMPOSITION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE, TO PROVIDE FOR THE OVERSIGHT OF REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS BY THE DEPARTMENT, TO PROVIDE REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS MUST CONFORM TO CERTAIN GEOGRAPHIC CONFIGURATIONS, AND TO PROVIDE A MULTIAGENCY COLLABORATIVE EFFORT TO PROMOTE CERTAIN OFFERINGS OF REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS; AND BY REPEALING ARTICLE 13 OF CHAPTER 1, TITLE 13 RELATING TO OVERSIGHT OF REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, AND ARTICLE 15 OF CHAPTER 1, TITLE 13 RELATING TO THE COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT.

RULING ON POINT OF ORDER

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that he had to rule upon the question of germaneness considering the state of the Bill as it had been amended by the adoption of prior amendments. He stated that Amendment No. 13 was germane to the Bill due to the adoption of Amendment No. 1. He stated further that both Amendment No. 13 and the Bill, as amended previously, dealt with companies that received state appropriations and what they must do. He overruled the Point of Order.

RULE 3.9 NOT INVOKED

Rep. MAGNUSON invoked Rule 3.9.

ABSTENTION FROM VOTING

March 7, 2023
The Honorable Charles Reid
Clerk of the South Carolina House of Representatives
213 Blatt Bldg.
Columbia, SC 29201

Dear Charles Reid,

I am notifying you in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. Section 8-13-700 of the SC Code, I hereby recuse myself from voting on S. 361, regarding extensions of construction contracts, so as to provide that the Department of Transportation Commission is not required to provide us reapproval of construction contract extensions and to provide that the Commission must ratify extensions at the next Commission meeting.

I will abstain from this vote because of a potential conflict of interest as an economic interest of myself and the business with which I am associated may be affected. Please note this in the House Journal for March 8, 2023.

Sincerely,
Rep. Roger K. Kirby

H. 3360--ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3360 -- Reps. Pope, Gilliam, Wooten, McCravy, Felder, Williams, Erickson, Bradley, Mitchell, Forrest, B. Newton and Caskey: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING ARTICLE 17 TO CHAPTER 23, TITLE 23 SO AS TO ESTABLISH THE CENTER FOR SCHOOL SAFETY AND TARGETED VIOLENCE WITHIN THE STATE LAW ENFORCEMENT DIVISION.

Rep. PACE proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3360 (LC-3360.CM0001H), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 16-23-430(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(A) It shall be unlawful for any person, except state, county, or municipal law enforcement officers ~~or~~ school personnel authorized by school officials; and persons authorized to carry a concealed weapon pursuant to Article 4, Chapter 31, Title 23, to carry on his person, while on any elementary or secondary school property, a knife, with a blade over two inches long, a blackjack, a metal pipe or pole, firearms, or any other type of weapon, device, or object which may be used to inflict bodily injury or death.

School officials may:

(1) allow school personnel or concealed weapon permit holders to carry on their person a weapon on school property;

(2) require additional weapons training before authorizing

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023

school personnel or concealed weapon permit holders to carry on their person a weapon on school property; or

(3) prohibit school personnel or concealed weapon permit holders from carrying on their person a weapon on school property.

The Center for School Safety and Violence shall promulgate regulations for training school district staff members who carry a firearm.

Rep. PACE explained the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. RUTHERFORD raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 1 was not germane to H. 3360.

Rep. PACE argued contra.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that H. 3360 dealt with school safety, but Amendment No. 1 concerned the right to carry guns. He stated that the Amendment went beyond the scope and effect of the Bill, and he sustained the Point of Order.

Rep. CALHOON explained the Bill.

SECTION 2. Chapter 3, Title 16 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Article 22

Penalty Enhancements for Certain Crimes

Section 16-3-2410. (A) When a person commits a violent crime as defined in Section 16 1 60 or commits assault by mob in the second degree as defined in Section 16 3 210(C) and the trier of fact determines beyond a reasonable doubt that the offense was committed against a victim who was intentionally selected because of the person’s belief or perception regarding the victim’s race, color, religion, sex, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, age, political opinion, or the exercise of a person’s political rights and privileges, whether or not the perception is correct, the person is subject to additional penalties as provided in subsection (B).

(B) A person who violates the provisions of subsection (A) and commits a violent crime as defined in Section 16 1 60 or commits assault by mob in the second degree as defined in Section 16 3 210(C), upon conviction, is subject to an additional fine of not more than ten thousand dollars and an additional term of imprisonment of up to five years.

(C) The provisions of this section provide for the enhancement of the penalties applicable to underlying offenses. When the State seeks enhanced penalties provided for by this section, the court shall conduct a separate proceeding after a conviction for the underlying offense. The court shall permit the prosecuting agency and the defense to present evidence relevant to the determination of whether the defendant intentionally selected the person against whom the offense is committed because of the person’s belief or perception regarding one or more of the factors provided in subsection (A), whether or not the perception is correct. The court with competent jurisdiction over the underlying offense shall instruct the trier of fact to find a verdict beyond a reasonable doubt as to a violation of the provisions of this section.

(D) The additional penalties described in subsection (B) may not be imposed unless the person was indicted, either separately or as a separate count in the indictment, for the underlying offense and for the offense pursuant to this section committed against the victim who was intentionally selected because of the person's belief or perception regarding one or more of the factors provided in subsection (A), whether or not the perception is correct, and the person was found guilty of the underlying offense.

Thursday, March 9, 2023
(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Luke 4:18-19: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

Let us pray. Dear God, for Your message of freedom that is more desired than gold and sweeter than honey, we praise You. Thank You for being with us and giving us and others a fresh start each day. Bless and keep our defenders of freedom and first responders safe as they care for us. O God, You have shown great kindness and honored us with the call to follow You. Use our humble efforts to help others know Your goodness. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in these Halls of Government. Bless our women and men who keep us safe. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. ROBBINS moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Representative JA Moore's sister Myra Thompson, which was agreed to.

RELATING TO THE SUSPENSION OF HUNTING AND FISHING PRIVILEGES, SO AS TO CHANGE THE METHOD FOR THE NOTICE OF SUSPENSION; BY AMENDING SECTION 50-9-1150, RELATING TO THE NOTICE OF SUSPENSION OF HUNTING AND FISHING PRIVILEGES, SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON OR ENTITY MAY APPEAL THE DECISION UNDER THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT; AND BY REPEALING SECTION 50-5-2545 RELATING TO POINTS FOR VIOLATIONS OF MARINE RESOURCES LAWS RECEIVED PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE MARINE RESOURCES ACT OF 2000; AND BY REPEALING SECTION 50-9-1160 RELATING TO JUDICIAL REVIEW OF A SUSPENSION OF HUNTING AND FISHING PRIVILEGES.

The Committee on Agriculture, Natural Res. and Environmental Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3433 (LC-3433.PH0002H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 2, by striking Section 50-5-2515 and inserting:

Section 50-5-2515. (A) Upon determination by the department that a person or entity has accumulated sufficient points to warrant the suspension of any saltwater privilege, the department must notify the person or entity in writing, ~~return receipt requested~~, that his saltwater privilege has been suspended, and the person or entity must return all the suspended licenses, stamps, or permits in his name to the department within ten days.

(B) The person may, within thirty days after notice of suspension, request in writing a review, and upon receipt of the request, the department shall afford him a review. The department shall notify him of the date, time, and place of the review and the person shall have the right to have his attorney present with him.

(C) A person or entity whose privileges have been suspended may appeal the decision of the department under the Administrative Procedures Act.

Amend the bill further, by striking SECTION 4 and inserting:

SECTION X. Section 50-9-1150(B) and (C) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(B) The person may, within ~~ten~~thirty days after notice of suspension, request in writing a review, and upon receipt of the request, the department shall afford him a review. The department shall notify him of the date, time, and place of the review and the person shall have the right to have his attorney present with him if he so desires.

~~(C) If the person requests a review, the suspension shall be held in abeyance until the day of the final disposition of his review by the department and if the suspension is upheld, the suspension shall commence on the eleventh day thereafter and end on the same day of the following year. The review by the department shall be limited to a determination of the validity of the violations and points assessed. No probationary authority is given to the department by discretion or otherwise. A person or entity whose privileges have been suspended may appeal the decision of the department under the Administrative Procedures Act.~~

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 119:27: "Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wonderous works."

Let us pray. Almighty God, I give You thanks for another day to receive Your mercies. Be with us as we seek to serve You and others. Thank You for being a seeking and serving God. Guard and keep us safe each day. Bestow Your blessings upon these men and women as they go into the weekend. Bless them as they prepare for another week of service to the people of this State. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Bless our men and women who suffer wounds, seen and unseen. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 1:00 p.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Joel 3: “So you shall know that I, the Lord your God, dwell in Zion, my holy mountain.”

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, Almighty God, come to the aid of Your people as they enter the week of the budget. Inspire these Representatives and Staff to give what is needed to the people of South Carolina. Guide them with Your boundless hand that they might do the right thing for the people of South Carolina. Keep them in your love and care. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for these, Your people. Give them physical and mental strength to get the work done. Look in favor upon our whole World. Continue Your blessings on our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in these Halls of Government. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IA, Section 20A, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA, page 37, line 10, opposite /Other Operating Expenses/ by decreasing the amount(s) in Columns 3 and 4 by:

Column 3	Column 4
1,703,412	1,703,412

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend totals and titles to conform.

Rep. A. M. MORGAN explained the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. KING raised the Point of Order that Amendment No.5 to Section 20 violated Rule 8.2 and was dilatory in nature.

The SPEAKER overruled the Point of Order. The SPEAKER stated that the amendment, like others before it and after it, amended different sections of the budget and different public colleges and universities. He stated that because the House was debating the Annual General Appropriations Bill, he had to consider the issue on a section-by-section basis and he did not believe that the amendments were dilatory in nature.

Rep. A. M. MORGAN continued speaking.

Rep. MCDANIEL spoke against the amendment.

Rep. BALLENTINE moved to table the amendment, which was agreed to by a division vote of 84 to 20.

Reps. A.M. MORGAN, MAY, MAGNUSON, and PACE proposed the following Amendment No. 58 (Doc Name COUNCIL\SA\4300C019.JN.SA23.DOCX), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Section 108, PUBLIC EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AUTHORITY, page 466, after line 16, by adding an appropriately numbered paragraph to read:

/ (PEBA: Pension Proxy Voting Rights) (A) In the current fiscal year, from the funds authorized in Section 3, Statewide Employer Contributions, of Section 108 of Part 1A of this Act, the commission, in its fiduciary capacity in investing benefit member participants' contributions, may expend such funds to cast shareholder proxy votes that are in keeping with its fiduciary duties that are consistent with the best interest of the trust fund, as a prudent person in a like capacity would reasonably believe has a material effect or impact on the financial risk or return on an investment based on an appropriate investment and most likely to maximize shareholder value over an appropriate investment horizon consistent with a retirement systems investment objectives and funding policy.

(B) In the current fiscal year, to the extent that it is economically practicable, the commission shall retain the Public Employee Benefits Authority to exercise shareholder proxy rights for shares that are owned directly or indirectly on behalf of a system. The commission may retain a proxy firm or advisory service to assist the commission in exercising shareholder proxy rights, but only if the proxy advisor commits to follow proxy guidelines that are consistent with the requirements of subsection (A).

(C) The commission only may delegate the exercise of shareholder proxy rights to an investment manager under one or more of the following conditions:

(1) the manager commits to vote pending language;

(2) the commission reasonably believes that the economic benefits of the manager's strategy will provide a superior outcome as compared to a strategy by which the commission retained proxy voting authority; or

(3) the allocation is necessary to avoid the concentration risk of assets with any one or more investment managers.

(D)(1) In using the funds identified in subsection (A) to invest and manage the assets of a retirement system, the commission shall consider among other circumstances:

(a) general economic conditions;

(b) the possible effect of inflation or deflation;

(c) the role that each investment or course of action plays within the overall portfolio of the retirement system;

(d) needs for liquidity, regularity of income, and preservation or appreciation of capital; and

(e) the adequacy of funding for the plan based on reasonable actuarial factors.

(2) The commission shall diversify the investments of the retirement system unless the commission reasonably determines that, because of special circumstances, it is clearly prudent not to do so and shall make a reasonable effort to verify facts relevant to the investment and management of assets of a retirement system.

(E) The commission only shall consider pecuniary factors in making an investment decision or when allocating capital to an investment strategy. The commission only may allocate capital to an investment strategy that prioritizes a nonpecuniary goal, objective, or outcome or considers nonpecuniary factors as part of the investment strategy, if the commission finds that a prudent person in a like capacity would reasonably believe that the investment strategy will provide a superior risk adjusted return as compared to similar type investment opportunities available at the time that do not pursue a nonpecuniary objective or consider nonpecuniary factors.

(F) The commission shall meet in the current fiscal year to review compliance with regarding the exercise of shareholder proxy rights. The commission shall review a report that summarizes the votes cast by or on the commission's behalf or at the commission's direction. The report must include a vote caption, the commission's vote, the recommendation of company management, and the recommendation of any proxy advisor retained by the commission. The report required by this subsection must be posted in a conspicuous location on the commission's website. /

(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 9:30 a.m.
Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from 1 Chronicles 16:14: "He is the Lord our God; his judgements are in all the earth."

Let us pray. Blessings and glory and honor be with and guide these Representatives and Staff as they continue their work on the budget. Give them courage and strength to get the job done. Protect our first responders and defenders of freedom. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who so faithfully give of their time and effort to complete the job. Keep our women and men safe as they protect our freedom. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our great warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE ordered it confirmed.

SECTION 1--AMENDED AND ADOPTED

Rep. LANDING proposed the following Amendment No. 86 (Doc Name h:\legwork\house\amend\h-wm\005\magnet school proviso amend (return to home school option).docx), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, Section 1, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, page 290, paragraph 1.85, line 12, by inserting:

/ Any student subject to this provision retains eligibility to participate in any athletic sport at the public school in the attendance zone of their residence. /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend totals and titles to conform.

Rep. LANDING explained the amendment.

Rep. LANDING spoke in favor of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. BRITTAIN raised the Point of Order under Rule 5.3.B.1 that Amendment No. 86 was not germane.

Rep. LANDING argued contra.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that Rule 5.3.B.1 set the test for determining germaneness of amendments to Part IB temporary provisos. He stated that the question to be answered was whether the amendment's principal, chief, or primary effect was directly germane to the appropriation of funds or revenue or was a directive directly germane to the appropriation of funds or revenue. He stated that Amendment No. 86's effect was to give students the option to participate in sports at the school within their attendance zone and was not germane to the appropriations or revenue. He sustained the Point of Order.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 2023

Rep. BEACH proposed the following Amendment No. 72 (Doc Name COUNCIL\DG\4300C004.NBD.DG23.DOCX), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, Section 1, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, page 295, after line 22, by adding an appropriately numbered paragraph to read:

/ (SDE: Incentive prohibition) No school district, or any of its schools, may use any funds appropriated or authorized pursuant to this act to offer students any incentive or inducement to receive a vaccination. /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend totals and titles to conform.

Rep. BEACH explained the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. STAVRINAKIS raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 72 violated Rule 5.3.B.1 and was not germane.

Rep. BEACH argued contra.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE overruled the Point of Order and stated that the Amendment prohibited schools from using funds to incentivize or induce students to receive vaccinations and was a directive directly germane to appropriations and revenue.

Rep. BEACH spoke in favor of the amendment.

Rep. KING moved to table the amendment.

SECTION 14--AMENDMENT TABLED

Reps. A. M. MORGAN, MAY, MAGNUSON and PACE proposed the following Amendment No. 51 (Doc Name COUNCIL\DG\4300C036.CC.DG23.DOCX), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, page 336, after line 18, by adding a Section to read:

Section 14 – H120 – Clemson University – Education & General

/ 14.1 (CLEM: Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion)(A) From the funds appropriated to Clemson University, the university must issue a report detailing the total number of administrative and non-teaching positions that support or are associated with what is commonly referred to as “DEI” or “diversity, equity, and inclusion.” The report shall include the total salaries and total operating costs associated with DEI. The university shall forward the reports to the House of Representatives and the Senate.

For purposes of this subsection, DEI includes efforts to promote or promulgate policies and procedures designed and effort to promote or promulgate trainings, programming, or activities designed and implemented with reference to race, color, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation; any effort to promote as the official position of the administration, the university, or any administrative unit thereof, a particular, widely contested opinion referencing unconscious or implicit bias, cultural appropriation, allyship, transgender ideology, microaggressions, group marginalization, anti-racism, systemic oppression, social justice, intersectionality, neo-pronouns, heteronormativity, disparate impact, gender theory, racial or sexual privilege, or any related formulation of these concepts. DEI includes any division, office, center, or other unit of the university or component thereof which is responsible for creating, developing, designing, implementing, organizing, planning, or promoting policies, programming, training, practices, activities, and procedures relating to diversity, equity, and inclusion. A DEI officer is an individual who is: a full or part-time employee of the university or component thereof or an independent contractor of the university whose duties for the university include coordinating, creating, developing, designing, implementing, organizing, planning, or promoting policies, programming, training, practices, activities, and procedures relating to diversity, equity, and inclusion.

(B) In the current fiscal year, the university may not expend any funds appropriated or authorized in this act, including salaries, to grant preference to any applicant for admission or employment or promotion on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin. Nothing in this subsection may be interpreted as prohibiting bona fide qualifications based on sex which are conducive to the normal operation of the university.

(C) In the current fiscal year, the university may not expend any funds appropriated or authorized in this act, including salaries, to make diversity training mandatory. Mandatory means a requirement of any kind imposed on a student, employee, or applicant for employment, including but not limited to a requirement, the nonfulfillment of which, may adversely affect the status, salary, or benefits of an employee or applicant for employment at the university or component; a requirement to participate in any administrative process or decision-making body of the university, such as a hiring committee; a requirement to participate in any otherwise available program sponsored by the university or component. Diversity training refers to interrelated concepts, such as purporting to describe or expose structures, systems, or relations of power, privilege, or subordination on the basis of race, sex, color, gender, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation; or purporting to describe methods to identify, dismantle, or oppose such structures, systems, or relations; or justifying differential treatment or special benefits conferred on the basis of race, sex, color, gender, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation. Diversity training also includes unconscious or implicit bias, cultural appropriation, allyship, transgenderism, microaggressions, micro-invalidating, group marginalization, anti-racism, systemic oppression, ethnocentrism, structural racism, structural inequity, social justice, intersectionality, neo-pronouns, inclusive language, heteronormativity, disparate impact, gender identity, gender theory, racial or sexual privilege, or related formulations of these concepts. Diversity training also includes a training, seminar, discussion group, workshop, or other instructional program, whether provided in-person, online, or by any other means, with a purpose of advising, counseling, demonstrating, explaining, instructing, or teaching participants about diversity, equity, and inclusion.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 2023

(D) In the current fiscal year, the university may not expend any funds appropriated or authorized in this act, including salaries, to require or solicit a diversity statement as part of an admissions process, employment application process, hiring process, contract renewal process, or promotion process; or as a condition of participation in any administrative or decision-making function of the university. For the purposes of this subsection, diversity statement means any written or oral statement discussing the applicant or candidate's race, sex, color, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation; or the applicant or candidate's views on, experience with, or contributions to diversity, equity, and inclusion; marginalized groups; anti-racism; social justice; intersectionality; confessing one's race-based privilege; or related concepts; or the applicant or candidate's views on or experience with the race, sex, color, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation of students and co-workers; the applicant's or candidate's views regarding any theory or practice that advocates for the differential treatment of any individual or groups of individuals based on race, sex, color, gender, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Additionally, the university may not grant preferential consideration to an applicant, teacher, employee, or student for opinions expressed or action taken pertaining to another individual or a group of individuals in which the university's consideration is based on race, sex, color, ethnicity, gender identity, or sexual orientation of those other individuals.

(E) This proviso does not prohibit any program or training scripted by licensed attorneys and required to comply with the university's obligations under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, applicable court order, or other applicable state and federal law, provided the university makes the materials for the program publicly available on the university's website. /

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. LOWE raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 84 violated Rule 5.3.B.1 and was not germane.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that Rule 5.3.B.1 set the test for determining germaneness of amendments to Part IB temporary provisos. He stated that the question to be answered was whether the amendment's principal, chief, or primary effect was directly germane to the appropriation of funds or revenue or was a directive directly germane to the appropriation of funds or revenue. He sustained the Point of Order and Amendment No. 84 was ruled out of order.

SECTION 99--AMENDMENT RULED OUT OF ORDER

Reps. A. M. MORGAN, MAY, MAGNUSON and PACE proposed the following Amendment No. 61 (Doc Name COUNCIL\SA\4300C016.JN.SA23.DOCX), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, page 450, after line 35, by adding a new SECTION to read:

/ SECTION 99-E190- RETIREMENT SYSTEM INVESTMENT COMMISSION

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 2023

(RSIC: Proxy Voting Rights) In the current fiscal year, the Retirement System Investment Commission (Commission) shall not use any funds authorized in Section 99 in Part 1A of this act, including amounts authorized for salaries, to make any commitment to invest in a new investment vehicle or make any additional investments into an existing investment vehicle, unless required by law or contract, regarding its public or private equity portfolios, unless the group trust that holds the assets of the retirement systems (or the Commission or the Public Employee Benefit Authority (PEBA), as applicable) possesses the legal right to vote its proportion of any and all underlying corporate shares of the companies owned by the investment vehicle. However, the Commission may invest in any such new or existing investment vehicle, if, by written agreement with the manager of the investment vehicle or the investment vehicle itself, as appropriate, the group trust (or the Commission or PEBA, as applicable) contractually possesses the right to vote its proportion of the underlying shares owned by such investment vehicle. The group trust (or the Commission or PEBA, as applicable) may contract with a proxy firm or advisory service provider to manage the voting of shares. Further, consistent with its fiduciary duty to the group trust, the plan participants, and retirees, the Commission shall begin to divest holdings in prohibited investment vehicles as set forth above. On or before January thirty-first of the current fiscal year, the Commission shall provide a written report to the General Assembly regarding its compliance with this proviso and its plans, including the timeframe and effects on the value of the assets in the retirement systems, to completely divest from all prohibited investment vehicles as set for the above. /

SECTION 110--ADOPTED

Reps. MCCABE and A. M. MORGAN proposed the following Amendment No. 78 (Doc NameCOUNCIL\SA\4300C036.JN. SA23.DOCX), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, Section 110, STATE ETHICS COMMISSION, page 469, after line 5, by adding an appropriately numbered paragraph to read:

/ (ETHICS: Lobbyists and Lobbyist Principal Registration) Any individual paid to influence decisions or actions of officials or employees of any local political subdivision of the State, to include counties, cities,

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. LOWE raised the Point of Order under Rule 5.3.B.1 that Amendment No. 78 was not germane.

Rep. MCCABE argued contra.

The SPEAKER stated the principal effect of the amendment was to require local government lobbyists and lobbyist principals to register with the State Ethics Commission. He stated that the principal effect did not directly affect appropriations or revenues or was a directive or procedure relative to appropriations or revenue. He sustained the Point of Order and ruled Amendment No. 78 to not be germane.

The question then recurred to the adoption of the section.

SECTION 117--ADOPTED

Reps. A. M. MORGAN, MAY, MAGNUSON and PACE proposed the following Amendment No. 55 (Doc Name COUNCIL\DG\4300C054.NBD.DG23.DOCX), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, Section 117, GENERAL PROVISIONS, page 519, by striking paragraph 117.144 and inserting:

/ 117.144. (GP: Employee Compensation) The amounts appropriated to F300-Statewide Employee Benefits for Employee Pay Increases must be allocated by the Department of Administration, Executive Budget Office to the various state agencies to provide for employee pay increases in accordance with the following plan:

(1) With respect to classified and non-judge judicial classified employees, effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after July first of the current fiscal year, the compensation of all classified employees shall be increased by $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under three percent.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 2023

(2) With respect to unclassified and non-judge judicial unclassified employees or unclassified executive compensation system employees not elsewhere covered in this act, effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after July first of the current fiscal year the compensation of all unclassified employees shall be increased by $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~. Any employee subject to the provisions of this paragraph shall not be eligible for compensation increases provided in paragraphs 1, 3, 4, 5, or 6.

(3) With respect to unclassified employees of institutions of higher education and technical colleges eligible in this item, institutions and technical colleges are authorized to allot the total funds for compensation increases among individual employees without uniformity. The funds provided for compensation increases for any employee subject to the provisions of this item are based on an annual average $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent increase~~ and may be based on performance.

(4) Effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after July first of the current fiscal year, agency heads not covered by the Agency Head Salary Commission, shall receive an annualized base pay increase of $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~.

(5) With respect to local health care providers, compensation increases shall be $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~ effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after July first of the current fiscal year. School Bus Driver salary and fringe funding to school districts shall be increased by $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~.

(6) Effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after July first of the current fiscal year, the Chief Justice and other judicial officers shall receive an annualized base pay increase of $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~.

(7) Effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after July first of the current fiscal year, county auditors and county treasurers shall receive an annualized base pay increase of $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~.

For Fiscal Year ~~2022-23~~ 2023-24, the Executive Budget Office is directed to review Executive Branch agencies to determine whether their budgets warrant an other fund authorization increase due to the $3,000 for FTEs making $83,000 and under ~~three percent~~ compensation increase for all full-time employees. If so warranted, the Executive Budget Office shall work with the Office of the Comptroller General to increase such authorization for the affected agencies.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 2023

The Department of Administration shall allocate associated compensation increases for retirement employer contributions based on the retirement rate of the retirement system in which individual employees participate.

The Executive Director of the State Fiscal Accountability Authority is authorized to use excess appropriations for the current fiscal year designated for statewide employer contributions for other statewide purposes. At the discretion of the Executive Director of the State Fiscal Accountability Authority, such action may be considered a permanent transfer into the receiving agency's base budget.

Funds appropriated in Part IA, F300, Section 106, Statewide Employee Benefits may be carried forward from the prior fiscal year into the current fiscal year. /

Rep. MAGNUSON explained the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. CASKEY raised the Point of Order that Amendment No. 55 appropriated more than one million dollars and did not explain from where that money would come.

Rep. MAGNUSON stated that the transfer of money was contained in the amendment. Amendment No. 55 would increase salaries for state employees making less than $83,000 and would not give a pay raise to other state employees. He stated that the revenue balance would increase by almost $13,000,000.

The SPEAKER stated that Amendment No. 55 complied with the House Rule under Rule 5.3.B and overruled the Point of Order.

Rep. MAGNUSON continued speaking.

Rep. MAGNUSON spoke in favor of the amendment.

Rep. OTT spoke against the amendment.

/ (GP: Family Planning Funds) The Department of Health and Human Services may not accept federal funds for family planning. None of the state funds appropriated for family planning may be expended to directly or indirectly subsidize abortion services or procedures or administrative functions and none of the funds appropriated herein may be paid or granted to an organization that provides abortion services. An otherwise qualified organization may not be disqualified from receipt of these funds because of its affiliation with an organization that provides abortion services, provided that the affiliated organization that provides abortion services is independent of the qualified organization. An independent affiliate that provides abortion services must be seperately incorporated from any organization that recieves these funds. An organization that provides abortion services where the life of the mother is at risk and the termination of the pregnancy is incidental to the lifesaving intervention is excepted from the above restriction on state family planning funds and may receive state family planning funds, provided that the physician shall act in accordance with the standard of care to preserve both the life of the mother and the life of the pre-born child. /

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. CASKEY raised the Point of Order under Rule 1.2 that Rep. MAGNUSON's remarks were not germane to the debate of Amendment No. 70.

The SPEAKER overruled the Point of Order. He stated that the Rule required that Members confine themselves to the question under consideration, but he also stated that the Body must give some leeway to the discussion to allow Members to relay their thoughts on issues. He stated that Rep. MAGNUSON must make sure his comments were relevant to the amendment under debate but that he was overruling the Point of Order at this time.

Rep. MAGNUSON spoke in favor of the amendment.

The amendment was then rejected by a division vote of 23 to 80.

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 71 (Doc Name h:\legwork\house\amend\h-wm\008\policing state agency waste.docx), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, Section 117, GENERAL PROVISIONS, page 533, after line 2, by adding an appropriately numbered proviso to read:

/ (GP: Agency Study Of Budget Reductions And Waste), which was tabled: Of The Funds Appropriated, Each State Agency Shall Conduct A Study On How To Reduce Their Annual Budgets By Eliminating Waste, Duplication, Failed Or Ineffective Projects, And Fraud Or Misuse Of Taxpayer Funds. The Study Must Identify Possible Reductions Of No Less Than 5% Of The Total Amount Appropriated To That Agency For This Fiscal Year. Each Agency Must Report The Results Of This Study To The General Assembly And To The Governor By December 1, 2023./

(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Malachi 1:1-2: "The word of the Lord to Israel by Malachi. I have loved you, says the Lord."

Let us pray. O Lord, You have shown great kindness and honored us with the call to do the very best for the people of South Carolina. Continue to give these folks the energy to continue the work before them. Grant them Your grace. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Bless and keep our first responders and defenders of freedom in Your loving care. Remember our men and women who serve and give of their very lives for the safety of our Nation. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Proverbs 16:24: “Gracious words are a honey cone, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.”

Let us pray. Lord God, You have called these women and men to work for the people of South Carolina. Guide them in the way You have called them. Bless and keep our defenders of freedom and first responders safe. Guide these men and women to do the right thing for the right reason. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who make this great cause worthwhile. Continue Your blessings on our service men and women as they give their time and their effort to keep our Nation free and safe. Heal the wounds, those seen and those unseen, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

STATEMENT BY REP. G. M. SMITH

Rep. G. M. SMITH made a statement relative to the domestic mass shooting in Sumter County.

I wanted to take a moment today to acknowledge a recent tragedy in my district. One week ago, on Tuesday March 21, we lost five of our own in a horrific domestic mass shooting. This included a beloved member of our military community, as well as three children. This tragedy, seemingly a senseless act of the ultimate violence, has shaken our community in Sumter. The loss, especially to the surviving family, is incomprehensible. My heart goes out to them, and I have been thinking of and praying for them every day since last week. While our community grapples with this loss, I wanted to ask you all to continue to keep us in your prayers.

Please join me in praying for the victims, the family, our law enforcement and first responders who have been on the scene since, and our larger community in dealing with this loss. As we mourn this loss, I know that our Sumter community is tight-knit, strong, and a proud military community. I know we will lean on each other during this trying time.

Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a moment of silence as we remember these victims and pray for healing in our community. Thank you.

Rep. G. Murrell Smith

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for Aayden Holliday-Slacks, Aason Holliday-Slacks, Ava Holliday, and Command Sergeant Major Carlos Evans and their families.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer Robert "Bob" Barrett.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for the victims of the Nashville Covenant School shooting.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following was received:

Columbia, S.C., Wednesday, March 22, 2023

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

The Senate respectfully informs your Honorable Body that it has overridden the Veto by the Governor on R. 58, S. 478 by a vote of 42 to 0.

(R. 5, S. 478) -- Senator Gambrell: AN ACT TO AMEND ACT 549 OF 1973, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE BROADWAY WATER AND SEWERAGE DISTRICT, SO AS TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF THE BROADWAYWATER AND SEWERAGE DISTRICT BOARD FROM NINE TO SEVEN.

Very respectfully,
President

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 2023

R. 5, S. 478--ORDERED PRINTED IN THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER ordered the following Veto printed in the Journal:

State of South Carolina
Office of the Governor

March 20, 2023
The Honorable Thomas C. Alexander
President of the Senate
State House, Second Floor
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I am hereby vetoing and returning without my approval R-5, S. 478, which seeks to amend Act No. 549 of 1973 so as to reduce the number of members of the Board of Directors of the Broadway Water and Sewerage District of Anderson County (“District”)* from nine to seven. Although I appreciate the well-intentioned effort to address this local matter, because the manner in which S. 478 attempts to do so ultimately conflicts with the constitution, I am compelled to veto the bill.

Like several of my predecessors, I have been clear and consistent since the beginning of my administration that I will veto unconstitutional local or special legislation. The South Carolina Constitution expressly prohibits the General Assembly from enacting legislation “for a specific county” and “where a general law can be made applicable.” S.C. Const. art VIII, § 7; S.C. Const. art. III, § 34(IX). In the context of special purpose districts, the South Carolina Supreme Court has established that “a special purpose district limited to one county violates home rule.” Cnty. of Florence v. W. Florence Fire Dist., 422 S.C. 316, 322, 811 S.E.2d 770, 774 (2018). Although the ratification of article VIII, section 7 “did not dissolve pre-home rule special purpose districts,” the provision’s prohibition of single-county laws “does apply to legislation enacted post-home rule that concerns a special purpose district created prior to the rule.” Id. (citation omitted); see also Spartanburg Sanitary Sewer Dist. v. City of Spartanburg, 283 S.C. 67, 80, 321 S.E.2d 258, 265 (1984) (“Article VIII, § 7 is not only applicable to special legislation creating a special purpose district, but also to special legislation dealing with special purpose districts created prior to the ratification of [a]rticle VIII or the amendment of prior special legislation.” (citation omitted)).

Here, S. 478 indicates that the District—established by Act No. 549 of 1973 shortly before the ratification of article VIII, section 7—is located entirely within Anderson County. See generally Op. Att’y Gen., 1990 WL 599181, at *1 (S.C.A.G. Apr. 23, 1990) (“A review of [Act No. 709 of 1990] and also section 2 of Act No. 549 of 1973 reveals that apparently the entire district is located within Anderson County.”). As a result, “the General Assembly can modify legislation regarding special purpose districts only through the enactment of general law.” Spartanburg Sanitary Sewer Dist., 283 S.C. at 81, 321 S.E.2d at 266; cf. S.C. Code Ann. § 6-11- 335 (establishing a process to add members to the governing body of a special purpose district). Accordingly, while I do not doubt that this bill is intended to address an important local concern, I must veto S. 478 because the measure amounts to unconstitutional local, or special, legislation.

For the foregoing reasons, I am respectfully vetoing R-5, S. 478 and returning the same without my signature.

Yours very truly,
Henry McMaster

The Committee on Education and Public Works proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4060 (LC-4060.WAB0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 59-1-485 and inserting:

Section 59-1-485. Recognizing that a vibrant workforce is critical to sustaining and growing the economy of this State by servicing existing industry and attracting new industry, the State of South Carolina must endeavor to increase the number of South Carolinians who are ready and able to fill jobs demanded by a dynamic and evolving economy to promote a statewide culture of excellence in education. To achieve this purpose, the State of South Carolina establishes a minimum overall statewide workforce readiness goal of at least sixty percent of all working-aged South Carolinians having a postsecondary degree or recognized industry credentials before the year 2030 unless a higher goal is established in the comprehensive statewide education and workforce development plan. This goal is consistent with all students graduating and having the knowledge, skills, and characteristics contained in the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate. The General Assembly is encouraged to reexamine and revise this goal on an ongoing basis as needed. The Commission on Higher Education must establish strategic timelines and milestones in the Commission's Public Agenda to:

(1) increase the number of students who obtain degrees and credentials in the STEM disciplines;

(2) advance training and careers in STEM fields; and

(3) expand the STEM-capable workforce.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 2.A., by striking Section 59-29-245(B)(2) and inserting:

(2) Based upon the policies and guidelines developed pursuant to subitem (b), the department shall produce online documents to help guidance counselors and administrators explain the benefits of the courses to students, parents, and guardians. The documents shall also be made available to the public.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 5, by striking Section 59-59-210(D) (1) and (2) and inserting:

~~—(D) The Commission on Higher Education shall report annually to the Coordinating Council for Workforce Development regarding the committee's progress.~~ (1) The purpose of this section is to provide seamless pathways to prepare students for the move from high school directly into public institutions of higher learning and independent institutions of higher learning by creating a uniform system of dual enrollment college courses offered to high school students by public two-year and four-year institutions of higher learning and participating independent institutions of higher learning beginning in the 2024-2025 School Year. Implementing agencies shall collect and share postsecondary and high school data to facilitate the purposes of this section. In terms of content and rigor, these dual enrollment college courses must be the equivalent of courses offered at public institutions of higher learning and independent institutions of higher learning to their students and must be taught by appropriately credentialed faculty.

(2)(a) Articulation agreements between school districts and public institutions of higher learning and independent institutions of higher learning to provide dual enrollment college courses offered to high school students must make such dual enrollment opportunities available to all students in grades ten, eleven, and twelve beginning with the 2024-2025 School Year; provided:

(i) for course sections in four-year institutions and two-year regional campuses of the University of South Carolina, a student must have at least a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 grading scale and the recommendation of the principal of his high school or the designee of his principal; and

(ii) for course selections in technical colleges, a student must meet the same requirements for particular courses as other students who attend the colleges and must have the recommendation of the principal of his high school, the designee of his principal, or the designee of the governing school association.

(b) The Lottery Tuition Assistance Program must be available to dual enrollment students in grades ten, eleven, and twelve who are enrolled in public two-year regional campuses and technical colleges.

(c) To effectuate the purposes established in this subsection, the Commission on Higher Education shall convene the Advisory Committee on Academic Programs before September 1, 2023, to develop a statewide secondary to postsecondary articulation agreement among all school districts and all public institutions of higher learning and participating independent institutions of higher learning. The advisory committee must consist of representatives from:

(i) the research institutions, four-year comprehensive teaching institutions, independent institutions of higher learning, two-year regional campuses, and technical colleges;

(ii) the State Department of Education; and

(iii) district curriculum coordinators, guidance personnel, and career and technical education directors.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 5, by striking Section 59-59-210(D)(3) and inserting:

(3) Before July 1, 2024, the Advisory Committee on Academic Programs shall make recommendations to the Commission on Higher Education regarding coursework that is acceptable statewide for dual enrollment to be accepted in transfer within a related course of study. The commission shall establish related requirements that two-year and four-year public institutions of higher learning and participating independent institutions of higher learning as defined by Section 59-113-50 must satisfy to offer dual enrollment coursework and award credit toward appropriate degrees and/or credentials for this coursework.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 5, by striking Section 59-59-210~~(D)~~(6) and inserting:

(6) Effective July 1, 2024, public institutions of higher learning, participating independent institutions of higher learning and public school districts may not enter individual articulation agreements. Such articulation agreements entered before July 1, 2024, are void, but coursework completed by students pursuant to those agreements must be considered acceptable for college credit.

(B)(1) The Commission on Higher Education shall work in consultation with the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education and the public institutions of higher learning to implement policies to guarantee students who have earned an associate of arts (AA) degree or an associate of science (AS) degree from a public two-year institution of higher learning shall receive a minimum of sixty transfer credit hours at a public four-year institution of higher learning and must be given junior academic standing at the institution.

(2) Graduates covered under this subsection are defined as students who have:

(a) earned an AA degree or an AS degree from one of the public two-year institutions of higher learning;

(b) earned a grade of “C” or better in each course applicable to the AA degree or AS degree; and

(c) expressed the intent to transfer to a public four-year institution of higher learning.

(3) A graduate of a public two-year institution of higher learning must be granted admission to the public four-year institution provided the graduate meets the admissions requirements of the four-year institution and, if applicable, specific programs, and may expect the following:

(a) students who have completed an AA degree or an AS degree will enter the public four-year institution with junior academic standing and will have satisfied the public four-year institution’s general education requirements;

(b) all transfer courses that are accepted by the public four-year institution will be applied to the attainment of the baccalaureate degree as appropriate to the student’s major;

(c) all transfer students shall meet specific admission

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 2023

requirements for their desired major and shall take seminar courses at the junior level or higher; and

(d) institutions may have institution-specific degree requirements that all students, including transfer, must complete.

(4) Each public four-year institution of higher learning shall facilitate a reverse transfer option for public two-year institution of higher learning students who enroll in their institution without completing an AA degree or an AS degree. Upon successful completion of coursework and hours at the public four-year institution, credits earned at the institution may be transferred back to the originating public two-year institution of higher learning and applied toward an associate degree. Course prerequisites and minimum credit requirements for awarding degrees must still apply.

(5) The provisions of this subsection must be implemented before April 30, 2024.

(C) For purposes of this section:

(a) “independent institution of higher learning” has the same meaning as found in Section 59-113-50 and applies only to such institutions in this State; and

(b) “public institution of higher learning” has the same meaning as found in Section 59-103-5(2) and applies only to such institutions in this State.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 6, by striking Section 41-1-140 and inserting:

Section 41-1-140. Beginning July 1, 2025, the Department of Employment and Workforce shall maintain and provide online access to information regarding the economic value of college majors. In addition to showing the economic value of each college major offered in this State, the department also shall compare bachelor’s degree earned to job availability. The information must be available at no cost to the public. The availability of the information must be communicated to the State Department of Education and each public school district in the State. The department may expand its report to include associate degrees, master’s degrees, and doctoral degrees.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 107:6: "Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress."

Let us pray. Blessings and glory and honor be with these Representatives and Staff as they continue the work of the people of South Carolina. Come Holy Spirit, give these women and men the courage to bear witness to the wonderful things You have created. You have done marvelous things for these people. Look in favor upon our first responders and defenders of freedom. Let Your light shine upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in these Halls of Government. Protect them from evil. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

White, Lawson, Hardee and Long: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 37-1-102, RELATING TO THE PURPOSES OF THE CONSUMER PROTECTION CODE, SO AS TO INCLUDE THE PROMOTION OF EDUCATION FOR CONSUMERS, BEST PRACTICES FOR BUSINESSES, AND TO MEDIATE COMPLAINTS; BY AMENDING SECTION 37-6-106, RELATING TO INVESTIGATORY POWERS OF THE ADMINISTRATOR, SO AS TO REQUIRE THE PRESENTATION OF PROBABLE CAUSE BEFORE BEGINNING AN INVESTIGATION; BY AMENDING SECTION 37-6-108, RELATING TO ENFORCEMENT ORDERS OF THE ADMINISTRATOR, SO AS TO REQUIRE CERTAIN INFORMATION BE PROVIDED BEFORE A CEASE AND DESIST IS ISSUED TO A BUSINESS; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 37-2-307, RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE SALES CONTRACT CLOSING FEES, SO AS TO REQUIRE THE CLOSING FEE TO BE PROMINENTLY DISPLAYED WITH THE ADVERTISED PRICE.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3952 (LC-3952.DG0006H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, and 4 and inserting:

SECTION X. Section 37-2-307 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 37-2-307. ~~(A)(1) Every motor vehicle dealer charging closing fees on a motor vehicle sales contract shall pay a one time registration fee of ten dollars during each state fiscal year before January thirty first to the Department of Consumer Affairs. The department shall set the fee annually in an amount not to exceed twenty five dollars.~~

~~—(2) The closing fee must be included in the advertised price of the motor vehicle, disclosed on the sales contract, and displayed in a conspicuous location in the motor vehicle dealership.~~

~~—(B) A~~ As used in this section:

(1) “Closing fee” is defined as means a fee charged for recovery of a motor vehicle dealer’s actual costs for all administrative and financial work needed to transfer and deliver the motor vehicle to the consumer, person, or entity including, but not limited to, compliance with all state, federal, and lender requirements, preparation and retrieval of documents, protection of the private personal information of the consumer, records retention, and storage costs;

(2) “Dealer” means a “motor vehicle dealer” as defined in

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

Section 56-15-10; and

(3) "Department" means the South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs.

(B)(1) Every dealer charging closing fees in a motor vehicle sale or lease transaction shall pay a filing fee of ten dollars to the department each time the dealer provides notice of a new closing fee amount to the department. The department shall set the filing fee annually in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

(2) The closing fee must be disclosed on the motor vehicle sale or lease contract, displayed in a conspicuous location in the motor vehicle dealership, and clearly and conspicuously disclosed in any advertisement of a specific motor vehicle for sale or lease.

(C)(1) Prior to charging a closing fee, a ~~motor vehicle~~ dealer shall provide written notice to the department of Consumer Affairs of the maximum amount of a the closing fee the dealer intends to charge ~~on an annual basis~~.

(2) If the maximum amount of the proposed closing fee the dealer intends to charge is not more than two hundred twenty-five dollars per vehicle, the closing fee is deemed approved by the department and the dealer does meet and fulfill all reasonable requirements and criteria in compliance with this section. If the proposed closing fee exceeds two hundred twenty-five dollars, the department may review the amount of the closing fee for reasonableness using the criteria in item (3)(5) ~~if the maximum amount of the closing fee intended to be charged by a dealer in a vehicle transaction exceeds two hundred twenty five dollars per vehicle. The department shall not conduct a review of the amount of the closing fee for reasonableness when the maximum amount the dealer intends to charge in a vehicle transaction is not more than two hundred twenty five dollars per vehicle.~~

(3) If the department intends to conduct a formal review of a proposed closing fee, the department shall provide written notice to the ~~motor vehicle~~ dealer of the department's intention to review the proposed closing fee within ~~thirty fifteen~~ days of receiving the complete proposed closing fee notice. If the department determines that a proposed closing fee is not reasonable, the department must issue a written order detailing the department's findings within thirty days of receiving the complete proposed closing fee notice. If the department does not provide a ~~motor vehicle~~ the dealer with written notice of the department's ~~intention to review~~ approval of the proposed closing fee within thirty days of receiving the proposed closing fee notice, the ~~motor vehicle~~ dealer is authorized to charge the proposed closing fee. ~~If the department~~

~~determines that a proposed closing fee is not reasonable, the department shall issue a written order detailing the department's findings. The department may require the fee to be reduced or require the motor vehicle dealer to submit a new fee for review.~~

~~(4) The dealer is at all times authorized to submit a new closing fee that is equal to or less than two hundred twenty-five dollars per vehicle which is not subject to review. If the department finds that a proposed closing fee is not reasonable, the dealer may request a hearing in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act. During the pendency of the department's review period, a motor vehicle dealer or the pendency of any action before the Administrative Law Court, the dealer is authorized to charge a closing fee at an amount not to exceed the amount most recently on file and permitted to be charged by the department. If the department finds that a closing fee is not reasonable, the motor vehicle dealer may request a hearing in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act.~~

~~(2) If the maximum amount of the closing fee that the dealer intends to charge is not more than two hundred twenty-five dollars per vehicle, the closing fee is deemed approved by the department and the dealer does meet and fulfill all reasonableness requirements and criteria in compliance with the law and this section.~~

~~(3) In determining the reasonableness of a closing fee, the department shall allow the following items to be included in a reasonable closing fee:~~

~~(a) all administrative expenses;~~

~~(5)(a) In determining the reasonableness of a closing fee, the department must accept and allow all of the dealer's actual costs and expenses, including, but not limited to, employee compensation, information processing facilities cost, staff, supplies, and materials, and financial work needed to transfer the motor vehicle to the consumer and to procure the associated with the following closing and deliver activities:~~

~~(i) closing of the motor vehicle sale or lease transaction;~~

~~(b) all costs for administrative expenses, costs, staff, supplies, and materials necessary by including any associated loan or lease, and transferring title of the dealer motor vehicle to comply the consumer;~~

~~(ii) delivering the motor vehicle to the consumer;~~

~~(iii) complying with all state, federal, and lender requirements;~~

~~(c) all costs for administrative costs, staff, and materials needed for the preparation and retrieval of documents;~~

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

~~_____ (d) all costs for administrative costs, staff, supplies, and materials necessary for the protection of~~

~~_____ (iv) preparing, storing, and retrieving transaction documents; and~~

~~_____ (v) protecting the private personal information of the consumer; and~~

~~_____ (e) all costs for administrative costs, staff, supplies, and materials necessary for records retention and storage costs of such records.~~

_____ (b) Dealer costs must be calculated using generally accepted cost accounting principles for the preceding twelve-month period.

_____ (c) In determining the reasonableness of a closing fee, the department may compare a particular dealer's costs only with other similarly situated dealers.

(D) Whether the vehicle transaction is a credit sale, consumer lease, or cash transaction:

(1) notwithstanding another provision of law, a ~~motor vehicle~~ dealer who complies with this section and any regulation promulgated under it and who charges a closing fee is not engaging in any action which is arbitrary, in bad faith, unconscionable, an unfair or deceptive practice, or an unfair method of competition for purposes of Sections 56-15-30, ~~56-15-40~~, and ~~39-5-20~~ with regard to the charging of a closing fee and may lawfully charge a closing fee;

(2) a ~~motor vehicle~~ dealer may assert any defenses provided to a creditor pursuant to the provisions of this title; and

(3) a purchaser injured or damaged by an action of a ~~motor vehicle~~ dealer in violation of this section or any regulation promulgated thereunder, may assert the remedies available pursuant to the provisions of this title.

(E)(1) The department of ~~Consumer Affairs~~ shall administer and enforce the subject of motor vehicle dealer closing fees ~~including, but not as~~ limited to, by this section. The department ~~shall~~ may make and promulgate such rules and regulations relating to motor vehicle dealer closing fees to administer and enforce this section. The department shall have access to a ~~motor vehicle dealer's books, accounts, and dealer's records, but only to the extent necessary to determine if the dealer is complying with the disclosure provisions of this section subsection (B)(2) and the accuracy of the dealer's cost and expense information in subsection (C)(5), and this financial information must be kept confidential and privileged from disclosure, except as otherwise provided by law.~~

~~(2) If the department determines that a closing fee is not reasonable, the department shall issue a written order detailing the department's findings. The department may require the fee to be reduced or require the motor vehicle dealer to submit a new fee for review. If the department finds that a closing fee is not reasonable, the motor vehicle dealer may request a hearing in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act. In administering and enforcing this section, or for any other review or investigation of dealers, the department must:~~

~~_____ (a) promote education for consumers and best practices for dealers;~~

~~_____ (b) mediate complaints between a consumer and a dealer, whenever possible.~~

~~_____ (3) In administering and enforcing this section, and in any review or investigation of dealers, the department must:~~

~~_____ (a) have probable cause to believe, based on a consumer complaint or other credible evidence, that the dealer has violated a provision of this title;~~

~~_____ (b) prior to contacting the dealer's employees or visiting the dealer's business premises, present the dealer with written notice of any cause or complaint which necessitates any department review or investigation and any request for records necessary to conduct the review or investigation;~~

~~_____ (c) allow the dealer to cure any unintentional violation of this title within sixty days of notice from the department;~~

~~_____ (d) close its investigation into the complaint and pursue not further administrative action on it once the complaint has been cured.~~

~~_____ (4) A dealer substantially complies with the requirement of this section if the consumer receives a clear and prominent disclosure of the closing fee in the sale or lease transaction and was not misled by any other failure to comply with other requirements of this section.~~

~~_____ (5) A dealer may not be held liable in any action for a violation of this title if the dealer shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error.~~

(F) It is the intent of the General Assembly to authorize a motor vehicle dealer to charge a closing fee in compliance with this section and to protect a motor vehicle dealer from civil liability for charging a closing fee if the fee is charged in compliance with this title and any Department of Consumer Affairs regulation or administrative interpretation. It is further the intent to protect consumers by the

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3782 -- Reps. West, Yow, Jefferson, Ligon, Nutt, Anderson, Hardee, Bannister, Thayer, Blackwell and Oremus: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 58-12-300, RELATING TO DEFINITIONS, SO AS TO AMEND THE DEFINITION OF "VIDEO SERVICE".

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3782 (LC-3782.HA0007H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 1 and inserting:

SECTION X. Section 58-12-300(1), (6)(h), and (10) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(1)(a) "Cable service" is defined as set forth in 47 U.S.C. Section 522(6).

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(b) For purposes of Chapter 12, Title 58 only, “cable service” does not include any video programming accessed via a service that enables end users to access content, information, electronic mail, or other service offered over the Internet, including streaming video content, regardless of the provider of such Internet access services.

(h) any revenues from services provided over the network that are associated with or classified as noncable or nonvideo services under federal law, including, without limitation, revenues received from telecommunications services, information services, Internet access services, streaming services, directory or Internet advertising revenue (including, without limitation, yellow pages, white pages, banner advertisements, and electronic publishing advertising). Where the sale of any such noncable or nonvideo service is bundled with the sale of any cable or video service or services and sold for a single nonitemized price, the term “gross revenues” shall include only those revenues that are attributable to cable or video services based on the provider's books and records, such revenues to be allocated in a manner consistent with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles;

(10)(a) “Video service” means video programming services provided through wireline facilities located at least in part in the public rights-of-way without regard to delivery technology, including Internet protocol technology. This definition does not include any video programming provided by a commercial mobile service provider as defined in 47 U.S.C. Section 332(d), video programming provided via a cable service, or any video programming provided as part of, and accessed via, a service that enables end users to access content, information, electronic mail, or other services offered over the public Internet.

(b) For purposes of Chapter 12, Title 58 regarding a local franchise fee, “video service” also means video programming services provided by a video service provider through wireline facilities located at least in part in the public rights of way without regard to delivery technology, including Internet protocol technology and does not include any direct-to-home satellite services as defined in 47 U.S.C. Section 303(v), or streaming video content, regardless of the provider of such Internet access services.

SECTION X. Section 58-9-2200(2) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(2) “Retail telecommunications service” includes telecommunications services as defined in item (1) of this section but shall not include:

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(a) telecommunications services which are used as a component part of a telecommunications service, are integrated into a telecommunications service, or are otherwise resold by another provider to the ultimate retail purchaser who originates or terminates the end-to-end communication including, but not limited to, the following:

- (i) carrier access charges;
- (ii) right of access charges;
- (iii) interconnection charges paid by the providers of mobile telecommunications services or other telecommunications services;
- (iv) charges paid by cable service providers for the transmission by another telecommunications provider of video or other programming;
- (v) charges for the sale of unbundled network elements;
- (vi) charges for the use of intercompany facilities; and
- (vii) charges for services provided by shared, not-for-profit public safety radio systems approved by the FCC;

(b) information and data services including the storage of data or information for subsequent retrieval, the retrieval of data or information, or the processing, or reception and processing, of data or information intended to change its form or content;

(c) cable or video services that are subject to franchise fees;

(d) satellite television broadcast services;

(e) video programming accessed via a service that enables end users to access content, information, electronic mail, or other services offered over the Internet, including streaming video content, regardless of the provider of such Internet access services; provided, however, that this exception does not include Voice over Internet Protocol service. This item (e) only applies to Article 20, Chapter 9, Title 58 of the South Carolina Code of Laws.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE IN CHAIR

H. 3843--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3843 -- Reps. Erickson, Bradley, W. Newton, Hager, Ballentine, Elliott, Caskey, Wooten, Bannister, Herbkersman, Willis, M. M. Smith and Williams: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 59-63-25 SO AS TO PROVIDE AN OPEN ENROLLMENT OPTION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS; BY AMENDING SECTIONS 59-63-30 AND 59-63-32, RELATING TO REQUIREMENTS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL ENROLLMENT AND PENALTIES FOR PROVIDING FALSE INFORMATION, AND SECTION 59-63-480, RELATING TO ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOLS IN ADJACENT COUNTIES, ALL SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES; AND BY REPEALING SECTION 59-63-500 RELATING TO TRANSFER WITHOUT CONSENT OF SCHOOL DISTRICT OF RESIDENCE.

The Committee on Education and Public Works proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3843 (LC-3843.WAB0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 1 and inserting:

SECTION X. Article 1, Chapter 63, Title 59 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 59-63-25. (A) Beginning with the 2023-2024 School Year, each local board of trustees shall follow the policy and procedures established pursuant to this section for extending open enrollment opportunities that allow parents to apply for their child to enroll in any particular program or school.

(B) Using a template developed and provided by the Department of Education and approved by the State Board of Education, each local board of trustees shall develop and adopt an open enrollment policy based on its evaluation of available data reflecting student, school, district, and community needs. The board shall ensure that the policy developed and data used to develop the policy and related procedures are posted prominently on the district website, and the board shall provide the department with its policy in a web posting format.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(1) The open enrollment policy and process must:

(a) adhere to federal desegregation and other educational requirements;

(b) identify and describe the application requirements, timeline, and communication plan;

(c) allow parents to declare school preferences, including placement of siblings within the same school;

(d) describe lottery and wait list policies and an appeal process for adverse decisions;

(e) include the policies adopted by the board regarding capacity standards, standards of approval and denial, priorities of acceptance for enrollment, and transportation;

(f) include a disclosure of:

(i) whether the district will charge nonresident students a fee to cover costs associated with their enrollment that are not covered by federal or state funding. Such costs shall not exceed the local per pupil expenditure amount in the receiving school district;

(ii) itemized fees, including the amount of each fee, charged by the district to nonresident students to cover the costs associated with their enrollment that are not covered by federal and state funding; and

(iii) whether the district has a mitigation or fee waiver process, and a description of such process for any fees charged under this section; and

(g) include a component addressing public awareness of open enrollment opportunities, accessing data on the open enrollment capacity of a school, the district application process and timeline, and written procedures for notification of acceptance or denial of an application.

(2) In implementing the provisions of this section, a school district may, but is not required to:

(a) make alterations in the structure of a requested school or to the arrangement or function of rooms within a requested school;

(b) establish and offer any particular program in a school if such program is not currently offered in the school;

(c) alter or waive any established eligibility criteria for participation in a particular program, including age requirements, course prerequisites, and required levels of performance;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(d) expand the capacity of a program or school for the purpose of accommodating increased demand for open enrollment opportunities so long as the expansion does not result in exceeding State Board of Education regulations concerning professional personnel workload, including maximum student-teacher ratios and maximum daily teaching loads;

(e) provide transportation to a student accepted pursuant to this section who is attending a school outside of the attendance zone of their residence; however, nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit the district from providing bus transportation on an approved route, from requesting state or federal funds for this purpose, or from entering into an agreement with another district to provide transportation; or

(f) have more than one open enrollment application deadline for intra-district applications, or for inter-district applications. Applications shall be accepted at least once per school year with the application deadline published for at least thirty days. A district may establish one or more subsequent deadlines as may be reasonable and necessary and in conformance with this section.

(3) In complying with this section, a school district is not required to transfer local funds for a student enrolling in a nonresident school district.

(4) The State Board of Education through the State Superintendent of Education shall establish a standard inter-district open enrollment timeline for parents and districts to follow.

(C)(1) In implementing the provisions of this section, a student who meets one or more of the following criteria must not be displaced by a student transferring from outside the attendance zone:

(a) currently resides in the attendance zone of a school;

(b) qualifies to attend a school within the attendance zone pursuant to Section 59-63-30(c), 59-63-31, 59-63-425, or 59-63-550; or

(c) is a returning student who continues to meet the requirements of the program or school.

(2) In the assignment of students for enrollment opportunities remaining after students assigned pursuant to item (1), enrollment priority shall be given as follows, unless and until a district has a policy in place in the school year prior to implementation of this section that is revised to conform pursuant to subsection (G):

(a) first, to the siblings of students residing in the same household already enrolled in the school, provided that any siblings seeking priority under this subitem meet the requirements of the program or school;

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(b) second, to students who meet the requirements of the program or school and who seek to attend the designated school in the district's feeder pattern; and

(c) third, to students whose parent or legal guardian is assigned to the school as his primary place of employment, with any remaining spaces being filled pursuant to a lottery procedure:

(i) for intra-district open enrollment applicants, then

(ii) if any remaining, for inter-district open enrollment applicants.

(3) The policies must not have the purpose or effect of causing racial segregation in a school or the school district.

(4) Denial of permission to enroll in a particular program or school may only be provided in the following situations:

(a) there is a documented lack of capacity in the school, level, or program requested, in which case priority must be given to a student who currently resides in the attendance zone of a school;

(b) the school requested does not offer a particular program requested;

(c) the pupil does not meet the established eligibility criteria for participation in a particular program, including age requirements, course prerequisites, and required levels of performance;

(d) a desegregation plan is in effect for the school district and the denial is necessary to enable compliance with the desegregation plan;

(e) the student is subject to provisions in Section 59 63 210 or Section 59 63 217; or

(f) any combination of subitems (a) through (e).

(5) A school or district receiving an application request for enrollment from a student pursuant to this section and district policy shall respond with a written decision as prescribed by established and approved school or district processes, which must be publicized throughout the district and featured prominently on the district's website.

(a) If a request is denied, the written decision must cite the specific reasons for the denial and include notice of the opportunity for the parent to appeal the denial pursuant to the district grievance policy and timeline developed and adopted pursuant to this section and in accordance with state statute.

(b) If a school or district fails to respond with its written decision as outlined in the school or district's established and approved process, the request shall be considered accepted and the student may enroll in the program or school, subject to other applicable laws regarding the enrollment of students in public schools.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(D) An open enrollment policy adopted by a local board of trustees shall:

(1) clearly distinguish intra-district policies from inter-district policies;

(2) be reviewed and updated periodically by the board, using the template provided by the department; and

(3) be submitted initially, and if amended, to the Department of Education.

(E) The department shall include all district open enrollment policies on its School Choice website portal and shall annually by October 1 provide an update to the State Board of Education, the Senate Education Committee Chair, and the House Education and Public Works Chair on the status, progress, innovations, evolving best practices, and challenges of implementing the program, including identifying districts which have not submitted a policy.

(F) A school district in the process of consolidation may apply to the State Board of Education for a waiver from compliance with some or all of the requirements of this section until the consolidation is completed. Thereafter, the provisions of this section must apply to the district pursuant to the manner and timeline specified in the waiver request.

(G) A district with a documented open enrollment procedure in place during the school year prior to implementation of this section is authorized to continue its open enrollment procedure upon approval of the State Board of Education. Districts shall provide annual updates on status of meeting the agreed upon timeline.

(H) Each school district must report to the department on or before October first each year:

(1) the number of student transfers enrolled in the school district;

(2) the number of transfer applications received; and

(3) the number of transfer applications denied and the reasons supporting the denial of any transfer application.

(I) The department must publish an annual report available to the public, on or before July 1st, on their website that includes for each school district:

(1) the number of transfer applicants seeking admission to or withdrawal from each school district in the school year, showing the potential net change;

(2) the number of rejected transfer applications in the school year;

(3) the reason or reasons why each rejected transfer application

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

was rejected in the school year; and

(4) the total number of students that either transferred into or out of each district, showing the actual net change.

SECTION X. Article 1, Chapter 63, Title 59 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 59-63-102. A public school may not contract with a private entity that supervises, sanctions, or regulates interscholastic competitions unless the entity allows students who attend a school outside of their attendance zone to participate in interscholastic competitions. For students currently enrolled in public schools, the entity shall allow a one-time transfer to a student in middle school who transfers after establishing eligibility in the seventh grade and in high school after establishing eligibility in the ninth grade to a school outside of their attendance zone to play without penalty.

Reps. YOW and OREMUS proposed the following Amendment No. 3 to H. 3843 (LC-3843.AHB0005H), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 59-63-100 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding a subsection to read:

(G) A public school may not contract with a private entity that supervises, sanctions, or regulates interscholastic competitions unless the entity requires that when a charter school member or private school member of the entity accepts a student from outside of the public high school attendance zone in which the charter school member or private school member, respectively, is located, the charter school member or private school member, respectively, is consequently required to compete at a classification level of competition that is one level above the classification level in which it otherwise would participate based on its enrollment. This item does not apply to a charter school member or private school member already competing at the highest classification level of competition.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

H. 3682--DEBATE ADJOURNED

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3682 -- Reps. Murphy, Wetmore, Bailey, Rose, Crawford, Brewer, Taylor, Hardee, Wooten, Pope, McDaniel, Hewitt, Bauer, Yow, J. E. Johnson, Willis, Ligon, Lawson, Robbins, Schuessler, Guest, Henegan, Williams, M. M. Smith and Vaughan: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 47-1-140, RELATING TO THE CARE OF ANIMALS AFTER THE ARREST OF THE OWNER, SO AS TO REMOVE PROVISIONS REGARDING A LIEN ON THE SEIZED ANIMAL; BY AMENDING SECTION 47-1-145, RELATING TO CUSTODY AND CARE OF ANIMALS AFTER THE ARREST OF THE OWNER, SO AS TO OUTLINE HEARING PROCEDURES FOR ORDERING THE COST OF CARE OF THE SEIZED ANIMALS; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 47-1-170, RELATING TO PENALTIES FOR ANIMAL CRUELTY, SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3682 (LC-3682.PH0003H):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 2 and inserting:

SECTION X. Section 47-1-145 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 47-1-145. (A)(1) ~~Any~~ person, organization, Notwithstanding another provision of law, any sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy constable, constable, law enforcement officer, or other entity that is awarded custody of an animal under the provisions of Section 47-1-150 or who has seized an animal because of ~~the arrest of a defendant for~~ a violation of any provision of Chapter 1, Title 47 or Chapter 27, Title 16 ~~and that provides services to the animal without compensation~~ may file a petition with ~~the~~ a court of competent jurisdiction to hear civil cases requesting that the defendant, if found guilty, be ordered the court to require the owner of the animal or animals to deposit funds at specified intervals in an amount sufficient to secure payment of all the reasonable expenses incurred by the custodian in caring for and providing for the animal anticipated costs of the seizure and care of the animals pending the disposition of the litigation. In the absence of a conviction, the county or municipality making the arrest shall pay the reasonable expenses of the custodian. For purposes of this section, "court" refers to municipal or magistrates court, and "reasonable expenses" includes the cost of providing food, water, shelter, and care,

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

~~including medical care, but does not include extraordinary medical procedures.~~

~~—(B) The court shall, at the time of adjudication, determine the actual cost of care for the animal that the custodian incurred pursuant to subsection (A). Either party may demand that the trial be given priority over other cases.~~

~~—(C)(1) If the court makes a final determination of the charges or claims against the defendant in his favor, then the defendant may recover custody of his animal.~~

(2) If the defendant is found guilty, then the custodian of the animal may then determine if the animal is suitable for adoption or rescue and if adoption or rescue can be arranged for the animal. The animal may not be adopted by the defendant or by any person residing in the defendant's household if the defendant was found guilty. If no adoption or rescue can be arranged after the forfeiture or if the animal is unsuitable for adoption or rescue, then the custodian shall humanely euthanize the animal.

~~—(D) Within thirty days of an animal's impoundment, the animal's custodian must provide a good faith estimate, pursuant to subsection (A), of the daily custodial cost of the impounded animal. Upon receipt of the good faith estimate, the court shall then issue a notice to the defendant about his impounded animal that includes:~~

~~—(1) an estimate of the daily custodial costs required to care for the animal;~~

~~—(2) a statement that the defendant, if found guilty, shall be required to pay for the animal's care during impoundment; and~~

(3) ~~a statement that the defendant, at~~At any time prior to final adjudication, the owner has the right to forfeit ownership of the animal and avoid all future custodial costs related to the animal's care but not costs already accrued, beginning with the date of the seizure.

(B)(1) Every petition filed pursuant to subsection (A) shall contain a description of the time, place, and circumstances of the seizure, the legal authority for the seizure, and the name and address of the owner of the animal or animals seized.

(2) Any sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy state constable, constable, law enforcement officer shall personally serve written process of the petition on the owner of the animal or animals. If the officer is unable to personally serve written process of the petition on the owner of the animal or animals within thirty days of the filing of the petition, the officers shall, within ten days thereafter, post a copy of the petition on the door of the residence of the owner or in another conspicuous place at the location where the animal or animals were seized.

(C)(1) Upon the court's receipt of return of process of the petition on the owner, the court shall set a hearing on the petition to determine the need to care for and provide for the animal or animals pending the final disposition of the animal or animals. The hearing shall be conducted no less than ten business days and no more than fifteen business days after the court's receipt of return of service of process of the petition on the owner. Any sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy state constable, constable, or other law enforcement officer is authorized to serve written notice on the owner of the date, time, and location of the hearing. If no name and address for the owner are set forth in the petition, then such notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the location where the animal or animals were seized.

(2) The scope of the hearing is limited to whether the seizure of the animal or animals was authorized. Upon such a showing, the court shall require payment into the registry of the court of an amount sufficient to cover all costs of seizure and care, as determined by the court, for a period beginning as of the date of seizure and ending thirty days after the date of the order. Neither the result of a hearing provided for under this section nor a statement of an owner made at any such hearing shall be admissible in any criminal prosecution related to the seizure of the animal or animals.

(3) The owner shall be ordered to deposit an amount equal to the portion of the original deposit amount attributable to the first thirty days after the date of the initial order and every thirty days thereafter until the owner relinquishes the animal or animals or until the final disposition of the animal or animals. If the required funds are not deposited within five days of the original order setting the amount of funds, or within five days after the expiration of each applicable subsequent thirty-day period, then the animal or animals shall be forfeited to the petitioning agency by operation of law and may be disposed of via transfer to another person or entity capable of providing care or other humane disposition.

(4) The court may correct, alter, or otherwise adjust the owner's thirty-day obligation of payment upon a motion made by the owner or the petitioning agency at least five days before the expiration date of the then current thirty-day payment period. The hearing shall be held within ten days of service of the motion on the opposing party, and any adjustment to the thirty-day payment amount shall become effective five days after the court orders, or refuses to order, an adjustment.

(D)(1) Upon the deposit of funds with the court in accordance with this section, the entity incurring the costs of care may immediately begin to draw from those funds for payment of the actual costs incurred in keeping and caring for the animal or animals from the date of seizure to the date of the final disposition of the underlying criminal action regarding the owner and the animal or animals.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(2) Upon final disposition of the animal or animals, remaining funds deposited with the court shall be refunded to the owner.

(E) The remedy provided for in this section is in addition to any other remedy provided by law.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

ABSTENTION FROM VOTING

March 29, 2023
The Honorable Charles Reid
Clerk of the South Carolina House of Representatives
213 Blatt Bldg.
Columbia, SC 29201

Dear Charles Reid,

I am notifying you in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. Section 8-13-700 of the SC Code, I hereby recuse myself from voting on H. 3951, regarding enacting the "Working Agricultural Lands Preservation Act" by adding Chapter 57 to Title 46 so as to define terms, establish a committee, and outline program criteria, among other things.

I will abstain from this vote because of a potential conflict of interest, as an economic interest of myself and the business with which I am associated may be affected. Please note this in the House Journal for March 29, 2023.

Sincerely,
Rep. Thomas F. Harnett, Jr.

H. 3682--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3682 -- Reps. Murphy, Wetmore, Bailey, Rose, Crawford, Brewer, Taylor, Hardee, Wooten, Pope, McDaniel, Hewitt, Bauer, Yow, J. E. Johnson, Willis, Ligon, Lawson, Robbins, Schuessler, Guest, Henegan, Williams, M. M. Smith and Vaughan: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 47-1-140, RELATING TO THE CARE OF ANIMALS AFTER THE ARREST OF THE OWNER, SO AS TO REMOVE PROVISIONS REGARDING A LIEN ON THE SEIZED ANIMAL; BY AMENDING SECTION 47-1-145, RELATING TO CUSTODY AND CARE OF ANIMALS AFTER THE ARREST OF THE OWNER, SO AS TO OUTLINE HEARING PROCEDURES FOR ORDERING THE COST OF CARE OF THE SEIZED ANIMALS; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 47-1-170, RELATING TO PENALTIES FOR ANIMAL CRUELTY, SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3682 (LC-3682.PH0003H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 2 and inserting:

SECTION X. Section 47-1-145 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 47-1-145. (A)(1) ~~Any~~ person, organization, Notwithstanding another provision of law, any sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy constable, constable, law enforcement officer, or other entity that is awarded custody of an animal under the provisions of Section 47-1-150 or who has seized an animal because of ~~the arrest of a defendant for~~ a violation of any provision of Chapter 1, Title 47 or Chapter 27, Title 16 ~~and that provides services to the animal without compensation~~ may file a petition with ~~the~~ a court of competent jurisdiction to hear civil cases requesting that the defendant, if found guilty, be ordered the court to require the owner of the animal or animals to deposit funds at specified intervals in an amount sufficient to secure payment of all the reasonable expenses incurred by the custodian in caring for and providing for the animal anticipated costs of the seizure and care of the animals pending the disposition of the litigation. In the absence of a conviction, the county or municipality making the arrest shall pay the reasonable expenses of the custodian. For purposes of this section, "court" refers to municipal or magistrates court, and "reasonable expenses" includes the cost of providing food, water, shelter, and care,

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

~~including medical care, but does not include extraordinary medical procedures.~~

~~—(B) The court shall, at the time of adjudication, determine the actual cost of care for the animal that the custodian incurred pursuant to subsection (A). Either party may demand that the trial be given priority over other cases.~~

~~—(C)(1) If the court makes a final determination of the charges or claims against the defendant in his favor, then the defendant may recover custody of his animal.~~

(2) If the defendant is found guilty, then the custodian of the animal may then determine if the animal is suitable for adoption or rescue and if adoption or rescue can be arranged for the animal. The animal may not be adopted by the defendant or by any person residing in the defendant's household if the defendant was found guilty. If no adoption or rescue can be arranged after the forfeiture or if the animal is unsuitable for adoption or rescue, then the custodian shall humanely euthanize the animal.

~~—(D) Within thirty days of an animal's impoundment, the animal's custodian must provide a good faith estimate, pursuant to subsection (A), of the daily custodial cost of the impounded animal. Upon receipt of the good faith estimate, the court shall then issue a notice to the defendant about his impounded animal that includes:~~

~~—(1) an estimate of the daily custodial costs required to care for the animal;~~

~~—(2) a statement that the defendant, if found guilty, shall be required to pay for the animal's care during impoundment; and~~

(3) ~~a statement that the defendant, at~~At any time prior to final adjudication, the owner has the right to forfeit ownership of the animal and avoid all future custodial costs related to the animal's care but not costs already accrued, beginning with the date of the seizure.

(B)(1) Every petition filed pursuant to subsection (A) shall contain a description of the time, place, and circumstances of the seizure, the legal authority for the seizure, and the name and address of the owner of the animal or animals seized.

(2) Any sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy state constable, constable, law enforcement officer shall personally serve written process of the petition on the owner of the animal or animals. If the officer is unable to personally serve written process of the petition on the owner of the animal or animals within thirty days of the filing of the petition, the officers shall, within ten days thereafter, post a copy of the petition on the door of the residence of the owner or in another conspicuous place at the location where the animal or animals were seized.

(C)(1) Upon the court's receipt of return of process of the petition on the owner, the court shall set a hearing on the petition to determine the need to care for and provide for the animal or animals pending the final disposition of the animal or animals. The hearing shall be conducted no less than ten business days and no more than fifteen business days after the court's receipt of return of service of process of the petition on the owner. Any sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy state constable, constable, or other law enforcement officer is authorized to serve written notice on the owner of the date, time, and location of the hearing. If no name and address for the owner are set forth in the petition, then such notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the location where the animal or animals were seized.

(2) The scope of the hearing is limited to whether the seizure of the animal or animals was authorized. Upon such a showing, the court shall require payment into the registry of the court of an amount sufficient to cover all costs of seizure and care, as determined by the court, for a period beginning as of the date of seizure and ending thirty days after the date of the order. Neither the result of a hearing provided for under this section nor a statement of an owner made at any such hearing shall be admissible in any criminal prosecution related to the seizure of the animal or animals.

(3) The owner shall be ordered to deposit an amount equal to the portion of the original deposit amount attributable to the first thirty days after the date of the initial order and every thirty days thereafter until the owner relinquishes the animal or animals or until the final disposition of the animal or animals. If the required funds are not deposited within five days of the original order setting the amount of funds, or within five days after the expiration of each applicable subsequent thirty-day period, then the animal or animals shall be forfeited to the petitioning agency by operation of law and may be disposed of via transfer to another person or entity capable of providing care or other humane disposition.

(4) The court may correct, alter, or otherwise adjust the owner's thirty-day obligation of payment upon a motion made by the owner or the petitioning agency at least five days before the expiration date of the then current thirty-day payment period. The hearing shall be held within ten days of service of the motion on the opposing party, and any adjustment to the thirty-day payment amount shall become effective five days after the court orders, or refuses to order, an adjustment.

(D)(1) Upon the deposit of funds with the court in accordance with this section, the entity incurring the costs of care may immediately begin to draw from those funds for payment of the actual costs incurred in keeping and caring for the animal or animals from the date of seizure to the date of the final disposition of the underlying criminal action regarding the owner and the animal or animals.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

(2) Upon final disposition of the animal or animals, remaining funds deposited with the court shall be refunded to the owner.

(E) The remedy provided for in this section is in addition to any other remedy provided by law.

SECTION X. Article 3, Chapter 5, Title 7 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 7-5-115. (A) Only an elector registered as a member of a certified political party may vote in a partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum of the certified political party with which that elector is registered unless the certified political party has taken action to open its partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum to independent electors unaffiliated with a certified political party pursuant to subsection (D). In no event may an elector registered as a member of a certified political party vote in the partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum of a certified political party with which that elector is not registered.

(B) The State Election Commission shall assist the county entities charged by law with registering electors with creating and maintaining a list of all electors registered by party affiliation. The State Election Commission shall indicate in the state voter file what selection an elector makes. An elector must be registered as a member of a certified political party no later than the close of the candidate filing period for that election in order to vote in that party's primary or advisory referendum. The county entities shall allow electors to register by party by having an elector sign the following statement before a duly authorized election official overseeing the conduct of the partisan primary election:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a resident of South Carolina and a registered voter in this precinct. I further swear (or affirm) that I hereby choose to: (a) register as a member of a certified political party, specifically the _____ Party; or (b) register as an independent voter, unaffiliated with a certified political party."

The form to be signed by the elector may list specifically all of the certified political parties from which the elector may choose and must contain the option for the elector to register as an independent voter unaffiliated with a certified political party. In an instance where an elector fails, for whatever reason, to select membership in one of the certified political parties, that elector is deemed to have chosen to be registered as an independent voter unaffiliated with a certified political party.

(C) Prior to January 1, 2024, the entity charged by law with registering qualified electors shall contact the qualified electors of that county, by whatever method it determines to be appropriate, informing them of partisan primary voting procedures as provided in this section.

(D) The state executive committee of a certified political party may, by resolution adopted prior to the close of the candidate filing period for that primary, allow electors registered as independent voters unaffiliated with a certified political party to participate and vote in its partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum.

SECTION X. Section 7-5-110 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 7-5-110. ~~(A) No A person shall be allowed to~~ may not vote at any in a partisan primary election or a partisan advisory referendum unless he shall be is registered as herein a member of that political party as required by the provisions of this chapter unless the political party has taken action to open its partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum to independent electors unaffiliated with a certified political party pursuant to Section 7-5-115(D).

(B) The State Election Commission shall assist the county entities charged by law with registering electors with capturing the data and maintaining a list of all electors registered by party affiliation.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

SECTION X. Section 7-5-170 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 7-5-170. ~~(1)(A)~~ (A) Written application required. A person may not be registered to vote except upon written application or electronic application pursuant to Section 7-5-185, ~~which shall become~~ That application becomes a part of the permanent records of the board to which it is presented and ~~which~~ must be open to public inspection. However, the social security number contained in the application must not be open to public inspection.

~~(2)(B)~~ (B) Form of application. - The application must be on a form prescribed and provided by the executive director and shall contain the following information: name, sex, race, social security number, date of birth, residence address, mailing address, telephone number of the applicant, political party affiliation, if any and location of prior voter registration. The applicant ~~must~~ shall affirm that he is not under a court order declaring him mentally incompetent, confined in ~~any~~ a public prison, has never been convicted of a felony or offense against the election laws, or if previously convicted, that he has served his entire sentence, including probation and parole time, or has received a pardon for the conviction. Additionally, the applicant must take the following oath: "I, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am a citizen of the United States and that on the date of the next ensuing election, I will have attained the age of eighteen years and am a resident of South Carolina, this county, and of my precinct. I further swear (or affirm) that the present residence address listed ~~herein on my application~~ is my sole legal place of residence, that I claim no other place as my legal residence, and that, to my knowledge, I am neither registered nor intend to register to vote in another state or county. I further swear (or affirm) that I hereby choose to: (a) register as a member of a certified political party, specifically the Party; or (b) register as an independent voter, unaffiliated with a certified political party."

~~(C) Fraudulent Application.~~ ~~Any~~ An applicant convicted of fraudulently applying for registration is guilty of perjury and is subject to the penalty for that offense.

~~(3)(D)~~ (D) Date stamp voter registration applications. - The county board of voter registration and elections shall date stamp all voter registration applications delivered in person, electronically, or by mail as of the date received.

(E) Failure to select a party. The form to be signed by the elector may specifically list all of the certified political parties from which the elector may choose and must contain the option for the elector to register as an independent voter, unaffiliated with a certified political party. In an instance where an elector fails, for whatever reason, to select membership in one of the certified political parties, that elector must be deemed to have chosen to be registered as an independent voter, unaffiliated with a certified political party.

(4)(F) Administration of oaths. - ~~Any~~ A member of the county board of voter registration and elections, deputy registrar, or any registration clerk must be qualified to administer oaths in connection with the application.

(5)(G) Decisions on applications. - Any member of the county board of voter registration and elections, deputy registrar, or registration clerk may pass on the qualifications of the prospective voter. In case of a question of an applicant being refused registration, at least one member of the board shall pass on the qualifications of the voter. A concise statement of the reasons for the refusal must be written on the application.

SECTION X. Section 7-9-20 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 7-9-20. ~~(A) The qualifications~~ To qualify for membership in a certified political party ~~and for voting at a party primary election include the following: the applicant for membership, or voter, must be at least eighteen years of age or become so before the succeeding general election, and must be a registered elector and a citizen of the United States and of this State. A person may not vote in a primary unless he is a registered elector. The state convention of any political party, organization, or association in this State may add by party rules to the qualifications for membership in the party, organization, or association and for voting at the primary elections if the qualifications do not conflict with the provisions of this section or with the Constitution and laws of this State or of the United States. and to meet the criteria for voting in a~~ party's partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum, unless a certified political party has taken action to open its partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum to independent electors unaffiliated with a certified political party pursuant to the requirements of Section 7-5-115(D), the applicant for membership, or voter, must be:

(1) at least eighteen years of age or become so before the succeeding general election;

(2) a registered elector, a citizen of the United States and of this State; and

(3) registered as a member of a certified political party.

(B) A person may not vote in a partisan primary election unless he is a registered elector and a member of that party. The state convention of a political party, organization, or association in this State may add by party rules to the qualifications for membership in the party, organization, or association and for voting at the primary elections if the qualifications do not conflict with the provisions of this section or with the constitution and laws of this State or of the United States.

(C) The entity charged by law with conducting a primary shall allow an elector to change his political party affiliation by executing an affidavit no later than the close of the candidate filing period for that election. During that time, an elector may execute an affidavit declaring that he desires not to be affiliated with a political party. The choice to affiliate with a political party or remain independent and unaffiliated with a certified political party is valid until changed by the qualified elector pursuant to the provisions of this section. In an instance where an elector fails, for whatever reason, to select membership in one of the certified political parties, that elector must be deemed to have chosen to be registered as an independent voter, unaffiliated with a certified political party.

(D) When a qualified elector presents himself at a polling place to vote in a partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum, the entity charged by law with conducting the election or its representative shall require the qualified elector to sign an affidavit affirming that he is a member of the party conducting the primary. In the event the political party has taken action to open its partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum to independent electors unaffiliated with a certified political party pursuant to Section 7-5-115(D), the qualified elector shall be required to sign an affidavit affirming that he is an independent elector unaffiliated with a certified political party. If the qualified elector does not sign this affidavit, he may not vote in the partisan primary election or partisan advisory referendum.

SECTION X. Section 7-13-40 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 7-13-40. (A) In the event that a party nominates candidates by party primary, a party primary must be held by the party and conducted by the State Election Commission and the respective county boards of voter registration and elections on the second Tuesday in June of each general election year, and a second and third primary each two weeks successively thereafter, if necessary. Written certification of the names of all candidates to be placed on primary ballots must be made by the political party chairman, vice chairman, or secretary to the State Election Commission or the county board of voter registration and elections whichever is responsible under law for preparing the ballot, not later than twelve o'clock noon on April fifth, or if April fifth falls on a Saturday or Sunday, not later than twelve o'clock noon on the following

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023

Monday. Political parties nominating candidates by party primary must verify the qualifications of those candidates prior to certification to the appropriate election commission of the names of candidates to be placed on primary ballots. The written verification required by this section must contain a statement that each candidate certified meets, or will meet by the time of the general election, or as otherwise required by law, the qualifications for office for which he has filed. A political party must not certify any candidate who does not or will not by the time of the general election, or as otherwise required by law, meet the qualifications for the office for which the candidate has filed, and such candidate's name shall not be placed on a primary ballot. The filing fees for all candidates filing to run in all primaries, except municipal primaries, must be transmitted by the respective political parties to the State Election Commission and placed by the executive director of the commission in a special account designated for use in conducting primary elections and must be used for that purpose. The filing fee for each office is one percent of the total salary for the term of that office or one hundred dollars, whichever amount is greater.

(B) A political party may, by party rules not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this State or of the United States, require all persons who wish to appear on the ballot for the party's primary elections to be registered as affiliated with that political party pursuant to Section 7-5-115(D). Provided, a political party may not refuse to certify a candidate based on party affiliation who is registered as affiliated with that political party at the time of filing.

Amend the bill further, by striking SECTION 6 and inserting:

SECTION 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this act, in all primaries conducted before June 2024, an elector is permitted to vote if he has not signed the affidavit required by this act. After May 31, 2024, all political party primaries must be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this act. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

7-9-100(B) and inserting:

(B) The convention must be composed of no more than nine hundred and forty-three total delegates elected by the various county conventions. Each county is individually entitled to one delegate for each six thousand residents of the county, two delegates plus its pro rata share of eight hundred and fifty-one delegates, to be allocated by the state executive committee to each county by population according to the latest official United States Census, plus two additional members. If the pro-rata share for a county is less than one delegate, that number is rounded up to one delegate for a minimum total of three delegates per county. If a county has a fractional portion of population of at least three thousand residents above its last six thousand resident figure it is entitled to an additional delegate. A county convention may not elect more delegates than the number allocated pursuant to this section, and each delegate has one whole vote which may not be divided into any fraction thereof.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 107:15: “Let them thank the Lord for His steadfast love, for his wonderful works to mankind.”

Let us pray. Come O Lord and give us courage that these Representatives and staff continue to work for the people of South Carolina. Give them the courage of faithfulness and strength to endure all things thrown at them as they work for the good of the people. May You, O Lord, give them peace during the good times and bad times. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders. Grant them the grace to carry the duties handed to them. Keep us safe as we finish this week and travel safely to their homes. Remember our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. WEST moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Lester Brock, which was agreed to.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for the nine paratroopers killed in a helicopter crash in Ft. Campbell, Kentucky.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for all of the Vietnam Veterans.

Rep. ERICKSON proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4023 (LC-4023.WAB0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Chapter 152, Title 59 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 59-152-45. Beginning after the vacancy of the current Executive Director of First Steps for School Readiness, the Executive Director must be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Executive Director shall serve at the pleasure of the First Steps Board of Trustees.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 59-152-70(D) and inserting:

(D) To be designated a First Steps partnership, the local partnership must be a ~~private~~-nonprofit corporation organized under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 4, by striking Section 59-152-150(A) and inserting:

THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2023

(A) The Office of South Carolina First Steps to School Readiness shall develop and require local partnerships to adopt and implement a standard fiscal accountability system including, but not limited to, a uniform, standardized system of accounting, internal controls, payroll, fidelity bonding, chart of accounts, and contract management and monitoring. Additionally, the ~~accountability system shall require competitive bids for the purchase or procurement of goods and services of ten thousand dollars or more. A bid other than the lowest bid may be accepted by a majority vote of the partnership board if other considerations outweigh the cost factor; however, written justification must be filed with the Office of First Steps.~~ Office of First Steps shall develop procurement policies and procedures and obtain approval of the policies and procedures from the Office of State Procurement. Local partnerships shall adopt these policies and procedures for the purchase and procurement of goods and services. The Office of First Steps may contract with outside firms to develop and ensure implementation of this standard fiscal accountability system, and the Office of First Steps may inspect fiscal and program records of partnerships and developing partnerships to ensure their compliance with the required system. The Office of First Steps may contract with a state entity with existing means for developing contracts and disbursing funds in order to make use of the existing infrastructure, if it is efficient and not administratively burdensome to partnerships.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Genesis 9: "As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you."

Let us pray. God, help us care for all living creatures on earth. Provide each and everyone the need to help us feed those with food and drink to satisfy all living things. Guide and keep these Representatives, Staff, and all their families in Your loving care as they go into the weekend. Remember our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this place of law and power. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they protect us. Remember all of these, Your people. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 12:00 noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 96:4: "For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; He is to be revered above all gods."

Let us pray. Blessings and honor, glory and might be with these Representatives and Staff as they work for the betterment of the State. Keep our first responders and defenders of freedom safe as they care for us. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time and effort to make the system work. Grant us peace as we continue our duties. Remember our men and women who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE ordered it confirmed.

H. 3414--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3414 -- Reps. Wooten, Pope, Yow, M. M. Smith, Burns and Forrest: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 56-5-4445, RELATING TO THE RESTRICTIONS ON ELEVATING OR LOWERING MOTOR VEHICLES, SO AS TO PROHIBIT MOTOR VEHICLE MODIFICATIONS THAT RESULT IN THE MOTOR VEHICLES' FRONT FENDERS BEING RAISED FOUR OR MORE INCHES ABOVE OR BELOW THE HEIGHT OF THE REAR FENDERS, TO PROVIDE THE FORMULA FOR MEASURING THE HEIGHT OF THE FENDERS, AND TO PROVIDE PENALTIES.

Rep. WOOTEN proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3414 (LC-3414.CM0001H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 56-5-4445(B)(1) and inserting:

(B)(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to drive a passenger motor vehicle, including motor vehicles commonly referred to as pickup trucks, on the highways of this State if, by alteration of the suspension, frame, or chassis, the height of the front fender is raised or lowered four or more inches above or below the height of the rear fender. For the purposes of this subsection, the height of the fender shall be a vertical measurement from and perpendicular to the ground, through the centerline of the wheel, and to the bottom of the fender. As contained in this item, "fender" means the pressed and formed part mounted over the road wheels of a motor vehicle to reduce the splashing of mud, water, and similar substances.

H. 3555--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3555 -- Reps. G. M. Smith, Erickson, Crawford, Hewitt, Davis, T. Moore, McCravy, B. Newton, West, Mitchell, Yow, Carter, Hixon, Hiott, Oremus, Landing, W. Newton, Robbins, Brewer, Weeks, Taylor and Pope: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 63-7-1700, RELATING TO PERMANENCY PLANNING, SO AS TO MAKE CERTAIN CHANGES TO PROMOTE TIMELY PERMANENCE FOR CHILDREN IN THE CUSTODY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES; BY AMENDING SECTIONS 63-7-1710, 63-7-2530, AND 63-7-1660, RELATING TO TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS AND REMOVAL ACTIONS, SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 63-9-710, RELATING TO PETITIONS FOR ADOPTION, SO AS TO ADDRESS THE FILING OF ADOPTION PETITIONS FOR CHILDREN IN THE CUSTODY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3555 (LC-3555.VR0002H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 63-7-1700(E)(2) and inserting:

(2) If the child has been placed in a prospective adoptive home at the time of the completion of the hearing at which the court approves a permanent plan of termination of parental rights and adoption, the department may file a petition for adoption together with the petition for termination of parental rights; provided, however, the department must file the petition for adoption no later than thirty days after filing the petition for termination of parental rights.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 63-7-1700(E)(4) and inserting:

(4) (a) “~~thorough~~ Thorough adoption assessment” means conducting and documenting face-to-face interviews with the child, foster care providers, relatives, and other significant parties, including fictive kin; and.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 63-7-1700(G) and inserting:

(G) If after assessing the viability of adoption, the department demonstrates that termination of parental rights is not in the child's best interests, the court may award custody or legal guardianship, or both, to a suitable, fit, and willing relative, fictive kin, or nonrelative if the court finds this to be in the best interest of the child; however, a home study on the individual whom the department is recommending for custody of the child must be submitted to the court for consideration before custody or legal guardianship, or both, are awarded. The court may order a specified period of supervision and services not to exceed twelve months, and the court may authorize a period of visitation or trial placement prior to receiving a home study.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 4, by striking Section 63-7-1660(H)(1) and inserting:

(1) If the court removes custody of the child and there is a pending petition for termination of parental rights filed by the department, the department shall promptly exercise and document every reasonable effort to promote and expedite an adoptive placement and the adoption of the child, and the department must not delay adoption planning because of a pending termination of parental rights action or because of an upcoming permanency planning hearing.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Joshua 1:9: "I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Let us pray. Heavenly Father, thank You for Your guidance through scripture. Give us Your Spirit as we finish this week. Continue to provide us with Your blessings. Fill us with the Spirit of Your graciousness, compassion, mercy, and love so that others can see not just our restraint, but our love. Bless those who defend us. Take care of us as we remember the crucifixion and the resurrection. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

SENT TO THE SENATE

The following Bills were taken up, read the third time, and ordered sent to the Senate:

(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 12:00 noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from James 1:19: "You, must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger; for your anger does not produce God's righteousness."

Let us pray. We give You thanks and adoration for the many blessings You provide. Keep our first responders and defenders of freedom in Your loving care. Bless these women and men who carry the duties that are valuable in getting the work done for the benefit of all. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of the time and effort for the good of the people of South Carolina. Keep our men and women in the military safe in their duties. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our warriors who suffer for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, April 7, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

Timothy A. "Tim" McGinnis

Committee Staff:

Macey Webb, Esquire

MR. CHAIRMAN: We're convening the Commission and at this time I will recognize President Alexander.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I would move that we go into Executive Session pursuant to Code Section dealing with personal information.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor say aye. (Ayes are heard.) MR. Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. We are now going into Executive Session so anybody except these two (indicating) I guess you've got to leave. EXECUTIVE SESSION

MR. CHAIRMAN: We'll go ahead and get started this afternoon. Thanks for putting up with the short meeting we had. There was no action taken during the Executive Session we just had. At this time, I'd like to introduce the committee members to my right. President Alexander and Senator Scott, Senator Verdin, and Senator Harpootlian. On my left is Representative King, Representative McGinnis, Representative Rose and I am representative Whitmire I am the chairman from Oconee County. Macey Webb is our analyst and she will be handling all the leg work for us. At this time, I'll recognize Macey.

MS. WEBB: Hi, good afternoon. Just to clarify for the record for College of Charleston and SC State pertaining to the 1st Congressional District, which is what we were meeting about during Executive Session, just to clarify, under the law for the 1st Congressional District we are unfortunately not going to be able to screen those seats today. So, when those candidates had applied for the 1st Congressional District that have new been drawn out, they will continue to serve in their positions until we are able to reopen those seats and screen and put someone else in that position at that time. We will proceed with screening, just for everyone else. Just for the clarification for the record.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Sure. Come on up.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON:

MS. BURKE: Hi, I'm Beth Burke. You can probably hear me. I'm one of the 1st Congressional District candidates so I have you all here I'd like to ask, understand that I'll be able to --

MR. CHAIRMAN: I don't think your mic is on.

MS. BURKE: Okay. Thank you all for giving me just a moment to talk with you. I am Beth Burke. I'm serving in the 1st Congressional District, and I understand that I'll continue to run in my seat until you're able to reopen my seat and so others could run for it. Well, I have an opportunity to run for a seat that I now qualify for. I was living in the 1st Congressional District until the lines changed and now, I'm qualified for the 6th or an at-large seat. So, my question is willing another seat that I could run for be opened? That's all. If you know, and you may not know.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We don't know at this time; we'll get back with you.

MS. BURKE: All right, thank you so much, good luck today I hope y'all are out of here before 10:00 o'clock.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Hope so too.

MS. BURKE: And I can make carpool line, headed back to Charleston.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. First up for the College of Charleston screening will be the 1st Congressional District that was you. So now we'll go 2nd Congressional District, Derrick Williams. If you'll come up and let me -- if you'd raise your right hand and let me swear you in? DERRICK WILLIAMS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just state your name and give us a brief statement on why you're running.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, Derrick Williams. I live in Columbia, South Carolina. All right, can you hear me? I live in Columbia South, Carolina. I'm a 1990 grad of the College of Charleston, also graduated from honors college there. Married, have two wonderful daughters, have served on various boards but still serve on the alumni board now as the Past Alumni President for the College of Charleston until last May and happy to be here today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions from the Committee? Okay. Go ahead. I'll recognize Macey, she's got four questions for you.

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

MS. WEBB: Yes, and just so everyone's aware I'll ask these standards, you know, few questions to each candidate that comes forward today. So, for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Derrick Williams.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right and then can you please tell me the address that you live at?

MR. WILLIAMS: Sure. 3800 Trenholm Road, Columbia South Carolina 29206.

MS. WEBB: Thank you and is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MR. WILLIAMS: No, none that I'm aware of.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting your application, are there any changes that you feel the Commission needs to know about?

MR. WILLIAMS: One change and I believe I submitted a letter; I was previously employed at a law firm named Mickle and Bass. I started my own law firm on January 4th, it's now Williams and Roche. So, I get to pay even more taxes in all. But still I'm practicing here in the Columbia area.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Hearing none, what's the desire of the committee. You have a question?

SENATOR SCOTT: Motion for favor.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Motion for favor. All those in favor signify by saying aye. Do we need to raise our hands? (Ayes are heard.)

MS. WEBB: Well, you can say aye.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ayes have it. Congratulations.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right next up is -- find my place here. That's it. 3rd Congressional District Shawn Holland. You'll raise your right hand let me swear you in. SHAWN HOLLAND, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and give a brief statement why you're running.

MR. HOLLAND: All right. Shawn Holland from Anderson, South Carolina. I look back, it's been an honor to serve on this board for the last four years and I look forward to continue working with these folks behind me. I'm very fortunate to have the support of my family to do this, my wife and my family. I'm raising two boys, Beckett and Chapel. I've got home life support, very important. As long as work I have the support of my employees that allowed me to make our business down in Charleston, hop on conference calls and hold on and operate City Glass Company in downtown Anderson. It's a commercial glass company we operate about a hundred miles around Anderson, Oconee County, Greenville County, Anderson County. I'm very proud to be on this board. We've accomplished a bunch over the last four years under President Hsu's leadership and just very proud to be a part of it and I look forward to continuing to serve and thank you all for allowing me to be here.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And can you please state your name for the record?

MR. HOLLAND: Shawn Holland.

MS. WEBB: All right. And then where is the address that you live?

MR. HOLLAND: 2906 Dobbins Bridge Road, Anderson, South Carolina, 29626.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. HOLLAND: It is. I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. And since submitting your application are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to any members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. HOLLAND: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right and are there any changes to your application that you would like the commission to be aware of? MR. HOLLAND: No.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions for Mr. Holland? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Mr. Holland, you mentioned something that was -- that's very important. You said y'all have accomplished a lot under the president, which I'm very impressed with. Tell me a little bit about that four years and some of the things that make up lot that y'all have accomplished that you seem to be so excited about.

MR. HOLLAND: Well, we're excited to, one, bring president Hsu on board. You know, when we first -- some of us just when we first started as our first task in hiring a president and due diligence and committees and listen to the campus. And that was our first task, hiring President Hsu. And that was probably the number one thing. And then, you know, battling life with covid you know so we -- but we shared the number of calls how to operate, how to keep the students' best interests in mind, strategic plans, you know but we've -- we develop our students strategic plan under President Hsu with his vision and leadership. And our support, we're moving forward. It's kind of what Dabo says, the best is yet to come that's why I look forward to the next four years, you know. Kind of keep doing the right direction.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. HOLLAND: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: One -- and thank you for your service and your willingness to continue to serve and I see that you are a graduate of 2002. Since we -- I was just curious briefly, since being on the board what has been the biggest positive surprise or experience you had compared to when you were there on campus?

MR. HOLLAND: Good question. Just seeing life as an adult versus being a college student. You know, maybe realizing some things that I didn't realize when I was an 18, 20-year-old boy running around campus. Campus is -- it's beautiful and as a student you probably don't realize it, how beautiful it was. But definitely know, you know -- we got Patriots Point's baseball field, we got TD arena now. And we didn't have all that I went out of there, so you know, we -- it's great to see it grow.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I have a couple questions for you. What do you think you all have to do as a board to make students feel safe and welcomed on campus regardless of what their backgrounds may be?

MR. HOLLAND: Well, it's a constant communication. And it's a communication with our student affairs folks, it's having people on campus with programs that where we're allotting out and it's making sure these students know they've got someone to go to in a time of need.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: What are you all doing to help students who have gone through the covid pandemic that we've gone through and other things that we have faced in reference to mental health and their mental health well being?

MR. HOLLAND: We have an on-site therapist full time, Alicia Cadell in the student affairs department has constantly got her door open. And the constant communication with faculty and staff and in our incoming freshmen so along with tenured students.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: How do you -- how important is the diversity, equity and inclusion, something that we debated doing the budget, how important is that to exist on your campus and having a DEI officer on campus?

MR. HOLLAND: I -- it's very important and it's something that President Hsu and we take very seriously. You know, me having the baseball background I knew the importance of having a diverse baseball team from different spectrums of the world and things like that. I know the importance of that, you learn from them. You know, we got to -- Courtney Howard is our new DI, uh --

REPRESENTATIVE: DEI.

MR. HOLLAND: Yeah, sorry. On board with us. She's six months new so I know she's constantly working, relaying information to us. And its ongoing conversation and it will be.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you all take DEI training as board members and have conversations as board members like do like a retreat on it or what do you all --

MR. HOLLAND: I don't know if we had a retreat on it, but we did have some -- I have taken a course. And a lot of us did an on-site course after meeting.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Desire of the committee for approval. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. HOLLAND: Thank y'all.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Next is 4th Congressional District, Matthew Klein. Come on up and raise your right hand, let me swear you in MATTHEW C. KLEIN, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Would you state your name and a brief statement of why you'd like to serve -- continue serving on the board.

MR. KLEIN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Matthew Klein, and members of the Committee. I graduated from the College of Charleston and have benefitted immensely from the liberal arts education in my personal and professional life. My wife is also a graduate. I'm confident my academic background and business experience will help my fellow board members and provide a unique perspective. In the past, I've served on the advisory board for the center for entrepreneurship. And I've served as a guest lecturer for the classes in the college - - school of business, excuse me. And so, the combination of these past experiences has reinforced my commitment to serving on the board of trustees. Thank you.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Oh, yeah. She's got four questions.

MS. WEBB: Sorry. And just bear with me, this is just for clarification for the record and since it's been a while since we did these applications. Can you please state your name for the record?

MR. KLEIN: Matthew Klein.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. KLEIN: 116 Crescent Avenue in Greenville, South Carolina 29605.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. KLEIN: Four percent, yes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And have you made any new campaign contributions to any member since submitting your application that you're aware of? MR. KLEIN: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes with your application that you would like the Commission to know about?

MR. KLEIN: No changes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. KLEIN: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Now, questions. Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I notice you are a lecturer at Clemson; is that correct?

MR. KLEIN: That's correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And tell me about that, please.

MR. KLEIN: Sure. So, I have a doctorate from Georgia State University and I teach in the MBA program at Clemson University in downtown Greenville and I've been doing that for the past decade.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you have a background in -- you're a managing partner Red Rock Capital; is that correct?

MR. KLEIN: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, tell me about what it is you do? I'm sort of fascinated by this.

MR. KLEIN: Sure. After graduation from College of Charleston I was in the software industry and worked for Blackbaud and Benefit Focus, two software companies you're probably aware of. And then Red Rock Capital is another software company I have started with another individual here in South Carolina and we're basically a finance company that works with structured products.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What's a structured product?

MR. KLEIN: Tax liens and other types of investment vehicles.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Not that I understood any of that but thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: It's nice to know, though.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: It is, I'm just fascinated by these.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you for your willingness to serve. What has been your experience in being on the board that you want to share with us that makes your school so unique? I see that you've served on research authorities, advisory, pretty strong in the business community, a lecturer, a lot of things at the same time you were a professor at another university. Transfer some of one university behavior to the other. Tell me how that -- you made all that gel.

MR. KLEIN: Sure. I've never served on the board of trustees for the College of Charleston, just wanted to -- yeah.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, it's --

MR. KLEIN: Yeah, so this is new. I think there's a lot of cross-pollinations and best practices that can be shared across different boards. And so hopefully I can bring those perspectives to the College of Charleston. As well as my experience being a faculty member at Clemson.

SENATOR SCOTT: So how do you -- how do you make sure that students at one school don't live in fear because of a broken environment in the other school.

MR. KLEIN: In terms of conflicts?

SENATOR SCOTT: Well not just on the conflicts. Each president has his own plan that he sells to the board and what he's -- some plans are new, have never been tested, and some have been. And as one who's been on the education committee for so long and also on the body itself. Help to make it gel.

MR. KLEIN: Uh-huh. Well, I think you have to look at each one individually.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay.

MR. KLEIN: And everyone has a unique perspective on where they're at and what their strategy is. I mean, I teach strategy to MBA students and so I do finance. And so, you have to look at it, at the entity that you're with, and how best to serve that entity.

SENATOR SCOTT: One is -- one is strategy, the other is practicality.

MR. KLEIN: Correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: Just to want to make sure the two come together better and stronger in university.

MR. KLEIN: I agree.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR SCOTT: Just want to go to put that with you because I'm sure there's going to be sometimes it's going to be very questionable in terms of your methodology and in terms of what you hired the president for and your knowledge base.

MR. KLEIN: Understood. Thank you, Senator.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Just one quick question. What commitment -- I know that you will be a new board member. What commitment do you feel financially a board member should make to the college?

MR. KLEIN: I believe a board member should contribute to the college, yes. A financial commitment as well.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other questions?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Move for favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Move for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ayes have it. Congratulations, Mr. Klein. I know you'll serve the College of Charleston well.

MR. KLEIN: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is the 5th Congressional District, Henry --

MR. FUTCH: Futch.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Futch.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir. HENRY A. FUTCH, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just give your name and a brief statement on why you would like to serve.

MR. FUTCH: Okay, yes. My name is Henry Futch, Jr. I've enjoyed my last four years as a board member. It's been very rewarding. I think the best thing that we did was hire president Hsu. He really, really created the road map I think for our future success. Increased the classification on the Carnegie scale. So -- but it's been very rewarding. I'm married to Nolie, Nolie Spencer Futch. She worked at the College of Charleston; we met there years ago. We now have two kids. My daughter Spencer is a freshman at the College of Charleston, so it's been very rewarding to see the policies that we vote on, the policies that we've, you know, that we approve to actually see in those doing the practice. And I witnessed it firsthand with my daughter. And my son's looking -- he's got another year and he'll be a senior next year in high school but already eyeing the College of Charleston. So, you never know, may have two in there within the next couple of years. But we've done some great work just raising the bar, trying to raise the level of higher education at the College of Charleston and, you know, it's just been very rewarding to help improve the lives of our students and the staff at the College of Charleston.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. For the record, can you please state your name?

MR. FUTCH: Yes, Henry Futch, Jr.

MS. WEBB: And what is your address?

MR. FUTCH: 335 College Avenue, Rock Hill 29730.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. FUTCH: Yes.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And since submitting this application are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to any members of the General Assembly? MR. FUTCH: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be aware of? MR. FUTCH: No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve. I'm sort of intrigued by the -- some of your responses. A current in state tuition is $12,518 undergraduate $13,770 graduate. Out of state is $33,978 undergraduate and $37,376 graduate. That's a pretty big disparity. And the other thing you say is that you have an enrollment of 10,400 you want to increase enrollment by another thousand students. The magic number would be closer to 12,000 students, depending on availability. So, what's the magic number -- why is that number magic? Why do you have a specific number of students as a goal?

MR. FUTCH: Well, we're doing our best to obviously it's a -- you know, it's a business, you know. So there -- knowing that there are some pretty turbulent waters ahead with enrollment declining we're doing everything that we can to try and increase enrollment, increase applications, so that we can -- and we're also trying to grow. We're trying to become more of a, you know, you know being that Doctor of Professional Studies so. There are a lot of powers graded out don't know exactly why that's this number has to be whatever the numbers are what they are. But we are doing everything in our power to make sure that we are inclusive of, you know, of all students and trying to give -- especially in- state students. I know it's -- you know we've had some record enrollment. We had a record enrollment year last year. Or a record number of applicants but it's -- you know, can't always hold the hand, can't always make people come to the College of Charleston. Some of them would rather go to a larger university. So, we're trying to make it as appealing as we can and then provide services for ...

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you said you run it like a business and an out-of-state student pays three times the amount of an in-state student.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And of course, we're concerned about educating our students, not Pennsylvania's or New York's.

MR. FUTCH: Right.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So how do you -- is there a quota on how many in-state students you're going to take?

MR. FUTCH: I don't know if there is a quota know that, you know, we certainly -- we've done everything we can to minimize the increase in tuition for in-state students. So, we feel like we're --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But if you limit -- and bravo for doing that, but you've got a business to run and you need more money, correct?

MR. FUTCH: Correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You're not funded adequately, are you?

MR. FUTCH: Excuse me?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Are you getting enough money?

MR. FUTCH: Well, you know. Probably never get enough money, you know how that --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The shortfall is made up by this tremendous difference in in-state and out-of- state tuition, right?

MR. FUTCH: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean you're not -- I'm suggesting College of Charleston the only one that does that. I'm just sort of intrigued as to whether we're here to educate the students from New York, New Jersey, California, wherever.

MR. FUTCH: Right.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Or whether we're here to educate our kids.

MR. FUTCH: Well, we would -- we would want to educate our kids in South Carolina, as many of them that want to come to the College of Charleston. We are committed to. But it is also I think we like to make the -- it's a college, you know, and we try to increase the standards and make the College of Charleston as good of a college as it can be for the state. So, it's -- I guess you can look at the numbers and it may look like the college is, you know, has some room, a lot of a room for improvement. But I could assure you that all of those -- all those metrics are being met, you know. We meet them head on, you know, throughout the year. And we're doing it -- we're up for any suggestions, too, to -- how to balance that -- how to balance bringing in more students and also maintaining the integrity of the state institution.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You indicated that you recognize there's going to be a demographic change in the number of kids able -- I mean, let's say able to align to go to college. I mean the number of college age kids is decreasing; is that correct? The so-called waterfall.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. That's coming.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, it's coming, 25', 26' is what they're talking about.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir. True.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'm just wondering how you meet that shortfall given fixed -- you have fixed cost, right?

MR. FUTCH: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Whether you've got a hundred students or ten thousand students. Right?

MR. FUTCH: Right, yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And do you just take more out- of-state students?

MR. FUTCH: Well, I guess that's one way to do it.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay, well that's -- let me suggest this to you. I'm not sure that the legislature's interested in you educating the kids from New Jersey at the cost of the kids from Greenville.

MR. FUTCH: Okay.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Laurens, or Columbia.

MR. FUTCH: Fair enough, yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'm not scolding you. I'm just saying as y'all make those decisions understand we're concerned about that.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.

MR. FUTCH: We are too.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable, okay. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. FUTCH: Thank you very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Continue your good service on the board.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is the 6th Congressional District. We had two candidates originally and the first was Demetria Clemons withdrew on March 24th. The other is Darryl Fyall, I believe that's correct. If you'll come on up. DARRYL J. FYALL, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and brief statement why you'd like to serve, please, sir.

MR. FYALL: Yes, sir. Good afternoon my name is Darryl Fyall. I'm a native Charlestonian born and raised right downtown in Charleston. Graduated from the College of Charleston in 2001 with a degree in economics. After graduation, I stayed involved. I served on the alumni board for about five years, two as vice president. Also recently served on the econ board for the school of business. I started school -- I finished up at the College of Charleston at age 36 is when I started so I took a non-traditional path. And really appreciated how they treated me and the care that they took to make sure that I graduated. And so that's why I want to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record again can you please state your first and last name?

MR. FYALL: Darryl Fyall.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. FYALL: I have a dual address, 15 Bogard and 3204 Claudia Place in Atlanta, or Peach Tree Corners.

MS. WEBB: Okay and which is the address that you pay your four percent property tax at?

MR. FYALL: In South Carolina I'm technically a renter. I pay property taxes in Georgia.

MS. WEBB: Okay. Okay. So, when you filled out your application you put that your home address is 15 Bogard Street Charleston, South Carolina 29403?

MR. FYALL: Correct.

MS. WEBB: Do you recall?

MR. FYALL: That's where I stay most of the year.

MS. WEBB: Okay. And do you own that home?

MR. FYALL: No. It's owned by my sister.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, do you live -- for purposes of residency, do you live in the state of South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: I do. I do. I'm in South Carolina about three weeks out of the month and then I go to Georgia one week out of the month. My wife and I have a business out there.

MS. WEBB: Do you pay our four percent property tax anywhere in the state of South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: I used to at the time of the application, I had a property in Myrtle Beach, but that has since been sold.

MS. WEBB: So, you do not currently pay any property tax in the state of South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: Not on real property, no.

MS. WEBB: Okay. If you'll just, please give us one second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Are you registered to vote in South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: Yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Do you have a South Carolina driver's license?

MR. FYALL: I do, yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And what is the address on the driver's license?

MR. FYALL: 15 Bogard Street.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting the application are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. FYALL: No. No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be aware of since the time of filing this application?

MR. FYALL: Just the sale of the Myrtle Beach property since I submitted. I disclosed that I had property in Myrtle Beach, that's since been sold.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. When you did your application there was a question about ways to improve the College of Charleston and you spoke about the percentage of students graduating from diverse ethnic groups can improve. Can you elaborate on what you meant by that?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. FYALL: Yeah, I think we have an opportunity to do a better job on recruitment. And one of the things that I want to do put forth suggestions and strategies to improve the enrollment across the board. Black, white -- Asian or black, Asian, Hispanic, etcetera.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And you've answered the questions for our president as well as myself in reference to being a registered voter in South Carolina and your driver's license. So how long have you been a registered voter in South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: So military 18 up until -- actually when I moved back 1999 is when I registered to vote here in South Carolina.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. FYALL: I have to had then.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? We're going to ask you to pause for a second, we've got we're checking on your residency just to make sure. We don't want to report you out if there's some question if you don't mind.

MR. FYALL: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Sure. President Alexander.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And good afternoon. And thank you for your willingness to serve and so if I understood you correctly, three weeks out of the month basically you're in South Carolina. One month -- one week out of the month in Georgia.

MR. FYALL: One week out of the month, yes, sir. Typically, in Georgia.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And have you looked at board meetings you'd be able to work around your schedule I guessed of ten would that be any impact on your ability to --

MR. FYALL: That won't be a problem. My schedule is flexible. I'm basically self employed so I set my own hours.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Just wanted to have that for the record. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? All right we're going to pause for a minute, and we've never had this situation come up before. (Off the Record)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right come on back up. Well, you confused us.

MR. FYALL: Sorry.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I talked to the members of the Commission, and I'll recognize Senator Scott first and then we'll take a vote.

SENATOR SCOTT: One quick question. Do you pay South Carolina income tax?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. FYALL: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: How long have you been paying South Carolina income tax?

MR. FYALL: Since '99, when I moved back home.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Is there a motion by the committee?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There is a motion for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. Those no. Congratulations. Next up is the 7th Congressional District, Henrietta Golding HENRIETTA U. GOLDING, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just state your name and why you're -- a brief statement why you're running for the college.

MS. GOLDING: Thank you. I'm Henrietta Golding. I live in Horry County. I'm a Myrtle Beach resident. I'm a graduate of the College of Charleston in 1974. I went to law school University of South Carolina in 1977 and at that point in time I was fortunate to find a job in Horry County with the Bellamy Law Firm. Subsequently, 20 years later, I became a partner with McNair law firm. I served on the college board of foundation in 1990s for approximately eight years. Since 2013 I have been a member of the College of Charleston board of trustees. I sincerely believe in the College of Charleston. I know that the College of Charleston, were it not for the education I received and the personal guidance I received, I would not have been as successful a human being as I am. I want to be to continue to be part of an active, fully engaged board of trustees for the college and see the college grow every year. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: I thank you. Once again for the record, can you please state your name?

MS. GOLDING: Henrietta Golding.

MS. WEBB: Thank you and what is your address.

MS. GOLDING: 3801 Hasty Point, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent -- or do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MS. GOLDING: I do.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting this application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. GOLDING: I have not, I have not.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting your application, are there any changes that you would like for the commission to be aware of?

MS. GOLDING: No changes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, you've been on the board for since what?

MS. GOLDING: 2013.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, to ask maybe the same questions, in that years of service what has been the most interesting concept of what you've seen compared to when you were there as a student?

MS. GOLDING: Well, I graduated 1974.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yes, ma'am.

MS. GOLDING: My freshman class was 400, right. This year it's in the thousands. So, there's a significant difference when I became a freshman in 1970 the College of Charleston just became state supported. So, President Stern was our president, he was the one that guided the college from a private institution to a state-supported institution. And needless to say, the campus is completely different, but all to the better.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, ma'am.

MS. GOLDING: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anybody else? Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you so very much, Mr. Chair, and thank you for your willingness to serve. Can you tell me about your take on diversity inclusion, equity and inclusion and the importance that it has on the campus?

MS. GOLDING: We have a board committee, one of our standing board committees that is called access, equity and inclusion. And I think that probably we were the first in the state of South Carolina to have that board committee. And its responsibility is to present and go forward with diversity. Now diversity is something that means to me acceptance and opportunity. And we take that step. I think someone earlier asked questions about South Carolina students. Every South Carolina senior who wants to come to the College of Charleston, who is eligible, can come to the College of Charleston. While there are other institutions in this state, you know, that we have to vie for, Clemson, University of South Carolina. But we make it our mission to have diversity, we seek diversity, and we actually have a committee that reports at every one of our committee meetings and every one of our board meetings on our equity and diversity programs.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. What is your percentage of minorities, minority students? If you know off the top of your head.

MS. GOLDING: We have -- I believe the percentage is. with respect to the student body, it's nineteen percent of minority.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any others? Desire of the committee for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. Congratulations. (No reply is heard.)

MS. GOLDING: Thank you very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve. By the way, my two kids graduated from College of Charleston. There was no room 20 years ago down there, not any now. All right. Next page. Okay. I'm sorry it was on another page, is Ashley Nance here? Then we'll skip over and go to at-large seat 15. Renee Romberger. RENEE B. ROMBERGER, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations, and just tell me who you are and your -- a brief statement.

MS. ROMBERGER: Sure. My name is Renee Buyck Romberger I have been on the board since 2013, I am a proud graduate of the College of Charleston and a lifelong resident of South Carolina. I am serving on the board and wish to continue serving on the board because I love this state. I love my alma mater and I love higher education and I feel like the skills and the professional experience that I have allow me to make an effective contribution to the College of Charleston. And I would love to continue serving because I can think of no better way than to use my skills to make a difference for people in this state. So, I appreciate the opportunity that you've given me and I hope to continue having that opportunity, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. For the record once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MS. ROMBERGER: Renee Buyck Romberger.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is the -- what is your address?

MS. WEBB: 225 Dataw Drive, Saint Helena Island, South Carolina.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And have you had any new campaign contributions to members since submitting your application that you are aware of?

MS. ROMBERGER: I believe that I have. I believe at his request I made a contribution to our former basketball star Jermaine Johnson in his election.

MS. WEBB: Okay. I would just ask that you send me an email.

MS. ROMBERGER: Okay.

MS. WEBB: That states that you contributed to his campaign and what it was that you -- the financial amount that you.

MS. ROMBERGER: Happy to do that, thank you.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like the Commission to be aware of since your submittal?

MS. ROMBERGER: Yes. I was widowed for some time and recently this past summer got married and so I'm now married to Kevin Hennick and we are living in Beaufort. So, I've moved from Greenville to Beaufort.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Boy are you senators in trouble on that softball game. Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Back to -- I guess it relates back to Senator Harpootlian's questions in reference to out-of-state students. One of the weaknesses that you've said in your application was the lack of scholarships for -- and support and financial aid for students. What percentage of scholarships do you think are going to out-of-state students and if there are many how could we remedy that to increase the number of scholarships that go to in-state students to make sure -- ensure that in state students have those priority scholarships?

MS. ROMBERGER: Well, I think that's a great question. Often times our scholarships are driven by the donors. So, the donor has a specific direction that he wants -- he or she wants to use as far as allocating those funds and so we can't always contribute to that. But for example, we right now are focusing on how we can increase the number of dollars that are available to minority students and so our foundation and our philanthropic office has a focused approach of reaching out to minorities who have means to say would you be willing to. Or people who have an interest in seeing a more diverse campus help us build our scholarship program. We have something called a 1967 legacy program of which funding is being used to support minorities.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, Ms. Romberger, I know you know my questions have always been asked about minorities.

MS. ROMBERGER: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: But unfortunately, my question this time is how do we increase the number of South Carolinians through scholarships?

MS. ROMBERGER: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Granted, I do know that you know we want to increase the number of minorities and African Americans at the college but South Carolina is first and foremost my focus in reference to this question.

MS. ROMBERGER: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: As to how do we foster a -- or how do we get more South Carolinians with scholarships to go to the College of Charleston?

MS. ROMBERGER: Well one of the things we're focusing on is not only trying to attract more dollars to the College of Charleston but more undesignated dollars. And so we know that we are losing -- when you talk about the minorities in South Carolina and why our yield rate is so low but our acceptance rate is so high, we have a higher acceptance rate than we've ever had from minority students yet we're missing out on the yield and I think it is because we don't have enough dollars to supplement that -- the tuition. And so, we are trying to increase the number of undesignated dollars and move those into need-based scholarships. The second thing we're doing it's indirectly in response to your question but it's not enough to just get a kid to come to the college. One of my big concerns is that we tend to -- our retention rate is not as high as we'd like to see it. And to me the worst thing is to get a kid excited about coming the College of Charleston and see them leave a year later. I think we own responsibility when a kid leaves the College of Charleston. I think maybe we haven't done our job well enough and so one of the big programs that we're starting to focus on through our strategic plan now is to increase the amount of resources we're putting into the area of advising and counseling. We're developing more affinity groups so that people feel more accepted and included and more connected. If people haven't picked a major, then we want to make sure that we have resources there to help them explore opportunities because kids leave when they don't feel accepted or they don't feel like they're part of the group. If they leave because of financial means, I think that's even worse.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My last question is what percentage of your students are South Carolinians and what percentage is out-of-state students?

MS. ROMBERGER: Right now, we're sixty-five/thirty-five overall as a college. For our freshmen coming in this year, we're fifty/fifty. So, what you typically see is in second and third year you have more in state students transferring to the college and out of state students leaving the college. So that's why it balances out. But I do agree with Senator Harpootlian earlier when he said I think our first responsibility is to the kids in South Carolina. We want to see our South Carolina students educated. Out-of-state students do pay a higher tuition. The cost of going to the college is about seventeen five, and so our in-state students are paying twelve five in tuition and the out-of-state students help subsidize that. But we are very sensitive to not wanting to make sure that we become an out-of- state school in an in-state college.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: President Alexander.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: No, I'm good.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Oh, you're good? Any other questions. All right. Representative McGinnis.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Thank you and thank you for serving. My question is just really quick one of the priorities of, you know, I think some of the leadership in our house and around the state in education is getting people to work and workforce ready.

MS. ROMBERGER: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: And I know that the College of Charleston offers, you know, a lot of degrees that aren't necessarily going to go into the work force and that's fine. But is there any kind of emphasis that is being put on having students who may be undecided trying to push them into workforce ready degrees and how do you view a college's mission when it comes down to being able to supply the companies who want to come here jobs?

MS. ROMBERGER: I think that's a huge priority for us. We want to make sure that as a South Carolina university that we are serving South Carolina industry. And so, we have brought on a gentleman named Knudt Flor who is a former CEO of BMW. And he is serving as our senior vice president. I ruin title all the time. But he's something like senior vice president. But what he's trying to do is help us better connect with the industry leaders in South Carolina. We want to know what they need and then we find it our responsibility to produce those kids. I think one of the coolest things about the College of Charleston as a large public arts/liberal arts school is that we're taking a liberal arts approach to business and industry. So, when you take that liberal arts mind set and then you marry that with engineering or management or marketing or any of those kinds of tools, we think it helps them be adaptable and adjustable in an ever-changing environment. So Knudt is helping lead that effort for us to make sure we're in touch with industry and secondly, we are, through our strategic plan, focusing on not only innovation but interdisciplinary studies so these kids are getting a background of science with art, or English with math. Because we know that that critical thinking is important in business, it helps translate in business. And lastly, we're focusing on increasing the amount of experiential learning that each one of our students has. Our goal is that the majority of our students will have an experiential learning experience and that needs to start in the industries in the Charleston area on the coast of South Carolina.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Move for favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable is the motion. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MS. ROMBERGER: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: On your willingness to serve. I've just been informed that Ashley Nance was rear-ended right outside, I think, the Senate office building so I don't know who hit him but I think he'll be here in about twenty minutes so we'll go ahead and hear from our at-large seat seventeen Steve Swanson first and then we'll pick up Mr. Nance after that. STEVE D. SWANSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement of why you are serving.

MR. SWANSON: My name is Steve Swanson. I'm a graduate of the College of Charleston from 1989, graduated mathematics and in the honors program. Directly after graduation I started a company called Automated Trading Desk. And we built that company throughout the 80s and 90s and into the 2000's and ultimately sold it to Citigroup in 2007. Since then, I stayed with Citigroup for several years but have involved with a number of different startups throughout the community and today I'm happy to be retired and focused on philanthropic efforts throughout our community. The College of Charleston changed my life quite frankly. It positioned me to be a leader of my company. And when we were growing as an organization, we hired several people from the College of Charleston and it worked out wonderfully over the years. I have also served on the board of South Carolina State when we were going through the transition there. And today I can report that with President Hsu in place the college is in as good a position as I think it's ever been since I've been involved with it. And I appreciate the time here with you today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. Once again, for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Steven Swanson.

MS. WEBB: All right thank you. And what is your address?

MR. SWANSON: It is 615 Pitt Street, Mount Pleasant, South Carolina 29464.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. SWANSON: We do.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members that you are aware of?

MR. SWANSON: I have. I have also made a contribution to Representative Jermaine Johnson.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, I would just ask the same of you, if you can send a statement to me just an email saying that the amount that was given.

MR. SWANSON: I will.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And then have there been any other changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be aware of?

MR. SWANSON: None to report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman and you -- and again thank you for your service. And you made the comment that College of Charleston certainly changed your life and I hear that and what you did but also, I see that the College of Charleston gave you an honorary degree in 2015; is that correct?

MR. SWANSON: It did.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And was that in a specific process involvement for the college?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. SWANSON: Probably I spent thirteen years on the foundation board and my wife and I made significant contributions to scholarships. I was a full scholarship recipient of the college so we love giving back to the college, both through scholarships and other mechanisms at the school.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And I believe from that standpoint I've seen where y'all were involved in a fund foundation effort and you raised a hundred total raised a hundred and thirty-five million dollars for the college.

MR. SWANSON: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Outstanding.

MR. SWANSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: How many students currently attend the college?

MR. SWANSON: Just shy of eleven thousand when you include both undergrad and graduate.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Has that been pretty steady throughout the years or are you growing?

MR. SWANSON: I mean if you looked if you went back prior to President Hsu coming on board we were actually in decline. So, we had -- we were losing I would say several hundred students, a hundred or so students a year. So, it wasn't so much that it was dramatically changing but we were steadily losing students. And so, as he came onboard, he really did focus on admissions and getting our applications back up and getting, you know, in the past two years we've had two of the largest classes, freshman classes, coming in. So, I definitely feel like we have changed that tide and are certainly well positioned for the admissions cliff that we're going to see over the course of the next several years.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I mentioned this earlier. Is there any way that you can grow your campus out or are you just stuck?

MR. SWANSON: I mean, you could always do branch campuses but I think the idea really is to first of all we need more housing. I mean, that's right now we're very much harnessed by how many beds we have frankly in the downtown area to accommodate students so I think in coming years we probably will do more to build more housing for our students and possibly then consider increasing the size of the school. But right now, we're pretty much harnessed to downtown Charleston.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Your school is -- really has a tougher, you know. Like I'm near Clemson, they can expand out.

MR. SWANSON: Absolutely.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And a lot of others can to, but you guys can't, so.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. SWANSON: And land is very, very expensive downtown.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Oh yes, oh yes.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question from Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I was reading your answer in reference to diversity on campus. You said that racial diversity also continues to be low. Today it's seven percent of the school is African American. Why do you feel that the numbers are low? Are you all trying to recruit, or what are your recruiting efforts like?

MR. SWANSON: Sure. Every year we're trying something different, something new. You know, several years ago we were trying to do the top ten percent so we basically would accept every student that was within the top ten percent of every single school and while it improved our minority admissions slightly it did have far less reach than we had hoped. And I think these past couple of years I think we have -- I think we have frankly been outperformed by USC and Clemson. And we're refocusing on making sure that we're having dollars allocated towards minority students coming in. I think -- you know that I think is the biggest thing that we have to do in coming years.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Yeah. I know Winthrop is even doing a lot better than what you all are doing. Would think that Charleston would be more enticing.

MR. SWANSON: I -- you know I guess I would also say our -- you know, quite frankly the history of the college is not particularly positive. And I -- you know, memories last long and you know we went private as an organization basically to stop integration. And so, I think there's a lot of history there that we have to overcome. And, you know, we're working on it all the time. You've heard other board members; this is something that is discussed at every single board meeting and it is a priority for us.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for your service to the college and your giving back to the college.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I became even more excited when I heard what the foundation had raised in terms of dollars and cents and how difficult it is for colleges to raise money. What is to bear to that success, the foundation being able to raise those kinds of dollars?

MR. SWANSON: You know at the end of the day it's building a -- if you go back, you know, several different presidents ago, I mean, our development team was minuscule. And you know today there's a, you know, professional development team in place.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR SCOTT: Outside corporations coming in and raising money for you?

MR. SWANSON: You know I'm going to say that's probably any area that we have not succeeded in as much yet and so actually that's a huge opportunity. I mean, I guess I always see, you know, deficiencies as opportunities and we had a lot of opportunities to you know -- corporate donations, you know, different family trusts, those kinds of things. There's a lot of opportunities that we have actually not really broken into. This past fundraising campaign was really focused on engaging alumni. And so, before the campaign if you looked at where our dollars were coming from, our parents were actually our biggest source of contributions. Today I'm happy to report that alumni are consistently the biggest source of donations to the College of Charleston.

SENATOR SCOTT: More of a capital side or just over a fund raiser?

MR. SWANSON: Yes.

SENATOR SCOTT: Is it over the capital side or just where?

MR. SWANSON: Kind of across the board.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? What's the desire of the Commission? Desire is favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. SWANSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We have finished College of Charleston except for Mr. Nance and we will give him some leeway since he was in the wreck and we'll either take him up today or tomorrow if that's okay with the Commission. All right. We were going to take a break but we're slightly ahead if it's okay with the Commission we'll move forward and pick up part of Francis Marion since they're here, if that's all right. And first up 1st Congressional District Mark Moore.

FRANCIS MARION: MARK S. MOORE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement of why you would like to serve with Francis Marion, please, sir.

MR. MOORE: My name is Mark Moore and I want to first start off by thanking all of you for the opportunity to serve previously this is my tenth year on the board. I think Francis Marion is an extremely special place as far as public institutions in South Carolina go, I think Francis Marion is doing exactly what a public institution should do. Our enrollment is ninety- six percent South Carolina residents, forty-eight percent of those are minorities, and most importantly over forty percent of those are first in their family to go to college. I think that the university does a really good job of coordinating with the community, with the local political leadership, the business and industry in the area, and providing programs that will eventually lead to those students having opportunities and staying in the area and contributing back to the Pee Dee. So, I think that overall, it's a very important institution within the Pee Dee and I'm proud to be a part of that and a part of that team and I'd like to continue on should the Commission see fit.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: I thank you. And once again, for the record, can you just please state your first and last name?

MR. MOORE: Mark Moore.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. MOORE: 612 Salty Alley.

MS. WEBB: In Mount Pleasant?

MR. MOORE: In Mount Pleasant I believe that's -- I believe it's still in the 1st District.

MS. WEBB: It is, it is. I double checked. All right and then since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MR. MOORE: No, I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of today?

MR. MOORE: No, there are not.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Representative McGinnis.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Thank you and thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. MOORE: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: And I know Francis Marion has been kind of suffering from decreased enrollment as of late. What are some things you think the board should be looking at to try to -- the trustees should be doing to try to get enrollment up? And I know you reference in here that, you know, you face a struggle of the poverty within the area and a lot of students can't -- don't have the access to this type of education, but where can you be looking to try to increase your enrollment?

MR. MOORE: Well, I think -- I think right now enrollment is steady around four thousand. Long term, obviously we've introduced a lot of new programs there at the university, a lot of stuff geared towards engineering, health sciences. Again, going back to what I talked about earlier some of that focus is areas that we know are going to be areas of need in Pee Dee in the future. So again, growing those programs, making more opportunities available for students to stay in the Pee Dee and have access to that opportunity I think will help to grow. And again, I think long term that things will continue to be stable in the area and I think there's a lot of growth potential in Pee Dee.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? I have to congratulate Francis Marion on keeping our South Carolina young people in state. This has always been a pet peeve of mine with some of our other institutions that they have so many out-of-state students and they don't stick around. And some of them are foreign students. They go right back where they came from and, you know, I feel like we need to keep these people in state and I want to congratulate Francis Marion on that. You do an excellent job.

MR. MOORE: I can't take the credit for it. Obviously, all these people in the room and specifically the administration, the faculty and staff there are really doing the load there and we're very proud to be associated with it.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Well, I was in education myself and I really appreciate the fact that you're letting young people who would not otherwise have a chance to get a higher education degree given -- they're able to do that at Francis Marion so.

MR. MOORE: I know we all appreciate that from you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? Is there a motion for approval.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Motion.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you sir.

MR. MOORE: Thank you all.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right next is 2nd Congressional seat, Beth Bauknight. BETH G. BAUKNIGHT, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MS. BAUKNIGHT: I do.

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you would state your name and a brief statement of why you would like to serve.

MS. BAUKNIGHT: Sure. My name's Beth Bauknight and I am born and raised in Florence and I went to school at Francis Marion, I was a graduate of 1991, my father was the first and first graduating class of the university. My brother also went to the school. And without that education I would not have had the successful years I've had for the past 30 years. I'm a partner in a local accounting firm, the largest in the midlands. I run the tax department of that firm and I give all that credit back to the education I had at the university.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record once again can you please state your first and last name?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: Beth Bauknight.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: 225 Laurent Way, Irmo.

MS. WEBB: All right thank you and do you pay your four percent at that address?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: Yes.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since completing this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: I have not.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And are there any changes to your application since submitting that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: There have been none.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And I would just like to clarify, too, that this was a vacant seat so if you look on your agenda, you'll see for Beth Bauknight that her term will expire June 30th of 2024. I am sorry we are a little behind as we have said and -- but I just wanted to make that clarification for the record that you are June the 30th of 2024, whereas these others are 2026 because it was a vacancy.

MS. BAUKNIGHT: All right.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question? Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, what you have on the sheet is wrong?

MS. WEBB: No, what I have on the sheet is right.

MR. CHAIRMAN: It's right there.

MS. WEBB: Yeah, it's on the agenda.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Look right here.

MS. WEBB: The agenda here.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? There is a motion.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I move favorable.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Somebody said aye. Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MS. BAUKNIGHT: All right. Thank you very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Next up is H. Paul Dove, Jr., from Winnsboro. That's the 5th Congressional District. H. PAUL DOVE, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement why you'd like to continue serving.

MR. DOVE: My full name is Herbert Paul Dove, Jr., but if you call me and ask for Herbert, I will assume you are a telemarketer and I will say, "he's not available." Please, I go by Paul. My address is 274 Old Harden Road in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right, thank you. And then for the record, once again, can you please state our address that you live at?

MR. DOVE: 274 Old Harden Road in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. DOVE: Yes, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of? MR. DOVE: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. DOVE: I have been accused of being too technical. I reviewed my application. It says 178 pounds, I now weigh 200.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We won't hold that against you, a few of us have that problem. Any questions? Is there a motion?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I move favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Vote for favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations, sir.

MR. DOVE: Thank you very much. And may I express appreciation to the Legislature for the support that you give our university. It is a wonderful place to be associated with and you're doing a great job of supporting us and I appreciate that.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. We're not -- 6th Congressional District is Floyd Keels here now? (No reply is heard.) Okay. The at-large seat eight, Robert Lee, come on up. ROBERT E. LEE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and a brief statement why you'd like to serve, sir.

MR. LEE: My name is Robert E. Lee, 1998 I graduate -- I mean I -- as a graduate -- seems like it's the twinkling of any eye, 25 years later, I've been on the board and nine of which years I've served as chair of the board. I think Francis Marion serves the goal it was established to serve. It serves the people it's established to serve and it still has more to do. And I believe that I can continue to contribute both the board and to the leadership of the board as we go forward and help the children of the Pee Dee and serve as a window to upper mobility.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions -- oh, Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. LEE: Robert Eugene Lee.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. LEE: 49 Ocean Creek Drive, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina 29571.

MS. WEBB: All right and do you pay your four percent or six percent at that address?

MR. LEE: I don't pay four percent either place I own. They are both owned by LLCs I own so I don't pay four percent either place.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, in an email that I have for you, you stated that you own a house in Marion that is your four percent residence; do you recall?

MR. LEE: I have -- I went to try to register and when the auditor and I got done I just said I'd leave it -- it's an LLC, I said I'd just pay the six percent. So, I own a house 115 Whitfielder Drive, Marion which is beside my law office.

MS. WEBB: Okay.

MR. LEE: And then I own a house at the beach. Both of which are owned by LLCs, neither of which I pay four percent at.

MS. WEBB: Okay so you don't pay four percent on either of those properties?

MR. LEE: I don't pay four percent on either of them.

MS. WEBB: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative Rose.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Sir, Mr. Lee this isn't a question it's more of a comment. I was driving to court. I'm an attorney myself. I was headed to Myrtle Beach and you have some very good billboard coverage on the way there. Just wanted to make that comment. You and Jeff Johnson are battling it out I see.

MR. LEE: Well people at my office -- the girls at my office wanted that and so I told them I said no jingles, nothing cute. And so, people ask me, say, "do ever get any business from it?" And I said, no. What happens is my friends drive by and they call me and say I've been meaning to call you; I saw that billboard. So, you know, I'm not sure what it does other than make the people in my office happy which is, for lawyers, the most important thing.

MR. CHAIRMAN: One more thing, Macey.

MS. WEBB: Sorry. And then since submitting your application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members that you are aware of?

MR. LEE: No. Senator Williams and Representative Atkinson have not been by the office lately.

MS. WEBB: And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be made aware of?

MR. LEE: Not that I know of, although I'm looking through all these cases that I'm supposed to be a defendant in and finding ones that I don't remember Ralph McCullough ever suing me in Anderson as I've never made an appearance in federal court there. But other than those, which I've been a guardian of some way appointed by the court, sued by a sovereign citizen or by a former prisoner who didn't like that he had killed somebody and had to go to prison for life. But other than that, we're okay.

MS. WEBB: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? Is there a motion?

SENATOR VERDIN: Favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. And Kenneth Jackson is he here? That is the at-large seat ten. KENNETH W. JACKSON, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you. State your name and brief statement of why you're running.

MR. JACKSON: My name's Kenneth W. Jackson and I have I'm a 1984 graduate of Francis Marion. I've been involved in one form or another since that time. I've been very actively involved in participating events on campus. I've been a trustee for a number of years and proud of what's been accomplished during that time and I'd like to continue for one more term, if you see fit.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. JACKSON: Kenneth W. Jackson.

MS. WEBB: All right, and what is your address?

MR. JACKSON: 1904 Grandview Court, Mount Pleasant.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. JACKSON: And I also maintain a residence in Florence.

MS. WEBB: Okay. And what is your address in Florence?

MR. JACKSON: 130-B Courthouse Square.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And then at your 1904 Grandview Court address do you pay your four percent or six percent?

MR. JACKSON: Four percent.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And have you made any new campaign contributions to any members since submitting this application that you are aware of? MR. JACKSON: No.

MS. WEBB: No. Okay, thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. JACKSON: Yes. I would like to take exception to the last five pages, I think there's some court cases and that -- those are not me.

MS. WEBB: Okay. And just for clarification, so that would be this SLED background check report. When SLED runs these background checks they just type in your name and if your name pops in the system it might not necessarily be you, it could be someone that has happens to have the same name as you. When I reviewed your SLED background report, I did not find anything that was of concern to bring to the Commission.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You know, we need to make sure that doesn't happen again because that's very embarrassing to someone who has not have history, so yeah. We'll work on that. All right, any questions? Is there -- what's the desire, favorable? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir.

MR. JACKSON: Thank you.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: At-large seat twelve, W. Edward Gunn, is he here?
Come on up.

MR. GUNN: Sir. W. EDWARD GUNN, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you would state your name and a brief statement of why you are running.

MR. GUNN: Mr. Chairman, members of the Committee, I'm Eddie Gunn, William E. Gunn, I am seeking reelection to the Francis Marion University Board of Trustees. I grew up in Florence as a child and graduated from high school over there and saw the evolution of Francis Marion. It started out, as many of you may know, in the basement of the Florence Public Library as the Francis University of South Carolina. Yeah. It was small at the time. In the early 70s, Governor McNair and others pushed the idea to have a college, a four-year college, which it did and then later on became a university. I'm serving because this is a great school. Under-served population out there, 48 percent minority, 95 percent from in-state South Carolina from the Pee Dee get a quality education, a superb education. It's very diverse. I think Dr. Carter and his staff have chosen the right fields to expand into. Health sciences, nursing and many others has been just tremendous and I'd like to continue to support it that way.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. Once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. GUNN: William E. Gunn.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your address?

MR. GUNN: 213 Rosebank Drive in Columbia.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. GUNN: Yes, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting your application, are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. GUNN: Yes, ma'am, I did. I had one when I was preparing my taxes this weekend that I had not reported and that as Representative Jay Jordan in Florence.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, I would just ask you to send me an email that says that you've made a campaign contribution to Representative Jordan.

MR. GUNN: Certainly.

MS. WEBB: And put the amount on there so I can have that for your file.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. GUNN: I'd be happy to.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then other than that, are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be made aware of?

MR. GUNN: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: More of a comment than a question. I've known Eddie since he's --

MR. GUNN: A long time.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Maybe fifty years ago, forty -- well, when Carol Campbell was governor, I think we met.

MR. GUNN: That's right.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He's been head of several different state agencies, extraordinarily committed to making this a better state and I whole heartedly endorse his reelection and they were very lucky to have him on their board.

MR. GUNN: Thank you, Senator. I appreciate that very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Sounds like Francis Marion is very lucky to have a lot of folks on that board. Well represented. Is there a motion?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Motion for approval.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir, for your willingness to serve.

MR. GUNN: Appreciate it.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Patricia Hartung from at-large seat 13. I'm sorry? Come on up.

AUDIENCE MEMBER: Excuse me, Representative Whitmire, I just wanted you to know I just received a text for Ashley Nance and he's coming up now.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Is Patricia Hartung here?

AUDIENCE MEMBER: Mr. Chairman, she is not. Mr. Keels had we checked with him and he's fixed on the time you had him to be here so that's when he's -- he lives in Lake City.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yeah.

AUDIENCE MEMBER: And Patricia should be here any time soon.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Well, we'll pick her up when she comes in. Why don't we take a five-minute break right now and we'll wait for Mr. Nance to come in and we'll try to fix these other people up. (A short break was taken at this time.)

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right we'll go ahead and get started. We're going to hear from Ashley Nance first, I assume. Sorry to hear about your misfortune earlier.

MR. NANCE: Mr. Chairman, thank you so much for your patience. I was sorry to hear about it, too. My wife and I uh literally right outside the building making a right turn and got rear ended so as fate would have it that's what happens.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There was a rumor you got hit by a Senator; is that right?

MR. NANCE: No, uh, I haven't figured that out yet but if so, we'll get to the bottom of it. I know a good attorney. I know a real good attorney, so.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We got several here. All right if you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in.

MR. NANCE: Yes, sir. ASHLEY B. NANCE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll give me your name and a brief statement of why you'd like to serve.

MR. NANCE: Sure. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and other distinguished members of the Trustee Screening Commission. Good afternoon. My name is Ashley Nance and this is the first time that I have had the opportunity to appear before the Trustee Screening Commission. As you all may know from reviewing my application and the supporting paperwork that I have submitted, I'm a trial lawyer. And so, I love openings and I love having the opportunity to speak. And so, I do want to give you a little bit of a brief statement as to why I have filed a letter and notice of intent to run for the College of Charleston Board of Trustees. My wife is here with me, sitting right behind me. I'm married to Danielle Nance and have two young children, Blaker who is six years old and Eloise who is four. I practice with the law firm of King, Love, Hupfer & Nance in Florence. I'm a trial lawyer. And Florence is also where I grew up. I was born and raised in Florence. I went to the college of Charleston. Graduated in 2002. And I graduated from the Charleston School of Law in 2009. Outside of my brief stint in Charleston I have been in Florence all of my life. I'm heavily involved in the college. I love my alma mater. I am the founder, one of the founders of the Pee Dee alumni club for the college of Charleston and have served as it's president for the last five years. In addition to this role, I help to fund and establish a scholarship for our alumni club. Each year a student from the Pee Dee is able to have a scholarship to attend the college of Charleston. I'm very proud to say that I was a founder of that scholarship. I also helped fund it and I can also say it's the only scholarship of its kind. We are the only alumni club in the entire college of Charleston network that actually offers a scholarship for a local student to attend the college. In addition to serving that role as the president of the alumni club in our area, I'm also on the board of directors for the College of Charleston alumni association. In that role I've been on the board for about three years but I served in the Get Involved Committee. And I think that fits me pretty well. It's a good hat because I am pretty well involved in a lot of different things. Over the years I've stayed involved in the college. I love taking my family down there and allowing my children to see the college and really how special of a place it is down there in Charleston. As you all are probably aware the College of Charleston was founded in 1770, making it the thirteenth oldest college in the nation. It's the oldest municipal college in the country. The colleges founders were also members of the General Assembly. College was chartered by the General Assembly in 1785 and the area that was provided for development was approximately ten acres in the heart of downtown Charleston. That heart is still our campus and is the heart of the College of Charleston campus. The Board of Trustees was established for the College of Charleston in 1795. The College of Charleston has a long history, not only in Charleston, but to the entire state of South Carolina and the people that it serves and the students that it serves. College of Charleston recently celebrated it's 253rd birthday and in -- we have, you know, a lot of involvement with that with the alumni clubs obviously in celebrating that. Most recently, if you follow sports, I'm very excited to you know congratulate the basketball team. You know, had a heck of a season under coach Pat Kelsey, finished thirty-one and four, winning the Colonial Athletic Association Championship and competing against a very good San Diego State team in the NCAA tournament and unfortunately coming up just short. Few things I want to talk about the trajectory and then I'll you know let the committee members get into the questioning. But I believe the College of Charleston is on upward trajectory. And it all starts with the leadership of the school. President Andrew Hsu is undoubtedly one of the most interesting, qualified presidents that I've ever seen and he is such a unique personality and a great leader for the College of Charleston. He took the helm in 2019 as the 23rd president of the College of Charleston. And as soon as he was in that role, he was welcomed by one of the biggest crises that we've ever had, and that was Covid 19. I think our colleges and universities all had very, very difficult decisions that they had to make in getting us through those trying times, but he did it well. And I think the college is under great leadership. He's now helped to create the engineering program at the college of Charleston, which has taken the College of Charleston I think to an entirely different level for what it's able to offer students. So, in short, I stand before you today because I'm excited to be a part of it.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Hi, thank you, once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

MR. NANCE: Ashley Nance.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

MR. NANCE: My address is 1215 Wisteria Drive, Florence, South Carolina 29501.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. NANCE: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members that you are aware of?

MR. NANCE: Not that I am aware of, no.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then are there any changes to your application that you would like for any Commission members to know?

MR. NANCE: The only change which I think I know before you were, we did purchase a new house. And we intend to move into that house, you know, once the seller has completed their lease term back to us. They leased back from us for a few months while they were getting their affairs in order but we intend to move into that house as soon as that time is up.

MS. WEBB: Yes, perfect, thank you. And I do have that letter that you submitted included in y'all's binders so thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: First, let me thank you for your willingness to serve. I noticed you gathered a lot of information. You're going to make a true great ambassador when they send you out to do all the talking for recruiting young people, getting them in, getting them to know about the College of Charleston. What would you really like to see change especially on the capital side, program side, policy side, or have you had a chance to think about that, really feel the excitement?

MR. NANCE: Senator thank you for the question, that's a great question. I'll tell you being that College of Charleston is a liberal arts school the offering of an engineering school is a very, very big step for the College of Charleston. And so, you know, when you're looking at the college landscape College of Charleston has now made itself more appealing and offers a much more diversified portfolio when someone can major in something like engineering and also minor in a language which is what you may be required to do. Personally, I do have my own goals that I would like to see in serving on the board. Being that I'm an alumnus -- you know, a president of an alumni club, served on the board of directs for the alumni association, alumni engagement is a very big deal to me. I happen to spend a lot of time around Clemson and USC folks and go to football games, things like that. The alumni engagement for those schools is, I mean as you all know, it's as best as it gets in South Carolina. College of Charleston is working to achieve that. And I think with the various alumni clubs that have been formed, you're now reaching into the community. You're now reaching to the alumni to get that message out. The Pee Dee has approximately 2,500 alumni living in that area and I think these are, you know, for the most part, the Pee Dee and some of these other rural areas in the state, you know, College of Charleston is probably not the first college that maybe jumps off to some of these prospective students. And I think having these alumni clubs is working to change that. So, my goal is to increase alumni involvement, increase that dialogue between some of these rural areas and College of Charleston. And to get that College of Charleston name out there.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you and thank you for your willingness to serve and I'm glad you're with us today. Your economic interest was filled out back in November '21 and you have the Florence County Voter Registration Election Commission.

MR. NANCE: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Is that correct?

MR. NANCE: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: In what capacity are you affiliated there?

MR. NANCE: So, I am no longer on the commission. In fact, when I sought to file my letter of intent to run for the College of Charleston of Board of Trustees, before filing my letter of intent, I resigned from that position. But I served as the chairman of the Florence County Voter Registration Election Board for roughly three, almost four years. But I served on the board for approximately almost ten years.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MR. NANCE: You're welcome.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Desire of the Committee? Moving for approval? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Thank you, sir.

MR. NANCE: Thank you. Appreciate your time today and thank you for allowing me the leeway to get up here and talk today and present to you, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Floyd Keels? He hasn't -- not here yet? Okay. Patricia Hartung, at-large seat thirteen. Yeah, he was College of Charleston, you're Francis Marion again. PATRICIA C. HARTUNG, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and just tell us a brief statement. A little briefer than the last one.

MS. HARTUNG: I was contemplating that. But I don't know if I can. My name is Patricia Hartung, and I am a resident of Greenville South Carolina. And thank you for the opportunity to express my desire today to continue serving as a trustee for France Marion University. My role as a trustee has spanned nearly 23 years and I would consider it an honor to continue serving in that capacity. During this time, I've worked closely with my fellow trustees, the president, faculty, staff and others to assure that the university remains a leader in our state in academic excellence, innovation, and community engagement and service. The strength I bring to the university and the board is directly tied to my career experience and the practical skills I've developed in my field. I serve as the executive director of a six-county regional planning and development agency, the Upper Savannah Council of Government. And through my work there I experienced firsthand the needs of our state, our communities, our citizens and our work force in real time. I work on a regular basis with thirty local government agencies in my region as well as the state and federal governments and this interaction with government and other organizations affords me the knowledge of understanding and working with regulatory and governing institutions in a cross section of fields, particularly in helping me understanding accrediting and regulatory agencies associated with higher education. Through my office's, programs, and aging workforce and economic development, community development, local government assistance as well as interacting with our local regional educational consortium, I can focus on real world problems and I can bring this link to the table in many aspects of my role as a trustee. Through this, I see how critical it is to have college programs and graduates who focus on developing employable workforce skills. Which in turn translates into jobs that address the needs of the citizens of our state. I also understand how our businesses and companies in this state need qualified employees. Many companies in our area come to us on a regular basis asking us what are the workforce programs that our universities and our schools are engaging in to develop these skills and these students. I work with many groups also in the areas of natural resources and I know which environmental issues are relevant to our state right now and those that will continue to be in the future. And I see the struggles also through my work with upper Savannah and how our senior population and their families are experiencing great difficulties in learning how to survive and thrive after retirement. Given this background, I can make informed decisions in my role as a trustee. Whether it be in university strategic planning or curriculum development. I understand the value and significance of a diverse and inclusive environment that encourages participation from all stakeholders, including students, faculty, staff and alumni. I believe it is only through the shared vision and a commitment to working together that we can achieve our goals for the university. And I am committed to continuing to work with my fellow trustees, faculty, staff and students to ensure that our institution remains at the forefront of academic excellence and innovation. And it would be an honor for me to continue serving as a trustee and contributing to the continued success and growth of Francis Marion University.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then I'll go through these same questions with you so once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

MS. HARTUNG: Patricia Hartung.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MS. HARTUNG: 214 Welling Circle, Greenville, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MS. HARTUNG: I do.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting this application have you had any -- have made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MS. HARTUNG: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And then since submitting this application, are there are any changes that you would like for the members of the Commission to know about?

MS. HARTUNG: Since the application, no change whatsoever.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Verdin.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR VERDIN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. To my chagrin, I have not kept up with you but you have kept up with me and I knew it, had forgotten it, and now through your resume am reminded of your duration at Upper Savannah. It's just remarkable. And I can assure you of those thirty communities I interact with many and your service and your team is invaluable to the -- cannot be valued just as I'm sure that you and your colleagues that served as incumbents and even those that are looking to join, we are here to screen, we're here to vet, but still, even in this short time, it's still impossible to measure all of the service that you and your colleagues bring with these boards and conditions so, thank you for your past service. And Mr. Chairman I would do a favorable report for Ms. Hartung for continued service on the board of Francis Marion.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you senator. All others in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and thank you again.

MS. HARTUNG: Thank you all.

MR. PRESIDENT: Good to see you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We've got one more Francis Marion and he hasn't made it I don't think. Right. All right, we'll go ahead and go to Lander we've got one for Lander if that person here that's 1st Congressional District Mark Taylor to come on up.

LANDER: MARK W. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just tell us your name once again and why you -- a brief statement.

MR. TAYLOR: I'll be brief. My name is Mark Taylor I'm in Charleston, South Carolina. My educational background is that I attended Fur man University, went to medical school at the Medical University of South Carolina and then I went to law school at Emory university. The reason I would like to serve at Lander is quite simple, I met President Cosentino a few years back. We had a pleasant dinner one evening. I like what he's doing at Lander. Turns out I have a family affiliation, my grandmother attended Lander in the 1920s, kind of a long time ago. And I grew up near Lander. But frankly the reason I want to serve is because he asked me. And he said he could use me, the biggest challenge to Lander for the next generation, I think, is managing their real estate and property growth, their physical plant. The students are growing very fast, they -- there are 3800 students now and a decade ago there were less than 3000, so.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

MR. TAYLOR: Mark Taylor.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

MR. TAYLOR: 4906 Sound View Drive in Mount Pleasant, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. TAYLOR: Every year.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since filing this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. TAYLOR: I don't recall. My application is about two years old because I got caught in the covid thing, I can't recall any additional.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right, thank you. And then are there any changes to your application that you would like for any of the commission members to know?

MR. TAYLOR: Nothing that I know of.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone? Have a motion?

SENATOR VERDIN: Yes, sir, Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir. Senator Verdin.

SENATOR VERDIN: In making this motion I would say that I just got a text from Adam Taylor that he wishes he was related to Mark but that he is not.

MR. TAYLOR: The feeling's mutual.

SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman, move in favor.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Where is Adam? He should be sitting here, shouldn't he?

SENATOR VERDIN: Oh, he's --

MR. CHAIRMAN: He's watching, huh?

SENATOR VERDIN: He's catching every second, I'm sure. He told me he was on campus on Lander expecting me to come up later.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. There's a motion for approval, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. Congratulations. (No reply is heard.)

MR. TAYLOR: I'd like to say -- note a personal hello to Mr. Harpootlian, haven't seen you in a while, good to see you again.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Been a while, good to see you again.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Keels here now? Come on up, sir. This is back to Francis Marion and this is the 6th Congressional District and this is

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

Floyd Keels from Lake City. If you'll raise your right hand and I'll swear you in, sir.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. FLOYD L. KEELS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'd just give us your name and a brief statement of why you would like to serve on the board.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. Good evening, everyone. My name is Floyd L. Keels and I would love to serve on the board. I've been a part of the Pee Dee for some time and Francis Marion University is a great school. I'd just love to be a part of something that's going to promote the better well being of our citizens in the Pee Dee community.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. KEELS: Yes. My first name is Floyd, F-L-O-Y-D and my last name is Keels, K-E-E-L-S.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you Mr. Keels. And what is your address?

MR. KEELS: My home address is 101 Derby, as in Kentucky, Derby Lane, Lake City, South Carolina 29560.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. KEELS: Yes, ma'am, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of.

MR. KEELS: No, ma'am. I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application are there any changes to your application that you would like for any of the commission members to know about?

MR. KEELS: No, ma'am. No changes that I'm aware of.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, good afternoon.

MR. KEELS: Good afternoon, sir, how are you?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Doing great, hope you are.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. I am, thank you.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Great, great, thank you for being with us today. I was just seeing your -- you're retired now, correct?

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And you were with Carolina Power and Light and Santee Electric Cooperatives?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. I split both places, I spent half my career at Carolina Power and Light and the remaining half at Santee Electric Cooperative.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And -- and from what I see here that you've been on the board there since what 2013. What has been -- what you would envision as, say, the highlight of that service of being involved on the board there at Francis Marion?

MR. KEELS: The highlight of serving on the board at Francis Marion is witnessing the growth of education throughout the Pee Dee and it's close to the people who live within the region.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Great. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Keels, first let me thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. KEELS: Thank you, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: With the new expansion and addition South Carolina electrical vehicles, working with cooperatives, gas companies and others. And I know looking at some of the curriculums that Francis Marion should have the knowledge and industry is going to pay dividends. Have you had a chance to think about how that's going to work in terms of what you would actually bring to the table and the board when you begin, really looking forward with electrical charging stations and getting young people more involved in that process and especially with your military background?

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: If you can elaborate a little bit on that.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. And thank you for that question. That's the question that we all should be asking ourselves every single day and that is how to promote energy savings for the greater community and electrical vehicles will do that. I think right now we are all -- a number of us have hybrids vehicles and we know that in states around the country are quickly moving towards abandoning the use of gasoline vehicles. So, it's going to be a big thing. A big help to people as they travel, and it's going to save money for the greater good.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Motion?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations sir.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. KEELS: Thank you all so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Wish you luck.

MR. KEELS: Appreciate it, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right that closes out Francis Marion, correct?

MS. WEBB: Yes.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right we're done with Lander so now we're moving on to the Medical University of South Carolina. Now I'll let these people leave. First up is Donald Johnson. The 1st Congressional District. Come on up. Are you able to -- can you raise your right or not? Okay.

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA: DONALD R. JOHNSON, II, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. Just tell us your name and a brief statement why you'd like to continue serving.

DR. JOHNSON: Sure. My name is Donald Johnson. And by way of background, I'm from Summerville, went to the College of Charleston. MUSC, did an orthopedic residency at MUSC and then spent two years traveling Texas, San Francisco, University of Hong Kong, and came back to South Carolina in 1991 as the first spine surgeon in the state. I set up a private practice called the Southeastern Spine Institute, which has grown fairly large over the years, and was lucky enough to be elected for my first term at MUSC in 1994. I'm currently the longest serving board member at MUSC and have been honored to be asked to be the chairman on four separate occasions. I very much would like to continue my service.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

DR. JOHNSON: Donald Johnson.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And Mr. Johnson, what is your address?

DR. JOHNSON: Number 41 25th Avenue, Isle of Palms 29451.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

DR. JOHNSON: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of? DR. JOHNSON: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And then since submitting this application are there any changes that have been made to your application that you would like for members of the Commission to be made aware of? DR. JOHNSON: No.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Thank you for your service on MUSC. Have a question for you in reference to diversity of the student body in the medical program. I've noticed that the number of African Americans are not equivalent to what our state population is and what I typically like to see. What are you all doing to increase the numbers of African Americans entering into medical school?

DR. JOHNSON: So, I would say that our program has been actually one of the best in the country if you would look at the history of what we've done at MUSC, we've actually been given national awards for that. We take that as a -- as a need. It's something that we focused on significantly. We look at it from admissions all the way through. I think we've done great. I don't think the job is over but I think we've done great jobs, particularly with the under-representative minorities getting into medical school. I agree with your concerns but we'll tell you it is an area of emphasis for the university.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And what are your recruitment efforts? What are you all doing to recruit or do you have like a bridge program?

DR. JOHNSON: We do. We have a bridge program that involves the College of Charleston, actually. We've had that for a number of years. We actually go recruit for the under -- the URM's if you will. And our numbers, as I said, have gone up dramatically particularly over the last ten years or so.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And my last question, are -- is there any effort to have a bridge program with any of the HBCUs in this state? Especially South Carolina State University.

DR. JOHNSON: I'm unaware of that. But I think that's a great thought and one that I'll bring back to the university. I think that would be a perfect bridge. I think it's been done for College of Charleston historically because there's a lot of cross pollination, if you will, between the teachers, the curriculum and whatnot. So that's where it was initially set up. But I think you make a very good point there.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: The reason why I ask that question is the College of Charleston is not even performing in my opinion with the number of African Americans. They have one of the lowest African American populations on their campus. And the reason why I asked about the HBCUs is because that's where you're going to find the higher concentration of African American students that are in college. And so that's why I was asking would you all consider -- because I heard you say you're the board chair.

DR. JOHNSON: I have been on four occasions.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Four occasions.

DR. JOHNSON: Currently. I have a better job now than the I'm the board chair.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I will hope that you all would consider, you know, partnering with some HBCUs.

DR. JOHNSON: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And especially our public institution of South Carolina State.

DR. JOHNSON: And I'm sorry I think may I confuse you when said a bridge program. This is a program where students come in from across the state. And it's felt that they need to have a year preparing the life sciences. So, they could be from South Carolina State or from any other university. And that program which is housed over at the College of Charleston is what I'm referring to as a bridge program. It's not specifically part of the College of Charleston.

DR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Yes, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Good afternoon.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: It's good to see you. What's the biggest challenge that the Medical University is facing today?

DR. JOHNSON: I think digesting the large number of hospitals that we have either taken over as ownership or have equity ownership over the last two to three years. As I've said, I've been on the board for a long time, I've been the chairman for a long time. And this activity which has been involves now sixteen to seventeen different facilities. I think our biggest challenge going forward now is to take a break or take a rest would be my opinion and try to digest and make sure that, you know, that we run all these facilities that we've that we've become involved in more intimately to the standards that we've like to have them run.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And I guess that's where I was going. The number of hospitals and health care facilities that y'all have taken over, did y'all go seeking those or did most of those come seeking you?

DR. JOHNSON: Most of them came to seek us.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And was that because they were making so much money, they wanted to share that money with MUSC?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

DR. JOHNSON: I don't think so, no, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: No, sir. So, were most of them in financial distress to some extent?

DR. JOHNSON: I think many of them were, yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So how have y'all been able to accomplish being able to address that aspect of those? Are you making them be on a stand-alone, each one having to stand on their own or are you doing them collectively?

DR. JOHNSON: I will tell you they are -- we are making them be stand alone. In fact, it was one of the emphatic points that our board had. We don't want to bleed from Charleston to support these other systems. And so, we've actually as you know we've -- we had them segregated with separate CEOs that we purposely try to make sure and they have thus far anyway stand on their own. And how do they do that? Which was your question, well, to be really blunt with you the first step would be if you're a not for profit regardless of what your business is and you take over a for profit, you've already got some savings on the bottom line, correct?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yes, sir.

DR. JOHNSON: And secondly from there the reimbursement systems, the way insurance is set up across the country, the more bargaining power that you have, the higher your rates are that you're able to get. As an example, in private practice even with the practice as big as Southeastern Spine and private practice myself and my doctors we could never get the reimbursements that we could if we were members of the MUSC. That speaks to the bargaining power of having more physicians, a bigger system and whatnot. So, and third I think would be the management. We are very good managers, health care managers, and so I think there is some -- there's always some savings and efficiencies that can be attained if your management is better.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So are you aware are there other pending -- I won't say takeover. Relationships that you're envisioning that MUSC to be entering into over the short term or long term?

DR. JOHNSON: There is not. And if -- if there was one or more than one that came to the board again my thoughts would be that we need to sit where we are right now.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. JOHNSON: Represent -- excuse me, Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Dr. Johnson, for your willingness to serve.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR SCOTT: As much as I would like to be in agreement with you about hospital systems, real hospital systems, you take those systems over you take a different type of challenge.

DR. JOHNSON: For sure.

SENATOR SCOTT: Most of the funding is through some type of federal help aid or assistance, or state aid or assistance. And given what MUSC has done through tele-medicine, looking at working with these rural hospitals so we don't get a real closure outside of -- you know, glad you did say manage system. Because sometimes managed systems don't work without financial systems until you get it stronger. But there are some systems that you do have in place that also looking at additional staff to be able to staff those hospitals and understanding the growth trend and if you looked at that, especially with rejected growth trends. Have you looked at it yet?

DR. JOHNSON: We have. And thank you for mentioning tele-health. You probably know we one of two of the best tele-health systems in the country and that's thanks to all of y'all and this financial support you've given us.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, I want to make sure that those things are inclusive as we look at Charleston's system which is part of the Prisma system, the Horry County system, I think is a whole other kind of system, and coming into the Richland System there's three different hospitals here all working hopefully for the same good. Not just for the hospital but for the clients. And so how do you foresee with additional health care needs that have not been met in the state? And especially coming into the Richland system, like in Providence, downtown hospital and Northeast Hospital and they're also in Fairfield County. Make sure don't want to misunderstand your words "stand still." Does that mean you improve those systems that are there? Providing what the data shows in terms of getting patient care and need and being able to utilize that hospital more?

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, certainly. First of all, I -- you know, I would say I don't want to say that anything that I've said is an absolute. If there was something that the medical university had to do of course we would do it. But we're now part of I know sixteen hospitals.

SENATOR SCOTT: Correct.

DR. JOHNSON: It's over a very short period of time. You know, we are not deaf, we understand there's some controversy involved in that. A senator has been kind enough to come talk to us very bluntly about that on several occasions. And I got to tell you I always agree with you. And we do need to sit tight and kind of get our arms around what we are now and where we are. And there's some great benefits to the state I'll just give you -- there could be many but I'll give you one. All our students need clinical rotations. And the clinical rotations are just not available in tri- county area, downtown. So, you know, we -- this gives us an opportunity to have medical students, to have nurses, physical therapists, pharmacists, doing clinical rotations in all these hospitals across the state. And when you do that, when you -- as a hospital when you bring students in it brings the game up for everybody. Medical education you know requires that everybody that touches those students actually become better at what they're doing. So that's one of the many things that, you know, that the statewide push that we've done for the most part I agree with it but it's been a lot and as I've said multiple times, I think we need to just stop and digest what we have right now.

SENATOR SCOTT: Private dollars come in with private insurance -- I think the private dollars are private insurance and that's what driving the pay, especially to subsidize those who get other type of federal assistance for insurance. I think that's going to be very key to it.

DR. JOHNSON: I agree with you.

SENATOR SCOTT: Especially with the hospital so -- I don't know if you could say you got a system that you can say a hospital standalone in the system, just depend upon where we put industry, the economic development part of it. So, as you move through your concept of let's wait and see let's also make sure we ask the dimensions to it such as private companies come in. Use Allendale as a good example. I'm pretty sure coming back into Charleston y'all would provide some services. Thousand of jobs is going to change the whole game plan, especially with hospital service and patients.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Just want to make sure you don't lock yourself in and you say well, you know, we just going to just wait and see because the service doesn't quite work that way. Thank you chair.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You're welcome. Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Quick question something we would be dealing with is certificate of need. Give me your take on the certificate of need?

DR. JOHNSON: I'm sorry. I have to smile because I have for years probably had a contrary view on certificate of need. And probably that comes from thirty plus years in a large private practice. Also used it as a board chairman and to me quite simply what it's been is anti-competition for the hospitals against any entity that's not a hospital. Hospitals like to use it to prevent competition of medical services but then they use it and I've been part of using it. But they use it as kind of chips and cards that they pass back and forth to one another. You know, I won't oppose your this if you don't oppose my that. And we've all seen hospital systems that didn't do that and then we went through ten to twelve years of litigation, not getting a hospital bill, not good for the medical community. I know the hospital association historically of course has supported CON in some shape and degree and it's morphed and changed a little bit as there's been more and more pressure, I think to eliminate it. But if you're asking my personal opinion, I don't think it's been helpful for our state.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? Is there a motion, move for approval? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Dr. Johnson.

DR. JOHNSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You're very fortunate to have MUSC. Dr. Lemon is not here yet so we will move on to Terri Barnes, would you come on up please. TERRI R. BARNES, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Give us your name and a brief statement.

MS. BARNES: My name is Terri Barnes. I live Rock Hill South Carolina, born in South Carolina and served on the board of the medical university since 2014. Considered it an honor, would like to be able to serve again. Dr. Johnson -- when I was first was on the board Dr. Johnson had been there a long time, I said to him wow this place is big it's going to take at least a year to learn it and he's like oh, no, no, no it's going to take many years and he's right. It's been a ride. It's been a lot of information a lot of growth and a lot of success. And so, it's an honor to serve the Medical University of South Carolina, it's an honor to serve you all and to serve with this great board that you have.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record once again, can you just please state your first and last name?

DR. BARNES: Terri Barnes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

DR. BARNES: 1502 Jackaway Drive, Rock Hill, South Carolina 29732.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

DR. BARNES: I do.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MS. BARNES: I don't think so.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right, thank you. And then are there any changes to your application that you would like members of the Commission to be made aware of?

MS. BARNES: I don't think so.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Good afternoon.

MS. BARNES: Good afternoon.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And thank you for your service - -

MS. BARNES: Thank for allowing it.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: -- on the board. Just a couple of questions. Since being there and being in the lay category, lay seat for the 5th district, what -- other than the size of MUSC what has stood out to you, briefly, as a pro or a con?

MS. BARNES: Well I would say a pro would be that the growth we've seen around the state and being able to serve people everywhere where they are in their place and their time of need and especially right here in our -- in my area and Representative King's area with Lancaster Hospital and to see the growth it's had and what it's doing there and you know we're doing kidney transplants there so -- kidney transplants, in Lancaster, South Carolina is a great thing. And it's nice that people everywhere can get good treatment not just the ones that can travel to Charleston because it's a tough drive.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, I guess that brings on then - - do you support -- the hospital authority is different than the medical university. Do you support it continuing to grow throughout South Carolina?

MS. BARNES: I do. I'm like Dr. Johnson. I think it's time to perfect what we have right now and to let it get stronger and better and financially secure in all the areas. But I do think that growth is good, but not too fast.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, with MUSC having taxing over -- benefits over a for profit for other hospitals do you think it's appropriate for the hospital authority to go into areas that have various hospitals versus a rural area that is in need of the healthcare to compete with those hospital systems is already in the area?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. BARNES: I mean, I don't really like the idea of competing with hospital systems in the area but I think a lot of the places we've been the hospitals were in need and it's made a difference where we are. But I do believe in healthcare for rural systems as well. And I think we could be better with that.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. So, would you agree with the statement that the hospitals have come to y'all asking y'all to take them over and that they've had financial burdens?

MS. BARNES: I would say most of the time, yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And you think that's the appropriate course of action going forward?

MS. BARNES: At times, yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: At times. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: How you doing?

MS. BARNES: Good, how are you?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Doing well. I want to say just thank you all for your presence in our area, especially in Chester, where the hospital system would have been closed had it not been for MUSC and I know that work that you all do over in Lancaster. I guess my question is in reference to diversity, diversity of the students at MUSC. Can you tell me what your take is? Pretty much the same question I asked.

MS. BARNES: Yeah, I know. And him being a medical student is he answered probably a lot better than I would but you know I'm a woman -- I'm part of a woman-owned company so diversity and inclusion is very important to me. And I can promise it's very important to the medical university. It's such a big word now diversity and equity and inclusion. It means so much and I think we can always do better and I know that Dr. Cole and our leadership is always trying to do better. We talk about diversity inclusion all the time. We look at the statistics, we look at how many students if we're talking about students how many students have applied and of those that applied how many students were qualified when you have to be qualified, too. And we try to be as fair and equitable as we can and make sure everybody has an opportunity to that same education but I do think we can do better. And we're working on that. We're working an interview process that's not being so -- not having so much on the interview but more on the qualifications to make sure everybody has an equal chance to get that medical education they so need in South Carolina. I would like to see us do better and I agree with you that we can and we will. So, I would invite you to come talk to our diversity and inclusion office. They're great and they would love to talk to you and show you the kind of things we're doing for recruiting, and education. And a lot of that I think is with communication and education, educating everybody at MUSC that has a part in any kind of decision making and that's constantly being done. I've gone through it myself when I was on interview panels making sure we don't have any kind of bias, unconscious bias, and those kinds of things. So, it's a big deal, it's a big thing, and we want everybody to have a fair chance but we can do better.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And my next question for you is are you familiar with the Rena Grant Sickle Cell program that you all have at MUSC?

MS. BARNES: I am.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Can you tell me a little bit about that, and if you know anything about it?

MS. BARNES: I don't know that much about it I do serve on the research committee and we do talk about that a lot but I don't really know exactly but I can find out and I'll get back to you.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yeah, I would love to know what how that MUSC sickle cell -- Rena Grant Sickle Cell Stuff.

MS. BARNES: I will, I'll find out more about that.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MS. BARNES: I'll get it to you. Sorry about that.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? Motion. For favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations again.

MS. BARNES: Thank you for continuing to allow us.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Melvin Brown is not here, will be here when? About 5:30 so we'll skip over him. We do have James Battle here so we'll ask him to come on up. Good to see you again Jim.

MR. BATTLE: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. JAMES A. BATTLE, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and a brief statement on why you're serving.

MR. BATTLE: My name is Jim Battle. I live in Nichols, South Carolina which is in Marion County. First let me thank you for what you do. People do not understand how difficult it is to be a legislator. You work very hard, there are no simple problems or easy answers and you do that. Secondly, let me thank you for allowing me to serve you and the people of South Carolina at MUSC for the last nine, almost ten, years now. I take this job very seriously. I'm very proud of it, and I would like to serve for at least one more term. A little bit about my background. I graduated from the Citadel 1964, went into the army, served in Vietnam, got an MBA from University of South Carolina in 1967. Went to work for a large bank in North Carolina back then you couldn't bank across state lines. It was Wachovia. We were the largest in the southeast at the time. I left them and went with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, who's in New York, a while back in Charlotte. I was with Merrill Lynch when it was still a partnership. I was there when we got some of the initial offering when they -- when we went public. Thank goodness I sold it back when I was a kid. I moved home in the early 1970s, back then back into Marion County Representative Johnny Waller and Senator Ralph Ghasque asked me to serve on the hospital board. Y'all remember Johnny Waller later became a supreme court justice but I served on that rural hospital board for about twenty years. Got off and resigned from that board, ran for the South Carolina House of Representatives. I was fortunate enough to get elected, served for sixteen years. My last eight years was on Ways and Means. I am serving -- or ran for the board at MUSC because I live in and represent a rural area and it's very difficult for schools and healthcare in these rural areas. So, I wanted to do something the rural and under served areas of South Carolina, and it has been very rewarding.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And for the record, once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. BATTLE: James A Battle, Jr.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

MR. BATTLE: 503 South Nichols Street, Nichols, South Carolina 29581.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. BATTLE: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members?

MR. BATTLE: I have not.

MS. WEBB: You have not?

MR. BATTLE: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application are there any changes to your application?

MR. BATTLE: No changes.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Battle, good to see you this afternoon.

MR. BATTLE: Good to see you, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you and thank you for your service to our country as well. I was just curious first your it says your current employer is Safe Marketing, is that right, LLC?

MR. BATTLE: Safe Marketing -- Safe Marketing was a tobacco warehouse. We are -- JR Battle and Company was started in 1911 we have not let any of our children come back and I'm third generation. We're not letting any of our children come back into our business because it's tobacco. When we were in the tobacco business Safe Marketing was RJ Reynolds and Carolina Tobacco Exchange was Phillip Mars. We sort of had a corner on the marketing of tobacco in South Carolina. There was a rule that said that the same family couldn't be in both businesses. So, I gave up my stock in JR Battle and Company and created Safe Marketing so that I would be separated from the rest of my family in representing RJ Reynolds while they represented Phillip Morris. That's why there was Safe Marketing, it was all a Battle organization.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I got you. And you mentioned rural areas and how important it is and couldn't agree with you more to have health care in the rural area. But the continuing point have had the discussion with the other two that are on the medical university board, help me understand where y'all are and where you think you're going as far as health care in the state of South Carolina?

MR. BATTLE: Well, let me just start off by saying that MUSC is a state entity which means that MUSC is owned by the people of South Carolina. Everybody in South Carolina deserves -- or is entitled to quality healthcare. And that is why we have done what we have done. We have moved into areas where we already had clients that were -- not clients, patients, that were coming to Charleston. So, by doing what we've done so far, we have gotten close to where our patients are for ordinary, regular healthcare which frees up rooms in Charleston. In Charleston our marquis hospital is for high specialty complex tertiary care businesses. That opens up beds in Charleston and gets us referrals back to there. So, to accomplish our mission of serving the people in South Carolina we have done the things that we have done as the opportunities have come available. Like everybody else, as a small businessperson I understand what growth -- how much -- what a financial strain growth can be. It's not how much -- just how much you pay for the facility or the equipment. You also have additional expenses like your overhead, the accounts receivable, inventory and those things. It takes a lot of cash. So, we have to be very careful, financially, when we're making these kinds of --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: These operations that are stand alone, are they making money?

MR. BATTLE: They are -- they are meeting the budget that we set. We did not expect -- some of them are cash flowing already. In the Midlands we are still not to the point of breaking even yet but we expect to be in this calendar year.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Does Chester break even?

MR. BATTLE: They are going to be stand alone. We went into these and they're already generating cash and revenue and we hope with our name brand, our brand name, and new physicians and promotion that we're going to be able to have these all cash flowing before this calendar year is out.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, if I heard you earlier say that you are going to where your patients come from -- I mean you've got patients from Oconee County does that mean you're looking to come into Oconee County?

MR. BATTLE: No, we are serving them with the hospitals that we already have. No, we're not going to every single county, we're not trying to --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: How many counties are you in now?

MR. BATTLE: Say that again?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: How many counties are you in now?

MR. BATTLE: We've got sixteen hospitals. We have patients in every county in the state and at times every state in the union. So, we're not trying to -- and I want to make it clear, our competition are not local hospitals. Our competition are the other regional academic health cares. In the places like Duke or UNC, Emory, Atrium, that's who our competition is.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Well wouldn't that be for your Charleston campus? Do you -- I mean, man, I'm going to get in a long discussion here I mean.

MR. BATTLE: We were serving our patients in the state, that's what I was saying. And we are getting to where they are. And, you know, we are doing what any business would do. We're not trying to compete with any local hospital. We're trying to serve the patients we already have. By serving them where they are allows beds in Charleston to free up for the complicated, complex healthcare.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So how much debt does MUSC have today?

MR. BATTLE: The debt the hospital has is like 1.2 billion.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Excuse me?

MR. BATTLE: One point two billion.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: The hospital authority?

MR. BATTLE: The hospital where our debt service is 171 million that's what we pay every year. Our debt capacity is four point eight million -- billion. So, we are nowhere near -- we're not even at fifty percent of our capacity.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Well, are you trying to get there?

MR. BATTLE: No. Like everybody else, we feel like we're serving the majority of the people in South Carolina now and unless of course you ask us to because we serve you -- unless you ask us to, we're going to absorb and digest what we've got at this point in time.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Well, I mean, again and if I can I'll finish up but MUSC I mean it's a great university and doing a great job and the authority has expanded, would you not agree, extremely fast over the last several years? And you don't agree with that?

MR. BATTLE: You know most of the growth has been since I've been there. And as I told you as a businessperson it is something that we watch very closely. I especially was nervous about the growth that we were doing from a financial standpoint but it has ---

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Once final question then. How many of these hospitals that y'all have taken over were making money when you took them over?

MR. BATTLE: They -- except for Midlands they all were making money, they were all cash flowing.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. BATTLE: I take that back, the one that we most recently got involved in, in Orangeburg, may not have been making a profit at that time. That slipped my mind because that just happened.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: No problem.

SENATOR SCOTT: I want to jump right in with Senator Alexander left off because in looking in hospitals who were part of your system, I also look at potential growth. And given where the new growth is going to occur if you follow the economic trend, you're going to follow the growth. And I think in terms of coming into the Midlands it's going to probably be one of the biggest cash cows before it's all over with. Given that having taken over Providence Hospital right in the middle of '19 where you're getting ready to hit four thousand to eight thousand jobs is going to be very, very beneficial in the midlands. However, you are surrounded by two other hospitals. And I appreciate the Senator talking about the upstate. Providence is truly in the upstate and y'all are outperforming them a little bit smaller than what they are because you've made some very good decisions. Would you agree upon that?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. BATTLE: Yes.

SENATOR SCOTT: And if you look at Horry County, having y'all come in and taking over Marion, Marion County Hospital, would you believe it or not the projected growth for 2035 Horry County would be the second largest county in the state. And so, the amount of overflow in the next twelve years is going to be unbelievable because of the MUSC system being that close to Horry County.

MR. BATTLE: I did not know that.

SENATOR SCOTT: So is that -- I study those trends and look at where the growth and possible growth are.

MR. BATTLE: We all know that South Carolina is one of the fastest growing states in the nation. And we know the areas that it is growing in but eventually it's going to expand. I live in Nichols and the beach - I live 45 miles from North Myrtle Beach and it is probably 15 to 20 miles outside of Nichols in Horry County coming our way. So much of Marion's business comes out of Horry County, western Horry County, which is not the beach but where the farmland is and so forth. That is being developed left and right. People are just looking for places.

SENATOR SCOTT: Twenty-two I think that's where you're going to see all that new growth that's going to come.

MR. BATTLE: We want to be set when the time comes.

SENATOR SCOTT: And looking at the Orangeburg hospitals, glad you mentioned that --

MR. BATTLE: He mentioned it.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- or he mentioned it on the tail end of it. It became of a regional hospital after the I think it was Allendale Hospital and the Bamberg Hospital closing everybody stopped coming to the Orangeburg hospital where it needs some assistance and -- but it's projected also to be one of the next large growth areas that's going to give you some -- and on top of that you've got a school down there of being able to get nurses and other health care professionals out there at Claflin. So, I wonder who's making those decisions. But I think they're looking at just outside monies profitable now, the projection for long term. And as I projected in the end there'll be five hospitals. The others will not sustain the system. You're going to have some strong hospitals and you're going to have some hospitals not so strong. Would you believe that our biggest concern is not the large urban areas, the Charleston, the Richland, the Greenville but it's rural counties and what we can do and I would like to some of -- from your experience, especially because of Marion County, what we can do to begin to look at how we fix that using -- probably Orangeburg would become the model moving from just a county hospital to more of a regional hospital concept.

MR. BATTLE: We need to get comfortable where we are. We need to establish a comfort zone for you, the people of South Carolina, and you know I feel very -- I personally feel very comfortable about where we are now. So, we're going to sit tight for a while and see where we are and then we'll do what's right.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Hello Jim, how you doing?

MR. BATTLE: Doing fine, thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Always a pleasure to serve with you.

MR. BATTLE: I remember. Served with a lot of you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Question for you in reference to one of the same questions I asked earlier. Certificate of need and with you all opening up multiple locations. If the certificate of need was repealed and there's no need for a certificate of need in South Carolina how would it affect what you all are doing here in the state?

MR. BATTLE: My thoughts on the CON is a little different than Don Johnson's. We're on the same team moving in the same direction. When I was with Marion County Hospital for the 20 years before I was in the General Assembly, the CON protected us a lot of times. If we were going to invest money, we wanted to make sure that somebody would look at it before private practice would come in and duplicate what we were doing. So, there was a need for CONs. I think MUSC is in favor of amending the current CON process now. There should be a distinction between hospitals and doctors' practices and so forth. I'm a lay member and I don't know all of the details there. But I know that we are not opposed to amendments or changing the way the CON is handled now. It has served its purpose in the past because hospitals could have gotten into such competition with each other that they both went broke and nobody was being served. But I don't think that's the case in this point in time.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I know what you all -- the model that you have over in Chester now in reference to inmates being housed there. Has that started yet, have you all received any inmates in Chester?

MR. BATTLE: It has. We were very fortunate to get that contract and that's putting that hospital on the map. It's -- it is a good win-win situation for the state of South Carolina and for the Chester Hospital. But yeah, that has been done.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And also do you all foresee over in the Chester location bringing back to where babies can be delivered in Chester? Because I know right now most of them are going over to Rock Hill or Charlotte or to Lancaster. I know that they do not deliver in Chester.

MR. BATTLE: You know I couldn't -- I know that for hospitals to succeed we have to be able to do that in Marion and Chester and all the other places. It's not -- it is difficult getting doctors to move into rural areas. And that sometimes becomes a problem. And I do not know whether Chester is scheduled or an attempt is being made to provide that service there. I can find out for you and will let you know.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And my last question is what -- how do you feel about the diversity of the college, of the medical school?

MR. BATTLE: We -- you know that's something we have to work on all the time as you know. When I was in the General Assembly, I represented a majority/minority district and I think I served our population well and so I feel very close to that. We are not diverse enough. We are working on it. We need to improve not just with the student body but with administration, the doctors, and everything. Efforts are being made. It's something that we talk about often. When I first went with MUSC, Antoine Gunn, who was a House member with us, was the -- one of the diversity officers. He was good but he left us. But we have an equity department that works with human resources to make sure that we are working toward getting that problem straightened out.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any others? What's the desire? For favorable? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations Jim.

MR. BATTLE: I appreciate it, I'll make you proud.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Jim, uh, Nichols how has it recovered from the flooding?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. BATTLE: Two, flooded two times the only board meeting I ever missed was right after one of the floods. And it wasn't just Nichols it was fifteen or twenty miles around for two weeks we couldn't get out. But we went from a population of four, five hundred down to fifty and went back up to around a hundred now. They were thousand-year floods but we had two in three years.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Wow.

MR. BATTLE: But thank you for asking. We're recovering.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I go through that Nichols every time I go to the beach, so it's just ---

MR. BATTLE: We're getting better, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right, thanks. All right, Dr. Lemon has showed up so if you'd come on up, please, sir. JAMES LEMON, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll give us your name and a brief statement because you're serve -- want to serve on the board.

DR. LEMON: James Lemon. And I'm pleased to have the opportunity to serve the people of South Carolina in a health care capacity. I'm a native of South Carolina and I believe that MUSC is making an endeavor to reach out to the Medical University of South Carolina and take care of people, taking inroads into rural areas. I'm from a small town where the hospital had closed and so it's sort of near and dear to my heart to try to provide healthcare not only to metropolitan areas and to the larger towns but to the entire state. And so, I am honored and gratified to be doing that in this capacity.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: I thank you. Just for the record can you please state your first and last name again?

DR. LEMON: James Lemon.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

DR. LEMON: It's 3407 Overcreek Road. I moved Monday.

MS. WEBB: You moved on Monday?

DR. LEMON: It was 4111 Ivy Hall.

MS. WEBB: Was your previous address?

DR. LEMON: Yes. Columbia, 2920 -- they were the same, 29206.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you still live in Columbia?

DR. LEMON: I do.

MS. WEBB: Okay. Can you please state that address one more time for me?

DR. LEMON: 3407 Overcreek Road, 29206.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Okay. And I would just ask if you can send me that in an email?

DR. LEMON: Certainly.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

DR. LEMON: I have.

MS. WEBB: You have. Do you know who those are or would you need to look through your records and email those to me?

DR. LEMON: I know of speaker Merle Smith, $250.

MS. WEBB: Okay. I would just request that if there were additional ones when you email your new address just to state that you have moved, this is your new address. And you are paying your four percent of that address in Columbia, correct?

DR. LEMON: Yes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. Just include that in your email if you did make any contributions to any other members.

DR. LEMON: Certainly.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then other than your address change and the contribution to Speaker Smith, are there any other changes to your application that you would like the members of the commission to be made aware of? DR. LEMON: No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Good afternoon, doctor. And I hear you're loud and clear that it is a South Carolina system and do you think it's always been that way?

DR. LEMON: I think the emphasis now has changed. I do believe that the schools always -- the Medical University of South Carolina providing education, healthcare I don't think that we were providing the scope of care for the rural areas in the past as we are doing now. And I don't think that hospitals were failing in years prior. I think that this is something that's been brought about by a need.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, Providence is in a rural area? Providence Hospital?

DR. LEMON: No, sir, it is not.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Now, I know that. But he said rural area I just was wanting to know you didn't mention the metropolitan area.

Dr. LEMON: Well, we have a shortage and a need for graduate medical education. We've been hearing that there are discussions about opening up new medical schools in our state. And at this point in time, if a physician finishes school and does not have a residency he can not practice. And we are matching at about one-to-one with maybe one or two not able to match in the year. We opened up a new medical school and did not have graduate medical education then we would not be able to have those doctors be able to work. So, one of the initiatives that we're looking at in these areas is bringing in and educating residents.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, I heard you -- or did I hear you say earlier that you envisioned MUSC being a statewide hospital system?

DR. LEMON: Not by hospital system, sir. And I think that's a matter of definition. I think that we would serve the state in its entirety. I don't know that the word hospital system statewide is quite appropriate. It may be, I'm not certain I understand.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I was -- I didn't make a note of what you said so I guess my thought is -- question is to you from the standpoint do you envision -- is it your goal that MUSC locate additional hospitals in South Carolina?

DR. LEMON: No, sir. At this point we have no plans on any new developing hospitals past Orangeburg that we've dealt with and also in Bluffton there's a possible partnership. But other than that, we are as -- Mr. Battle said in a holding pattern, we're staying where we are. My opinion is that we feel like in except for Columbia in some of those areas where that opportunity arose, we've been asked to come in and help out and do those areas for failing hospitals and rural areas that needed healthcare.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. One last question, I notice here or at least on your form it says part time with the prison system -- you do some work with the prison system?

DR. LEMON: No, I do not. We have a -- well let me rephrase that. We have prisoners that come to our office. So, we do take care of the prisoners from the local prison systems and they're brought to us for consultations and treatment with.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: That's not the facility that y'all manage or that MUSC manages?

DR. LEMON: No, sir. No, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: That's just coming into your regular office?

DR. LEMON: That's my private practice.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you for that, thank you. It's good to see you.

DR. LEMON: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you doctor. I guess my questions are similar to everybody else's. I would love to hear your take on certificate of need.

DR. LEMON: Certificate of need is -- in my opinion, needs to be amended so that the thresholds are different in terms of dollars that it doesn't need to be taken up on a day-to-day basis with a certain lower threshold. I think it's necessary to prevent large Atrium type companies to come in and build large hospitals to compete for our tertiary and quaternary care, the complex care, that is required by the Medical University of South Carolina to survive. We do more kidney transplants than anyone in the southeast in the past year. If some of the hospitals would come in without any certificate of need requirements, I think that we would have a problem with outside -- outside of our state, people coming in.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And you mentioned Atrium. What services do you all provide to my constituency in York County that would need those services that could get to the MUSC Charleston versus an Atrium?

DR. LEMON: Kidney transplants, liver transplants, heart transplants, pediatric cardiovascular care, pediatric neurosurgery.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, York County, where I live an Atrium would be a competition to you?

DR. LEMON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: It would be?

DR. LEMON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And certificate of need would hurt the hospitals that you all the -- service areas that you all service?

DR. LEMON: I do not think certificate of need would hurt them; I think that --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I mean, if we did not have the certificate of need is what I'm asking.

DR. LEMON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I see that you are the chair of the board?

DR. LEMON: I am.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: What have you done as the chair of the board to increase the number of African Americans that enter MUSC medical school?

DR. LEMON: What my opinion is, is that if we don't have under-represented minority positions that we will continue to have discrepancies in healthcare outcomes which are known to be true and that underrepresented minorities feel better if they're face-to-face with someone that looks more like them. That's a preface to saying that we're constantly looking at ways to increase the numbers of under-represented minorities working on processes in our DEI where we seek to encourage all people to apply including the under-represented minorities. And that it is so important that we bring the percentages up more to what the percentages of our state reveal. We're not there. And our board understands that. And we understand that this is part of what I think is our fiber, to try to rectify that and we've not been able to do that thus far. REPRESENTATIVE KING: Have you all -- and I -- this is my last question, looked at doing some type of bridge program? I know that they mentioned something in reference to the College of Charleston. And it didn't necessarily mean that it was students from College of Charleston I understood that. But a bridge program with some of the HBCUs and especially like South Carolina State since it is a state supported school?

DR. LEMON: We have not -- we have not accomplished that. We have talked about that. One of our biggest shortages is nursing. And that would be a great avenue for us to garner nurses. And that is something that's been discussed but I don't, at this point in time, know where that stands.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I know that the state of South Carolina, the General Assembly, invested quite a bit of money in the sickle cell program, supports the sickle cell program throughout the state and I know that you all have done a great job at doing some sickle cell stuff. I would love to learn more and I think they're going to get me some information on the Rena Grant Sickle Cell program that you all have going on at MUSC.

DR. LEMON: Right.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott. I'm sorry -- Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Doctor, thank you for being here today and I want to first of all say that during the pandemic MUSC did an extraordinary job around here of getting folks vaccinated, so I wanted to thank y'all for that. I do want to probe a little bit on since we're getting ready to have to consider the CON legislation, I'm a little bit confused. I mean, we had a bill that would have done away with CONs that didn't pass. Now there is some sort of threshold, can you explain that to me what do you mean by threshold?

DR. LEMON: Well, if so, many beds it would be how -- and I'm not certain what the CON requirements are now, to come to the threshold of having to file the CON. But it involves a certain amount of money, certain amount of beds, certain different types of equipment, MRI, things of that nature. And I don't know the exact thing but I think that if they raised the threshold, it would decrease the number of CON applications required. It would stop the amount of cost that CON have where you have two sides with attorneys spending money that tends to come to the same --

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: There's nothing wrong with attorneys spending money. You might want to take a different tack on this.

DR. LEMON: I forgot to whom I was speaking there. But anyway, I -- as a health care person, I saw that it's something that could be eliminated to some extent or at least decreased because I think that there's -- there was too much of it from my perspective. And this is a limited perspective because I'm an oral surgeon who practices here, but when I talk to the people that are working with me they think that if we take these thresholds up it will decrease the amount of cost to our school to do certain things like an MRI facility over here or a mental health facility here and it will not come to the threshold of requiring that legal system.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Sort of what prompted me to vote for that bill, which was unsuccessful, was anecdotally a story about some doctors that wanted to open a clinic in Orangeburg that would compete for outpatient surgery with the facility you now own, you being the medical university. And the explanation was, most of those folks were going to Lexington to get service anyway, they weren't getting it in Orangeburg. I mean, again I don't know the dynamics of that, you probably know better than I do. Would thresholds solve that problem? Those folks wanted to open a limited outpatient surgery facility would compete with Orangeburg for a certain segment of population that wasn't coming there anyway.

DR. LEMON: You're correct, they were -- they were going to Lexington and that was a problem and we think the best health care is local. That's one of the mantras of Dr. Cole, that the best health care is local. And I think that if the limit had passed and that would maybe raise the threshold up so that that facility could be made there but I don't know the thresholds and I don't know the exact details.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, that bill is still percolating around somewhere. I'd be interested in getting the medical university's position on that before we have to vote on it again. I think Senator Verdin has probably get a better grasp on this than I do. I don't have much of a grasp on this.

SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR VERDIN: I'm not going to argue, dispute with anyone that's presenting and I have utmost respect for Dr. Lemon and others that have offered counter. Even lay members that are still here that have offered counter perspectives to what Dr. Don Johnson presented but I'm in with him lock, stock and barrel to answer the senator from Richland.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, that answered that. Thank you very much and I move for --

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ah, Senator Scott, do you get a question?

SENATOR SCOTT: No, you're good.

MR. CHAIRMAN: No, you if you want, go ahead.

SENATOR SCOTT: No, you're fine.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. They want to get you out of here. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: And opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. All right. Right now, Dr. Brown will not be here until 5:30. I think everybody else will be here hopefully by 6:00. So, we'll take about a fifteen, twenty-minute break and then we'll come back and hopefully knock the rest of these out. (A short break was taken at this time.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: MUSC, the 6th Congressional District to be heard, that's Dr. Brown. Come on up, please sir? DR. BROWN, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just state your name and give us a brief statement on why you want to serve on the MUSC board.

DR. BROWN: My name is William Melvin Brown, III and I am an emergency medicine doctor by trade. And a graduate of the Medical University of South Carolina. Also, a retired naval officer, who is a native Charlestonian. And I wish to serve on the board of my alma mater, because the perspectives I've gained in the military, as well as the work in the emergency department, makes me want to have a more active role in delivering health to South Carolinians.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir. For the record, just one more time, can you please state your first and last name?

DR. BROWN: William Brown.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

DR. BROWN: 324 President Street in Charleston, South Carolina 29403.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And at that address do you pay your four percent property tax?

DR. BROWN: Yes, I do.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

DR. BROWN: Yes. Merle Smith.

MS. WEBB: All right. I would just ask, whenever you finish, if you could just go back through your records and just double check, so if you have made a contribution to Merle Smith, to Speaker Smith, if you would just, please send me that information in an email, so I can update your file accordingly?

DR. BROWN: I will.

MS. WEBB: All right. And then other than that, are there any changes to your application that you would like the Commission to be made aware of?

DR. BROWN: There are none.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President? You have question.

SENATOR SCOTT: I have question.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I will yield.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Brown, for your willingness to serve. I get really excited when I see members of the Armed Forces, especially the Navy, especially the combination of combining the groups of Navy, Army and others together. How long did you serve in the Navy and having attended the Navy Academy?

DR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Not very many get the chance to be part of the Naval Academy and less known, a Navy seal. How long did you serve in the Navy?

DR. BROWN: About 20 years, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, tell me a little bit about that experience in the Navy. Because I see then you came home to the Citadel, which you came back home to Charleston. Now, also the medical university, so you're very familiar with your home county, Charleston. And I can see you as a good fit to understand some of the struggles that go on in some of the other questions that we ask, especially about getting young people more involved in the school of medicine at MUSC. Talk about that experience and what drove you to the Navy then that transitioned you back to where you are now?

DR. BROWN: Oh, what drove me to the Navy was my interest in world travel. Also, my interest in wanting to serve, and that fit in both of those boxes. I did grow up in Charleston, as mentioned earlier. And I felt the Navy offered the most opportunity to see the world. And having had that experience, it made me have an affinity for our hometown, but at the same time, feel like there are a lot of things that I could bring back to my hometown to make this a better place. My first six years was as an engineer on warships. And I did participate on a lot of operations in the Mediterranean, the Black Sea and the aftermath of the Soviet Union experiment falling. So, that was quite an experience. After that I did make a decision, after that experience, to serve my fellow man as a physician. And that's what brought me back to Charleston. I wanted to teach and I did that at the Citadel in the ROTC setting. And I wanted to work at night school to get my pre-reqs for med school, was able to go to MUSC. And enjoyed my naval service so went back into the Navy to finish out my career. And 14 years I've lived in two foreign countries and throughout the entire experience, I always knew I was coming back home to Charleston because that was where my heart was. And after getting home, I was in private practice for about two years. And the seat came open on the Board and I had always considered getting more involved in the city, municipal politics, but this was a chance to get involved in the state, on a state level. I jumped at the opportunity, because again, being an emergency medicine doctor, you get to still learn a lot about public health. And I thought this was a great means to impact public health in South Carolina.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And good afternoon.

DR. BROWN: Senator.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And thank you for your military service and your service on the board. And being in medicine, yourself, from that standpoint, what is the biggest challenge you think is facing the Medical University of South Carolina?

DR. BROWN: The biggest challenge in my opinion and I understand, Senator, this is from my medical perspective --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yes, sir

DR. BROWN: -- is capacity. In the emergency department, we see up close and personal the challenges and managing an aging population. And I say capacity because one of the toughest challenges of being an emergency doctor is what I'll call boarding, where I have to have many patients who've been admitted to the hospital staying down in the emergency department. It's stressful to the patient, stressful to the families. So, in my opinion, the biggest challenge is having enough hospital beds to take care of our population.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, is the expansion across the state of South Carolina by MUSC, impacting the focus of making sure that there's enough beds for there at the facility that's a flagship facility there at MUSC?

DR. BROWN: Yes, Senator, is my hope that it is positively impacting and it is also allowing people to be hospitalized in their communities without losing their local hospitals.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, then my question is, is that having an impact on the MUSC not having enough beds, there at the campus there in Charleston?

DR. BROWN: Yes, Senator, it does. If a person is admitted to a hospital, in one of the satellite campuses of the medical university, then that means that they don't have to be brought to Charleston for all treatments.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. You have a very impressive resume. I just noticed one error on here and that was the fraternity in which you pledged. You might could have made a better decision but we'll talk about that personally. But no, I have a question in reference to you being an African-American doctor. So many people don't know about sickle cell.

DR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have two nieces that suffered with sickle cell that this General Assembly made it a very important issue to the point that we have worked along side of MUSC to establish the Rena Grant Sickle Cell that you all have there. Where do you see, in the educational component of the students that matriculate through the medical school, where there can be something that focuses on, that every student that goes through learns something about sickle cell?

DR. BROWN: Where are the curriculums, sir?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Yes. Do you think it's possible to have that in the curriculum?

DR. BROWN: Oh, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And the reason why I ask that is because I find that there is a shortage of doctors that deal with sickle cell patients.

DR. BROWN: I do think that is available at different points throughout the curriculum. As a student, when you're rotating through different departments, I think that one can get a great indoctrination into sickle cell. And no pun intended, crisis on the pediatrics rotations, which is a standard rotation for all the undergraduates. I also do feel that they should also be involved in rotations for most of your medicine doctors as residents. Any opportunity, again, presents itself in pediatrics, as well as in the hematology/oncology suite, as well. And then it can also be taught in the classes where your physical diagnosis. Because when in physical diagnosis, you have to learn about pain management. And pain management is essential to treatment of sickle cell patients.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My last question and it also deals with sickle cell. How do you facilitate patients that do come to the ER and are now being identified as drug seekers, but the Governor did sign it into law last year, the Rena Grant Sickle Cell Registry. Have you seen it work? Is it up and running or do you know anything about it?

DR. BROWN: I do. Again, being an emergency doctor and I hope I don't sound like a broken record; we are the front lines of seeing this. And as a testimonial to what we've done as a state in the seven years I've been practicing emergency medicine, I've seen a decrease in emergency -- in the emergency department use in the Charleston tri-county area for sickle cell patients. One, more captured in the clinics to take care of these folks and they have better access to the clinics. But two, as far as pain management, the registry has helped us in managing that. There are some very small numbers of minor abuses. For the most part, in addition to have this registry it has increased the education. The South Carolina Medical Association has increased the education. I think that now the stigma and misunderstanding of the amount of pain medication required to manage someone on sickle cell has improved. I hope that answers your question.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: You did and thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ready for favorable? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you Dr. Brown for your service. Thank you for your service in the military.

DR. BROWN: Thank you for your time and thank you for your service.

MR. CHAIRMAN: And that got all of MUSC. Now, we're up to SC State. The 5th Congressional District, seat five. We have three candidates. The first one is Abigail Busby Webb, come on up, please.

SC STATE: ABIGAIL BUSBY WEBB, duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just state your name and a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the SC State Board.

MS. WEBB: I'm Abigail Busby Webb. Good evening, Chairman Whitmire, other members of the screening committee. I would like to thank you for allowing me the opportunity to stand before you today to briefly share with you why I believe that I could be of a major service to South Carolina State University, boldly, which is my alma mater. I am a native of Orangeburg County. I still attend church there, the Antioch Baptist Church; however, I currently reside in Sumter, South Carolina, where my husband and I raised our three daughters. I was a retired educator until, I guess, January 2022. I recently retired in June 2020. And then I was asked to come back to serve a purpose, at that time, at the adult education level. Since then, I have moved from that temporary position to the position of coordinator for instruction and professional development. I received my master's degree and my -- bachelor's degree and my master's degree from South Carolina State University. And I hold that institution, its students, and its faculty and staff, to be very dear to my heart. I believe that it has a mission to educate and advance our students, the ones that they are serving, to be able to move into the dynamic global arena that we now live and work in every day of our lives. And they need to have the best skills possible, be highly academically achieve and be able to live, communicate and operate in this society on that level. I have a very strong and dedicated work ethic. And I look forward to helping President Conyers, the faculty staff and the cabinet move that institution to the height and the capacity that I truly believe it can be. Along with contending to be a positive recruiter for the college, I believe that I can help boost that enrollment and ensure that the enrollment moves to the level that that the faculty and staff can actually accommodate and work with. I realize that the enrollment currently is down, but I truly believe that it has the capacity to move forward. And with that enrollment moving forward we also would concentrate on retention. Because once we get them there, we need to be able to keep them there, at least for the three or four years of their program. Again, I thank you for this opportunity to stand before the screening commission and I ask that I receive your affirmative to move forward in the process.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MS. WEBB: Abigail Busby Webb.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And what is your home address?

MS. WEBB: 710 Windrow Drive, Sumter, South Carolina 29150.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MS. WEBB: That is correct.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. WEBB: No, I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And is there any change to your application that you would like for any members of the Commission to know about?

MS. WEBB: The only change was that work situation, moving from retirement status to being working full-time again.

MS. WEBB: Yes, ma'am. Thank you. And I have your letter that you submitted to me and that's included in everyone's binders.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Ms. Webb, thank you so much. I'm very impressed with your resume. I see that the amount of time you've spent with the university really has some kind of ideas, in terms of what's going on at the university level, yes, on the staff level. Transitioning from the staff level to the Board level, some of your thoughts, in terms of things that you want to achieve with the board, given the new blueprint that the school now has.

MS. WEBB: I would think first and foremost, I would certainly like to support the current vision to move the university forward. I know that President Conyers has not been in that position very long, definitely not as long as the president that I attended under, which was just President Nance. However, I do believe that with the support of the Board members, that he and his cabinet would be able to move the university forward, ensure that we build enrollment that we actually need in order that, that university can operate at full capacity. Get them there and retain them and also concentrate on our faculty and staff, their commitment, taking care of them and ensuring that we have the diverse and qualified staff that will help us get to the next level. And be a competitive university that I'm certain we can be.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? What's the --

SENATOR SCOTT: Move for a favorable report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable report. All those in favor, signify by saying aye? (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Against, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and good luck.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is Darrel Johnson, Dr. Johnson.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair, I want to ask a question before we start Dr. Johnson's questions.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Hold on one second.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: When will, would all the candidates that we've interviewed today be notified as to when they can start asking for commitments and stuff because I don't want -- some of these new people that are coming in may not realize that they cannot ask for commitments.

MS. WEBB: Yes, thank you for bringing that point up, Representative King. At the end of this, since we are live streaming, I was going to make a broadcast for everyone, just an announcement that, yes, you will be hearing from me after this. So, everyone that received a favorable report, I will let you know at that time when you're able to start getting your vote commitments from members. Until you hear from me, you are not to ask for any vote commitments from any members at this time. I will officially release you; you'll be letting -- I will make you aware ahead of time so you'll be able to claim your schedule. And you'll have, hopefully, about two weeks to get your vote commitments and then move forward in the process to a Joint Assembly on the floor. Either the last week of April or the first week of May. We're trying to set a final Joint Assembly date still.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right, Dr. Johnson, come on up. DARREL JOHNSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you just state your name and a brief statement on why you're running for the board.

DR. JOHNSON: My name is Darrel Johnson, I'm running for the board of trustees for one reason. I want to help restore the prominence of South Carolina State University. As a product of the projects of Clover, South Carolina, attending South Carolina State in 1980 as a freshman class senator, not be able to go back, didn't give up. I worked hard earning three degrees from Winthrop University, a bachelor's, master's and special degrees from Winthrop. Worked hard in education more than 32 years. I was a high school English teacher at Rock Hill High for two years -- excuse me, high school English teacher at Clover High School for two years. Language arts/journalism teacher at Clover Middle School for two years, assistant principal of Rock Hill High for two years. Then Sunset Park an elementary principal for a year. And then two years as elementary principal. And then back to Rock Hill to the district office for several years. And then went to Greenwood, South Carolina and I became the superintendent there, where I stayed for 13 consecutive years. I retired, went home relaxing, enjoying myself and got a call back, to come out of retirement and become the superintendent of Orangeburg Consolidated School District for a year. Worked with them to get through the pandemic. And I planned to just relax and I do a little coaching of executive administrative across the country. I was a college basketball official for 25 plus years. So, March Madness was my time. And I decided to sit down, but some people talked to me and made me realize that I have something to give back. Education afforded me an opportunity to do some things that a country boy from the projects wouldn't get to do without a sound, solid education. SC State provided that foundation for me. And I reflected back on my first year as a freshman out of Orangeburg, South Carolina. Grandmother got me home, had no way to get back. But I found a way to get back. Went to Washington D.C. marching, to save that university. And now, more than 30 years later I have an opportunity to get back and be a part of a group and restore it to prominence. I'm a team player. I believe in all students. And I just feel like being on this board, given an opportunity to give back to the university that gave me so much, that's why I intend to run for this seat.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. Once again for the record, would you just please state your first and last name?

DR. JOHNSON: Darrel Johnson.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And can you please tell me what your home address is?

DR. JOHNSON: 732 Guinn Street, Clover, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you may any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

DR. JOHNSON: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be made aware of?

DR. JOHNSON: None, other than just doing consultant for a couple different groups, but other than that, it's the same.

MS. WEBB: Okay. Thank you.

DR. JOHNSON: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair, and thank you Dr. Johnson. I've known you for some years now. I'm still upset that you didn't go to Chester to be the superintendent in Chester when we were looking for a superintendent over there. You know I don't represent Chester, that's my hometown. So, tell me, I understand your commitment to South Carolina State. What do you envision in reference to -- I think that the administration is doing an amazing job with what they're doing now. But in reference to the facilities there, I know that that has been an issue and as a board member, how would you tackle that issue?

DR. JOHNSON: As a board member, I would tackle it the same way. I know the president has been there just a short amount of time. But my first year in Greenwood as school superintendent, I had never built anything in my life. But the first as superintendent, we embarked upon a $150,000,000 building program in Greenwood School District 50. It was tough. It was hard. But I learned right then through teamwork with a group of people working together, you can accomplish numerous goals. It's amazing how much can be accomplished when no one cares who gets the credit. Infrastructure's very, very, important. And I support the president of the university for what they're doing right now. I was on the campus last Thursday; I rode back through on my way somewhere else. I thought about, if I was going to go, what would I do to work with this group, help them get to the next level. But work as part of the team and to help them continue the progress they've already started, would be my goal, to get in for as much as I possibly can and work as part of the team with the understanding that everyone brings something to the table.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Let me thank you again for your willingness to serve. I see that all the time you spent at Winthrop why South Carolina State -- Winthrop you went freshman year and you got the Bull Dog bite and then it's kind of hard to turn. But then you went to Winthrop, which is a teaching school.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: And then you did quite well in your teaching career, but you ended up back at South Carolina State to get your doctorate. But why South Carolina State board rather than Winthrop board right now?

DR. JOHNSON: Well, when you've been raised in the projects with your grandmother and that's your only means of support, you go where the dollars allow you to go. So, I transferred from SC State back to Winthrop, that was closer to home. And Winthrop was a great institution and I learned so much there, attained three degrees. But my father, my aunts, my cousins, a lot of my relatives went to SC State. And although

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

I was not an SC State graduate at that time, I still supported the university, going to the games, enjoying the mystic of being there at that university. And I'll never forget how it felt my freshman year being there, on the grounds, sitting in the crowd, with all the stuff that was going on around me. That's the feeling I'll never forget. And I had no plans on going into education, in the profession. Actually, I just wanted to go to school and have an opportunity. And I found out with education that opened up so many doors for me. So, SC State is where I started and that's where I finished.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Favorable report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Put in for a favorable report. All in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and good luck to you.

DR. JOHNSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next is Thomas Thompson. THOMAS THOMPSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just give your name and a brief statement because you're running for the SC Board.

MR. THOMPSON: Okay. And name's Thomas Thompson, my name. I came to South Carolina in 1982 from the Midwest. Prior to that time, I heard almost nothing about historically black colleges and institutions. I knew of maybe Tennessee State and Fisk because they were nationally known, but other than that, I had very little knowledge. But as I began to talk with people around South Carolina, invariably would they talk about their experiences at South Carolina State. And I was amazed at how proud they were of the experiences that they gained and their support for that institution. I probably bring a little different perspective than the other folks. I was part of the South Carolina State Administration from 2004 to 2006 until 2010 as dean of the college of graduate, graduate studies. I got a chance to witness firsthand the pride coming from the students and other faculty members. As a result, I would be honored to be able to share my knowledge and experience of college administration through the Board on South Carolina State University. And help it to restore or help to restore it to one of the premier institutions in South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir. And for the record just one more time, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. THOMPSON: Thomas Thompson.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

MR. THOMPSON: 831 MacArthur Street, Rock Hill 29730.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And is that the address that you pay your four percent property tax at?

MR. THOMPSON: It is.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. THOMPSON: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like to make the Commission aware of?

MR. THOMPSON: There aren't.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Good afternoon.

MR. THOMPSON: Good afternoon.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, you mentioned your service and work there as the chair of the department of education and leadership at South Carolina State; is that correct?

MR. THOMPSON: That is correct. I also served as dean of the school of graduate studies.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. So, I just curious, how do you -- how would you be able to utilize that time as a -- having been in those capacities, how do you see that impacting or helping, hurting with your service on the board of trustees?

MR. THOMPSON: I think it will help my service on the board of trustees. I also worked at the University of South Carolina, as a faculty member. I've worked for Walden University, an online institution, as a coordinator of their Ph.D. program, and also Albany State University as dean of the college of education. So, I have an understanding of college administration. I know that the President, Conyers has a great vision for the school. And I think that I can utilize the experience that -- knowledge and experience that I have of how institutions work to help the Board and the administration to view, to tell the realistic view of where we can go as an institution.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. For many, many years it's been a real struggle on the campus separation or responsibility as a power.

MR. THOMPSON: Uh-huh.

SENATOR SCOTT: Staff overstepping into the administrative part.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. THOMPSON: Uh-huh.

SENATOR SCOTT: Then creating more conflict as it reached the boards. How do you plan to be able to create those relationships on the staff side, so it doesn't interfere with board policies and the board actually being sound to be able to carry those policies out?

MR. THOMPSON: I think that what helps in those situations is strong board support for the president and his or her vision. And maintaining communication with faculty members, whatever the grievances are, you have to let them know that they're not being ignored. And to work within the resolution of those kinds of grievances.

SENATOR SCOTT: That's a very thin line.

MR. THOMPSON: True, it is. It is.

SENATOR SCOTT: When they ignored and deemed what they consider to be overpowering to make the decision for direction when the Board and the president is trying to take the school it's been a big, big issue. So, make sure especially when these folks have been a part of the previous administration and their roles, understand their responsibility. You get great friends and other relationships down there. So, part is making the tough decisions.

MR. THOMPSON: That is correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: And it's been an issue before. And so, I'm just kind of a little concerned, when I see someone whose been administration and having to deal with staffing and now are going to the board and being able to really when the board makes a decision, that decisions not undermined. That give me some great heartburn, those decision undermined. Because there are things that -- and cases that the staff doesn't know about, in terms of getting to the key point where you can make some real tough decisions. What the school has done for the school. All information is not privileged here but about --

MR. THOMPSON: That's correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- it's board information what makes this a tough decision. What's your thought on that?

MR. THOMPSON: I have no ulterior motives, other than to help the institution return to the reputation I've know that -- that it's had over the years. And to help it become, as I said before, one of the premier institutions in the state of South Carolina.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable? All those in favor of a favorable report, signify by saying aye (Ayes were heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Good luck to you, sir.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. THOMPSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is at-large, seat nine. Rodney C. Jenkins.

RODNEY C. JENKINS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you state your name and give us a brief statement why you're running for the SC State Board.

MR. JENKINS: Rodney C. or Rodney Clay Jenkins.

MS. WEBB: And a brief statement as to why you'd like to serve.

MR. JENKINS: I'm returning, seeking a return seat. I've been, I've served on the board now for the last four and a half years, a little more now. I came in 2018. I want to come, doing the same as I did before. I came bringing love and passion to the university, being a former -- a student and graduate of South Carolina State. Getting ready to celebrate my 50th class anniversary this year. So, we'll be in reunion for our golden class reunion this year. Been serving on the board as for the last four and a half years, you know, we believe that a lot of things have happened. And we've been able to get some things moving at the university that had gotten a little stagnated. And since that time we've been able to make some things happen and I want to be able to remain on board to continue the good work that has been started along with the help of this legislature, we've been able to, you know, acquire additional funds and to do some things that, not only through the state, but through federal dollars to help us move the university physically and with our enrollment throughout. So, I would like to remain to help with that process as we go forward.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir. And just one more time for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. JENKINS: Rodney Clay Jenkins.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And what is your home address?

MR. JENKINS: 8208 Hunt Club Road, Columbia, South Carolina 29223.

MS. WEBB: Sorry, thank you. And is this the address that you pay your four percent property tax at?

MR. JENKINS: Yes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. JENKINS: No, I haven't.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like any members of the Commission to know?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. JENKINS: Yes. I've been and I've just looked at this again in the last few days. When I wrote -- when the application was re-submitted, I was the chair of the Board. And at this point, I am just a board member. I'm no longer the chair. I was the chair for three years.

MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.

MR. JENKINS: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I tell you as a new board member coming in, becoming the chair, I had to hold my breath there for a little while. You really gave me a whole lot of time to make that adjustment, transitional board coming off was, you still had a transitional board. Old president going out, new president coming in, president selection, change in policy, which some members not doing what they supposed to do, in terms of following policies and procedures. New growth and a new plan. Talk to me a little bit about that, you the one in the hot seat to get it all done, to move that transition to where it is now. As we move forward from those plans to the new plan of where we're going. Just elaborate a little bit, start at any point you want to because you're the one who had it all to get it done as the chair.

MR. JENKINS: It's a long story, but it's a good story. And it starts with common sense, practicability. You call on the professionals, AGB, Association of Governing Rules. We really, based on what we came in after, we did not want to be tripped up with governance being a problem. We didn't dip into administration. We would -- I would err on the sound of caution. And I would ask the board members to do likewise. And quite frankly, I talked to board members that were there before because the transition board did hold it together. But we had to come in as the new board and really try to make things happen. Getting in such a seat, the big issue was remaining and knowing that we were doing the work of SACSCOC, making sure that we were in doing our governments role, and not stepping into administration knowing where it might have opinion, but knowing that wasn't our road. I had communications with the President of SACSCOC, Dr. Belle Wheelan, made sure that we were doing the, being the straight and narrow. Once I called her -- and she said I'm glad you called me because I didn't want to have to beat you over the head later. So, we stayed the course. And thus far, that's where we are. It's a longer story, but that is the highlights.

SENATOR SCOTT: I know that your request is a tremendous request. You want to move on the university forward, capital projects that we probably should have taken care of a long time ago. And even the commitment from the school itself to go into a fundraising mode to be able to pay some of that cost that came with the dormitories and others that are out there. I know that in many cases, some of the conversation between you and others, such as myself, until these things appear to be moving in the right direction and before to be given back to the board, could be some kind of problematic. Share a little input on that, because everybody information -- all the information not for everybody. Talk a little bit about that and where it put you as the leader, the chair on the board -- budgeting and those kinds of issues and trying to turn the corner. And also trying to change that environment of the school.

MR. JENKINS: Well, one of the things that the president came to us with was he needed to make certain that he got a good physical person. I'm a retired CFO from a state agency. I didn't have a bad audit for 28 years. So being in a leadership role there, I wasn't going to do that either at South Carolina State. But when the president came and said these are the things we need to do, these are the priorities and here's how we might do it. We just gave him all the support. We shared our opinions. I shared mine. In a -- again, in a governance role. But from -- and for the dollars that we were requesting, you know, we you have a process and we've started talking to folks about the public/private partnership. So, with that we believe that we can truly build dormitories through that process but needing the General Assembly to help us with classrooms. We have the oldest buildings of public schools in the state. So, we're really in need of such. So, with that, itself, you know, those are the pieces that will help us attract new students and put us in a place where we can take care of students, that probably wouldn't get a chance to go to school elsewhere.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you Mr. Jenkins.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And thank you for what you've been doing at SC State. I would just -- well, I guess when you were before us last. Because it looks like you're here now, the owner of a consulting company; is that right?

MR. JENKINS: Yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And that's been from 2009 and that continues to do that aspect?

MR. THOMPSON: I still have it. I do very little work in it now. I'm sort of retiring, retiring.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: There's nothing there -- or is there anything there that you do that directly or indirectly involved SC State?

MR. THOMPSON: Nothing

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Just wanted to get that on the record.

MR. JENKINS: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable? All those in favor, signify by saying aye for favorable. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Against, none? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. JENKINS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thanks for your service.

MR. JENKINS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Now, we're up to at-large, seat 11, Robert S. Reese. Welcome, sir. ROBERT S. REESE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just give us your name and a brief statement why you're running.

MR. REESE: Okay. Good evening, everyone on the board, Screening Commission. My name is Robert Reese. I was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina. On October in 2019, I retired from the College of Charleston, Department of Public Safety, Campus Law Enforcement. Also served in the Marine Corp for eight years, and also with that Infantry Unit there. Why I want to serve, is basically I've been -- my mom is from Orangeburg area, it's a town called Bowman, South Carolina. So, it's a rural area, raised on a farm. So, I know about hard work. But she also instilled in us that it's good to have a college education. And I want to give back, with that in mind. And I think I want to start at South Carolina State because I heard good things, not only this evening, but what I've heard from the past about South Carolina State, it's a great institution. My wife used to be the general counsel there. Her name is Mercedes Pinckney Reese. So, I know a little bit about South Carolina State. And I know -- just to get -- I guess I'm the youngest one here. I graduated from Starr High School, graduated in 1984, so what I know about South Carolina State, they had a pretty good football team and they continue to have a football team, but I would see they grow a little beyond that. Also, I have a daughter who is in graduate school there, so I definitely have a vested interest in that. And also have a cousin, who's a freshman at South Carolina State. So, based on my 31 years serving at the College of Charleston, I have a little bit of background how a college works, how it runs. So, I want to give back, with that experience. Working at the College of Charleston, I think I can contribute a lot to South Carolina State.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. REESE: First name is Robert, middle name is S. Reese.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And what is your mailing address, what is your home address?

MR. REESE: Mailing address is 313 Brickline Drive, Summerville, South Carolina 29483.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir. And when you had initially applied -- so you submitted this original application back in 2021.

MR. REESE: Yes, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: Did you have your address as 427 Elliston Street in Summerville, South Carolina?

MR. REESE: Yes, just following up, I did update that with you, I submitted that, and my new address is at 313 Brickline Drive, Summerville. And also, since then, I come out of retirement, also part-time with the Federal Courthouse in Charleston, with the federal side of the walled-in security there in Charleston, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, I have your email stating that you did update your address. I don't have any documentation about your current employment. If you could just send me an email with your employers' information?

MR. REESE: Yes.

MS. WEBB: Just at some point, that would be very helpful. I do have the updated address as 313 Brickline Drive, Summerville, South Carolina and that is correct?

MR. REESE: Yes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that new address?

MR. REESE: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MR. REESE: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And besides the changes that we just went over, are there any changes to your application that you would like the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. REESE: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Reese for your willingness to serve.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. REESE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: After 31 years at the College of Charleston, why South Carolina State? And an alumnus of Southern Western University, why not that board for South Carolina State?

MR. REESE: Well, like I said earlier, I've got a vested interest at South Carolina State in my daughter, China Rae Reese, attends graduate school there. Also, again, a freshman, my cousin attends there also. But my mom graduated from Claflin, so I have a little background in HBCU, so that's why it kind of draw me back to there.

SENATOR SCOTT: South Carolina State is a whole different experience. Whole different experience than cousin, friends and others go, become a part of the Bulldog experience.

MR. REESE: Looking forward to that, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, I wish you well on it. I'm more than sure that once you complete working there, it's a transformation change, in terms of how South Carolina State college does things.

MR. REESE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you. Good afternoon.

MR. REESE: Good afternoon, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you for being here with us and for your years of service in law enforcement. Where does your wife work?

MR. REESE: My wife currently is not working right now. Just -- I forgot to add one more thing. It's not that important, but my wife, we just had a brand-new baby boy on Saturday.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Congratulations.

MR. REESE: Thank you very much, so right now she's attending -- taking care of my daughter right now.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Am I reading this correct, had she worked at South Carolina State?

MR. REESE: She has worked at South Carolina State.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: What was her employment?

MR. REESE: She was the general counsel for South Carolina State.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. And when did she terminate in that position?

MR. REESE: In 2000 -- I think 2020. She moved and got a job at the US Air Force Academy when she left South Carolina State.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor for a favorable report, signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Against? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and I do want to thank you for your service in the Marine Corp, eight years, that's a long time with the Marines.

MR. REESE: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: For sure. Army's the best I could do.

MR. REESE: Thank you, sir.

WINTHROP:

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Thank you. All right. That takes care of SC State. We're up to Winthrop, the 3rd Congressional District Seat 3. Rhonda S. Grant had applied from Seneca. She withdrew as of March 8th of this year. So, we will open that one back up whenever we do our next round of hearings. Now, up is the 4th Congressional District Seat 4. Edward R. Driggers, if you'll come on up. EDWARD R. DRIGGERS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll give me your name and a brief statement why you're wanting to be on the Winthrop report?

MR. DRIGGERS: Edward R. Driggers. I go by Ed. I have spent a career in public service. And as a result of that, I retired a few years ago and have had the opportunity to consider reappointment to the board of trustees at Winthrop and have had enjoyed my time and my work with the university and believe that I continue to have something to offer to that institution. I am a lifelong resident of South Carolina. My wife is an undergraduate and graduate student of -- a graduate program, graduate in education. Spent 31 years in a public school system. I did my undergraduate work at the University of South Carolina. But I did my graduate work at Winthrop University in their executive MBA program while I was working full-time and entered into that program. It's been a joy. It's been my pleasure to serve. And with your consideration I would be honored to continue to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. Once again for the record, could you just please state your first and last name?

MR. DRIGGERS: Edward R. Driggers.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MR. DRIGGERS: 5202 Edward Mosley Way, Greer.

MS. WEBB: And when you had initially submitted this application, which was back in 2021, your address was 522 Silver Ridge Drive in Greer, South Carolina?

MR. DRIGGERS: That is correct. I moved about five miles away, certainly still within the 4th Congressional District. But my wife and I decided to downsize, after our children had moved out. And we are in temporary housing at 5202, while we are looking for a permanent residence in the Greer community.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, are you renting at that 5202?

MR. DRIGGERS: We are renting.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right. Thank you for that clarification. And since filling out this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of? MR. DRIGGERS: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application, other than what we just discussed about your residence that you would like for members of the Commission to know about?

MR. DRIGGERS: I'm not positive at that time if I identified that I was beginning to do work as a consultant with Parker Poe Consulting, but I am doing that currently.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And just for the record, you did have your present employer as Parker Poe Consulting.

MR. DRIGGERS: Okay.

MS. WEBB: So, thank you for that.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you Mr. Driggers for your willingness to serve. We had a chance to meet through the new president. Part of that conversation was about branding or making some other kind of changes, in terms of, what's your thought? Winthrop's always been noted for being the school for teachers. There was a time when the status was to supplement teachers' shortages. My conversation with him was very brief, why? Especially given the track record y'all have had to continue to grow teachers in South Carolina. Whether you were challenging us to help y'all to fulfill that capacity.

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, I certainly believe as a trustee of the university that would continue to be a priority of mine. As I stated earlier my wife did both her undergraduate and graduate work there to learn how and to improve being a teacher. It's a rich tradition of this state. Many people in my family and families across this state learned to be educators at that university. And I think that will continue to be a priority. I think what our president understands is that diversification is going to be absolutely necessary for us to continue in a new marketplace. And so, we have to look at new program areas as well. But there has been no discussion of diminishing our role of the responsibility as a university --

SENATOR SCOTT: I hope I'm not indicating that that's what's going to happen. I'm more concerned about loss of student population, those kinds of issues. Where do you see Winthrop going, in terms of getting the population back, increasing the amount of teachers, the teacher shortage? You know, what I'm simply saying, tell me how Winthrop becomes the star player for colleges in South Carolina in creating more teachers, especially teachers in the more diverse communities?

MR. DRIGGERS: I think one of the great advantages that Winthrop has is that we currently are funded for, at the federal level, funding for programs on understanding the systemic issue of teacher shortages, why are students not entering into the field. Why are students not -- why are teachers not being retained in the field? So, we are on the research side of that trying very desperately to understand what's happening out there in the marketplace for teachers? And with a 31-year teacher in my household, I've heard it all. I know the challenges that educators have in the classroom. But I know that they are committed. They're absolutely committed to the jobs that they do each and every day. And so, we have to understand this marketplace. Our new, our younger students, who are coming through today, what attracts them to certain professions. How can we encourage that, happily and incentivize that, if that's necessary. I think Winthrop has to be a leader in that because of the role that we've traditionally held in this state. And my personal belief is, I think that's how our trustees feel. And I certainly believe that our new president will become more aware and understanding of --

SENATOR SCOTT: We just need to know what tools we need to equip you with, so we can get that moving, because that's a big conversation piece.

MR. DRIGGERS: And it needs to be.

SENATOR SCOTT: Right. Your family is like my family, I come from a generation of teachers. And so, we've got schools that have had a setting, curriculum for teachers and we need to know what we can do to tool Winthrop and any other schools so we can continue to get young people at an early age to commit to going to the teaching field. And so, we're open to that. So, you got some thoughts about that? I'm really, really, interested in hearing those thoughts.

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, what we are learning is that, yes, attracting folks to the field is absolutely paramount. But one of our larger issues is the retention, is we are able to get students in and we're able to educate and train them to be classroom teachers. They get to the classroom and you lose them within that first to third year. And so, strategies have to be developed and whether those are economic strategies, whether those are mentoring type strategies, you know, how do we provide the support to those young teachers to get them over that hump? It's the hump that really is affecting us. Yeah, we get more students in our business administration program today than we get in our college of education. That's students making decisions about what they would like to do. And so, we have to provide various programs for them. But we get and we understand that this commitment to education has to be there. And we've just got to, we've got to be innovative. And innovation doesn't necessarily come from a single trustee or from a single president or from a single professor, that innovation has to come from current students and former students. We've got to reach out and have conversations with our young people about, you know, if this was not a choice, if you changed your major midway, help us understand why and what can we do to make some modifications in our programming, so that we can attract and retain.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, as a member of the Board, I'm looking to hear back on those answers, the rest of the Board is going in. You cannot school of teachers and education is getting a little tough. Thank you, so much.

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative Rose.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Mr. Driggers, good afternoon. Mr. Driggers, I had an experience with Winthrop. I mean, you were on the Board back in 2020, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And I -- you don't know this about me, but I actually grew up playing tennis. I came to the University of South Carolina on a tennis scholarship. And I didn't know much about Winthrop when I first began my tennis career. But we had played Winthrop, you had star player from Brazil named Clayton Almeida, who was great guy. We battled on the tennis courts. But one thing that always struck me about Winthrop is that you guys had a legendary tennis program. In fact, one of the most decorated programs in the big south, your athletic conference, is history. And so, I started getting, you know, phone calls from former players that I knew from competition in the NCAA, that were saying, listen, Winthrop is cutting their men's and women's tennis programs. And they were coming to me for assistance or for some type of answers. And so, I had had no interaction with the Winthrop Board whatsoever. And but for this happening, I wouldn't have any interaction. But I reached out, specifically, you know -- the June -- there was a June 19, 2020, board meeting and that is actually the board meeting where the vote was taken. As I looked into this and had conversations, it was concerning to me that actually the day before, the board even voted, before you even voted. On June 18th, the athletic director told the tennis programs and all these student athletes that they were being cut and they needed to make decisions on where to go, that you would honor their scholarships or they could leave. I guess, can you tell me how -- I mean, you would agree that the board itself must vote to take action, correct?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DRIGGERS: Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And so, can you explain to me how a day before you guys' vote, the athletic department, that the athletic director has been instructed and has notified coaches and players that they've already been eliminated without a board vote. How would that happen?

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, I can say it shouldn't have. I could say, obviously, prior to us taking a vote an ultimate vote on that issue, this is something that the Board had been engaged in for some time. It was not an issue that was taken lightly. There were many, many factors to consider in that particular issue. It was a recommendation that was coming to us from our interim president. There was buy-in from the athletic director, that we were informed that the athletic director supported that decision. So, the interim president and the athletic director were making a recommendation. It was being discussed and evaluated at the committee level of the board. And what occurred, actually on that date was a final vote. No, no one would have been authorized by the Board to have made any type of announcements relative to that because going into that meeting, that decision, the outcome could have been different.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: What materials, I mean, I was surprised to learn, as I looked into this that no materials were actually on the agenda. I noticed in your resume you served in local government. I, prior to being here, served in local government. We would have agendas that thick, with a lot of materials, background information. I was shocked to learn, as I was looking into this, that there were no materials provided to the board. Were you aware of any materials at this June 19th board meeting that you were given?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was -- well, not particularly at that meeting, but I certainly was provided material prior to when it was presented to the committee. I probably received more information from constituency of the university that was not in support of that ultimate decision. And that material did not always balance with that, that we were receiving from the university. And there was a great deal of questions that needed to be asked in that. There was enormous amount of emotion in that -- in the arena of that discussion of what was taking place. So, while that meeting was the conclusion and there was a final vote, there was indeed financial information. There was information provided to us relative to our program. And I can only say, this was, it was not an easy decision. When a university is faced with making financial cuts, we do have an obligation and a responsibility to look in many areas. And we have made cuts in many other areas.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: So, you aren't aware that the executive committee, which I understand is the president -- Let me ask you this, were you on the executive committee?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Okay. So, you aren't aware that the executive committee, which is the president and the subcommittee chairs, had already -- had made a decision prior to sending this to the sports committee to cut the men's and women's tennis program?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, sir. I'm not.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: You weren't aware of that? But you would agree that the sports committee would be the proper place to vent that, would you not?

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: But yet that wasn't done.

MR. DRIGGERS: It was discussed in the sports committee, the athletic committee, but I'm not aware that there was other discussion or any action taken by the executive committee.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Well, let me ask you this, you're aware of a group of tennis alumni --

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Who started a massive campaign when this came to light, they found out, you know, I guess this really came out in June 18th, when the athletic director announced this, prior to the board vote. And they started this massive fundraising campaign, were you aware that they had secured close to $800,000 in donations?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was advised that there were commitments made, but there was not verification of the commitments. That's the communication I received.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And you were aware that, for example, the United States Tennis Association was willing to give a $500,000 grant for the upkeep of tennis courts. You weren't made aware of that?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was never advised, in my capacity as a member of that board of trustees, that there was a $500,000 commitment by a specific organization with that purpose.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: But you were aware at the September Board meeting there was a tennis alumnus who's an attorney, who now lives in Charlotte, Julie Busha, I'm maybe mispronouncing her name. But she was the -- she spoke at your September meeting and implored the board to allow the opportunity for them to present their plan, to present their findings. And you were present for that meeting, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Why wouldn't the board, and here's the things. I actually was involved in this process where I was simply asking for these former student athletes to have the opportunity to come to their alma mater's board and present. I was told that they could only have two minutes to speak to the board. And these are individuals who have raised close to $800,000 and could have presented to you and made you aware of this information that you were unaware of. I specifically made the request that they be given five minutes. I was wanting 10 minutes, give them 10 minutes to present a plan, they are raising money. And essentially was told no, these student athletes were told no. And so, you could, I hope you can understand my frustration --

MR. DRIGGERS: Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: -- when there are people that care deeply about Winthrop athletics and have a degree that they have framed and put on the wall. And they are asking our elective board to just have the simple dignity to say, let us tell you about this grant that we have. Let us talk about these donors that are willing to contribute. And they were told no, unanimously by the board.

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, the no was a decision by the chair of the board.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: So, you as an individual member do not have the ability to make a motion to allow for simple -- or you have no means whatsoever to put something on the agenda?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, we do have the means to place on the agenda and I do believe we would have the ability to make either a statement or a motion to allow additional time. The question is, did I do that, no, sir, I did not.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: The you can understand -- let me ask you this, why would a board not want to know that a tennis alumni were raising and had grants upwards to $800,000 and be able to ask questions and ascertain that. Why would they not want to do that? I mean, is that good governance?

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, I can't speak for the other 14 members of the board, obviously.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Look, let me ask you this. Were you ever made aware that the president -- I guess he's now the former president. The president's office, through board members, actually came to these tennis alumni and told them they must take down their, Go Fund me page. They were acting as if they were Winthrop to which they replied, we were making it very clear we're not Winthrop, we are saying Winthrop tennis. Were you made aware of that?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was aware of that, but not through the Board. I was made aware of that by Ms. Bouchard.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Ms. Bouchard.

MR. DRIGGERS: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Did you do anything to kind of step in and say, hey, why will we not let tennis alumni raise money for their own program? I mean, did you do anything to --

MR. DRIGGERS: I did. I questioned that. I distinctly remember asking what is there that we don't know? There was concern on my individual part, as an individual trustee of the board. There was concern on my part of not all information making it to the entire board. I concur with you. I believe that there was more information at the executive committee level than there was at the full board level. But this was a time that I, individually, supported the recommendation of our president and of our athletic director that they had vetted this issue and I trusted that to be accurate.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Are you aware of -- you know, one of the things that was presented was the cost of upkeep of tennis courts. Are you aware that no where was there quotes, specific quotes from companies or entities that came out and actually gave a physical quote, there was just a number given but no actual -- were you ever handed a document from somebody who does tennis courts that said, here's what it will cost?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, that number was provided to us by the administration.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And you would be surprised to know that that number was never supported by an actual document. You never saw a document, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Never saw a document that supported that.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Are there nice -- let me ask you this, are there nice tennis facilities public in Rock Hill? There are some nice tennis facilities, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: So, do you think as a former - - being in local government, do you think your local government, it was their approach by Winthrop, who does a lot, I'm sure locally, economy of their students and the impact you have on the community. Do you think that local government would have allowed Winthrop for a year, or two years, or three years, or four years to have varsity tennis matches, NCAA tennis matches at their facilities? Do you think that would have been fruitful? Do you think, did the board ever ask local government or the parks to be able to use the tennis courts for this program?

MR. DRIGGERS: I am not aware if that question was asked.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Would that have been something prudent to save money, rather fix up the courts?

MR. DRIGGERS: I certainly think so.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And that wasn't ever analyzed?

MR. DRIGGERS: Not to my knowledge.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Compounding my frustration, please understand that I got into this, I was getting calls for help. And I honestly, am baffled that I am here having to say that we couldn't allow tennis alumni -- I asked for 10 minutes, then I went down to five. I mean, the simple dignity that could have been extended by this board to allow people the opportunity to speak, these alumni to speak and present, and the lack of due diligence that was done to see if there were means to save this program, to me is quite shocking. This was all compounded by the fact that there was a key individual that wanted to speak. Let me ask you this, are there board members that live out of state in Winthrop? MR. DRIGGERS: No.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Are there board members -- let me ask you this. Are -- by your rules, this is in 2020, especially, but by your rules can board members attend virtually?

MR. DRIGGERS: We did have virtual meetings during Covid.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Okay. And so, you would agree, we're talking, right now, we're in 2020, so that was the height of the pandemic, correct? I was shocked to find out, there was a request and I have the email request, because I was cc'd on it. Again, I'm asking for a simple thing from the board -- like letting people be heard and speak. But there is a gentleman, there was an email sent asking for tennis alumni to be able to address the Board virtually or at least be put on speaker. And individuals such as a former tennis player by the name of Keriyon Vall. Keriyon Vall is a former Winthrop student body president. Captain of the men's tennis team in 1997. He was voted the keynote speaker for Winthrop graduation in 2012. He lives in London, he's a very successful lawyer. He wanted the opportunity -- now, we know board members have the ability to attend virtually but he wanted the opportunity to be able to speak to the board. And he was rebuffed the opportunity. We were told, in writing, that he would have to present in person or he would not be able to be heard. I mean, do you think that's -- is that a good policy or is that fair in the midst of a pandemic?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DRIGGERS: I was not involved in that decision, but no, I agree.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: You didn't make a motion or anything to try to alleviate this --

MR. DRIGGERS: It was brought to the fore that that request was made.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Oh, but there was a speaker, in person, that mentioned that, Julie Busha, she was able to -- she lives in Charlotte, she attended, and actually brought these concerns, did she not?

MR. DRIGGERS: I believe she brought her concerns during her remarks at the time of the meeting.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: I just -- I won't belabor the point at this point in time, you know. This isn't -- I just am shocked by the way the board treated alumni through this. I'm shocked by the lack of due diligence that was done in making this decision. And as I said, when I first started getting the phone calls, I didn't expect to encounter that. Had I dived into this and found that due diligence had been done, that we've explored all other alternatives using facilities, local facilities, getting quotes, hearing out a group of alumni who have raised close to a million dollars, asking those questions, not even allowing them to speak at these meetings or present their plan. I just felt it was really bad governance and that's my comments today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Thank you, Mr. Driggers for being here. And Representative Rose, please don't feel slighted by no means. I've been elected since 2008 and Winthrop has been in my district the entire time. And I've been on that campus with other members of my delegation and they don't even recognize me. And Winthrop is -- the main campus is solely in my district. Mr. Driggers, I met with some students at Winthrop a few months ago. And their concerns, some African- American students and some LGBTQ+ students, and they do not feel safe on campus. They do feel safe because of the board has not made them safe. Can you elaborate on the relationship that the board has with the students, the African-American students, as well as the LGBTQ+ community?

MR. DRIGGERS: As a board, we don't typically interact with our students. It could be perceived in a negative way. Others may believe that that is absolutely essential, but I don't -- I, as an individual member, do not interact with the students on campus. Now, that doesn't mean that when I'm there, that I don't stop and talk with folks and ask them how they're doing and those types of things. But I don't survey the students to that degree. Information is funneled to us, through various means, typically through our dean of students of issues and concerns that are happening at our campus community. We are made aware. We believe we are made aware of all of those incidents that there could be any concern about, you know, a student feeling safe and secure, I would be the first to say, absolutely. I had two daughters that attended, you know, university campuses and I would have never wanted my children to feel unsafe on a university campus, whether it's a private university or a state supported university, in-state, out-of-state, no matter where it is. Students need to feel safe. I know that there have been changes to staff positions, to help with that. That some of the concerns of those students were being addressed more as an individual of the campus community. And changes were made in regard to who that was, and who that reporting, and who had administration was being handled by. And so, yes, we were aware that there were some concerns. And we have attempted to make modifications and changes to address those concerns. Has every student -- is where we would like for them to be. I would have to imagine not. When our former president made a decision to leave the university, we had students that were very upset with the Board of Trustees that, that was happening. I mean, we, it is not unusual in a campus environment that decision-makers get cast for blame, when decisions are made that one doesn't individually support or they do not agree with. For us, that comes with our territory. But we do, very much, try to be sensitive to those issues and concerns. If I were to ever be informed that someone says, you know, I've reported an incident, it has not been handled. I would be a trustee that would be inquiring through our administration, what is the status of this, what's happening, has it been looked into. I may not go so far as to say I agree or I disagree with the action. But I certainly would be one that would say, please let me know that this has been addressed.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My next question is, the relationship that the college should have with the local delegation. What is your take on the relationship that the college should have with their local delegation or legislative delegation?

MR. DRIGGERS: It is a -- it has been a point of conversation with our new president, who arrived in July. There is a list that we've provided that says these are constituencies of our university that we need to make sure that there's some face-time with, with the president of the university and what's happening. I can assure you I doubled checked that. Our legislative delegation is a part of that. And that will be happening. You should have received an invitation to the inauguration of our new president on April 14th. I inquired about that personally and I was assured that those invitations were sent to our delegation.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I will say up under the leadership of former Representative Gary Simrill, I have now been included. I'm the only African-American legislator that represents York County. I solely represent the campus, the main campus of Winthrop. And I, in the time that I've been there, as a representative, I have totally been disrespected. And I've gone to the board, made them aware. I've been at functions where I am sitting beside my other members of the delegation and I will be the only one that would not be recognized. And so, I've worked and fought for Winthrop down here at the General Assembly, but I feel like I've been disrespected. But I digress, I mean, but ...

MR. DRIGGERS: May I say, may I invite you to be my personal guest?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Sure.

MR. DRIGGERS: At my next visit to campus, I would be honored. If you and I could meet on that campus?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Most definitely, I have no problem with that, Mr. Driggers. But I do still have an issue when I have students. I met with about 50 students; they invited me. I didn't know anything about it, that they felt unsafe. And I would love to have more conversations with you about that personally. That's if you have the time?

MR. DRIGGERS: I would welcome. I would welcome that opportunity.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair, I don't know if others have questions.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Let me see, any other questions? Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair, I would like to make a motion that -- to give us a little more time to make a motion to carry it over.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a motion to carry it over.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a second. All those in favor, we need to raise our hands. All in favor of carrying over, please raise your hands.
(Hands are raised)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. All right. We will carry this over, Macey.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: The hands carried it over.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I think it was, yes. Macey, explain to Representative.

MS. WEBB: All right. Just for clarification for the court reporter and for the record. We have now just made a unanimous motion to carry you over. So, this the similar situation that we had with the USC Trustees during the last screening. So, with you being an incumbent, you continue to serve in your seat until we call you back to appear. And you don't have to physically come in and appear the Commission at that time. At sometime later, the Commission will decide.

MR. DRIGGERS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you. All right. That ends our proceedings tonight. Tomorrow morning at 10:30 we have three candidates; is that correct?

MS. WEBB: Yes, three candidates for tomorrow morning. And just for clarification, also for anyone who still might be tuning in, please do not get any vote commitments or solicit any commitments until you have been released from me, which will definitely be a few days from now.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I want to personally thank the Commission for your service. A long day, but I feel like we got a lot accomplished and so I'll see you tomorrow, hopefully a little before 10:30. We're adjourned. (There being nothing further, proceeding was adjourned at 7:40 p.m.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Good morning, we're going to get started this morning. The Senators and the President have meetings at 11:00, so we need to be fairly quick with this. So, we'll do our best. First up is the Medical University of South Carolina, 3rd Congressional District. Richard M. Christian, if you come on up, I'll swear you in. Good morning, sir.

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA:

MR. CHRISTIAN: Good morning.

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand? RICHARD M. CHRISTIAN, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement, why you're running for the Board.

MR. CHRISTIAN: I'm Richard M. Christian. I'm from Greenwood. I practice orthopedic surgery for the last 30 years there, born and raised there. I took Dr. Stanley Baker's seat on the board and I've been on the board since 2018. It's my pleasure to be in front of you and I appreciate the opportunity to be on the Board.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: All right. And thank you and for the record, once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. CHRISTIAN: Richard Christian.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MR. CHRISTIAN: 512 Sparrow Road, Greenwood.

MS. WEBB: Thank you and do you pay your four percent personal property tax at that address?

MR. CHRISTIAN: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. CHRISTIAN: I have not.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for any of the Commission members to be made aware of? MR. CHRISTIAN: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Can you give me what is the biggest weakness of the institution?

MR. CHRISTIAN: Well, I'm not sure that I think that we have a single weakness. I think anybody that does as much business as we do, there are definitely issues that we have and that try to amend. But as far as any weakness I think, you know, being a proponent of the school, I'm not going to say that I think that we have any true weaknesses.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I would say that you do have a weakness there that I have acknowledged throughout this hearing, is the number of African-Americans students that you all accept into your program. And I've spoken about this, pretty much, with all of the members of the board. But I'm interested in seeing what you all would do to work with into bridge programs with some of the HBCUs in this state, especially South Carolina State, who is of a public HBCU.

MR. CHRISTIAN: I think that the accreditations of the schools are very stringent on what we can do and what we can't do. So, I think we are 10 percent African-Americans --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Are you telling me that the accreditations say you can only have 10 percent African-Americans?

MR. CHRISTIAN: Well, they -- no. I'm telling you that they have to go through a process of, you know, how well they have done in college and how well they've done on other scores, what they've done outside of the school. And then what they're interview is like. So, I think we follow the laws of the accrediting schools that we have to. And I think it has to do with the number of applications that we have. If we have, you know, 10 percent African-Americans that give us applications, then we, you know -- I just think, I know that there's a, you know, 4,000 applications for 160 spots. We have, I always --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I appreciate your answer.

MR. CHRISTIAN: We always acknowledge, I mean, we have the highest male rate, you know, that we have in medical school.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I appreciate your answer. We just disagree on -- I think the college could do more in reference to, and you being a board member could be my voice there to say in the recruiting process to recruit at some of the HBCUs to start a bridge program without, I'm not going to prolong my questions. I think you may have questions from other people. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott?

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you for your willingness to serve. I want to make sure I understand your answer.

MR. CHRISTIAN: Okay.

SENATOR SCOTT: And I know that the MUSC does have a bridge program. And I think -- and I can't speak for other people, but I think the goal is to keep some of the best and brightest home. But also having a very diverse community. Because at the same time MUSC is really changing. You're no longer a school who operates in the large urban area of Charleston. You are now also operating in rural communities of South Carolina, Fairfield County, Marion County, just to name a few. The goal too, also, is to make sure that we are able to get some of these young people to come back and serve in some of the rural communities. They attend med school, through your bridge program, which says they've met the minimum qualification. The goal is not to educate the large percentage of folk from outside of South Carolina. Those days of, are gone as we compete with those in the health care industry. I kind of think that's the direction that we're moving into, especially if you get the schools that operate in the sixteen different counties, to be able to maintain, not only just doctors and also nurses and other health care providers. Right there at the base, you've got Claflin College, who's called TITAN, The Institute of Teaching and Nursing, as y'all coming to Orangeburg. So, just want you to be a lot more aware of what is surrounding you, as you come into these communities, not in Columbia. So, you're a big competitive market in Columbia. And so, the question is, do I educate these young folk and they come in large urban and then they leave me to go some place else. So, we poured a lot of resources in there, of course, they spent their dollars to do it too. But the human resource, knowledge base of the community, we can help make it healthier. I think that's the real conversation, not just to open competitiveness. We got 4,000 applications, but it's all in how you sort through those applicants in order for them be a part of your school.

MR. CHRISTIAN: And I totally agree. There's lot of times that I have students from the PA school, here in Charleston to come up. They're mentoring other people. And you know that these people would be great doctors, but they can't qualify or they can't test well enough to get into medical school and it is an issue. But we're held by the board to be able to find the best people that we can find. And I'm totally with you. I think one of the things that we do here in South Carolina, especially with the Medical University, is we try and get people in the rural areas. And 75 percent of the people that -- or 75 percent of the students that get their GME, we retain in the state. I think Greenwood is a rural area. I'm glad I don't live in Columbia, you know. I had to drive in, you know. I wouldn't want to do that. So, if I have anybody that I can talk into saying, I think Greenwood is a great area, you know, it has everything. It's an hour from Columbia. It's an hour from Greenville. And I do think that we need all these bridge programs. I mean, we have a huge nursing shortage. And we've done everything that we can entice these people. In Greenwood, we have a bridge program with Lander. So, we have assumed taking over their tuition and we're letting them work now in the hospital, hoping that we can retain some of these people. So, we're trying to do everything that we can do. I mean, our goal is to take care of the people of South Carolina. And the only way that we can take care of the people of South Carolina is to have the areas that we can cover, so we can know what's needed in that area. And we are statewide. And we're statewide because we feel like that, we can provide care in that area. And it's not something that we're trying to take over the state, but I would think that, you know, we have a crunch in Charleston for beds. We need other places to be able to put -- you know, we take, we try to take care of the sickest of the sickest in Charleston because that's where the nationally ranked specialists are. So, we have to have these other areas that we can, you know, help the people and, you know, 50 percent of the sickest people in South Carolina are taken care of in Charleston. And I totally agree. I mean health has changed completely in the thirty- something years that I've been doing it. And it's a hard, you have a hard time getting people to -- I mean, trying to recruit a young orthopedist to come to Greenwood is a hard thing. They all want to go to Greenville. They all want to work from 9:00 to 5:00 or whatever, which is not how it works. And so, I'm for any way that we can entice people, you know. All we want is the most qualified, best applicants that we can have.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anybody else? Is there a motion?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, I would move that favorable. I have questions, but I think that for the second time I will do that in another time. So, I would move for favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a motion for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no? (A hand is raised.)

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: One no is noted. You're reported out favorable. Next up is the 4th Congressional District, Thomas L. Stevenson. You come on up, sir and welcome, if you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. THOMAS L. STEPHENSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just give your name and a brief statement.

MR. STEPHENSON: Thomas L. Stevenson. I am a semi- retired lawyer in Greenville. Went to high school in Greenville, went to college down here. And spent my entire career in Greenville. And my privilege to serve on the Board of MUSC, which I think is perhaps the best agency in the state.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. STEPHENSON: Thomas Stevenson.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MR. STEPHENSON: 305 Crescent Avenue in Greenville.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. STEPHENSON: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. STEPHENSON: I was asked that yesterday. I don't recall any. I usually give to Senator Turner, who's my senator and Representative Bannister, who's my House Representative.

MS. WEBB: Okay.

MR. STEPHENSON: I could have.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right. And then are they're any other changes with your application that you like for the members of the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. STEPHENSON: None.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? None?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, again for the sake of time, I've got questions about their expansions and things, but I'm going to withhold those. And be a contact person that would --

MR. STEPHENSON: Y'all going to let me off easy, huh?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Tommy, you want some questions?

SENATOR SCOTT: Well, since you're there.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Move for favorable, all those in favor, signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. STEPHENSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Because the Senators are on a real short schedule, we're going to take up the issue we had last night with Mr. --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Can we finish this last one, this last one?
SC STATE:

MR. CHAIRMAN: You want to do it really quick? Okay. I'll just, we'll do it. All right. SC State, 7th Congressional District, Starlee, I hope I'm pronouncing that right, Alexander. Welcome, if you'll raise your right, I'll swear you in. STARLEE ALEXANDER, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Welcome and give your name and a brief statement.

MS. ALEXANDER: My name is Starlee Alexander. It's a pleasure to be here with you today, after being delayed in the airport last night until 12:00 o'clock, but I'm here. I have served on the Board of Trustees since 2018. I'm a proud graduate of Florida A&M University. And I have a State Farm Insurance Agency in Florence, South Carolina. I'm honored to be on the board and would like to continue to serve on the board to help with the underscoring and the recent accomplishments and achievements that the university has started. And I would like to be a part of that. I feel that the HBCUs and South Carolina State is a special institution with regard to carrying on family legacies and the quality of education for our students. I am proud and I would like to accomplish more this term with the school and the university to continue the great achievements. Thank you.

MS. WEBB: I thank you and once again for the record, will you please state your first and last name?

MS. ALEXANDER: Starlee Alexander.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MS. ALEXANDER: 1646 Harris Court, Florence, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MS. ALEXANDER: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. ALEXANDER: No, I have not.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for members of the Commission to be made aware of?

MS. ALEXANDER: No, not at this time.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Do I have a motion?

SENATOR SCOTT: For favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: For favorable. All those in favor, signify by saying aye? (Ayes were heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed? (No reply was heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MS. ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for serving. All right. Now, we'll go back to the carry over from last night. And that was Winthrop 4th Congressional District, Edward Driggers. Any of the members have any comments right now?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I think the dialog last night was helpful, that and carrying it over. But I think with further consideration I would move that Mr. Edward Driggers for the 4th District, for the seat at Winthrop, would be found qualified.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. We will take a, raising our hands for the -- since there's probably some folks that may have an issue on that. So, all those in favor for a favorable, please raise your right hand? (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Five, is that correct? All those against? (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Two. Okay. So, Edward Driggers is reported out favorable with a minority decision on that. That is all we have. I thank you members of the Commission for your hard work. And I appreciate you coming in on Monday. So, I guess we are done until next year, maybe, I don't -- no commitments by anybody yet. So, stay safe.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have a question.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Because I was asked by one of the candidates, they can, you know, acknowledge that they are running, they just can't get any commitments, am I correct?

MS. WEBB: They can give out, like, information and say, yes, I am running for the seat.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Correct. Okay.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Personal information, but they cannot solicit a vote from members until they are officially released.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: They can just say that they are running, that's it. Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anything else? Okay. We're adjourned. Thank you, Mr. President, Senators. Thank you, Representatives. (There being nothing further, the proceeding concluded at 10:54 a.m.)

H. 3769--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3769 -- Reps. Ligon, B. Newton, O'Neal, Chumley, Haddon, Magnuson, Harris, Sandifer and Neese: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 5-31-1525 SO AS TO PROHIBIT THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL FROM DENYING THE REPAIR, REPLACEMENT, OR CONSTRUCTION OF WELLS AND SEPTIC TANKS ON CERTAIN RURAL LANDS REGARDLESS OF THE AVAILABILITY OF MUNICIPAL WATER AND SEWER SERVICE.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3769 (LC-3769.PH0005H), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 1 and inserting:

SECTION X. Chapter 1, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-1-320. The Department of Health and Environmental Control shall not deny a property owner the right to repair and replace
