Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 1:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Exodus 4:10

We read in Exodus that: "Moses said to the Lord, 'O my Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor even now that you have spoken to your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.' "

Friends, let us pray: Holy God, we come today to this Senate Chamber finding ourselves filled with questions about whether we, like Moses, can possibly speak meaningfully, much less eloquently. How might we as members of this Senate ever convince colleagues of the virtues of our viewpoint, of the worth of our ideas? But of course, the simple reality is that merely "saying" words can never be a true measure of our caring, of our sincerity, of that which really matters. After all, what always matters most, gracious Lord, is that we Senators and aides ultimately follow Your way, and that we hold fast to Your truth. For only by doing so might we as leaders ever truly bring about the very best for the people of this State we love. Grant us all the gift to be able to do just that, O Lord. We so pray in Your loving name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
