The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Jeremiah 29:11

In Jeremiah we read that the Lord says: “ ‘For I know the plans I have for you. . . plans for your welfare and not for harm, plans to give you a future and hope.’ ”

Friends, let us pray: Most Holy God, over and over each day we find ourselves catching the world’s latest headlines there on our devices, and quite frequently we inevitably say to ourselves or to another, “Oh, my goodness.” And it is no surprise that we so react; after all, this tumultuous period we are living through is certainly challenging. Yet, dear Lord, I believe that pushing a panic button is rarely the way to respond. Rather, each one of us in such moments needs more than ever to trust in You. So, dear Lord, today I pray that You will remind these Senators, their staff aides, and, indeed, all of us that Your plans for our future are ultimately full of hope. Consequently, by Your grace may all of us trust fully in that which you promise -- thereby doing what is right. And also, O God, we ask that You will keep safe all of our citizens as challenging if not menacing weather days loom ahead this weekend. Enfold us all in Your tender care. In Your loving name do we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
