This fiscal impact statement is produced in compliance with the South Carolina Code of Laws and House and Senate rules. The focus of the analysis is on governmental expenditure and revenue impacts and may not provide a comprehensive summary of the legislation.

Bill Number:	H. 3603	Introduced on January 14, 2025
Subject:	Domestic Violence
Requestor:	House Judiciary
RFA Analyst(s):	Vesely
Impact Date:	April 1, 2025

Fiscal Impact Summary

This bill changes the definition for a household member to add persons who are currently or have been in a dating relationship, which expands the classes of persons who may petition for an order of protection pursuant to §20-4-40. This bill also modifies who may petition for an order of protection on behalf of a household minor.

Based on a response to similar legislation, this bill may result in an increased caseload in family and magistrate courts, however, Judicial anticipates any increase in caseload should be able to be managed using existing resources.

Additionally, the increase in caseloads in family and magistrate courts may result in an increase in the fines and fees collected in court. Court fines and fees are distributed to the General Fund, Other Funds, and local funds. Therefore, Revenue and Fiscal Affairs (RFA) anticipates this bill may result in an increase to General Fund, Other Funds, and local revenue due to the increase in fines and fees collections in court.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 14, 2025

State Expenditure

This bill changes the definition for a household member to add persons who are currently or have been in a dating relationship, which expands the classes of persons who may petition for an order of protection. Additionally, this bill specifies that a parent, guardian, custodian, legal counsel, or other appropriate adult may petition the court for an order of protection on behalf of a household minor. Currently, any household member may petition the court for this order of protection for a minor.

Based on a response to similar legislation, this bill may result in an increased caseload in family and magistrate courts, however, Judicial anticipates any increase in caseload should be able to be managed using existing resources.

State Revenue

This bill may increase the caseload in family and magistrate courts. This may result in an increase in the fines and fees collected in court. Court fines and fees are distributed to the General Fund, Other Funds, and local funds. Therefore, RFA anticipates this bill may result in an increase to General Fund and Other Funds revenue due to the increase in fines and fees collections in court.

Local Expenditure

This bill may increase the caseload in family and magistrate courts; however, RFA anticipates any increase in caseload due to this bill can be managed within existing local resources for the magistrates court.

Local Revenue

This bill may increase the caseload in family and magistrate courts. This may result in an increase in the fines and fees collected in court. Court fines and fees are distributed to the General Fund, Other Funds, and local funds. Therefore, RFA anticipates this bill may result in an increase to local revenue due to the increase in fines and fees collections in court.
